By Greenwald on November 29, 2015

I absolutely love this baby blue color, and I absolutely love my belt pouch! I not only use it working out but around the house when I'm cleaning and chatting on the phone! It stays put when I run and When I ride my bike. don't have to worry about my phone or keys anymore! Best purchase I've made for myself this year!

Size: Medium/28"-31" Color: Blue Verified Purchase

This is awesome! Just slip it on, stick your phone in one of the slits with your headphones if you like, put your keys in the zipper pouch or attach them to the key ring and you're off!
I love that there is no wrong way to wear it. It's reversible and you can wear it with the zipper in the front or back. It's completely comfortable with no chafing.
I went on a 3 mile run and it stayed snugly in place, no riding up or falling down even with the weight of my phone and keys. I have a Samsung galaxy s6 active and it fit no problems! I was never worried that my phone would slip or fly out on the run.
I am 5'3" and 135lbs I ordered the medium which fits snugly around my waist. I was worried at first that it would ride up but it stayed in place perfectly. I forgot it was there until my phone went off at my mile marker. I could have gotten the large and probably have been just as satisfied with it. I can see myself wearing this when we go to our city's festival this summer and I don't want to bring my purse!

Worth every penny!

By Lisa Barrows on October 31, 2015

Size: X-Large/34"-38" Color: Black

What can I say. I love this product! I've always wanted one of these because when I run I want my hands free. I don't always want to carry in my hands the cell phone, the wallet, the ID, the front door keys, the pepper spray etc.. With this product there are plenty of places to put all of those things! I'm a size 14 and this fit very snug and I purchased the x-large black. The front of it has several small openings to put things in. I have a note 2 and this fit my phone perfectly. It also has a built in clip to attach keys. In the back there is a secured zipper pouch so that if you do not want to loose any items you can zip it up there. I did pare this with a hands free dog leash and I went running! The two worked well together. I would recommend this to my friends and family. I would even buy a second! I've included a few photos to show what awesome features are included with this product. The only down fall is I bought the black color and at night I could not find the small openings so that I could remove my phone and put it back when I didn't need it anymore. If the company could include maybe a small tab or piece of cloth that is added on to indicate where the openings are that would make this product even better!

I have received this product at a discounted rate for my honest feedback and review.

The invisible fanny pack!

By rachelle J Gilmore on October 10, 2015

Size: X-Small/23"-25" Color: Black Verified Purchase

I love this running pouch! I am tempted to wear it with leggings and cute boots. It the perfect accessory to use when you don't have pockets. I love the easy to get into pockets on the front. Once the item is in the front pocket, you are able to push it around to the back- so its very secure. The elastic on the inside clip gives just enough that I can unlock my front door with the key attached. I measure 37 around my hips and I ordered the large. The black just blends right into my running pants. Brilliantly, the silver is reflective around the top and bottom of the belt. I love it!!!!!

Winning Running Belt!

By E. Blank on November 14, 2015

Size: Medium/28"-31" Color: Black

The fabric quality and design are both top-notch! I ordered a medium because I have a pretty small waist, but if I got another one I might get it a bit larger so I could wear it closer to my hips. Not a big deal because it is probably supposed to be worn around the waist ... just personal preference on my part.

I was surprised that they were able to fit so many roomy pockets in this belt. While I'm currently using the belt for running, it has such a slim silhouette that I could wear it under a sweatshirt or other top to protect valuables when travelling abroad. Very pleased with the RooCoo Athletics running belt and comfortable and great for working out as well as events where you don't want to carry a purse!

By Christy D on December 5, 2015

Size: Large/31"-34" Color: Black

I LOOOOVVVEE this. It is perfect for holding my car key, phone and money when we go to sporting events as well as when I go running. It stays in place so well and is not uncomfortable at all. It blends right in with my clothes as it is not overly bulky like I had worried about. I would highly recommend this product to others. I did receive this item at a discount in exchange for my honest review but that in no way swayed my opinion of this great product. I also want to note how wonderful the seller is, I contacted them with questions and they were more than accommodating.

