Statement of Fact
July 08, 2021

Hello BCS Community, Lawyers, and Leadership,

In 2007-2008 while at Spring Creek I wrote a collection of poetry that was titled "The thoughts of a caged bird." This collection was never intended to be a part of my book and was written independently.

On October 12th, 2010 I spoke at a Mathew Sheapherd Memorial event in San Diego California. At this event I spoke about my struggle with suicide, and my time at Spring Creek. At this point in time I had began writing my book with no title, it was meant to be a journal at first.

From 2010-2018 I had worked at a number of small events that talked about troubled teen issues and suicide awareness but always acted on behalf of myself and was not promoting, engaging, or in any way mentioning the BCS mark. I continued working on my book independently.

Around 2017 I settled on the title Breaking Code Silence for my book and began emailing editors and publishers. Book titles are not able to be trademarked and as such I never trademarked my book, only a general copyright that applies to any intellectual written property.

When I was first approached by Vanessa Hughes with the new BCS organization, I was told by them that they believed I had the exclusive rights to the BCS mark and they wanted to secure that from me. They implied that what their trademark lawyer told them was that any work I did around the TTI(speaking about suicide, my poetry, my book) was entirely connected and legally constituted first use rights under trademark law. I have now learned that this is false. I had questioned organization, I was told by them that they believed I had the exclusive rights to the BCS mark and they wanted to secure that from me. They implied that what their trademark lawyer told them was that any work I did around the TTI(speaking about suicide, my poetry, my book) was entirely connected and legally constituted first use rights under trademark law. I have now learned that this is false. I had questioned this at the time and was reassured by both Vanessa and Katie on multiple occasions that my concerns over the validity and legality of this were already cleared by the lawyers. Despite my concern they continued to ensure me that anything I did in the past regarding TTI counted as part of my "BCS advocacy."

For the last few months I have been defending myself as the sole owner and founder of BCS because that's what I was told and ensured by those in power at BCS was legally my right. It was never my intention to lie or deceive anyone in the process, I was operating under the information hat was given to me with the intention that I was helping kids.

At this time I am taking a step back from TTI advocacy as I never asked to brought into the middle of this division and used as a pawn. Please respect my privacy and stop reaching out. To those who are calling and harassing me, sending me harassing messages online and via text, I'm asking you survivor to survivor, please stop.
