ENVISAGE LAW

1 INTRODUCTION

2 1. Jaime Rogozinski is an entrepreneur, investor, author, and creator of 3 WALLSTREETBETS, a well-known forum where people share stock and other financial advice.
4 Through Mr. Rogozinski’s creation, many Americans and others around the world achieved life-
5 changing returns in the financial markets.

6 2. Mr. Rogozinski invested years of his life building WALLSTREETBETS on the social 7 media platform Reddit. Mr. Rogozinski built WALLSTREETBETS from the ground up, creating 8 content while moderating discussions on the r/WallStreetBets subreddit. Mr. Rogozinski founded the 9 platform to share the following message with people reeling in the aftermath of the Great Recession: you
10 are not powerless in the financial markets; Wall Street is not just a casino where the house always wins;
11 you can win too, and win big. People all over the world responded. By early 2020,
12 WALLSTREETBETS had grown to more than 1 million subscribers, earning recognition from the 13 financial press.

14 3. This is what winning looks like. Mr. Rogozinski was not done. Working to bring
15 WALLSTREETBETS’ empowering message to a larger audience, Mr. Rogozinski authored the book
16 WallStreetBets and launched an e-sports trading competition to generate further brand awareness. He 17 also filed a federal trademark application to protect WALLSTREETBETS. Reddit took notice and 18 promptly responded.

19 4. Though Reddit says “people should be able to find a welcoming home on our platform,”
20 the company’s reaction to Mr. Rogozinski was anything but hospitable. Reddit terminated Mr.
21 Rogozinski as a moderator of his forum, claiming he had violated company policy by “attempting to 22 monetize a community.”

23 5. Reddit’s justification was a pretext—people use Reddit to market and sell everything
24 from investment advice to bodily fluids. On Reddit, just about everyone, to include aspiring 25 pornographers and scam artists, can find a place, everyone that is except Mr. Rogozinski. Mr.
26 Rogozinski’s true offense was trying to control the brand he created in the first place, a famous brand that 27 helped Reddit ride to a $10 billion valuation. Reddit filed several applications with the United States
28

1 Patent and Trademark Office to register WALLSTREETBETS as its mark, and aggressively opposed
2 Mr. Rogozinski’s application.

3 6. “If you build it, they will come,” entrepreneurs tell themselves, drawing inspiration from
4 the protagonist-farmer’s walk through an Iowa cornfield in the 1989 film Field of Dreams. Reddit’s
5 dreams, however, turned out to be Mr. Rogozinski’s nightmare as the company insists, “if you build it,
6 we will take it from you.” While other social media platforms endeavor to compensate their content
7 creators, Reddit works to capture, take credit for, and monetize other people’s creations. Reddit says it is 8 all-in on social justice while at the same time engaging in systematic, calculated exploitation by 9 asserting trademark rights over brands innovators built on the platform, and then using those trademarks
10 to secure financing. Mr. Rogozinski is just the latest victim of Reddit’s unfair and deceptive practices.

11 7. Mr. Rogozinski never asked to be treated like this. For far too long, Reddit has taken
12 advantage of content creators and innovators. This case is about putting a stop to Reddit’s systematic 13 theft holding the company accountable for its misconduct.

14 PARTIES

15 8. WALLSTREETBETS creator Jaime Rogozinski is a citizen of the United States and the 16 United Mexican States. Mr. Rogozinski resides in Mexico City, Mexico.

17 9. Reddit, Inc. is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business located at 1455
18 Market Street, Suite 1600, San Francisco, California 94103.

19 JURISDICTION

20 10. Reddit is a citizen of Delaware and California. Mr. Rogozinski is a citizen of both the 21 United States and Mexico who resides in Mexico City, Mexico. Reddit and Mr. Rogozinski have 22 complete diverse citizenship. Mr. Rogozinski seeks damages of more than $75,000. This Court has 23 subject matter jurisdiction over this case under 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

24 11. Mr. Rogozinski also brings claims arising under the federal Lanham Act. This Court has 25 jurisdiction over those claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 15 U.S.C. § 1121. This Court has 26 supplemental jurisdiction over Mr. Rogozinski’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because they 27 arise out of the same set of operative facts.

1 dynamics. No amount of scouring the financial press, hours spent watching financial news, or paying for 2 infomercial retirement seminars was enough to demystify a system laden with acronyms and buzzwords.

3 17. Mr. Rogozinski saw a need, so he did what entrepreneurs do: he got busy solving the 4 problem. At the time, Mr. Rogozinski had a full-time job working as an information technology
5 consultant to the Inter-American Development Bank. In his spare time, Mr. Rogozinski started to look
6 for a way for retail investors to collaborate, communicate, and take control of their financial lives all
7 while having fun and building camaraderie. Mr. Rogozinski wanted to present retail investors with a
8 stark contrast to the staid narratives dominating the financial press at the time. While stock tickers and 9 charts dominated daily programming on mainstream networks, Mr. Rogozinski's community would 10 feature breaking news and irreverent commentary all in a live-and-let-live format.

11 18. Even though online training was exploding in popularity, Mr. Rogozinski noticed that 12 there were no online communities where individual, ordinary investors could openly and honestly
13 discuss Wall Street and share advice with each other. Mr. Rogozinski acted. He could have chosen any 14 number of off-the-shelf web message board utilities to host what he envisioned. Ultimately, Mr.
15 Rogozinski settled on the social media platform Reddit.

16 19. Reddit is a social media platform where “millions of people around the world post, vote, 17 and comment in communities organized around their interests.” Reddit, How Does Reddit Work?,
18 <https://www.redditinc.com/> (last visited Feb. 13, 2023). Reddit is comprised of users and moderators.
19 Users “can post, comment, vote, discuss, learn, debate, support, and connect with people.” Reddit,
20 Reddit Content Policy, <https://www.redditinc.com/policies/content-policy> (last visited Feb. 14, 2023).
21 Moderators “are redditors who volunteer their time to help guide and create Reddit’s many 22 communities.” Reddit, What’s a moderator?, https://reddit.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/articles/204533859-
23 What-s-a-moderator- (last visited Feb. 14, 2023).

