STATEMENT REQUESTING ORAL ARGUMENT

Petitioner believes strongly that oral argument would be helpful to the Court in assisting them in deciphering exactly what occured during the January 23, 2014 arrignment/plea hearing that was recorded yet not made part of the appellate record. Further, oral argument is necessary to make the Court aware of the harm and prejudice caused to the petitioner by not allowing the issues and Constitutional violations which occured during that hearing to be raised on Direct Appeal to the Appellate Court.

Petitioner believes oral argument should be permitted to reveal how the Court of Appeals erred in its fact finding, determinations thereof, and in the denials of pro se motions and requests to show documentary or otherwise evidence from either the Appellate Record or the Dallas Co. Judicial System Electronic Docket sheets, that, the January 23, 2014 hearing did in fact take place, was recorded by the Court Reporter, and that portion of the Appellate Record is lost and or missing. Petitioner has shown due diligence by requesting these transcripts from the Court Reporter of the 283rd District Court, the Trial Court, as well as the 5th Court of Appeals, and attempted to properly address the issue of the lost portions of the transcript prior to the submission of the substantively defective Anders Brief.

Petitioner intends to argue how his repeated requests for evidentuary hearing, which are the generaly accepted and usual course of jurisprudence in such situations. For these reasons, Petitioner respectfully requests oral argument be granted.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On June 26, 2013, Petitioner, Reginald Pink (Pink) was convicted of robbery, two aggravated robbery w/ deadly weapon, and one aggravated assault on a public servant in the 283rd Judicial District Court of Dallas County, Texas. The trial Court assessed punishment as LIFE imprisonment in each case. Petitioner appealed the convictions, and appellate counsel filed an Anders brief. On May 26, 2015 the 5th Court of Appeals filed a memorandum opinion affirming the convictions.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On May 26, 2015, Petitioner Received notification of Opinion and Judgment from the 5th Court of Appeals, informing him that his convictions had been modified and affirmed. On July 10, 2015, Petitioner filed a motion for rehearing with the Court of Appeals. On August 3, 2015 Petitioner received the Order from the 5th Court of Appeals denying the rehearing.

GROUND FOR REVIEW NUMBER ONE

The Court of Appeals erroneously affirmed petitioner's conviction holding that the Anders Brief represents a professional evaluation of the Appellate Record and meets the requirements of Anders v. California.

ARGUMENT:

The Court of Appeals erred in affirming the convictions based on an Anders brief that was based on appellate counsel's evaluation of an incomplete appellate record which was void of transcripts from an arringment/plea hearing held on January 23, 2014, where issues to be raised on direct appeal occured. These transcripts have been diligently sought in Pro Se motions to the Court of Appeals making the Court aware of the issue of lost and/or missing portions of the Appellate Record prior to counsel's submitted Anders brief. All such pro se motions were denied. Review should be granted based simply on the Court of Appeals decision to affirm on an incomplete appellate record, and any evaluation ignores the record and evidence giving rise to meritorious issues that could be raised therefrom. (see Appendix Exhibits 3, 4, 5, & 6, as well as Dallas Co. Judicial Sys. docket sheets Ex. 2). These are documentary evidence, by a preponderance of the evidence, that a hearing occured on January 23, 2014 and should have been recorded at the request of the parties and/or as a matter of regular Rules of Court.

The Court of Appeals decision to affirm departs so far from the usual course of jurisprudence as to call for the exercise of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals powers of supervision, for the fundamental reason that an incomplete record makes any brief invalid, therefore, the Anders brief filed in this case does not meet the requirements of Anders v. California 386 U.S. 738 (67') for the fact it is based on an incomplete Appellate Record and the petitioner was not afforded an adequate opportunity to respond. (see Gianous v. State 436 S.W.2d 137 (Tex. Crim. App. 1969).

GROUND FOR REVIEW NUMBER TWO

The Court of Appeals erred in its decisions denying multiple pro se motions and requests for evidentiary hearing to resolve the issue of the lost/missing transcripts and docket sheets being evidence of lost/missing portion of the Appellate Record.

