Dear Judge Mehta,

I am writing to you in support of my friend and colleague, Edward Vallejo. My name is Adam Kokesh and I am the chair of a nonprofit called Homefront Battle Buddies. Our primary purpose is to host retreats for US military veterans at my homestead in the mountains of northern Arizona. Edward is our Program Director and one full time staff member. He is the engine of our organization. When Edward was arrested, we were building the facility to host retreats and supervising a team of veteran interns here. Edward and I recently attended a safeTALK suicide awareness training that we drove to Bozeman, Montana to attend. He is critical to our organization and passionate about our mission.

I have known Edward for about 14 years going back to our involvement in the Ron Paul campaigns and activism around it. Edward has always been a positive presence in the activism community in Arizona. He has always been kind and generous to everyone he works with. He has also been a powerful force of de-escalation of conflict, using his age to get younger activists to stay calm and see the bigger picture.

Edward is highly motivated by his principles and his big picture is a world where everyone is free because everyone gets along. While I am not now, nor have I ever been a Trump supporter, unlike my friend Edward, and so had nothing to do with anything supporting Trump, I respected his decision to go to DC for what I know to be his principled intention to protect people and help serve food. The real reason he wasn't doing so many of the things he has been accused of is that it was never his intent and out of line with his truly gentlemanly character. I can't imagine him being a threat to the community in any way, whether that is our community of veterans, activists, or the people of Arizona.

When we went to the suicide awareness training, we had to sleep in his truck without heat in a freezing church parking lot because all the motels were sold out for a big football game. Because we barely slept, we sat in the front row in order to stay alert. While I was just trying to keep the coffee coming, he was the most energetic student in the class. He always had his hand raised and was the first to volunteer for every exercise. It was borderline embarrassing, but everyone in the class fell in love with him. I wish you could appreciate his energy the way that we who know him do.

Having not been detained since the January 6th events, we were shocked to learn of his detention. The government was originally correct to see that he was no threat. They are incorrect in demanding his detention now. Our organization has mostly fallen apart without him. His friends miss him. The world, our country, and the veterans community needs more men like Ed, not less. We want him free to continue his righteous work with us and I humbly beg you grant his motion for pretrial release.

Sincerely,

Adam Kokesh

Washington, DC 20001

Dear Judge Mehta,

I am writing on behalf of my friend and someone I'd consider family, Mr. Edward Vallejo. My Name is Joie Leigh and I am a full time resident at Adam Kokesh's property which serves as the staging grounds for his veterans non-profit, Homefront Battle Buddies(HBB) of which Mr. Vallejo is the Program Director. I have known Ed for just under a year since he set up camp on the property in Ash Fork, Arizona during the spring/summer of 2021. While I am not directly affiliated with HBB I am witness to the work that goes into its organization on a daily basis.

Ed is an incredibly motivated individual and his motivation from what I've observed is primarily to help others. When he stays at the property he wakes up every morning and gleefully begins doing light work around the property. He cares for the animals on the property as if they were his own children which mirrors his interactions with the people he comes in contact with on a daily basis. This is just one of the many galant character traits that Ed possesses which makes him a perfect fit for Program Director of HBB in working directly with veterans who feel lost and are looking for a compassionate ear.

Ed was there for me when my 16 year old cattle dog was suffering from 3rd degree burns all over her body. He literally pulled her from the fire she stumbled into and saved her life then took her and I to the vet an hour away from the property. It was Ed's compassionate words on the way to the vet that calmed me down from the state of shock and fear I was in watching her suffer. Ed has helped me repair my vehicle, helped me build things around the property, he's been here when Adam is traveling just so that I don't have to be alone. I could go on for a few more paragraphs on the many ways Ed has been there to assist me without ever being asked or ever asking anything in return.

In all my many interactions with Ed over the past year I've never seen him get angry, act violent or speak ill to me or of others. Ed maintains principles of peace and non-agression in everything he does and for him to be considered a threat to the public or any living creature for that matter is simply outrageous from what I know of him.

While I understand the courts concern in bringing the participants of the events on January 6th to trial in order to get to the bottom of their motives I do not think that holding Ed in a concrete cell until that time is needed. Ed has expressed even prior to his arrest that he wants to cooperate with the investigation and even drove to the FBI field office in Phoenix voluntarily in order to do just that. Not having Ed around feels like a family member is missing as he is a staple to this property and all the charitable efforts coming out of it.