24 20. On January 31, 2012, under the username “jartek,” Mr. Rogozinski launched
25 WALLSTREETBETS by creating the r/WallStreetBets subreddit and serving as the forum’s first 26 moderator. Below is a true and accurate depiction of how the WALLSTREETBETS page appeared on 27 May 4, 2012, less than four months after Mr. Rogozinski created the forum.

<https://web.archive.org/web/20120504022702/https://www.reddit.com/r/wallstreetbets/>.

21. As shown in the image above, users exchanged information about trading ideas, the Federal Reserve, and particular stocks. Mr. Rogozinski, through his jartek username, was identified as WALLSTREETBET’s creator, not Reddit, and the forum’s sole moderator.

Id. Mr. Rogozinski set the agenda for the WALLSTREETBETS community, describing in detail “what you can expect to find around here,” calling his forum a “place to talk about options, day trading, contrarian strategies, defensive hedging, you name it.” Id. “Don’t be intimidated by fancy talk,” Mr. Rogozinski wrote to new users, consistent with his overall goal of empowering ordinary people. Id. “If you see something you don’t understand feel free to ask! We’re all here to learn, share and have fun together.” Id.

1 II. Mr. Rogozinski’s hard work pays off as WALLSTREETBETS generates 1 million
 2 subscribers, drawing attention from the financial press.

3 22. In May 2012, Mr. Rogozinski’s forum had 269 subscribers. Id. Through Mr.
 4 Rogozinski’s efforts, the community’s size increased by almost seven-fold by early 2013. Internet

 6 <https://web.archive.org/web/20130109034814/http://www.reddit.com/r/wallstreetbets/> (showing 1,852
 7 subscribers.) By the spring of 2015, WALLSTREETBETS boasted more than 11,000 subscribers.
 8 Internet Archive, Capture of r/WallStreetBets as of Apr. 22, 2015,
 9 <https://web.archive.org/web/20150422023924/http://www.reddit.com/r/wallstreetbets/>. At the end of 10 March 2020, just before Reddit took away Mr. Rogozinski’s ability to moderate the forum, 11 WALLSTREETBETS crossed the 1,000,000 million subscriber threshold. Internet Archive, Capture of 12 r/WallStreetBets as of Mar. 31, 2020,
 13 <https://web.archive.org/web/20200331000705/https://www.reddit.com/r/wallstreetbets/>.

14 23. This success was the product of literally years of hard work by Mr. Rogozinski building
 15 the WALLSTREETBETS brand. Starting from scratch, Mr. Rogozinski carefully cultivated the 16 community to ensure the forum aligned with his overall vision. Because he created
 17 WALLSTREETBETS, consistent with Reddit policy,¹ Mr. Rogozinski controlled the moderation team.
 18 Over time, Mr. Rogozinski expanded WALLSTREETBETS’ content moderation team, carefully
 19 choosing moderators who shared his vision for the forum. At all relevant times prior to Reddit
 20 suspending him, Mr. Rogozinski retained the ability to enforce the forum’s rules.

21 24. As the brand grew, the financial press started taking notice of the forum Mr. Rogozinski
 22 created. In 2018, Money published an in-depth profile on WALLSTREETBETS, identifying Mr.
 23 Rogozinski as the forum’s founder. Jake Davidson, Meet the Bros Behind /r/WallStreetBets, Who Lose
 24 Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars in a Day—And Brag About It, Money, Oct. 25, 2018, 25 <https://money.com/wall-street-bets/>.

26 ¹ Reddit provides “three main ways to become a moderator”: (1) “[b]y creating your own community,” 27 (2) “[b]y making a request,” and (3) “[b]y requesting an invitation.” Reddit, How do I become a
 28 moderator?, <https://reddit.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/articles/205192505-How-do-I-become-a-moderator->
 (last visited Feb. 14, 2023).

1 25. The Money report described the unique culture Mr. Rogozinski cultivated. “The mix of 2 braggadocio and nihilism that pervades Wallstreetbets makes it difficult to tell how much money is
3 really at stake,” Money reported. “But WSB,” shorthand for WALLSTREETBETS, “is best known as a
4 place where users announce their bets on the market, which are often centered on so-called meme
5 stocks—like Tesla—securities that have transcended their role as financial instruments to become a sort
6 of economic inside joke.” Id.

7 26. Other media outlets covered the WALLSTREETBETS story. In 2017, Vice observed that 8 “/r/Wallstreetbets is like a scrappier, more foul-mouthed version of the startup community, where the 9 rate of failure is placed as high as 90 percent.” Roison Kiberd, You Probably Shouldn’t Bet Your Savings
10 on Reddit’s ‘Wallstreetbets’, Vice, Dec. 11, 2017, [https://www.vice.com/en/article/nedzqm/you-
11 probably-shouldnt-bet-your-savings-on-reddits-wallstreetbets](https://www.vice.com/en/article/nedzqm/you-probably-shouldnt-bet-your-savings-on-reddits-wallstreetbets). The Vice report linked
12 WALLSTREETBETS to Mr. Rogozinski. “The mods tell me that /r/Wallstreetbets was founded by one 13 of their team, ‘Jartek,’ in 2012, after he was run out of /r/investing for advocating risky bets.” Id.

14 27. In early 2020, CNBC spotlighted WALLSTREETBETS for the forum’s role in the so-
15 called “meme stock” craze. Michael Sheetz, Crazy speculative trading is driving some stocks
16 inexplicably higher, a ‘late cycle’ market sign, CNBC, Feb. 22, 2020,
17 [https://www.cnbc.com/2020/02/22/crazy-speculative-trading-is-driving-some-stocks-inexplicably-
18 higher-a-late-cycle-market-sign.html](https://www.cnbc.com/2020/02/22/crazy-speculative-trading-is-driving-some-stocks-inexplicably-higher-a-late-cycle-market-sign.html). “Reddit users have dubbed these companies as ‘meme stocks,’ due 19 to the humorously outsized gains that have come after r/wallstreetbets declared the shares were going to 20 surge.” Id. This coverage was a sign that individual, retail investors were now at the center of the action.

