UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Case No.: 21-CR-246-1 (ABJ)

v.

DANIEL J. RODRIGUEZ

Defendant.

STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

(REDACTED / PUBLIC)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Daniel J. Rodriguez, with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. The U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured twenty-four hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police (USCP). Restrictions around the Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by USCP. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol.

2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was closed to members of the public.

3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the U.S. Capitol. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in the Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on Tuesday, November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 PM. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 PM, the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. Temporary and permanent barricades, as noted above, were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol, and USCP officers were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol and the proceedings underway inside.

5. Just before 2:00 PM, certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades. Officers of the USCP were forced to retreat and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks as required by USCP officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway, and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the USCP attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the U.S. Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 PM, individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the U.S. Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $2.7 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 PM, members of the House of Representatives and of the Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 PM on January 6, 2021. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the U.S. Capitol building and grounds—including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the U.S. Capitol without any security screening or weapons check—Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had been removed from or left the U.S. Capitol, and USCP confirmed that the building was secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 PM after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the U.S. Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Daniel Rodriguez's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

8. The defendant, Daniel Rodriguez, lived in Panorama City, California. On or about January 3, 2021, the defendant traveled from Los Angeles, California to Washington, D.C., via rental car. The purpose of the defendant's trip to Washington, D.C., was to protest Congress's certification of the Electoral College vote.

9. Prior to January 6, 2021, the defendant was part of a Telegram group chat, the "PATRIOTS 45 MAGA Gang," (hereinafter, "the Patriots 45 group chat") to support former President Donald J. Trump and to discuss with others what he asserted was a stolen or fraudulent election result. On December 19, 2020, a member of the Patriots 45 group chat posted that "Trump is calling one everyone to go to DC Jan 6th" along with a screenshot of a Twitter post by former President Trump, which stated "Statistically impossible to have lost the 2020 Election. Big protest in D.C. on January 6th. Be there, will be wild!"

10. On or about December 23, 2020, the defendant told the Patriots 45 group chat, “we gotta go handle this shit in DC so the crooked politicians don’t have an army of thugs threatening violence to back their malevolent cabal ways[.]”

11. On or about December 29, 2020, the defendant posted in the Patriots 45 group chat, “Congress can hang. I’ll do it. Please let us get these people dear God.”

12. On or about January 3, 2021, the defendant and several other individuals left the Los Angeles area in a rental vehicle and drove across the country to Washington, D.C. The defendant’s vehicle joined a caravan to Washington, D.C. in Louisville, K.Y., and set up communications via a cellphone application with others in the caravan.

13. On the morning of January 6, 2021, the defendant and several others attended the speech by former President Trump at the “Stop the Steal” rally at the Ellipse in downtown Washington, D.C. After the rally, the defendant joined with thousands of other rioters on the grounds of the U.S. Capitol.

14. At approximately 2:40 p.m. on January 6, 2021, the defendant made his way to the Lower West Terrace of the U.S. Capitol building, and joined with others who were trying to gain access to the building through the “tunnel” in front of the doors to the building. From approximately 2:40 p.m. until approximately 3:15 p.m., the defendant and other rioters were pushing against police officers, who were preventing rioters from entering the Capitol building. During that time, the defendant participated in a heave-ho effort with other rioters and deployed a fire extinguisher at officers.

15. At approximately 2:52 p.m., while in the tunnel, the defendant received a small, black, electroshock weapon from another rioter inside the tunnel. At approximately 3:18 p.m., after the “tunnel” had been cleared by police officers, and the rioters were on the Lower West Terrace inaugural platform, Metropolitan Police Department Officer Michael Fanone was pulled into the crowd by another rioter. The defendant applied the electroshock weapon to the back of Officer Fanone's neck. Officer Fanone subsequently lost consciousness and was later admitted to Washington Hospital Center for treatment for his injuries.

[REDACTED]

17. After 3:18 p.m., other rioters broke a window to the left of the tunnel on the Lower West Terrace. The defendant climbed through the broken window into room ST2M inside the U.S. Capitol building. The defendant then went into an adjacent room—ST4M—where he attempted to break another window by slamming an object repeatedly into the window. The defendant then followed other rioters into ST6M, another room in the U.S. Capitol building, where he encouraged other rioters to “look for intel.” The defendant opened bags in the office, rifled through papers on the desks, and subsequently removed emergency escape hoods from their bags. The defendant then left the U.S. Capitol building when police officers cleared the rooms.

18. At approximately 4:00 p.m., the defendant posted in the Patriots 45 group chat “Omg I did so much fucking shit rn and got away tell you later” and “Tazzed the fuck out of the blue[.]”

19. Upon arriving back in California, on or about January 10, 2021, the defendant drove himself and others to the home of Person One. During that visit, one of the defendant’s coconspirators walked around Person One’s residence, unplugged all of Person One’s Amazon Alexa devices, and indicated through miming to Person One not to speak out loud. While at Person One’s residence, the coconspirator wrote in a notebook belonging to Person One, “I WANT TO HELP YOU DELETE EVERYTHING AND TO TRANSFER THE FILES TO A SECURE HARD DRIVE.” Person One believed that was discussing photos and videos taken by Person One at the United States Capitol on January 6, 2021, including materials that showed the defendant and others participating in the riot. While visiting Person One’s home on or about January 10, 2021, the defendant attempted to facilitate the destruction of Person One’s evidence so that it could not be used in an investigation into the events at the United States Capitol on January 6, 2021.

Elements of the Offense

20. Daniel Rodriguez knowingly and voluntarily admits to all the elements of Conspiracy, Obstruction of an Official Proceeding, Tampering with Documents or Proceedings, and Inflicting Bodily Injury on Certain Persons with a Deadly or Dangerous Weapon. Specifically, defendant admits that:

- Count One: The defendant willfully and knowingly agreed or conspired with one or more other persons to commit an offense against the United States, namely Obstruction of an Official Proceeding and Tampering with Documents or Proceedings, and that, to further the objective of that conspiracy, committed one or more overt acts in furtherance of that conspiracy.

- Count Two: The defendant willfully and knowingly entered the U.S. Capitol Building and Grounds knowing that he did not have permission to do so. Defendant further admits that while at the U.S. Capitol Building and Grounds, he corruptly obstructed, influenced, and impeded an official proceeding, that is, a proceeding before Congress, specifically, Congress's certification of the Electoral College vote as set out in the Twelfth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and 3 U.S.C. §§ 15-18.
- Count Three: The defendant willfully and knowingly did corruptly alter, conceal, destroy, mutilate, and conceal a record, document, and other object, and attempted to do the same, with the intent to impair its integrity and availability for use in an official proceeding, that is, the grand jury investigation into the attack on the Capitol on January 6, 2021.
- Count Six: The defendant forcibly assaulted, resisted, opposed, impeded, intimidated, or interfered with Officer Michael Fanone, a person designated in 18 U.S.C. § 1114, while engaged in or on account of the performance of their official duties. Specifically, the defendant admits that he used an electroshock weapon on the neck of Officer Michael Fanone, involving physical contact with that officer and causing bodily injury to that officer. Officer Fanone was a person assisting the United States Capitol Police, that is, an officer from the Metropolitan Police Department. The defendant further admits that he knew at that time of the assault of, resisting, opposition to, impeding of, intimidation of, or interference with the officer that the officer was engaged in the performance of their official duties or that he assaulted, resisted, opposed, impeded, intimidated, or interfered with the officer on account of their performance of their official duties.
