RE: 24-8024, Custodia Bank v. Federal Reserve Board of Governors, et al
Dist/Ag docket: 1:22-CV-00125-SWS

Dear Counsel:

Our records indicate that you are not currently a member of the Tenth Circuit Bar. In that regard, please note 10th Circuit Rule 46.2, which states:

All attorneys, not previously admitted to the bar of this court, immediately upon filing a case or entering an appearance in a case in this Court, shall obtain from the clerk the necessary forms for admission upon written motion and shall promptly execute and return them. No attorney who has appeared in a case in this Court may withdraw without consent of the court.

You may access the Application for Admission form from our website at <https://www.ca10.uscourts.gov/attorney-admissions-and-certificates-good-standing>. Applications should be submitted through the court's electronic filing system. Instructions for doing so can be found at the link above. The fee for processing an application for admission is $225.00. That fee is waived if you represent the United States or any federal agency, or have been appointed by the court to represent a party on appeal. See 10th Cir. R. 46.2(B).

You must complete and submit your application within 30 days of the date of this letter, as the failure to become admitted to the bar of the Tenth Circuit may result in your being stricken from this case.

Please contact this office if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Christopher M. Wolpert