21 28. Bloomberg Business Week picked up these themes in early March, running the below
22 cover story with the subheading “A band of Reddit users is hijacking stocks and defying even the

29. An upstart no more, Bloomberg Business Week reported that “even veteran traders have trouble dismissing a 900,000-user Reddit forum called r/wallstreetbets, or r/WSB for short, whose tips and tactics have shown an uncanny ability to push prices, at least for the short term.” Luke Kawa, Reddit’s Profane, Greedy Traders Are Shaking Up the Stock Market, Bloomberg Business Week, Feb. 26, 2020, <https://www.bloomberg.com/news/articles/2020-02-26/reddit-s-profane-greedy-traders-are-shaking-up-the-stock-market>. The article’s conclusion: “Chatter on a Reddit message board is pushing up prices on some stocks and reshaping the options market. Retail traders are back—for better or for worse.” Id.

30. Mr. Rogozinski’s creation had come full circle. Just eight years earlier, Mr. Rogozinski and his WALLSTREETBETS community were on the outside looking in, subject to the whims of fund managers and institutional investors. In a remarkable turn, now WALLSTREETBETS was shaping the agenda.

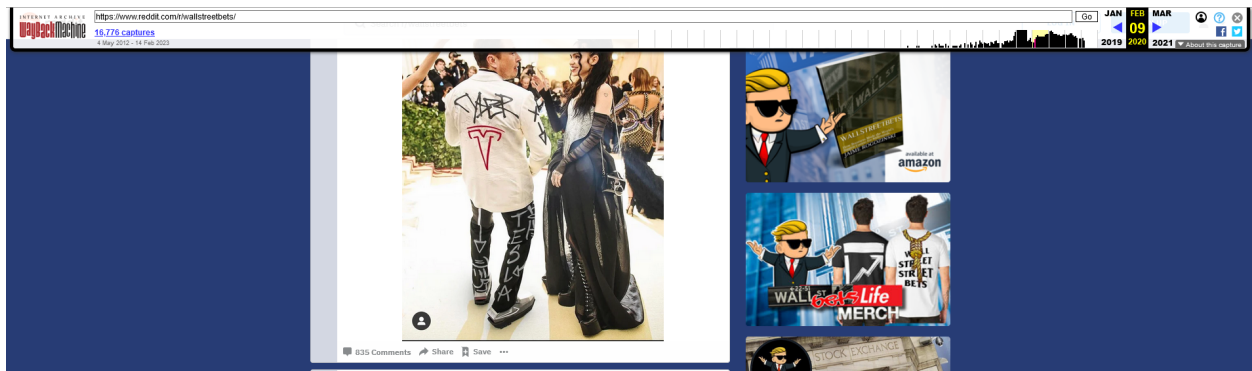

31. This should have been a win-win scenario. From Reddit’s vantage point, WALLSTREETBETS generated a heavy stream of Internet traffic and provided significant brand exposure for Reddit. Meanwhile, Mr. Rogozinski looked forward not only to growing his creation on Reddit, but also telling the WALLSTREETBETS story while empowering retail investors to make money in the financial markets. Reddit could have featured Mr. Rogozinski as an entrepreneurial success story. But Reddit was not interested in playing nice with high-profile creators on its platform.

1 Just as the world was coming to grips with the COVID-19 pandemic, Reddit made a dramatic, pretextual
2 powerplay against WALLSTREETBETS' creator.

3 III. As Mr. Rogozinski tries to grow the WALLSTREETBETS brand, Reddit seizes control
4 over his creation, invoking its moderator rules as a pretext.

5 32. With WALLSTREETBETS' subscriber base approaching 1 million, Mr. Rogozinski
6 published WallStreetBets: How Boomers Made the World's Biggest Casino for Millennials at the end of 7 January 2020. In the book, Mr. Rogozinski chronicles the stock market's evolution from a mechanism
8 for raising capital to power industry to arbitrary, more manipulable modern form. Mr. Rogozinski also 9 tells WALLSTREETBETS' success story in his book.

10 33. Around the same time the book launched, Mr. Rogozinski included a link to purchase his 11 book on Amazon on the WALLSTREETBETS side bar. A screenshot showing the link to the book is 12 shown below.

19 Internet Archive, Capture of r/WallStreetBets as of Feb. 9, 2020,

20 <https://web.archive.org/web/20200209062916/https://www.reddit.com/r/wallstreetbets/>. Just below the 21 book link was a link to purchase WALLSTREETBETS merchandise which had been previously
22 published on the forum by other forum moderators. Reddit took no action against Mr. Rogozinski or any 23 other WALLSTREETBETS moderator for the book or merchandise links at that time.

24 34. In early March 2020, Mr. Rogozinski announced a WALLSTREETBETS-branded e-
25 sports competition. The competition, which was set to take place in Texas in October 2020, was to “pit 26 the country’s top traders against each other, using real money to see who is most skilled.”

27 WallStreetBets Announces First Live Trading Championship, Mar. 26, 2020, 28

1 <https://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20200326005099/en/WallStreetBets-Announces-First-Live->
 2 Trading-Championship. Again, Reddit took no action against Mr. Rogozinski for announcing the 3 competition.

4 35. On March 24, 2020, Mr. Rogozinski filed an application with the United States Patent
 5 and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) to register the mark WALLSTREETBETS used in conjunction with 6 online and print publications in the fields of trading and finance, clothing items and providing an online
 7 forum for financial and trading information.

8 36. Without warning, on April 7, 2020, Reddit sent a notification to Mr. Rogozinski that his 9 account had been placed on a seven-day suspension for “attempting to monetize a community.” The 10 entire notification is shown below.

22 37. In the notice, Reddit cited section 7 of the then-in-force User Agreement, which stated
 23 “[y]ou may not perform moderation actions in return for any form of compensation or favor from third
 24 parties,” and “[y]ou may not enter into any agreement with a third party on behalf of Reddit, or any 25 subreddits that you moderate, without our written approval Reddit.” Reddit, Previous Reddit User
 26 Agreement Effective September 24, 2018, https://www.redditinc.com/policies/user-agreement-september-
 27 24-2018 (last visited Feb. 14, 2023). Neither Mr. Rogozinski’s book nor the e-sports competition he had 28 planned had anything to do with any of his decisions as a moderator of the WALLSTREETBETS forum.
 Simply put, there was never any moderation-for-compensation deal. Further, Mr. Rogozinski’s e-sports competition was between a company he established and a third party. It was not an agreement between a third party and the WALLSTREETBETS subreddit itself.

