Abel Acosta, Clerk

V.

The State of Texas

Appellee

Appellant Appeal cause no. 07-12-00454-CR From the 426th Judicial District Court of Bell County

Frist Motion for extension of time to file ~~Out~~ ELT - for appellant P.D.R. pro se Response

To THE Honorable Justice of The Court of Criminal Appeals

Come now Eric Laval Thomoson, Appellant pro se and respectfully moves the Court to extend the deadline for filing a P.D.R. response by thirty days

I.

This is Appellant first request for extension. Appellant is unable to meet the deadline for the following reason. Due to Thanksgiving holiday appellant didn't receive the opinion to file an out-of-time P.D.R. until after the Thanksgiving holiday. The opinion was delivered: November 25, 2015 30 days from this date fall on the Christmas holiday, which limit appellant access to the law library.

For the ~~reson~~ reason stated, Appellant respectfully requests an an additional thirty days to complete the pro se P.D.R response in support of appellant's appeal / P.D.R.

Appellant prays that the Court grant this motion and extend the time to file Appellant's pro se P.D.R. response by thirty days, extending the deadline to 30 or 45 days

Respectfully submitted