Would definitely recommend this belt!

By Randi on October 14, 2015

Size: Large/31"-34" Color: Black

I was looking for something of this sort because I hate wearing arm bands for my phone, especially while lifting weights. Arm bands are restricting and get all sweaty.

So I was told about this running belt. The shipping was pretty reasonable. It came earlier than expected.

I used it for the first time today and I loved it! It is really comfortable, just feels like part of your pants. My phone fits well, even while lifting. I also like that there is a zipper pocket for more secure items.

Sizes are pretty true to actual size.

Loving my purchase!

Cute, slender, but holds a bunch

By Shandel Robinson on March 14, 2015

The Best Running Belt - FIT Belt is extremely cool for workouts. Looks are so deceiving with this. You wonder "where is it all going to go". Well, it has multiple areas to put your keys, money, id, and cell phone. If you have pets, this is great. It has a little clamp you can attach your dog's leash to it so you can exercise with your pet without having to hold their leash. I'm impressed my Samsung fit in there with no problems. I did receive this product at a discount, however, all opinions are my own and they reflect my honest and unbiased opinion.

A compartment for everything you need to take along when working out or running

By Mary T on March 3, 2015

Size: Large

The F.I.T. Belt is sturdy and well made. The fabric is high quality spandex and nylon, and is machine-washable. There's no need to worry where to put your keys, license and phone when you're running a 5k or half marathon because the FIT Belt has compartments for all the gear you need to take along. The pocket in the front is secured with a hidden zipper and two side pouches are deep. I don't think anything would accidentally fall out of them. One of the deep pouches has a hook which you can attach your keys. I am disappointed that I won't be able to use the belt. I ordered the size that would fit my waist, mistakenly assuming that the belt was stretch enough to get it on. So if you have "curves" or an hourglass figure, you'll want to be sure to order up a size, so you can get the belt on. I received this product at a discounted price for the purposes of a product review. All opinions are my Price discrepancy between sizes is disappointing. Which is a shame since I like the belt but hate the price gouge.

By Amazon Customer on April 21, 2015

Size: Small Verified Purchase

I have a level belt that I have owned for quite some time but wanted to get another similar style belt to have on hand. I don't like the ones with the one large zipper style pocket that have the expandable stretch waist band as they tend to not be as secure. What attracted me to this one, besides the great price (on the small) that it has some open slits for putting in your items, it also has a small zippered pocket which is awesome for my keys. The zipper pocket gives me a little extra sense of security that as I run, my key won't accidentally slip out of the holes (had that happen to me once!) and it also has a clip inside as well. I ended up ordering a small (I'm 5'1 and wear a size 26 or 27 in pants and do not have wide hips). but because of how I like to wear the belt, which is lower on the hips, it ended up feeling a bit too snug. I had a phone and my keys in the belt. If you like to wear it high up on the waist, it might be great for that but it just felt a tad too tight and uncomfortable sitting lower. It doesn't seem like it has enough stretch to fit one size bigger as indicated in the description.
So no big deal, I wasn't that worried because it is more a preference thing on my part and since I like the belt, I decided that I will just buy a medium as well. But I am sorely disappointed that I would have to pay $10 more for a medium over what I paid for on the small! The list price is the same for all sizes but the "sale" price different between the medium and large is only $1 so not sure why the gouge going from small to medium. (same seller for all sizes) So at this time, I will pass on buying an additional FIT Belt and continue to use my other one. If you don't mind being gouged in pricing difference between sizes, then the belt is great.

Also works to keep valuables safe while traveling!