38. As Reddit stated elsewhere, moderators are “free to run their communities as they choose, as long they don’t break the rules outlined in Reddit’s Content Policy or Moderator Code of 1 Conduct.” Reddit, What’s a moderator?, https://reddit.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/articles/204533859-What-

2 s-a-moderator- (last visited Feb. 14, 2023) (emphasis added). Reddit pointed to no violations of either
3 policy.

4 39. According to Reddit’s moderator guidelines which were in effect on the date of Mr.
5 Rogozinski’s suspension, Reddit may intervene to take control of a subreddit if necessary, but “[t]his 6 should happen rarely.” Reddit, Moderator Guidelines for Healthy Communities,
7 https://web.archive.org/web/20220803212256/https://www.redditinc.com/policies/moderator-guidelines-
8 for-healthy-communities (last visited on Feb. 14, 2023). The Guidelines further provide that only
9 “[w]here moderators consistently are in violation of these guidelines,” will Reddit “step in with actions
10 to heal the issues,” but that Reddit “hope[s] permanent actions will never become necessary.” Id.
11 (emphasis added). Even where a moderator consistently violates the Guidelines, which was not the case
12 with Mr. Rogozinski, the first potential response should be to drop a moderator down the moderator list
13 as part of an effort to “heal the issues,” not to permanently remove them. See id. Reddit leapfrogged the 14 intermediate sanctions provided in the Guidelines to impose a destructive, immediate, and severe
15 punishment on Mr. Rogozinski.

16 40. What is more, the notice says that Mr. Rogozinski’s suspension “will last seven days.”
17 The implication of the time limitation is that Mr. Rogozinski’s moderator position would be reinstated
18 once the seven-day period elapsed, but that was not the case here as Mr. Rogozinski remains cut off
19 from moderating the WALLSTREETBETS forum he created.

20 41. Seven days from the termination came and went, but Reddit did not reinstate Mr.
21 Rogozinski, nor did to the company respond to his many requests pleading to know why they had 22 deplatformed him from the forum he created. Instead, on May 11, 2020, Reddit filed its first of what 23 would be four trademark applications to the USPTO to register the mark WALLSTREETBETS.

24 42. Mr. Rogozinski had no input on Reddit’s User Agreement, the Moderator Guidelines, or 25 any other Reddit corporate policy. Reddit’s terms of service and policies are, by definition, the terms of 26 an adhesion contract which must be construed against the company. See City of Hope Nat’l Med. Ctr. v.
27 Genentech, Inc., 43 Cal. 4th 375, 397, 181 P.3d 142, 158 (2008) (referring to the “special construction
28

1 rules” that apply to adhesion contracts such as construing terms against the drafter). Regardless, there is
 2 no need to resort these principles here because Mr. Rogozinski did not violate the plain language of any
 3 of Reddit’s terms or policies. The fact that Reddit violated its own adhesion contract makes the 4 company’s conduct even more extreme.

5 43. Reddit’s embrace or at least tolerance of monetization by other subreddit owners
 6 underscores the point that Mr. Rogozinski did nothing wrong by promoting his book and launching a
 7 WALLSTREETBETS-branded e-sports competition. Nowhere in the User Agreement or Moderator
 8 Guidelines is there any reference to the ambiguous concept of “monetizing a community.” That 9 omission is not surprising. Carried to its logical conclusion, the principle would bar any commercial
 10 activity on Reddit. Of course, in practice, subreddit creators consistently use their channels to market
 11 products and services. As noted above, WALLSTREETBETS previously included links to merchandise
 12 without incident. The following are just a few examples of how other subreddit moderators monetize
 13 their platforms:

14 a. Well-known brands like Fidelity Investments (r/fidelityinvestments) and Red Bull
 15 (r/redbull) use Reddit to generate awareness of their products and services.

16 b. The r/StockTradingIdeas subreddit contains a link to www.ultraalgo.com, a pay-
 17 for-service algorithm training platform.

18 c. The r/BitCoin subreddit has included links to Bisq, a platform to buy and sell 19 bitcoin.

20 d. Subreddit r/WallStreetSilver, a WALLSTREETBETS competitor, includes links
 21 to Silver Gold Bull and Sprott Money, two websites from which users can purchase silver and gold
 22 assets, and OnlyFans.

23 e. The r/SatoshiStreetBets subreddit has linked users to the opportunity to purchase
 24 the SatoshiSwap margin trading protocol.

25 f. The subreddit r/SellerCircleStage is “dedicated to providing information for new 26 and aspiring sellers/performers within the online adult entertainment industry.” One post offers advice
 27 on “Pricing Your Products and Services,” including a suggested pricing schedule for bodily fluids.
 28

1 #Pricing Your Products and Services,

2 <https://www.reddit.com/r/SellerCircleStage/wiki/pricing/?v=19f5d960-7b91-11e4-ba12-12313b0ead6e>.

3 44. Currently, subreddit owners can monetize their platforms by offering investment advice,
4 gold and silver, and trading algorithms. Users on r/SellerCircleStage can even trade tips on how to sell
5 their urine, saliva, and menstruation blood. At the same time, under Reddit’s interpretation of its terms
6 and policies, Mr. Rogozinski is barred from linking to his book and operating an e-sports competition.
7 Reddit’s justifications for punishing Mr. Rogozinski are as pretextual as they are indefensible and 8 downright embarrassing viewed in context.

9 45. Social media platforms, including industrialist and new Twitter owner Elon Musk, are 10 discussing how to better compensate content creators. Mr. Rogozinski’s success story is compelling.
11 With so much to gain from working with WALLSTREETBETS’ founder, why would a social media
12 platform treat a successful entrepreneur this way?

13 IV. As Reddit positions itself for an initial public offering, the company asserts ownership over 14 other subreddit brands.

15 46. As early as 2017, Reddit announced its intentions to pursue an initial public offering or 16 IPO. “San Francisco-based social news website Reddit is planning to go public by 2020, the company's 17 CEO said this week,” the San Francisco Business Times reported in November 2017. Riley McDermid,
18 Reddit CEO eyes ‘inevitable’ IPO by 2020, San Francisco Business Times, Nov. 14, 2017,
19 https://www.bizjournals.com/sanfrancisco/news/2017/11/14/reddit-ceo-eyes-inevitable-ipo-by-
20 2020.html. “Reddit CEO Steve Huffman said that going public was ‘inevitable; and added that it was 21 ‘the only responsible choice’ for both the company and its investors.” Id.

