CONSENT ORDER TO MODIFY THE SCHEDULING ORDER

1. WHEREAS the Parties filed an Amended Joint Case Management Report on September 4, 2019 (Dkt. 64).
2. WHEREAS the Amended Joint Case Management Report proposed, in relevant part, the following discovery schedule:

 - The parties shall complete document production by January 6, 2020.
 - The parties shall serve requests for admission by February 21, 2020.
3. WHEREAS the Court adopted the Parties' proposed discovery deadlines in its September 11, 2019 Scheduling Order (Dkt. 65), including the deadlines for completion of party document discovery and service of initial document requests and interrogatories and answers to interrogatories and written responses and objections to document requests.
4. WHEREAS, the Parties agreed to serve initial document requests and interrogatories by October 11, 2019, and answers and objections to interrogatories and written responses and objections to initial document requests within thirty (30) days of service (i.e., by November 11, 2019); the Parties filed a Consent Order to Modify the Scheduling Order (Dkt.

68); and the Court, in a Minute Order dated November 5, 2019, modified the Scheduling Order accordingly;

5. WHEREAS the Parties served extensive document requests and interrogatories in October 2019, and responses and objections thereto in November 2019, in accordance with the modified Scheduling Order;

6. WHEREAS the Parties filed a proposed Consent Order to Modify the Scheduling Order (Dkt. 73), setting April 6, 2020 as the date by which the parties were to complete document production, and setting May 27, 2020 as the date by which the parties were to serve requests for admission, and the Court modified the Scheduling Order accordingly January 9, 2020 (Dkt. 74);

7. WHEREAS the Parties have conferred in good faith on several occasions to attempt to resolve and narrow discovery issues arising from their respective responses and objections to document requests and interrogatories, including by correspondence dated January 31, February 19, and March 12, 2020, and by telephone conferences of March 20 and 25, 2020, and intend to continue to confer in good faith in an effort to resolve and narrow remaining issues and disagreements so as to avoid the need for Court intervention;

8. WHEREAS the Parties respectfully submit that, in light of the foregoing, good cause exists, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b)(4), for the dates by which the Parties must complete document production and serve requests for admission to be modified;

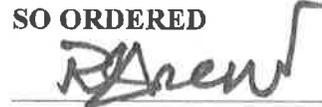

9. WHEREAS the Parties have agreed amongst themselves to a modification of the dates in the Scheduling Order for the Parties' completion of document production (currently April 6, 2020) and for the Parties to serve requests for admission (currently May 27, 2020), and now desire to amend the Scheduling Order so that it reflects the modified, mutually agreed dates.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

The September 11, 2019 Scheduling Order, as modified, is revised as follows:

- (1) Discovery shall proceed pursuant to the following schedule:
 - a. The parties shall complete document production by May 4, 2020.
 - b. The parties shall serve requests for admission by June 24, 2020.
- (2) All other dates in the September 11, 2019 Scheduling Order, as modified, are unaffected by this Order.

SO ORDERED