By C'est La Vie TOP 500 REVIEWER on March 3, 2015

Size: Medium

I bought this fitbelt in a size medium during a promotional launch. Laying flat it is about 14" wide, and fit my son great (he wears a size 32 jeans, but this is smaller than that since he wears it on his waist and not on his hips). I also tried it on and found it to be extremely comfortable. The pockets allow for easy storage of keys, credits cards and other essentials while running and does not inhibit movement. I am thinking this would also be great while traveling to securely store your credit cards while on subways, trains and airports. Your keys could also be clipped to the belt with the secure hook if you so prefer. It is washable and ok to put in the dryer which is great (and necessary) after exercising. Would highly recommend!

I so wanted to love it! And if the large size

By Kay on October 8, 2015

Verified Purchase

I so wanted to love it! And if the large size, was actually a Large, I might have! I wear Larges in men's clothing (and they are usually a little baggy, I like to be covered, and hate skin tight clothing. The Large belt, is more like a medium. However, I do love the pockets, and the material, and if I had a correctly sized belt for me, then I think I might love it, it feels like it would not be bothersome while walking, as long as I had the right size of course. I did receive a discount for an honest review of this product.

Decent fitness belt. I use mine during exercise to carry my cell phone (Galaxy S5), an insulin pump, and various other necessities (energy gels, etc.). my insulin pump, but it accommodates cash, credit cards, or ID just fine. I recently completed the Richmond half marathon, and the belt easily accommodated my phone, my insulin pump, ID/cash/credit cards/keys, four energy gel pouches, three Ziploc snack bags of raisins, two bags of sport beans, and a tube of glucose tablets.

Pros:
- Belt is very comfortable to wear. I ordered a large, and it is just snug enough around my abdomen (I wear 36-inch pants).
- My S5 phone fits very well in the pouch, and there is plenty of room for other items in the five total "compartments".
- Polyester fabric dries quickly, and the color has not faded over the past several months.

Cons
- Not much friction inside the pockets, and no closure for the openings. When I run, I feel my phone & insulin pump migrating towards the openings - a bit of a distraction, and I'm constantly adjusting my items to make sure they don't fall out in the middle of a run. A zipper or Velcro closure would be helpful to keep items more secure.
- It can be difficult locating the openings to retrieve items - missed a couple phone calls trying to figure out how to get my phone out.
- Seams began to separate rather quickly - I've only owned the belt four months, yet I have had to sew one of the seams closed & strengthen the stitches to prevent it from opening completely & dumping my items along the running trail (However, I exercise twice a day, every day, so my belt may be subjected to more wear & tear than yours may be). Still, it advertises a lifetime guarantee, so if anyone has information about how to get a replacement, I'd love to hear from you.

Too big, but useful.

By Rita on December 27, 2015

I bought the fitbelt a few months ago back in the fall. I wore it for a couple runs then I found that it felt a little bit like a cummerbund while running (which was a bit awkward). I then purchased a one pocket from Nuclear Nuclear Strength Running and Fitness Workout Belt (Black) and I thought it was a lot lighter; I didn't feel like I had this spare tire around my waist. I ended up selling the fitbelt and kept the Nuclear belt. I'm giving a five star because it's subjective! If you don't mind having something large go around your waist then this belt will work, otherwise I'd go with a lighter style.

Works great, until you inevitably lose the zipper.

By Tim+Meghan G. on August 3, 2015

Verified Purchase

When I first received the the FitBelt, it worked pretty great for what I was looking for. I especially liked the ability to zip/unzip as compared to other similar belts which requires to pull on/off. Unfortunately the greatest feature also turned out to be it's greatest weakness. Because the belt is reversible, the manufacturer decided to make the zipper removable so it could be used in either orientation of the belt. The problem with this is the zipper comes off extremely easy - in the couple months and couple dozen times I used it, the zipper came off several times without intention. If they were to replace the zipper with a reversible one and make it permanently attached, this would be the perfect fitness belt.

Unfortunately, it was only a matter of time until the zipper came off without noticing and never seen again. Obviously without the zipper, the belt is completely useless. To make matters worse, the seller has seemingly removed any method of contacting them from this product page (if someone knows how to contact them, please let me know!), otherwise I would have reached out to request a replacement zipper.

