CASE NO. 1:21-CR-268 (CJN)

MOTION TO STAY PRETRIAL DEADLINES

The government moves to stay the current pretrial deadlines in this matter.

Trial in this case is currently set to begin on December 11. Several deadlines in advance of trial are approaching, including the deadline to oppose any motions in limine (November 13), to reply to such oppositions (November 20), and to provide a pretrial statement (same).

The government understands that the defendant seeks to terminate his relationship with current defense counsel: if so, they will be the seventh and eighth lawyers the defendant has rejected. The government also understands that defense counsel is conferring with the Court ex parte on this issue. Given that the defendants' representation—and, presumably, the trial date—are in flux, the government requests that current pretrial deadlines be stayed, and that the Court schedule a hearing to resolve the issue of the defendant's representation.

DATED: November 13, 2023

Respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW M. GRAVES
