15:21:54 1 A. Yes.
15:21:55 2 Q. Do you have an understanding of 15:21:56 3 what the most common edits are by doctors?
15:22:00 4 A. Yes. A doctor typically will edit
15:22:04 5 their practice information and their address
15:22:09 6 information.
15:22:10 7 Q. Okay. Earlier today too Mr. Kanan
15:22:14 8 asked you about back in 2006 when you were
15:22:17 9 working with Mr. Rothschild, do you remember
15:22:19 10 that?
15:22:19 11 A. Yes.
15:22:19 12 Q. And he asked you about whether you
15:22:21 13 looked at the HealthGrades website?
15:22:24 14 A. Yes.
15:22:24 15 Q. In what context were you looking
15:22:26 16 at HealthGrades website?
15:22:28 17 A. At the time we were looking at all
15:22:30 18 of the websites out there that provided provider
15:22:33 19 directory type functionality. HealthGrades was 15:22:35 20 just one of many of the sites that we looked at
15:22:38 21 including, you know, RateMDs WebMD, Revolution
15:22:45 22 Health, Vimo. There were quite a few.
15:22:50 23 Q. Did any one of them stand out, ah,
15:22:52 24 beyond any others?
15:22:53 25 A. No, they typically all offered

15:26:31 Q. Nobody was doing anything like this?

15:26:34 A. Not that much robust information, no.

15:26:40 Q. And you said that the physician edits primarily are to the address and practice information?

15:26:46 A. Yes.

15:26:47 Q. What did you mean practice information?

15:26:48 A. So, basically if a doctor moves from one practice to the other they typically update their location or practice information.

15:26:57 Q. Well, that's the address again?

15:27:00 A. Right. So a practice being a particular location or a particular facility at a particular location.

15:27:11 Q. And regardless of what's the most edited items, do physicians edit other things besides address and physician information?

15:27:18 A. Yes.

15:27:19 Q. Like what?

15:27:20 A. Ah, they might add expertise, they might add associations, they might add awards. There's --
