STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Israel Tutrow, with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. The United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, S.E., in Washington, D.C., is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the Capitol.

2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the Capitol was closed to members of the public.

3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the Capitol. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol and the proceedings underway inside.

5. At approximately 2:00 p.m., certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades, and officers of the U.S. Capitol Police, and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by U.S. Capitol Police officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $1.4 million for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. the same day. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the Capitol, including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the Capitol without any security screening or weapons check, Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had left the Capitol, and the building had been confirmed secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 p.m. after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Tutrow's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

8. Tutrow, his friend Joshua Wagner, and another individual traveled from Indiana to attend the rally President Donald Trump planned to hold in Washington, D.C., on January 6, 2021. After arriving in Washington that day, they made their way to the Capitol.

9. As he walked to the Capitol with Wagner and the other individual, Wagner recorded videos on his cellphone that capture his first-person perspective. Wagner primarily walked behind Tutrow as he recorded these videos, and captured Tutrow wearing a black hooded sweatshirt, a camouflage vest, and a black knit hat. At least once in the videos, Wagner referred to Tutrow as “Izzy.” Eventually, Tutrow and Wagner unlawfully entered the Capitol, and both admitted to each other that they entered the building.

10. A video Wagner recorded captured Tutrow inside the Capitol in the area known as the Capitol Crypt, wearing the black hooded sweatshirt and camouflage vest, and other video evidence also depicted Tutrow exiting the Capitol, wearing the black knit hat. In another video Wagner recorded, Tutrow admitted he went inside the building with a knife, and expressed concern he would get in trouble for that.

11. Later in the day on January 6, 2021, and in subsequent days, Tutrow became anxious about his conduct at the Capitol. Following the issuance of an arrest warrant, he turned himself in to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”) on January 27, 2021, and gave a voluntary interview with the FBI. During the interview, he admitted entering the Capitol and remaining inside for approximately 30 minutes. He also admitted seeing officers engaging rioters and deploying tear gas on one side of the Capitol, so he went around and entered on the other side of the building.

12. Tutrow knew at the time he entered the Capitol that he did not have permission to enter the building and he paraded, demonstrated, or picketed inside the building.