22 47. Like any company eyeing the public markets, Reddit had work to do. Financial and 23 compliance systems would have to be implemented. Valuations would have to be conducted. Over time,
24 intangible assets like patents, software, and brands have come to account for the vast majority of a
25 company’s value, from just seventeen percent in 1975 to ninety percent in 2020 according to one 26 estimate. Bruce Berman, Latest Data Show that Intangible Assets Comprise 90% of the Value of the

3 48. For Reddit, this meant shoring up the company’s intellectual property portfolio, including
4 its trademark holdings. And here, Reddit confronted a dilemma. The company’s platform facilitated
5 access to content, but the company did not itself create content or communities. People logged onto 6 WALLSTREETBETS to read what Mr. Rogozinski and others in his community were saying, not to 7 dialogue with Reddit employees and executives. It was subreddit creators, not Reddit, that named the 8 platform’s various communities, brought them to life, set standards, create and moderated the content.

9 49. Reddit’s own policies confirm this arrangement. Reddit’s User Agreement in force at the 10 time the company suspended Mr. Rogozinski contains one reference to “ownership,” and it is 11 confirmation that “[y]ou retain any ownership rights you have in Your Content,” subject to certain 12 licenses granted to Reddit. Reddit, Previous Reddit User Agreement Effective September 24, 2018, 13 <https://www.redditinc.com/policies/user-agreement-september-24-2018> (last visited Feb. 14, 2023). The 14 term Content is defined as “information, text, links, graphics, videos, or other materials.” Id. Reddit did
15 not include trademarks or tradenames within this definition nor did Reddit claim it owned brands created
16 on its platform by its users. The User Agreement contains one reference to trademark in a section related 17 to the company’s Digital Millennium Copyright Act takedown policy, where Reddit also proclaims the 18 company “respects the intellectual property rights of others.” Id.

19 50. Reddit also has a Trademark Use Policy. Reddit, Trademark Use Policy,
20 <https://www.redditinc.com/policies/trademark-use-policy> (last visited Feb. 15, 2023). The policy
21 includes references to Reddit’s “stylized Snoo head in an OrangeRed Circle,” “the Reddit wordmark,”
22 and variations of the same. Id. Nowhere in the policy does Reddit assert ownership or even licensing
23 rights over subreddit names or related trademarks.

24 51. Neither the lack of express warrant in Reddit’s policies nor the company’s contractual
25 commitment that it “respects the intellectual property rights of others” stopped Reddit from asserting 26 ownership of subreddit names. To bolster the company’s valuation to satisfy Wall Street, Reddit took 27 deliberate, systematic action to assert ownership of various subreddit names, beginning as early as 2012,
28

1 but accelerating in 2016 and on. The table below shows Reddit's trademark filings on various subreddit
2 names.

19 52. The company's fifteen different registrations cover seven distinct subreddit names,
20 including shorthand variations like ELI5 for r/ExplainLikeImFive. In total, these subreddits have more 21 than 135,000 million subscribers.

22 53. Reddit has leveraged these filings to secure capital. On October 8, 2021, Reddit pledged
23 the registrations above as part of a Trademark Security Agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. A
24 true and accurate copy of the Trademark Assignment Cover Sheet and Trademark Security Agreement
25 as filed with the USPTO is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Upon information and belief, Reddit amended
26 its secured credit facility with JP Morgan to raise more money as part of the company's efforts to go
27 public. The company used the trademark registrations cited above as part of the collateral for that deal.

28 54. Reddit's conduct was deliberate. The company did not file trademark applications on corporate partners like Fidelity and Red Bull. Further, Reddit has done deals with content creators in the past. See, e.g., Sarah Perez, After Five Years Of Bootstrapping Imgur Raises $40 Million From

1 Andreessen Horowitz & Reddit, TechCrunch, Apr. 3, 2014, <https://techcrunch.com/2014/04/03/after->
2 five-years-of-bootstrapping-imgur-raises-40-million-from-andreessen-reddit/. In other words, the 3 company knows how to play nice, at least when it suits Reddit’s purposes. Here, Reddit targeted 4 individual owners and entrepreneurs, many of whom lacked the financial resources and wherewithal to 5 protect their interests.

6 55. Reddit underestimated Mr. Rogozinski in this regard. Though Mr. Rogozinski founded
7 WALLSTREETBETS in 2012, and even though Reddit was filing to secure trademark protection on 8 subreddit names as early as 2012, Reddit did not file a trademark application on 9 WALLSTREETBETS—at least not initially. To protect his interests, Mr. Rogozinski, however, did take 10 steps to secure his intellectual property. As noted above, on March 24, 2020, Mr. Rogozinski filed U.S.
11 Trademark Application No. 88845638 for WALLSTREETBETS at the USPTO. Upon information and 12 belief, it was this action, not Mr. Rogozinski’s alleged “monetization efforts,” which spurred Reddit to 13 act against Mr. Rogozinski’s account.

14 56. After taking away Mr. Rogozinski’s ability to control the community he created, Reddit
15 initiated legal action at the USPTO’s Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to block him from asserting 16 ownership of WALLSTREETBETS. Reddit also filed four separate trademark applications on 17 WALLSTREETBETS trademarks, all of which are still pending at the USPTO. Reddit did not oppose 18 Mr. Rogozinski’s trademark application for the mark WSB, which is shorthand for 19 WALLSTREETBETS. That registration issued as U.S. Trademark Registration No. 6754487 on June 7, 20 2022.

21 57. Reddit’s bad faith conduct paid off. The company achieved a $10 billion valuation, with 22 Bloomberg noting in the header of its article that Reddit is “[t]he home of WallStreetBets.” Michael
23 Hytha & Priya Anand, Reddit Files for IPO After Igniting The Year’s Meme Stock Frenzy, Bloomberg,
24 Dec. 15, 2021, https://news.bloomberglaw.com/mergers-and-acquisitions/social-platform-reddit-says-it-
25 filed-confidentially-for-ipo-1. Reddit achieved a multi-billion dollar valuation for an IPO that stands to 26 create life-changing wealth for the company’s executives and investors on the backs of Mr.
27 Rogozinski’s creation as well as other innovators whose brands Reddit also seized. Not surprisingly,
28

1 Reddit is not the least bit apologetic for this and maintains it owes Mr. Rogozinski nothing. While
 2 Reddit enriched itself at Mr. Rogozinski's expense, the company's actions have caused him concrete,
 3 tangible financial and reputational harm.

