II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only these types of cases can be heard in federal court: a dispute that involves a right in the United States Constitution or a federal law (as opposed to a state law or local ordinance); a dispute that involves the United States of America (or any of its agencies, officers or employees in their official capacities) as a party; and a dispute between citizens of different states with an amount in controversy that is more than $75,000.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☒ Constitutional or Federal Question ☒ USA Defendant ☒ Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.