Please consider allowing Ed the basic comfort of being home with his immediate and extended family until his trial date as he has never been a threat to anyone from what I've observed. While Ed may be passionate about his political views that are sometimes different from mine, his passions have always been expressed with undertones of charity and good will. His friends and family need him.

Sincerely,

Joie Leigh

Dear Judge Mehta,

I write in support of my good friend of several decades, Edward Vallejo. I'm a successful businessman in the Phoenix Valley [Semi-retired] a former EMT and lifelong student of the Liberal Arts.

The last time I saw Ed, we were headed out to have lunch. I was driving. Suddenly Ed starts screaming at me to pull over and stop the car. Ed leaps out of the car before it stops moving. I figured he was going to come back with a kitten or an injured bird. This time it was somebody's lost wallet. I thought to myself, "Typical. Just typical."

Right then I knew two things:

1. The juicy burger I so wanted for lunch just wasn't gonna happen.

[ ] We were going to spend the rest of the afternoon tracking down the owner of this wallet to hand deliver it personally. [ ]o matter what it took.

And that's what happened. At Ed's insistence, we asked passersby and stopped into every store and shop. Finally, we found somebody with vague directions up a dirt road. We canvassed the neighbors and eventually found an old guy whose face lit up with pure joy when we handed him back his wallet.

He said, "I'd have been glad to get it back without the money in it." Nope, it's all there. Cash, cards, license, everything. You have a nice day Sir! Ed was so happy you'd think he'd won the lottery.

The sun was dipping low when I got home and decided that it was finally time to have lunch. I wanted a good burger but I ended up opening a can of tuna. I wasn't really happy about this but this is what it's like having Ed for a friend. People come first. Animals come first. Any living and sentient being comes first. Generous [ ] Ferociously so I would say.

Ed is a true man of passion, but his tools are an abundance of love, sunshine and gratitude to God for giving him a chance to prove it by helping people.

Some of us have known Ed for decades. There are no witnesses, stories or recollection of Ed ever using violence against anyone. What he does do, like many combat trained soldiers, is frame things in military terms. A morning walk is "recon", breakfast is "the chow line", the day's activity is the "detail". These guys communicate in this lingo to identify and maintain their bonds of brotherhood.

Just before his arrest, Ed was close to realizing his decades long dream of completing new care facilities for veterans of our armed forces. These are complete care facilities that include housing, treatment and rehabilitation. Ed has racked up an impressive array of certifications and credentials as a caregiver and counselor. These are donations-driven projects that are supporting patients right now. Veteran volunteers and patients have taken an active role in building these facilities.

Unfortunately these volunteers lack the credentials, experience and personal growth to continue their treatment. Interruption in this treatment is having a severe negative impact on patients. In short, veterans are a brotherhood, they only trust other veterans and building trust takes time and consistency. Right now they feel abandoned. This is an at-risk population with staggeringly high rates of suicide, divorce rates, substance abuse and an inability to overcome their experiences and physical injuries without qualified help.

I am sure that if released, Ed will continue to build his patient care facilities and try to regain time lost with patients. He will continue this activity until he passes from this Earth. Until then he will keep an eye out for at-risk inmates and he will figure out how to minister to them. I tell you this with all the certainty of the sun rising in the morning. It's just what he does.

Thanks for your time. Greetings from warm and sunny Arizona

Dear Judge Mehta,

My name is Debbie Vallejo and I am Ed's wife. We have been happily married for 34 years. We meet when working a courier service and became fast friends. I think this is the secret to our relationship. We trust and respect one another.

The past year Ed has gotten involved in a non-profit organization whose mission is to help veterans with PTSD and depression. The compound is outside of Ash Fork, AZ. The property belongs to Adam Kokesh. They are building dormitories and rec center to house vets during their stay using recycled materials. On Nov.12, 2021 my husband and Adam drove to Bozeman, Montana for a suicide prevention training class at E-Free church of Bozeman. In Dec 2021 Ed attended another suicide prevention course here in Phoenix given by Brain Injury Alliance of Arizona. He graduated from the course with a certificate of completion. He told me taking the courses broke a lot of myths about suicide and how to identify and help a person in trouble.

