v 1913

An act concerning the Kaskaskia Indians.

1814.

Whereas a former law of this legislature has been found insufficient to prevent evil disposed persons from selling and giving intoxicating drinks to the Kaskaskia Indians, or from cheating and defrauding the said Indians, out of their property by pretended or real purchases, and whereas the former practice is productive of disorder, and other pernicious consequences, and the latter a violation of moral justice and good policy: for remedy thereof,

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Council and House of Representatives, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if any white person or free person of colour either male or female shall hereafter without license from the Governor as superintendent of Indian affairs within this territory, or from some sub-agent appointed by him, either sell or give to any Kaskaskia Indian or any other Indian, residing with them, any quantity of whiskey, gin, brandy, rum, cider or any other intoxicating drink, such per-
