Case No: 1:21-cr-00022 NONE/SKO

STIPULATION TO CONTINUE NOVEMBER
19, 2021 STATUS CONFERENCE TO DECEMBER 2, 2021; ORDER

19
20 This case is set for a status conference on November 19, 2021. Dkt. 55. On May 13, 2020, this
21 Court issued General Order 618, which suspended all jury trials in the Eastern District of California
22 “until further notice.” Under General Order 618, a judge “may exercise his or her authority to continue
23 matters, excluding time under the Speedy Trial Act with reference to the court’s prior General Order 611
24 issued on March 17, 2020 . . . with additional findings to support the exclusion in the Judge’s
25 discretion.” General Order 618, ¶ 6 (E.D. Cal. May 13, 2020). In addition, any judge “may order case-
26 by-case exceptions” to General Order 618’s provisions “at the discretion of that Judge or upon the 27 request of counsel, after consultation with counsel and the Clerk of the Court to the extent such an order
28

1 will impact court staff and operations.” General Order 618, ¶ 7 (E.D. Cal. May 13, 2020). This and
2 previous General Orders were entered to address public health concerns related to COVID-19.

3 Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has 4 emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act’s end-of-justice provision “counteract[s] substantive
5 openendedness with procedural strictness,” “demand[ing] on-the-record findings” in a particular case.
6 Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). “[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no
7 exclusion under” § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 8 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a 9 judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record “either orally 10 or in writing”).

11 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory
12 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, 617, and 618 require specific supplementation. Ends-of-13 justice continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his 14 findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and 15 the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable 16 unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that 17 the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public 18 and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

19 The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code 20 T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, 21 natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such 22 circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance 23 following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court
24 recognized that the eruption created “appreciable difficulty” for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-69; see
25 also United States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time 26 following the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency).

27 ///

1 The coronavirus is posing a similar, albeit much more enduring, “appreciable difficulty” to the 2 prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules. Recently, the Ninth Circuit enumerated a “non-
3 exhaustive” list of seven factors it found to be “relevant” in considering ends-of-justice Speedy Trial Act
4 continuances “in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic.” United States v. Olsen, --- F.3d ---, 2021 WL
5 1589359 at *7 (9th Cir. Apr. 23, 2021). That non-exhaustive list includes: (1) whether a defendant is 6 detained pending trial; (2) how long a defendant has been detained; (3) whether a defendant has invoked
7 speedy trial rights since the case’s inception; (4) whether a defendant, if detained, belongs to a
8 population that is particularly susceptible to complications if infected with the virus; (5) the seriousness
9 of the charges defendant faces, and in particular whether the defendant is accused of violent crimes; (6)
10 whether there is a reasons to suspect recidivism if the charges against the defendant are dismissed; and 11 (7) whether the district court has the ability to safely conduct a trial. Id.

12 In light of the foregoing, this Court should consider the following case-specific facts in finding 13 excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-justice exception, § 3161(h)(7)
14 (Local Code T4). If continued, this Court should designate a new date for this matter’s next status
15 conference. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any pretrial 16 continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

17 STIPULATION

18 THE PARTIES HEREBY STIPULATE, through their respective attorneys of record, Assistant 19 United States Attorney Brian W. Enos, counsel for the government, and Peter M. Jones, counsel for 20 defendant Nathan Daniel Larson (“defendant”), that this action’s Friday, November 19, 2021 status
21 conference be continued to Thursday, December 2, 2021, at 9:00 a.m. The parties likewise ask the 22 court to endorse this stipulation by way of formal order.

23 The parties base this stipulation on good cause. Specifically,

- 24 1. On May 19, 2021, the government filed a motion for (1) a mental examination to determine
25 defendant’s competency, as well as a (2) subsequent competency hearing. Dkt. 24. On June 26 2, 2021, defense counsel filed a response brief, wherein it joined in the government’s motion 27 and further asked the court to order defendant’s sanity likewise to be examined, pursuant to 28

1 18 U.S.C. § 4242(a), at the same time as the competency examination. Dkt. 31, 1:26-28 and 2 7:8-12.