4 V. By seizing control of WALLSTREETBETS, Reddit caused Mr. Rogozinski direct financial 5 and reputational harm.

6 58. Reddit's decision to ban Mr. Rogozinski as a WALLSTREETBETS moderator had an
 7 immediate financial effect on him. He lost hundreds of thousands of dollars of sales for his book, which 8 was published less than three months prior to the ban. As further consequence of Reddit's ban, Mr.
 9 Rogozinski's company lost its contract for the e-sports trading competition in Texas, costing him
 10 millions of dollars.

11 59. Even after the ban, the public continued to connect Mr. Rogozinski to 12 WALLSTREETBETS. Throughout 2020, 2021, 2022, and 2023, Mr. Rogozinski made more than sixty
 13 media appearances to discuss WALLSTREETBETS, including on television networks like MSNBC,
 14 CNN, Fox Business, Bloomberg, and CNBC, and on podcasts hosted by Jordan Belfort of Wolf of Wall
 15 Street fame, Glenn Greenwald, and Logan Paul. As shown below, during these appearances, media
 16 consistently referred to Mr. Rogozinski as WALLSTREETBETS' founder.

Mr. Rogozinski also spoke at more than a dozen events at venues throughout the United States and around the world, further building the WALLSTREETBETS brand and his own reputation.

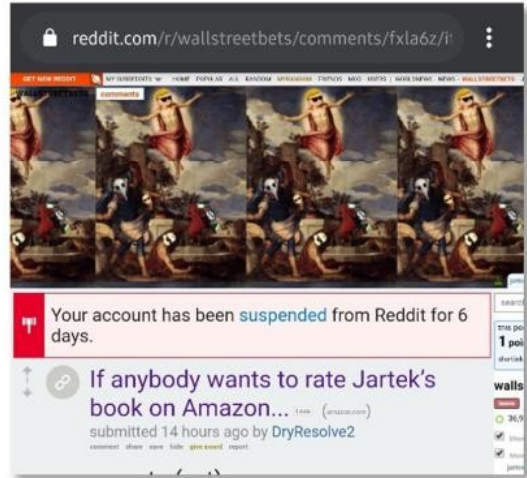

ENVISAGE LAW

1 60. During these close to eighty different appearances, Mr. Rogozinski was further connected
2 to the WALLSTREETBETS brand in the minds of tens of millions of people, adding onto an already
3 established association between himself and the brand. Mr. Rogozinski is so entwined with the brand
4 that he sold the rights to his life story to a major production company that is going to “to dramatize the
5 story of his role in the WallStreetBets saga.” Erich Schwartzel & Akane Otani, Reddit’s WallStreetBets
6 Founder Sells Life Story to Movie Producer RatPac Entertainment, Wall St. J., Feb. 4, 2021,
7 [https://www.wsj.com/articles/reddits-wallstreetbets-founder-sells-life-story- to-movie-producer-ratpac-](https://www.wsj.com/articles/reddits-wallstreetbets-founder-sells-life-story- to-movie-producer-ratpac-entertainment-11612440001)
8 [entertainment-11612440001](https://www.wsj.com/articles/reddits-wallstreetbets-founder-sells-life-story- to-movie-producer-ratpac-entertainment-11612440001).

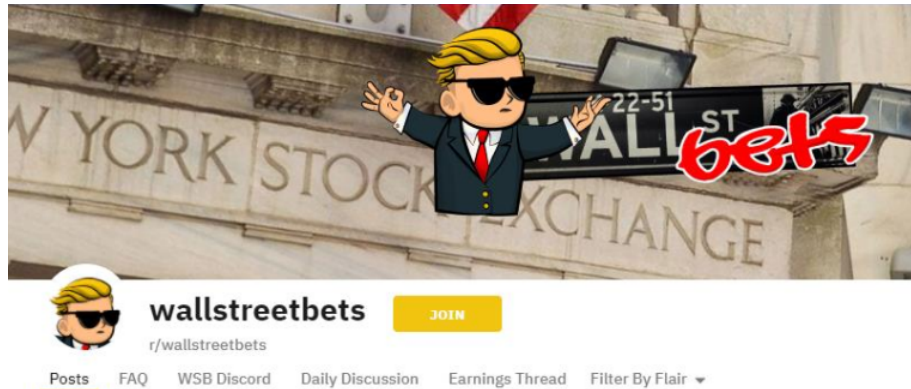

9 61. After Reddit banned Mr. Rogozinski, the WALLSTREETBETS forum he created took a
10 damaging turn. The moderators who replaced Mr. Rogozinski who, upon information and belief, pushed 11 Reddit to ban him, flashed their contempt for the creator of WALLSTREETBETS almost immediately.
12 One such moderator celebrated Mr. Rogozinski’s ban in a post that received more than 2,400 comments,
13 writing that “the United States has conducted an operation that killed jartek and a terrorist who’s 14 responsible for the murder of thousands of innocent members.”

15 62. The WALLSTREETBETS community guidelines bar “brigading,” meaning an online
16 harassment campaign against a particular user. Nevertheless, a WALLSTREETBETS user organized a 17 brigade against Mr. Rogozinski’s book, WallStreetBets, inciting others to leave negative reviews.
18 “Wrote a shit review on TTG and Amazon for you queer,” the user noentic wrote to Mr. Rogozinski. As 19 shown below, other users piled on while the WALLSTREETBETS moderators looked on, causing Mr.
20 Rogozinski to lose thousands of dollars in books sales.

ENVISAGE LAW

63. The new moderators also published pictures of the WALLSTREETBETS cartoon character flashing an “okay” sign, which has been associated with “white power.” One such example is shown below.

