Defendant.	:

EXHIBIT 700

STIPULATION

The United States and Defendant Guy Reffitt agree and stipulate to the following:

By law, the U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured twenty-four hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police (USCP). Restrictions around the Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by USCP. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the Capitol. At the U.S. Capitol, the building itself has 540 rooms covering 175,170 square feet of ground, roughly four acres. The building is 751 feet long (roughly 228 meters) from north to south and 350 feet wide (106 meters) at its widest point. The U.S. Capitol Visitor Center is 580,000 square feet and is located underground on the east side of the Capitol. On the west side of the Capitol building is the West Front, which includes variety of open concrete spaces, a fountain surrounded by a walkway, two broad staircases, and multiple terraces at each floor. On January 6, 2021, the inaugural stage scaffolding was on the West Front of the Capitol building. On the East Front are three staircases, porticos on both the House and Senate side, and two large skylights into the Visitor’s Center surrounded by a concrete parkway.

STIPULATION

The United States and Defendant Guy Reffitt agree and stipulate to the following:

The United States Capitol Police (USCP) operate and maintain closed-circuit video monitoring and recording equipment that captures locations inside and outside of the U.S. Capitol building and on the Capitol grounds. The video equipment timestamps each recording with the date and time at which the footage is captured. The USCP-controlled video equipment was in good working order on January 6, 2021, and video footage recovered from the cameras and equipment with the timestamp of January 6, 2021 is footage from January 6, 2021. The events depicted in the video footage are a fair and accurate depiction of the events at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021, the timestamps on the recordings are accurate, and the video footage was not altered or edited in any way. The video footage is authentic in that it is what it purports to be.

EXHIBIT 702

STIPULATION

The United States and Defendant Guy Reffitt agree and stipulate to the following:

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the U.S. Capitol. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in both the House and Senate chambers of the Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on Tuesday, November 3, 2020.

On January 6, 2021, the House of Representatives began its session at approximately 12:00 p.m., the Senate began its session at approximately 12:30 p.m., and the two Houses met together at approximately 1:00 p.m. in the House of Representatives chamber to begin the joint session. Vice President Mike Pence was in the Capitol building and presiding over the joint session. At approximately 1:15 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to their separate chambers for up to two hours to resolve a particular objection.

At approximately 2:12 p.m., Vice President Pence evacuated the Senate chamber, and approximately one minute later the senator who had become the presiding officer in Vice President Pence’s absence declared that the Senate would stand in recess. Senators evacuated the Senate chamber.

At approximately 2:15 p.m., Speaker Nancy Pelosi, who was presiding over the House of Representatives, evacuated the House chamber, and approximately fifteen minutes later the representative who had become the presiding officer in her absence declared that the House would stand in recess. Representatives evacuated the House chamber.

The Senate and House resumed meeting at approximately 8:06 p.m. and 9:02 p.m., respectively. Congress's joint session continued until approximately 3:44 a.m. on January 7, 2021, when it completed the certification of the Electoral College vote.

EXHIBIT 703

STIPULATION

The United States and Defendant Guy Reffitt agree and stipulate to the following:

On January 6, 2021, at around 3:45 p.m., in response to Mayor Bowser’s order imposing a curfew in the District of Columbia because of the events at the U.S. Capitol, Safeway closed all 12 of its stores in the District of Columbia as of 4 p.m. Safeway’s stores were supposed to close at 11 p.m. Safeway later determined that its District of Columbia stores made between 18% and 47% less in sales to the public on January 6, 2021, than they had been projected to make on that day.

Safeway’s District of Columbia stores receive their shipments from a warehouse in Pennsylvania. After 4 p.m. on January 6, 2021, the scheduled shipments for the remainder of the day could not be delivered because the stores were closed and no employees were working.
