Dear Anders,

Thank you for your email. It's definitely your decision whom to invite to the event. However, if you start looking for information online you will likely find "compromat" on many Russian businessmen and former ministers including myself. As far as I know the US government does not have any official complaints against Lesin, who by the way permanently lives in California. Either way it's definitely your decision to make.

Best regards,
Petr

Dear Petr,

We are very much looking forward to hosting you for a dinner here at the Atlantic Council next Wednesday, November 4. I have received your books, and we shall distribute them to all the attendees.

The participation is shaping up very nicely. David Lipton is coming and has agreed to chair.

We have received a query from your assistant Olga about inviting Mikhail Lesin to the dinner. I would advise against inviting Lesin because he is being investigated by the FBI for money laundering in the US. I attach two links about it below. It would reflect badly upon you as well as upon us if Lesin were to be invited. I trust you agree with us.

Once again, let me tell you how much I am looking forward to seeing you here.

With warm regards,

Anders

Dear Petr,

Hope all is as well.

I shall be in Moscow from the late evening of May 26 until the early morning of May 30. I shall attend the Rand Business Forum at Hotel Baltchug May 28-29. It would be great to see you.

I shall be free any time in the morning or afternoon of Friday May 27 and after noon on Sunday May 29. On top of that, I can of course intrude on the conference apart from 14-15.30 Saturday afternoon, when I am supposed to speak. Tell me what works for you!