64. WALLSTREETBETS’ new leadership owned a Discord channel on which users published racial slurs. For Mr. Rogozinski, a Jewish and natural-born Mexican citizen, the content itself, which at various times included swastikas, was offensive, but the harm was only compounded by having to sit and watch the forum he created be connected to these activities. Things got so bad that “Discord banned the r/WallStreetBets server for ‘hate speech.’” Rachel Sandler, Discord Bans r/WallStreetBets Over ‘Hate Speech,’ Reddit Forum Returns After Going Private, Forbes, Jan. 27, 2021, <https://www.forbes.com/sites/rachelsandler/2021/01/27/discord-bans-rwallstreetbets-over-hate-speech-reddit-forum-goes-private>. Reddit might have a First Amendment right to platform racially inflammatory content, but it does not have the right to connect Mr. Rogozinski’s brand and identity to this content.

65. All this makes a mockery of Reddit’s vaunted “cultural DNA.” In a blog post published on June 1, 2021, Reddit boasted that its “mission is to bring community and belonging to everyone in the world,” and that “[w]e believe that people should be able to find a welcoming home on our platform.” Reddit, Reddit’s Cultural DNA: A Year Look Back and Onward, June 1, 2021, <https://www.redditinc.com/blog/reddits-cultural-dna>. On Reddit, just about everyone, including aspiring pornographers and scam artists, can find a place, everyone that is except Mr. Rogozinski. Why? Because money and the pursuit of profits over people—not equity, inclusion, or social justice—is what is actually wired into Reddit’s DNA.

66. For too long, Reddit has systematically taken advantage of content creators and innovators so that it can line its pockets with billions of dollars. The company has self-righteously talked the talk of equity and inclusion while walking the walk of exploitation. Mr. Rogozinski is not about to let Reddit get away with it.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I

DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

Controversy Regarding Ownership of the WALLSTREETBETS Trademark 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201-2202

67. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleged the preceding paragraphs herein.

68. There is an actual, justiciable dispute between Mr. Rogozinski and Reddit as to which party owns the WALLSTREETBETS trademark.

69. Mr. Rogozinski seeks a declaratory judgment that he, and not Reddit, is the owner of the WALLSTREETBETS trademark

COUNT II

INFRINGEMENT OF WALLSTREETBETS TRADEMARK

Lanham Act § 43(a), 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

70. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleges the preceding paragraphs herein.

71. The WALLSTREETBETS trademark is valid and protectable.

72. Mr. Rogozinski owns the WALLSTREETBETS trademark.

ENVISAGE LAW

73. Reddit uses the WALLSTREETBETS trademark in commerce by operating the r/WallStreetBets subreddit on the company’s website.

74. Reddit’s uses of the WALLSTREETBETS trademark occur in interstate commerce, including on the Internet.

75. Mr. Rogozinski did not give Reddit permission to use the WALLSTREETBETS trademark following his ban as a moderator of the r/WallStreetBets subreddit he created.

76. Reddit’s actions damage Mr. Rogozinski.

77. Reddit’s actions constitute willful trademark infringement under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a). Reddit was fully aware of Mr. Rogozinski’s rights in WALLSTREETBETS, but chose to prevent him from exercising ownership over his creation, violating the company’s own terms and policies in order to do so.

COUNT III
INFRINGEMENT OF REGISTERED WSB TRADEMARK
Lanham Act § 32, 15 U.S.C. § 1114

78. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleges the preceding paragraphs herein.

79. The WSB trademark is valid and protectable.

80. Mr. Rogozinski U.S. Trademark Registration No. 6754487 for WSB.

81. Reddit uses the WSB trademark in commerce by operating the r/WallStreetBets subreddit on the company’s website, as WSB is a known shorthand designation for WALLSTREETBETS.

82. Reddit’s uses of the WSB trademark occur in interstate commerce, including on the Internet.

83. Mr. Rogozinski did not give Reddit permission to use the WSB trademark following his ban as a moderator of the r/WallStreetBets subreddit he created.

84. Reddit’s actions damage Mr. Rogozinski.

85. Reddit’s actions constitute willful trademark infringement under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a). Reddit was fully aware of Mr. Rogozinski’s rights in WSB, but chose to prevent him from exercising ownership over his creation, violating the company’s own terms and policies in order to do so.

COUNT IV
TRADEMARK DILUTION BY TARNISHMENT
Lanham Act § 43(c), 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)

3 86. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleges the preceding paragraphs herein.

4 87. The WALLSTREETBETS and WSB trademarks are valid and protectible.

5 88. Mr. Rogozinski owns the WALLSTREETBETS trademark and U.S. Trademark
6 Registration No. 6754487 for WSB.

7 89. The WALLSTREETBETS and WSB trademarks are famous for at least the following 8 reasons:

9 a. WALLSTREETBETS and WSB have been in use for more than tens years and 10 WSB is registered on the Principal Register;

11 b. Over the course fore more than a decade, hundreds of millions of people have 12 been exposed to WALLSTREETBETS and WSB by using the r/WallStreetBets subreddit;

13 c. Famous and well-known individuals including industrialist and Twitter owner
14 Elon Musk have commented on and visited WALLSTREETBETS;

15 d. The WALLSTREETBETS and WSB trademarks have been covered extensively
16 by national media outlets in the United States and around the world, including on CNBC, CNN, Fox
17 Business, MSNBC, further exposing tens of millions of people to the brand;

18 e. The WALLSTREETBETS and WSB trademarks have been further discussed on 19 podcasts with audiences that number in the millions of viewers, including podcasts run by Jordan
20 Belfort, Logan Paul, and Glenn Greenwald; and 21 f. In media reports discussing Reddit’s $10 billion valuation, the 22 WALLSTREETBETS and WSB marks are referred to, noting that Reddit is “the home of 23 WallStreetBets.”

24 90. Dilution by tarnishment arises because the operation of the WALLSTREETBETS
25 subreddit since Mr. Rogozinski was banned as a moderator, including through connecting the brand to 26 racially inflammatory statements, harms the reputation of the WALLSTREETBETS and WSB brands.

ENVISAGE LAW

ENVISAGE LAW

1 91. Reddit’s actions constitute willful trademark dilution under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a). Reddit
2 was fully aware of Mr. Rogozinski’s rights in WALLSTREETBETS, but chose to prevent him from 3 exercising ownership over his creation, violating the company’s own terms and policies in order to do
4 so.

5 COUNT V
6 VIOLATION OF RIGHT OF PUBLICITY
7 California Common Law

8 92. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleges the preceding paragraphs herein.