3 2. On June 11, 2021, the court held a hearing on the above motions, and granted them after 4 hearing and considering the views of counsel for both parties, as well as defendant. Dkts. 42
5 and 44. As a result, the court ordered defendant “committed to the custody of the U.S.
6 Bureau of Prisons for the period of examination for placement in a suitable facility, and the 7 U.S. Marshal’s Service is directed to transfer him to a suitable facility for examination, with 8 the court recommending a suitable facility within a reasonable proximity to this District.”
9 Dkt. 44, 2:18-22. The court also set a status conference for July 23, 2021 to discuss the 10 status of defendant’s above examinations. Dkt. 42.

11 3. By June 23, 2021, counsel had heard from the Bureau of Prisons’ Lisa Matthews, Chief 12 Psychologist at the Bureau of Prison’s Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) in Los 13 Angeles, wherein she (1) advised that defendant had been designated to MDC-LA and (2)
14 asked for various types of records from the parties to assist with the examinations.

15 4. On August 30, this court’s chambers and counsel for both parties received a note that Dr.
16 Samantha Shelton of MDC-LA had directed to the U.S. Marshals, advising it that she was 17 Mr. Larson’s “evaluator assigned to this case” and that his “study period will expire on 18 September 11, 2021.” She also advised that she would “put in the request to return him to 19 [this] district after that date.”

20 5. On September 9, 2021, this court’s chambers notified the parties that it had received a letter
21 from Warden W.Z. Jenkins of MPD-LA, asking the court for permission for defendant’s
22 evaluator to submit her report regarding defendant “by October 1, 2021.” Warden Jenkins
23 based this request on, among other things:

- 24 a. defendant’s “study period” not starting until July 13, 2021 (and despite his June 29, 25 2021 arrival) because the “COVID-19 pandemic [required] all new arrivals” to 26 undergo a quarantine period; and

27 ///

1 b. the pandemic further requiring “restricted movement within the facility [which was]
 2 expected to continue indefinitely,” and thereby impacting his facility’s “ability to 3 conduct and complete evaluations under the normal time frames.” The parties
 4 understand the court granted MDC-LA’s request.

5 6. After hearing from the court in this regard, the parties discussed this issue with chambers and 6 pursuant to the same identified October 15, 2021 as a continued status conference date
 7 wherein both the parties and the court are available to address the status of the case and Mr.
 8 Larson’s return to the Eastern District of California.

9 7. On October 11, 2021, counsel for the government contacted chambers via email (and cc:d the 10 defense) (a) advising that it has not received any reports from BOP regarding Mr. Larson, 11 and (b) asking chambers if the court had received any such reports. On October 12, 2021, the 12 court advised the parties that it had likewise not received any such reports.

13 8. On October 14, 2021, BOP wrote the court a letter wherein it advised that the completion of 14 Mr. Larson’s “evaluations have been delayed; however, in revising completion estimates, it 15 is anticipated that the reports on th[is] case will be completed by October 22, 2021.” On 16 October 22, 2021, BOP provided its reports regarding Mr. Larson to the court, who in turn 17 provided copies to the parties later that day.

18 9. Yesterday, defense counsel advised the court and the government that Mr. Larson had not yet
 19 returned to the Fresno County Jail from BOP’s Los Angeles facility where he was examined.
 20 Earlier today, the U.S. Marshals advised the court that, weather permitting, Mr. Laron should 21 return to the Fresno County Jail sometime next week.

22 10. The parties agree that: (1) it is necessary for Mr. Larson to return to Fresno prior to being 23 able to appear at this matter’s next status conference; and (2) it is also prudent for defense
 24 counsel to have an opportunity to meet with him prior to the next court appearance. On this 25 end, the parties and chambers identified December 2, 2021 as a date wherein both the parties
 26 and the court are available to address the status of the case now that BOP has provided its 27 reports regarding its assessment of Mr. Larson.
 28

1 11. The parties therefore stipulate that the period of time from November 19, 2021, through
2 December 2, 2021, is deemed excludable pursuant to: (1) 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(A) because
3 the proceedings relating to defendant's mental competency as described above remain
4 ongoing; as well as (2) 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A) and 3161(h)(7)(B)(i) and (iv) because it
5 results from a continuance granted by the Court at the parties' request on the basis of the 6 Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the 7 best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

8 IT IS SO STIPULATED.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that the status hearing currently set for November 19, 2021, at 9:30 am is continued until December 2, 2021, at 9:00 am.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the period of time from November 19, 2021, through December 2, 2021, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(A) because the examinations to determine the mental capacity of the defendant as described above remain ongoing; as well as 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A) and 3161(h)(7)(B)(i) and (iv) because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendants' request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
