

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER POPE,

Defendant.

Case No.: 1:21-cr-00128-RC

MOTION TO TRAVEL TO THE INAUGURATION

On March 5, 2021, the Court entered an order setting conditions of release (ECF No. 16), that prohibited me, the defendant, from traveling to the District of Columbia except for Court. For the last four years, I have followed these conditions. I have also received permission from the Court to travel to the District of Columbia on two occasions, and did so without incident. The first was in May 2023 for the purposes of viewing January 6 CCTV at the Congressional access terminals in a Congressional building. The second was to take a court-ordered evidentiary tour of the United States Capitol in October of 2024, and to observe court proceedings in other cases.

I now move the Court for permission to travel to Washington, D.C. for the purpose of attending the Presidential Inauguration on January 20, 2025. Initially, I had declined an invitation to attend the inauguration (since I don't enjoy being in Washington), however, I have now been asked a second time, and I believe it would be inappropriate for me to turn this request down.

I do not anticipate being in Washington before January 19, or after January 21. As with all my previous trips to D.C., I will be entirely peaceful. Since arranging travel is time-sensitive, I respectfully move the Court to make an expedited ruling.

Respectfully submitted to the court,

By: William Pope
