to presume for right now, for the sake of simplicity, the '253 is the one I worked on and take your representation that you have the information that shows that I did that.

Q Yeah.

A If that's true, it might have even been this '253 patent --

Q Okay.

A -- that I talked to him about.

09:57 Q Okay. So in the last year, when you've spoken to him, why -- have you billed him for your time, Mr. Lin?

A I believe I did. I didn't say it was in the last year, though.

Q Okay. You said -- I'm kind of moving on to a different set of communications. I understand that wasn't clear.

You previously indicated that within the past year you've had several attorney-client communications with Mr. Lin, right?

A I didn't say "several," but I have had some, yes.

Q And have you charged Mr. Lin for those communications?

A I don't recall, but I don't believe I did.

EXHIBIT F

Q Okay. Why not?
A I'm not going to answer that question because I believe that would reveal attorney-client privileged information.
Q How does that involve revealing attorney-client --
A Well, I believe any communications I have had with Mr. Lin have been attorney-client privileged, and what you're asking me now is why I didn't bill him for my communication?
Q Yes.
A I think that is a privileged information.
Q How does that represent an attorney-client privilege?
A I'm claiming that as privileged information and I'm going to refuse to answer based on that claim.
Q Okay. Well, we can address that at a later point.
Have you worked on any litigation involving Mr. Lin or any of his entities that he owns?
A Have I worked on any litigation? Again, just to give your word "work" a broad definition, I mean, I consider what I'm doing right now work even though I'm not getting paid for it. This is related to his entity, so, in that respect, yes.

Q Okay.
A I know, if you want to ask a more specific question, maybe --
Q Sure.
Well, separate and apart from appearing at the deposition today, have you done any work for Mr. Lin in connection with any litigation brought by Mr. Lin or any of his entities?
A Not that I know of, no.
09:59 Q Okay. Had you prepared any materials in anticipation of any litigation for Mr. Lin?
A I believe so, yes.
Q Okay. Which ones would those be?
A Specifically the documents?
Q Yes.
A I think almost everything I did for him was prepared in anticipation of litigation when I was working for him.
Q So in your view, preparing patent prosecution
10:00 documents is done in anticipation of litigation?
A When you say "patent prosecution documents," do you mean, for example, drafting the patent application?
Q Sure.
A It can be. In a sense it is, yes.

EXHIBIT E

Q Well -- okay. So it is your position that the documentation you prepared in connection with the prosecution of patents for Mr. Lin was done in anticipation of litigation?

A In general, they can be. In my case, if you're asking me when I was preparing the patent application for Mr. Lin, was that done in anticipation of litigation --

Q That's my question.

10:01 A Is that the specific question you're asking?

Q Yes.

A I believe that it was, yes.

Q What litigation?

A There was no litigation in place at the time.

Q Well, what litigation was it done in anticipation of?

A It was in anticipation of some litigation.

Q Against who?

A I don't know that there was a specific entity

10:01 in mind at the time.

Q Okay.

MR. ANDERSON: Microsoft would request that Mr. Cohen and plaintiff's counsel reconsider their assertion of work product in light of that statement.

Re: Performance Pricing, Inc. v. Google Inc. et al.

Dear Christin:

I write to summarize our telephone conference of March 13, 2009.

First, we discussed the HomeGopher server currently stored in Wayne Lin's garage. You stated that the server was prepared for sale in 2002, and that as a result of this preparation Mr. Lin believes there is no information on the server. However, Mr. Lin does not have the capabilities to confirm this. Therefore, you will have a data recovery service look at the server, to see if any information can be recovered. You stated that Mr. Lin is currently out of town until March 23, but you are working to get access to the server in advance of his return. Please keep us updated on the status of the data recovery service's work on the server, including the efforts used to recover data from the server.

Second, you stated that you now had the cellular phone containing an embodiment of U.S. Patent No. 6,978,253 that was created for Mr. Lin. You indicated that this phone was a Nokia, but did not have any additional model information. You are working on finding a charger for the phone. If you are unable to do so, you stated that you could then send the phone to your data recovery service, to work on recovering the program from the phone. Please keep us updated on your search for a charger, and if necessary the data recovery service's work on the phone.

Third, you are working on gaining access to Mr. Lin's financial documents. However, you stated that Mr. Lin is out of town until March 23. Therefore, you have not yet been able to gain access to these documents. Please let us know when you have gained access to the documents, and after you have completed your review of them.

Fourth, you stated that you have an original of the notarized document produced as part of the documents at P000368-400. You agreed to send us a better copy of this document, with appropriate page break. However, you stated that you cannot make better copies of the other documents in the range P000368-400, as you do not have originals of the handwritten drawings. I explained that we may want to send someone to inspect these documents at a later time.

Fifth, we discussed the issue of documents related the E-Dynamix Software. You stated that the E-Dynamix Software package was never created, and that there are no documents related to E-Dynamix Software.

Sixth, we discussed the general issue of the extent of Mr. Lin's search of his garage for materials responsive to the subpoenas served on him and PricePlay. You stated that you did ask him to search his garage again.

Seventh, we discussed Neal Cohen's planned revisions to his privilege log produced in this matter. You stated that Mr. Cohen would address the first issue raised in my February 24 letter, revising entries that improperly claimed work product protection. You also stated that Mr. Cohen would address the third issue raised, separately logging each document rather than grouping documents together on the log. You also stated that Mr. Cohen would address the fourth issue I had raised, regarding entries without any apparent "client."

With regard to the second issue raised, you indicated that you believed some of the Defendants' privilege log descriptions were similar to those used by Mr. Cohen, and therefore asked Defendants to reconsider their position on this issue. We do not have the other Defendants' privilege logs, but do not believe there is any inconsistency in our position. However, we will look at Mr. Cohen's revised privilege log after the other issues have been addressed, and then consider whether additional revisions need to be made to the descriptions.

With regard to the fifth issue raised, you stated that you had not yet considered this issue, and promised to get back to me after discussing with Mr. Cohen. As pointed out in my February 24 letter, you had agreed during the deposition of Mr. Cohen to provide us with the information that would be on a privilege log for the retention agreement between Mr. Cohen and Dovel & Luner. We therefore expect to see this information on Mr. Cohen's revised privilege log.

EXHIBIT G

As always, we remain willing to meet and confer to resolve any discovery issues, and hope that you similarly remain willing to work together on these issues in a timely and efficient manner. If you believe that a live discussion would be helpful, we are available to do so.

Cordially,

/s/ Emily C. O'Brien
