RE: Speedy Trial / Trial Date set / Writ of Habeas Corpus Release because of Delay.
Trial Court Case No. 2014CR2945
COCCA No. 04-14-00580CR / PD 1241-14
Style: State of Texas V. Steven M. Craig.

Abel Acosta:

Pursuant to Section 17.151 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. Petioner should be Released from Incarceration. Section 17.151 states in part a defendant who is detained in jail pending trial of an accusation against him must be released either on personal bond or by reducing the amount of bail required, if the state is not ready for trial for the criminal action for which he is being detained: Defendant has been incarcerated pertaining to above Trial Court Case No. 2014CR2945 for more than 1 year and has at all times been prepared for Trial, and the delay has been no fault of the defendant.

Further, Pursuant to the VI Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, In all Criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the Right to a speedy Trial and Public Trial, by an "Impartial" Jury of the State and District where in the Crime shall have been Committed.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant Prays that the Court Grants any and all Relief IN Connection therewith that Is proper and Just.

Respectfully Submitted
