Procedural History

Petitioner was convicted June 12, 2014 of the offense of continuous sexual abuse of a child in the 75th Judicial District court Liberty County, Liberty Texas 77575. Petitioner pled Not Guilty. The Jury Found Petitioner Guilty as charged. The Honorable Judge Mark Morefield pronounced the sentence Life Confinement in Texas Department of Criminal Justice Institutional Division also Fined. Petitioner's Appointed Attorney filed a timely Direct Appeal with the Fourteenth Court of Appels Houston, Texas 77002. The Court of Appeals Affirmed The Trial Courts decision on August 13, 2015 cause No: 14-14-00530-CR Petitioner filed a Pro-se Petitioner for A Discretionary Review on September 18, 2015 PD-1213-15 on November 4, 2015. Petitioner's Pro-se Petition for Discretionary Review was refused. Petitioner filed Pro-se a Motion for Rehearing and was rejected For Non-Comdiance under Rule

· 79.2 (c) T.R.A.P. on November 20, 2015.

Petitioner Since has sought out a Paralegal's Guidance from henceforth, due to his ignorance to the Law. Although Petitioner Parks has shown due dilligence his futile Attempts have been fruitless.

Honorable Abel Acosta, Petitioner Parks Pleads with this Honorable Court of Appeals and prays it will allow his counterpart (Paralegal) to Refile his Motion for Rehearing in Compliance with the local Rules of the court 79.1 T.R.A.P. This Pleading is not intended to delay any proceedings and will be brought in good faith.

Petitioner Parks prays this Honorable Court Grants him a chance to Prove his Case Does have Merit and Allows him the opportunity to refile his Motion for a rehearing.

Respectfully Submitted