ARGUMENT:

Careful review would show all petitioner's pro se motions were not fairly evaluated, thusly, the Court of Appeals erred in denying the requested evidentuary hearing and ignoring the federally recognized standard entitling the petitioner to such a hearing when he can show clearly and convincingly with the evidence presented, (see appendix exhibits) that its reasonable the proceedings in which he refers are to have taken place. (see also 28 U.S.C. §2254). The Federal Courts have set the precedence in holding that petitioner is entitled to an evidentuary hearing in cases such as these. (see Dalton v. Battaglia 402 F.3d 729, 736 (7th Cir. 2005); Hall v. Quarterman 543 F.3d 365, 367-69 (5th Cir. 2008; Woodcock v. McCauley 563 F.2d 806, 808-09 (7th Cir.); Jackson v. Estelle 570 F.2d 546, 547 (5th Cir. 1978); and Harich v. Wainwright 813 F.2d 1082, 1090 (11th Cir. 1987). Petitioner submitted exhibits 2-6 in his requests for an evidentiary hearing, and argues that the Dallas County Judicial System Electronic Docket Sheets in and of themselves entitled him to an evidentiary hearing. The above cited cases are examples of how the Appellate Courts decision denying petitioner's properly presented motions departed from the precedence in the proceedings creating a fundamentally unfair environment and depriving him of due process so as to call for the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals to exercise its power of supervision.

For these reasons the Court should grant review.

GROUND FOR REVIEW NUMBER THREE

The Court of Appeals erroneously confirmed the convictions holding that, petitioner was given a copy of the Appellate Record, advised of his right to file a Pro Se response to the Anders brief, but failed to do so.

ARGUMENT:

The petitioner was not given a "complete" copy of the Appellate Record by either Counsel or the Court when counsel's Anders brief was filed as required. (see Kelly v. State 436 S.W.3d 313, 316, 318, 319-21 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014). Therefore, petitioner was not able to properly respond without the lost/missing portion of the appellate record containing the hearing on Jan. 23, 2014 encompassing the constitutional violations to be raised on appeal. Depriving petitioner of a "complete" record after due diligence requests also nullifies any opportunity to adequately respond to counsel's Anders brief. (see Gianous v. State 436 S.W.2d 137 (Tex. Crim. App. 1969). In an attempt to obtain a complete record of the actual proceedings petitioner sought and was granted a 30 day extension of time to file his response to counsel's brief. In this time petitioner utilized all of his resources to gain a copy of the Dallas Co. Judicial Sys. Docket Sheets, (see Ex.2). The Court Advised petitioner to reply by the Feb. 4, 2015 deadline, however, his evidence was yet to be received and timely requested an additional extension as other state agencies were less that expedicious in relinquishing the requested documentary evidence that would show that a hearing did in fact transpire as insisted upon by the petitioner. Irregardless of petitioner's "just cause" the 5th Court of Appeals denied the motion for the second extension. A denial after a showing of good or just cause conflicts with the decisions of other Courts on the same issue, who generally grant pro se litigants second request for extension when making a showing of just cause as petitioner in this case.

This consequently, denied petitioner his guaranteed constitutional right of appeal. These aforementioned issues caused egregious harm and prejudice and created procedural defaults and errors petitioner sought to raise on direct appeal. This also created a legal prejudice affecting collateral review of these errors which could be supported by the lost/missing transcripts. It is alleged these transcripts are being held by the trial Court leaving the Appellate Record incomplete. Petitioner made the Appeals Court aware of these issues in his submissions, hence are judicially noticed. (see Tex. R. App. Proc. 38.9 (b) making the Anders brief substantively defective).

For these reasons review should be granted.

GROUND FOR REVIEW NUMBER FOUR

The Court of Appeals erred in holding thet it reviewed the record, counsel's brief and petitioner's pro se motions and finding nothing in the record that might arguably support the appeal.

ARGUMENT:

The Court of Appeals erred in its investigation, review, and determinarion of the Appellate Record and petitioner's pro se motions filed. A close and exhaustive review of the submitted record reveals undisputedly in comments made by the trial Court Judge, (see Ex. 3), the lead prosecutor, (see Ex. 6) and the petitioner, (see Exs. 4 & 5) which were made in a Feb. 3, 2014 proceeding show unquestionably that a hearing was held prior to the 2.3.14 hearing and was held on the record. The transcripts of the "hearing" prior to 2.3.14 are not included in the submitted Appellate Record, thusly, the Court of Appeals could not have reviewed them. The certified copies of the Docket sheets, (see Ex. 2) and petitioner's motions, in the very least, gives rise that the Court of Appeals review was not based on a "complete Appellate Record", and any determination thereon arguably removes subject matter jurisdiction, hence, voiding the resulting determination. The references made in the record submitted reflect other record portions not included, clear and convincing evidence that the record in fact is incomplete. Affirming a case with an incomplete record conflicts with precedence set under substantially similar circumstances of other Courts of Appeals. (see Ortiz v. State 862 S.W.2d 170 (Tx. App. 4th Dist. 1993); also Emery v. State 800 S.W.2d 530-33 (Tx. Crim. App. 1990); Dunn v. State 733 S.W. 2d 212-214 (Tx. Crim. App. 1987); Harris v. State 790 S.W.2d 568 (Tx. Crim. App.), holding that it has long been the rule in Texas that when an appellant, through no fault of his own or his counsel's is deprived of a portion of the statement of facts [the appellate record] which he diligently requested, the appellate Court cannot affirm. (see Tex. R. App. Proc. 34.6).