Until they change the zipper design, I would highly recommend staying away from this product as you will inevitably end up losing it.

Absolutely love this product! My new favorite exercise accessory!

By Daniel Picard on June 6, 2015

Size: Medium Color: Black and Green Neon

This is my newest favorite exercise item! First off I am a male who wears jeans between the sizes of 28 ad 31. I bought the medium and it fits me snuggly but in my opinion it's just the right size! I really love the design of this and all of the pockets.The front one with the zipper I use for my cash / keys and other smaller items that I may need.

The bigger pockets on the edges are made for your phone. I have the HTC One M8 and it easily fits into these slots. I use bluetooth headphones and it's great not having any cords and running freely!

Also I prefer this running belt over an armband because I move my arms while I run and I also just feel like a belt is more convenient than having your phone on your arm.

Either way I absolutely love this product and would recommend to anyone who wants to ditch an armband or just wants to try this product out! You have nothing to loose with the money back guarantee!

Good idea and comfortable

By Jason Stephens on April 6, 2015

Size: Small Color: Black and Green Neon

I just received my FitBelt today and was pleasantly surprised. The product looks exactly like it does in the pictures and the two tone material, green on one side black on the other, is really comfortable.I like the green color but it's nice having the option of going with a plain black belt when I don't want it to stand out. I was worried there might be issues with the product stretching over time but I don't think that's going to be a problem with this one because the zipper makes it so I don't have to pull it up over my hips. I thought the zipper might be a bit uncomfortable but when I put it on, I didn't even notice it was there. The idea of a belt to store all my stuff when I go for a run is a really good one and I my keys and my phone (Galaxy Note 4) all fit just fine.

By Shalanda F. Jones on November 27, 2015

I just received this item in time for shopping. I purchased it for the gym but I used it while shopping and it is flat and undetectable (not a fanny pack all). I wore it under my sweater and it was very comfortable. My phone is large it is the Samsung Galaxy Note 5 (I did have to take it take it out of the hefty case) because I didn't want to break the stitching. My keys, phone, epipen, money and credit card were safe and comfortable. I purchased the XL and I am a plus size lady size 20 or so not heavy in the stomach area. I could have worn an Large. The way it is made it can be moved higher to accommodate a little tummy or lower. The shoe laces should have come with instructions because I have no idea how to use them.
Not Just For The GYM but for Shopping as well.

Love

By Anne on August 26, 2015

Size: Medium Color: Black and Green Neon Verified Purchase

This is a great product especially if you want to be hands free while working out. I've tried other options for my phone like a arm band and that was awful, it constantly fell down my arm. I use this with my IPhone 6 and love the little zipper area for my Chapstick and Kleenex. It stays in place very well on my hips & waist. Also it doesn't add bulk like you would think so I don't feel self conscious when I have a long shirt or jacket on. I like the black side since most of my workout pants are black because it blends right in. The neon side is cute too if you want to add color to a all black outfit. All and all I would recommend.

Perfect for Travel to and during Disney World

By AUskier on November 11, 2015

I used this for our trip to Disney World. It was fantastic through the airport - the zipper a must so that I didn't have to step out of it during security. separate pocket that I didn't access often, so as not to have it slip out when accessing other items. I even kept my sunglasses in the other slip pocket sometimes, when my bigger bag under the stroller wasn't accessible.
I wear a size 2 in women's jeans. I ordered a MEDIUM. I didn't want this thing anywhere near my waist, and I didn't want the zipper to rise above my pant waist to irritate my skin. The choice of size was perfect because I can wear over jeans or shorts on my hip, but still hidden by a normal shirt.
Love this as a travel belt, as I couldn't find a "travel focused" belt that had a zipper pocket, a slip pocket, and a zipper for easy removal. I have not used it for exercising.