9 93. As alleged above, the WALLSTREETBETS and WSB trademarks have become 10 identified with Mr. Rogozinski.

11 94. Reddit uses Mr. Rogozinski’s identity by operating the r/WallStreetBets subreddit on the 12 company’s website for the company’s commercial advantage.

13 95. The r/WallStreetBets subreddit includes content and links to content to which Mr.
14 Rogozinski objects and which harm his reputation.

15 96. The r/WallStreetBets subreddit does not contain any prominent disclaimer regarding Mr.
16 Rogozinski.

17 97. Mr. Rogozinski does not consent to Reddit’s use of his identity.

18 98. Reddit’s actions damage Mr. Rogozinski by, among other things, causing harm to his 19 professional standing and future publicity.

20 COUNT VI
21 BREACH OF CONTRACT

22 99. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleges the preceding paragraphs herein.

23 100. Reddit’s User Agreement and related policies constitute a binding contract between Mr.
24 Rogozinski and the company.

25 101. The contract between Reddit and Mr. Rogozinski is a contract of adhesion under 26 California law. Since Reddit drafted the terms of the contract between it and Mr. Rogozinski, the terms
27 should be construed against the company.
28

ENVISAGE LAW

1 102. As set forth above, Mr. Rogozinski did not violate Reddit’s terms or policies, but the 2 company permanently suspended him from being a moderator of the WALLSTREETBETS forum he 3 created anyway.

4 103. Reddit breached its contract with Mr. Rogozinski by suspending him as moderator in 5 violation of its own terms and policies, including but not limited to Reddit’s policy of progressive
6 moderator discipline. Reddit further breached its contract for not reinstating Mr. Rogozinski as a
7 moderator on or before April 14, 2020, at the end of his seven-day suspension.

8 104. Mr. Rogozinski incurred damages on account of Reddit’s breach of the contract.

9 105. Reddit’s breach of contract was intentional and willful.

10 106. Under California law, “[e]very one who offers to the public to carry persons, property, or 11 messages, excepting only telegraphic messages, is a common carrier of whatever he thus offers to 12 carry.” Cal. Civ. Code § 2168. Reddit offers to carry messages and is thus a common carrier under 13 California law.

14 107. Since Reddit is a common carrier and its actions against Mr. Rogozinski were at least 15 willful, the liability waiver the company unilaterally included in its User Agreement is unenforceable 16 since a “common carrier cannot be exonerated, by any agreement made in anticipation thereof, from 17 liability for the gross negligence, fraud, or willful wrong of himself or his servants.” Cal. Civ. Code 18 § 2175.

19 COUNT VII
20 VIOLATION OF DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

21 108. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleges the preceding paragraphs herein.

22 109. California’s duty of good faith and fair dealing which requires “each contracting party to 23 refrain from doing anything to injure the right of the other to receive the benefits of the agreement.”
24 Egan v. Mut. of Omaha Ins. Co., 24 Cal. 3d 809, 818, 620 P.2d 141 (1979).

25 110. Reddit violated its duty of good faith and fair dealing by, among other things, wrongfully
26 suspending Mr. Rogozinski’s ability to moderate WALLSTREETBETS in violation of Reddit’s User
27

ENVISAGE LAW

1 Agreement and policies and by not reinstating Mr. Rogozinski’s account at the end of the initial seven-
2 day suspension.

3 111. Reddit’s violation of its duty damaged Mr. Rogozinski.

4 COUNT VIII
5 VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW
6 Cal. Bus. & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

7 112. Mr. Rogozinski re-alleges the preceding paragraphs herein.

8 113. The California Unfair Competition Law (the “UCL”) prohibits “any unlawful, unfair or 9 fraudulent business act or practice and unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising and any act
10 prohibited by [California’s False Advertising Law].” Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200.

11 114. As alleged above, Reddit is engaged in a practice of asserting trademark rights in the 12 brand names of subreddits which creators using the company’s platform develop, including but not 13 limited to AMITHEASSHOLE and EXPLAIN LIKE I’M FIVE.

14 115. Neither Reddit’s User Agreement nor the company’s other policies disclose that the 15 company has ownership rights over brands brought to it by content creators. In fact, Reddit’s User
16 Agreement states the company “respects the intellectual property rights of others.”

17 116. Relying on Reddit’s User Agreement, Mr. Rogozinski engaged Reddit to use the platform
18 on which to build WALLSTREETBETS or WSB.

19 117. Reddit already blocked Mr. Rogozinski from controlling his brands. To make matters
20 worse, consistent with its past unfair and deceptive practice, Reddit is seeking to obtain trademark
21 protection over Mr. Rogozinski’s brand.

22 118. Mr. Rogozinski has suffered economic injury on account of these acts, including lost
23 book sales while his company has lost contracts.

24 119. These injuries were caused by Reddit’s unfair and deceptive practices.

25 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

26 WHEREFORE, Mr. Rogozinski respectfully prays that this Court:

27 A. Enters an order declaring that as between Mr. Rogozinski and Reddit, Mr. Rogozinski is 28 the owner of all right, title, and interest to the WALLSTREETBETS trademark;

ENVISAGE LAW

1 B. Enters an order requiring Reddit to cease any and all use of the WALLSTREETBETS or
2 WSB trademarks unless and until the company reinstates Mr. Rogozinski as the senior-most moderator
3 of the r/WallStreetBets subreddit;

4 C. Enters an order reinstating Mr. Rogozinski as the senior-most moderator of the 5 r/WallStreetBets subreddit;

6 D. Enters an order that Reddit disgorge all the company's ill-gotten profits related to its use
7 of the WALLSTREETBETS and WSB trademarks following Mr. Rogozinski's ban from the platform;

8 E. Enters an order restraining Reddit from engaging in unfair and deceptive practices
9 regarding the company's efforts to obtain trademark ownership over the names of subreddits on the 10 platform, including WALLSTREETBETS and WSB;

11 F. Award Mr. Rogozinski damages for violating his right of publicity;

12 G. Award Mr. Rogozinski damages for breach of contract;

13 H. Award Mr. Rogozinski damages for Reddit's breach of its duty of good faith and fair 14 dealing; and

15 I. Award any other relief to Mr. Rogozinski which this Court deems necessary and proper.

16 DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

17 Mr. Rogozinski demands a jury trial on all issues so triable.
