Parties discuss the Notice of Parties' Proposals Concerning a Briefing and Hearing Schedule for Crusoe's Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction [22].

Parties seek a separate determination on the TRO versus the Preliminary Injunction.

ORDERED: Defendant shall respond to Plaintiff's Motion for Temporary Restraining Order [9] on or before September 7, 2022. Any reply with respect to the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order is due no later than September 14, 2022.

The Court will review the Parties' briefing and make a determination as to whether or not oral argument on the Temporary Restraining Order would be helpful for the Court. If the Court finds that oral argument would not materially assist the Court's resolution of the TRO, then the Court will decide on the papers.

Parties discuss the need for a technology tutorial. The Court will wait on the technology tutorial at this time, and counsel are welcome to meet and confer as to whether or not a voice over PowerPoint might be helpful to orient the Court.

ORDERED: Defendant's Answer/Response to the Complaint is due no later than October 5, 2022.

Parties discuss the date of anticipated deployment of the accused products and/or services and the length of time needed for a Preliminary Injunction Hearing.