Since the weather turned colder up north, my husband started spending the majority of his time here in Phoenix with me. We started to plan for my retirement for the first of year. Ed has been looking for the right housing for me to be comfortable in, where he would still be close enough to continue he's work at the complex. My husband has always wanted to help vets in some capacity and when this opportunity came along he jumped on it.

Ed also has been sober for about 37 years and has sponsored many people over the years. He helped me understand my ex-husband and helped me to take the blame off of myself for his actions. I am a much better and happier person because of my husband. I have always stated God gave him to me because I sure couldn't have found him by myself. I love him and miss him terribly.

I am willing to do what ever it takes to have him released and brought home. I will follow all the courts conditions. I don't drink or smoke and I'm a home body. I do work 40 hours a week at a job I have had for 23 1/2 years. If need be I can take time off with a seasonal leave of absence for up to a year. I hope this gives you the info you need for the appeal. If you need anything else please let me know.

Sincerely,
Debbie

[REDACTED]: I can hear you.

HOST: Okay let's uh, you know, crank this up. Um, go ahead and uh tell us what's going on there... to see... I think I got good volume on. You go ahead.

[REDACTED]: Alright well yesterday we arrived around noon. We hooked up with the Oath Keepers and we bivouacked [PH] with them uh in Arlington. Uh then we unloaded what we could. We got into D.C. as quickly as possible. We went to uh a gathering at the Supreme Court building, completely peaceful, very calm, lots of police but they were all calm and everything was fine. Uh, then we decided to go to another venue which was supposed to be bigger which it was at freedom pavilion, uh, or whatever they call it here, but it's a, you know, it's an air park area basically and its near the Washington Monument. We went down there and there were a lot more people and you know they had set up a complete you know media set up. We had speakers. It was completely peaceful. Uh we worked as security to get some high profile people, couple of generals, some other speakers, um that came in and addressed the crowd. And everybody was up lifted and excited but no violence whatsoever...very calm, no police interference. They were all good, everything was fine. They were around but there wasn't any interference.

HOST: Well you didn't have any counter protesting somebody... something...

[REDACTED]: There was but it was isolated to an area which is actually now renamed BLM park or whatever it's their area. And it's really only about five or six blocks from I mean you could walk there in two minutes you know.

HOST: Well how many, how many people in the counter BLM protest area?

[REDACTED]: There were maybe a couple of hundreds. Um a lot of police. They had like forty police right there with dozens of cars. So, um, yeah it was an amazing. It was it was weird because there were almost no police near us and the ones that were, were very calm and [UI] but there, they were wearing yellow, you know, highway like jackets for high visibility and there were lots of cars. I mean we we actually walked there to get somewhere else and so we got we got to walk right through it. I mean we didn't walk through it in a in an aggressive way we just walked on the expectation that that's going to be quick. There are hundreds of thousands of people showing up. There are caravans from all over the nation coming in. We just happened to get here early.

HOST: Yeah, no, this we're here earlier at Wesley Bolin and we had to come in early one for the show and uh and make sure we found a place to park with the bus and um so that you know it doesn't blend. But um, you know, we're on the, uh god what is it, the uh, southeast corner of Wesley Bolin parking lot. So we're got it kinda sideways you know overlooking the whole thing. And they're just now starting to arrive and just to like the five ten minutes ago I guess... what time is...I guess it's seven thirty was the time I guess...so there's a bunch of people coming.

█: Yeah. So, I mean the thing is is there are all kind of things being played... [OV]

HOST: Hold on, hold on, hold on a second...okay yeah...yeah...yeah, it's just a setting on the commrex is that I got to find out which button to turn down here when you're... We didn't get the rejoinder coming in so we went over but uh, um so that's all right. The uh...anyway we got this setup I need um wonder (pause) if there's a two way...

█: I'm gonna put you on mute for just a second but I'll be listening for ya...

HOST: Alright, cool.

[RC]

Welcome back, welcome back, welcome back. Uh, we're talking to █, good friend uh from the valley here. He and another gentleman uh went there...um is Ed with you, █?

█: Ed is with me but he's indisposed at the moment.

