SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

12 months (1 year) as to each Count 1s and 2s and 24 months (2 years) as to Count 6s of supervised release, with all counts to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4.  You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7.  You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: NOAH BACON
CASE NUMBER: 21-CR-488 (CRC)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The court authorizes the transfer of supervision to the District Court of Massachusetts.

You shall comply with the following special conditions:

1. Substance Abuse Treatment - You must participate in an inpatient and/or outpatient substance abuse treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.).
2. Substance Abuse Testing - You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance. You must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.
3. Mental Health Treatment - You must participate in a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.).
4. Financial Information Disclosure - You must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the United States Attorney's Office.
5. Re-entry Progress Hearing - Within sixty days of release from incarceration or placement on supervision, you will appear before the Court for a re-entry progress hearing. Prior to the hearing, the probation officer will submit a report summarizing your status and compliance with release conditions. If you are supervised by a district outside of the Washington DC metropolitan area, the United States Probation Office in that district will submit a progress report to the court within 60 days of the commencement of supervision; upon receipt of the progress report, the Court will determine if your appearance is required.

You are ordered to make restitution to in the amount of $2,000 to the Architect of the Capitol. Restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of the Court for the United States District Court, District of Columbia, for disbursement the victim.

6. Financial Payment Schedule – Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows:

-- Payment in equal monthly installments of $100 over a period of 20 months to commence after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

The Probation Office shall release the presentence investigation report to all appropriate agencies, which includes the United States Probation Office in the approved district of residence, in order to execute the sentence of the Court. Treatment agencies shall return the presentence report to the Probation Office upon the defendant's completion or termination from treatment.

NOTICE OF APPEAL

As to Counts 1, 2, and 6, You have the right to appeal your conviction(s) of guilt to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3742(a), you also have a statutory right to appeal your sentence to the D.C. Circuit under certain circumstances, including if you think the sentence was imposed in violation of law or as a result of an incorrect application of the sentencing guidelines or is more severe than the maximum established in the guideline range. You may also appeal your sentence if you believe you received ineffective assistance of counsel at sentencing.

DEFENDANT: NOAH BACON
CASE NUMBER: 21-CR-488 (CRC)

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As to Counts 3, 4, and 5, You have the right to appeal your conviction(s) of guilt.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3742(a)(4), you also have a statutory right to appeal your sentence imposed on the Class B/C Misdemeanor under certain circumstances, including if you think the sentence was imposed in violation of law or "is plainly unreasonable." You may also appeal your sentence if you believe you received ineffective assistance of counsel at sentencing.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, you also have the right to challenge the conviction entered or sentence imposed, to the extent permitted by that statute.

Any notice of appeal must be filed within fourteen days of the entry of judgment or within fourteen days of the filing of a notice of appeal by the government. If you are unable to afford the cost of an appeal, you may request permission from the Court to file an appeal without cost to you. On appeal, you may also apply for court-appointed counsel.