For these reasons review should be granted.

CONCLUSION

Petitioner, Reginald K. Pink, in the above and foregoing information has shown the Court that issues exist, namely in the lost/missing transcripts, which would show constitutional violations that could have been presented on direct appeal. Petitioner alleges these constitutional violations are specifically:

1. petitioner's counsel, admitted in open Court, that he purposely did not tell petitioner all his rights;
2. trial counsel refused petitioner's requests to do any investigation because he believed petitioner to be guilty;
3. trial counsel refused to file any motions on petitioner's behalf claiming it would be a waste of the Court's money;
4. petitioner and trial counsel, due to counsel's opinions of petitioner continuously on the record and off the record had conflicts of interests, such as: a) counsel refused to provide petitioner copies of police reports related to the causes; b) counsel refused to thoroughly explain the elements of the indictments and the repercussions thereof; c) counsel's request to the Court to force petitioner to give a plea;

5. the Trial Court's refusal to grant petitioner's repeated requests for appointment of different counsel, responding "its not your counsel's fault we are here," and indicating he agreed with counsel's assessments;

6. the trial Court's denials violated petitioner's 6th and 14th guaranteed constitutional right to effective representation and due process.

Petitioner alleges there are other issues/violations but without the record cannot effectively cite nor argue them. For these reasons the Court should grant review.

PRAYER

Wherefore premises having been duly considered, Reginald K. Pink, petitioner pro se, humbly and respectfully prays that the Honorable Court would grant his Petition for Discretionary Review. Petitioner seeks to have the record developed so as to include the portions that were intentionally or unintentionally not admitted as part of the Appellate Record, and once the record is whole he be permitted appointed counsel and new direct appeal of the above cited issues. Further, petitioner respectfully requests he be granted any general relief the Court deems appropriate or to which he is entitled under either Federal or Texas law.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Francis, Lang-Miers, and Whitehill
Opinion by Justice Lang-Miers

Reginald Keith Pink appeals his convictions for robbery, two aggravated robbery with a deadly weapon offenses, and one aggravated assault on a public servant offense. See TEX. PENAL CODE ANN. §§ 22.02(a)(2), 29.02(a)(2), 29.03(a)(2) (West 2011). The trial court assessed punishment, enhanced by two prior felony convictions, at life imprisonment in each case. On appeal, appellant's attorney filed a brief in which he concludes the appeals are wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). The brief presents a professional evaluation of the record showing why, in effect, there are no arguable grounds to advance. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807, 811–12 (Tex. Crim. App. [Panel Op.] 1978). Counsel delivered a copy of the brief to appellant. We advised appellant of his right to file a pro se response, but he did not file a pro se response. See Kelly v. State, 436 S.W.3d 313, 319–21 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014) (identifying duties of appellate courts and counsel in Anders cases). Appellant did, however, file several pro se motions.

We have reviewed the record, counsel's brief, and appellant's pro se motions. See Bledsoe v. State, 178 S.W.3d 824, 826–27 (Tex. Crim. App. 2005) (explaining appellate court's duty in Anders cases). We agree the appeals are frivolous and without merit. We find nothing in the record that might arguably support the appeals.

Although not an arguable issue, we note the judgments in cause nos. 05-14-00877-CR and 05-14-00879-CR do not correctly reflect appellant's pleas to, nor the trial court's findings on, the enhancement paragraphs. In each case, appellant pleaded true to two enhancement paragraphs alleging prior felony convictions, and the trial court found the enhancement paragraphs true. The judgment adjudicating guilt in cause no. 05-14-00877-CR contains no reference to the enhancement paragraphs and the judgment in cause no. 05-14-00879-CR states "N/A" in the sections regarding the first enhancement paragraph. As a result, the judgments are incorrect. Accordingly, we modify the judgment adjudicating guilt in cause no. 05-14-00877-CR to show that appellant pleaded true to the first and second enhancement paragraphs and the trial court found the paragraphs are true. We modify the trial court's judgment in cause no. 05-14-00879-CR to show appellant pleaded true to the first enhancement paragraph and the trial court found the paragraph true. See TEX. R. APP. P. 43.2(b); Bigley v. State, 865 S.W.2d 26, 27–28 (Tex. Crim. App. 1993); Asberry v. State, 813 S.W.2d 526, 529–30 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1991, pet. ref'd).

In cause nos. 05-14-00878-CR and 05-14-00880-CR, we affirm the trial court's judgments. In cause nos. 05-14-00877-CR and 05-14-00879-CR, we affirm the trial court's judgments as modified.
