Affidavit in Support of Andrew Warren's Motion for Early Termination for Supervised Release.

I, Pastor Al Taylor, swear under the penalties of perjury that the following statements are true:

- 1) I am pastor of Infinity Mennonite Church of Harlem (IMC). IMC has been a religious institution in Harlem for over 50 years.
- 2) I have known Andrew Warren since his arrival to New York City in September 2014 and he started attending the church in Sept 2014.
- 3) I have witnessed his high moral character and his compassionate personality as well as his genuine desire to help others over the last two years.
- 4) He is a minister at our church and has become one of the leaders of IMC.
- 5) He has preached over 20 sermons during his time at IMC and officiated at a funeral.
- 6) He started a new Thursday discipleship bible study class in February 2015 and has led this class weekly since that time, over 90 classes. In this class, he teaches an interactive class of approximately 10-15 people weekly about biblical principles through the examination of scripture. This class is a welcome addition to our church's overall mission to reach a larger audience in the community.
- 7) He has participated in a monthly street outreach ministry for the last 18 months providing food, spiritual counseling, bibles and clothes to the needy, homeless and the community at large. Thus, because of his efforts church's attendance has increased.
- 8) Mr. Warren has been an inspirational leader for the congregation and community since he started preaching at IMC in July 2015.
- 9) I fully support his motion for early termination for supervised release because he has served as a great example in our community and it will assist him in expanding his ministry outside the community to include visiting prisons, conducting other outreach programs, taking mission trip abroad, and will be beneficial to the community at large.

Sincerely,

Pastor Al Taylor

Affidavit in Support of Andrew Warren's Motion for Early Termination for Supervised Release

I, Theodore Morris, swear under the penalties of perjury that the following statements are true:

- 1) I am a minster at Infinity Mennonite Church of Harlem (IMC) and the minister of Music. IMC has been a religious institution in Harlem for over 50 years.
- 2) I have been attending IMC since early 2014 and have known Andrew Warren since his arrival to New York City in September 2014. I met him when he started attending the church in Sept 2014.
- 3) I have witnessed his high moral character and his compassionate personality as well as his genuine desire to help others over the last two years.
- 4) I have witnessed him become one of the leaders of IMC since his arrival and observed him preach over 20 sermons in that time and officiated at a funeral.
- 5) He started a new Thursday discipleship bible study class in February 2015 and has led this class weekly since that time, over 90 classes. In this class, he teaches an interactive class of approximately 10-15 people weekly about biblical principles through the examination of scripture. This class is a welcome addition to our church's overall mission to reach a larger audience in the community.
- 6) He has participated in a monthly street outreach ministry for the last 18 months providing food, spiritual counseling, bibles and clothes to the needy, homeless and the community at large. Thus, because of his efforts church's attendance has increased.
- 7) Mr. Warren has been an inspirational leader for the congregation and community since he started preaching at IMC in July 2015.
- 8) I also know that because of his passionate efforts in ministry, he has been invited to preach at several other churches to include Church of the Covenant in NYC, Naomi Temple AME Zion Church in Long Island and Samaritan's Outreach Ministry in Virginia.
- 9) I fully support his motion for early termination for supervised release because he has served as a great example in our community and it will assist him in expanding his ministry outside the community to include visiting prisons, conducting other outreach programs, taking mission trip abroad, traveling freely to other states to undertake humanitarian activities and will be beneficial to the community at large.

Recommendation for Reverend Drew Warren

I have been a member of the congregation at Infinity Mennonite Church of Harlem (formerly Seventh Avenue Mennonite Church) for over 20 years. He is a minister at the church and a member of the IMC leadership team. He has preached over a dozen sermons at Sunday service and taught over 60 bible study classes over the last two years. He has helped organize numerous food distributions to the community. Further, he helped to start our street outreach ministry and participated in over 16 of these outreach gatherings. He is helping the church create a "Church without walls" program where we reach out to the community. He is always willing to volunteer to assist in any capacity with a great attitude. He is a vital part of our church family.

Best Regards,
