SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Sixty (60) months on Count One (1).

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT:

CASE NUMBER: 21-CR-110 (ABJ)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT:

CASE NUMBER: 21-CR-110 (ABJ)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Mental Health Treatment - The defendant must participate in a mental health assessment and treatment, inpatient or outpatient as directed and under the supervision of the United States Probation office, and he must comply with all aspects of the treatment plan including sessions with a qualified therapist and compliance with any medical regimen. The defendant must sign any releases necessary to enable the United States Probation office to monitor this compliance.

Sex Offense Assessment - The defendant must participate in a sex offense specific assessment. The Court waives any requirement that the defendant pay a percentage of the costs given his inability to do so.

Sex Offender Treatment - The defendant must participate in a sex offense specific treatment program that is indicated at the direction of the United States Probation Office, and he must follow the rules and regulations of that program. The United States Probation Officer will supervise the defendants participation in the program. The Court waives any requirement that the defendant pay a percentage of the costs given his inability to do so.

Sex Offense Testing (Polygraph) - The defendant must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the United States Probation Office as a means to ensure that the defendant is in compliance with the requirements of his supervision or treatment program.

Contact Restriction [Sex Offender] - The defendant may not have direct contact with any child he knows or reasonable should know to be under the age of 18 without the premission of the United States Probation Officer. If the defendant does have any direct contact with any child he knows or reasonable should know to be under the age of 18, without the permission of the United States Probation Officer, he must report this contact to the United States Probation Officer within 24 hours. Direct contact includes written communication, in-person communication, or physical contact. Direct contact does not include incidental contact during ordinary daily activities in public places.

Computer Monitoring - The defendant must allow the United states Probation Officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) you use.

Computer Search - The defendant must submit his computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to a search. The defendant must war any other people who use these computers or devices capable of accesing the Internet that the devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. A United States Probation Officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition onnly when reasonable suspicion exists that there is a violation of a condition of supervision and that the computer or device contains evidence of this violation. Any search will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

Financial Information Disclosure - In connection with the restitution, the defendant must provide the United States Probation Officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The United States Probation Office may share financial information with the United States Attorney's Office.

Financial Restrictions - The defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the United States Probation Office until such time as the restitution is paid.

Restitution - Upon release from incarceration or placement on supervision the defendant shall pay the balance of any restitution owed at a monthly rate to be determined by the United States Probation Office of no less than $100.00 per month.

Supervised Release - The Court will transfer the supervision of, but not the jurisdiction, to the United States Probation Office in the District to which the defendant is released.
