STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Eric V. Von Bernewitz, with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant’s guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. The U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol.

2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was closed to members of the public.

3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

5. At approximately 2:00 p.m., certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades, and officers of the U.S. Capitol Police, and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by U.S. Capitol Police Officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the U.S. Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $1.4 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. the same day. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the U.S. Capitol, including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the U.S. Capitol without any security screening or weapons check, Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had left the U.S. Capitol, and the building had been confirmed secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 p.m. after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Eric V. Von Bernewitz's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

8. Around late January 5, 2021, to early January 6, 2021, the defendant, Eric V. Von Bernewitz, traveled from Virginia Beach, VA to Washington D.C. with his brother, Paul Von Bernewitz, to attend a political rally on January 6, 2021. Following a political rally held on the National Mall in front of the White House, Eric and Paul Von Bernewitz walked with a crowd to the U.S. Capitol. As they approached the U.S. Capitol, members of the crowd pushed aside gates blocking the crowd from the Capitol building. Eric and Paul Von Bernewitz observed police stop rioters at the base of a stairway on the east side of the U.S. Capitol. They witnessed rioters push against this police-line and moved with the crowd up the stairs when the police-line broke, enabling the rioters to advance to the doors of the U.S. Capitol.

9. At approximately 3:03 p.m. Eric and Paul Von Bernewitz entered the U.S. Capitol through an opened door in the middle of a large crowd and a chaotic scene. They walked past broken windows on doors that had been forced open and U.S. Capitol alarms were audibly sounding. Once they were inside the U.S. Capitol, Eric and Paul Von Bernewitz entered the Rotunda and were among a large crowd that was loud with horns and chants.

10. While Eric and Paul Von Bernewitz were within the Rotunda, U.S. Capitol Police, some dressed in riot gear, formed a line on one side of the Rotunda and began a push to get rioters to leave the Rotunda and the U.S. Capitol. Eric and Paul Von Bernewitz were present when this police line formed and observed as officers engaged some rioters. Eric and Paul Von Bernewitz left the Rotunda voluntarily as the police line approached their location. They were within the U.S. Capitol for less than fifteen minutes.

11. Eric V. Von Bernewitz knew at the time he entered the U.S. Capitol building that he did not have permission to enter the building and he paraded, demonstrated, or picketed within the building, in violation of 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(G).

Respectfully submitted,