HOST: That's... that's fine. You know, Ed Vallejo was head of the meet up. He kinda ran that for the Ron Paul uh love-olution in 08 [UI] so he's well known by a lot of people. He's... he's all man...ooo man, he's he's amped up, gonna get some. He's not quiet either so I'm sure if somebody needs yellin' he'll take care of it for em. but uh, █, you know he's uh you know IT guy more logic and reason and we just reason we need to be in Washington D.C...what prompted you to go?

we had generals coming in. We even... and for, to me for a lesser extent, but maybe for others, Aex Jones spoke and some other individuals. [UI] Um and oh Ed's here and I'll let him continue in a second but basically the idea is, look; we're here. We're applying as much pressure as we can. The only uh and obvious next step is to uh go into armed conflict but hoping very much that that doesn't happen.

HOST: Now is that is that a possibility? Is that on the table? I mean, you know, it's uh, we're gonna...

█: Well everything's on the table.

HOST: Well I mean, you know, is everybody...we're going to protest and we're going to be really really you know really mad...you know we're going to be really...you know gosh darn it. [OV] I didn't like it until...if you don't have a credible threat. Then...

EV: Right.

HOST: I mean you know its tar and featherin' time at least what...[OV]

EV: Go away or I will [UI] a second time right.

HOST: I'm sorry...?

EV: Said it's the the old uh Monty Python go away or I shall taunt you a second time.

HOST: Right.

█: Um but, but, the fact is that um there are people here who are prepared have the will, have the facilities, to do more than taunt. The question is, you know, is there a shot heard 'round the world moment? The possibility...definitely exists.

HOST: You know, this is one thing it reminded me I, I asked [UI] we have more sign templates coming and uh one of them is, you know, it has a hyperdermic you know like we have in some of our signs. And the slogan is, "the shot heard H. E. R. D. around the world".

█: [UI] Nice pun.

HOST: You know, so I'm going, you know, that is, I, I don't know of a better motivator, a launch of what's gonna happen. And you know the shot, you know, heard h. e. r. d., in capital letters around the world I, I'm, I think people go whoa...that...whoa, whoa. And that's, you know, kind of the impact, but then, but then, what you you gonna fight em back with another hyperdermic? I mean, I'm, at some point this is...it's a test, you know...the...this is a test for humanity. This is a test and in Washington,[OV] I'm sorry, go ahead.

█: I think we cannot...I think we cannot fail. We have to stand and pass that test. [OV] That's why people are here. That is why people are here. You know um they are normally um very even tempered, uh, professionals and individuals, educated people. You know we're not a bunch of yahoo white supremacist skinheads. We are, we are doctors,, lawyers mothers, fathers, you know, people who are the core backbone of the United States. And we are here to say you're not going to get away with this.

HOST: In, in what way? I mean, you know, so we're gonna taunt ya a fifth time...what, what, uh,[OV] well let me explain to the audience what you're talking about. There's um, uh search for the holy grail. It's a Monty Python movie that was kind it was...you know the...you know the...english guy goes up to the castle and the french are up there. "You'll go... [UI] I will taunt you a second time." uh, you know and it was just and that's what he's talking about. It's like, you know, what are you gonna do to me? Well I'm gonna, I'm gonna yell at ya again, you know, they...

EV: I'm going too far in your general direction

HOST: Yeah.

█: [UI]

HOST: So this is...I'm looking at um, this. It can't keep being like that and I, and I see a lot of our activities and activism over last thirty years has really clearly articulated this including election fraud. Here in Arizona and Maricopa County in particular, we knew this was coming. We been, you know...

█: Well its a tinderbox and this right now, what we've seen, I mean, we have a little bit of inside information with the powers that would oppose the powers that be. Um but this is a tinderbox it just is a question of what is the precipitating event.

HOST: You know, this is just...I know Ed knows uh [UI] lone prairie out in the middle of the whatever but I mean you're out in the middle of the whatever I mean damn. so um it's I, I see what's coming I've known that this is going to be coming and like [REDACTED] says, there is a time that you can't keep backing up. No don't cross this line...okay, wait, wait, wait, this line. No, no, no, wait, wait, wait, this line. And everybody's got to have their line and mine was door to door uh gun confiscation was going to tell me what I need to know and I think that's coming. Then there's um uh drafting my children into somebody's war. Well, now they're their own adults and now it's like my grandkids into some war and I, I think I'm gonna have to put on the list foreseen notions and potions from the crown into our flesh. You know, if we don't get in..informed consent, you know, that is, that,man that was warned by all kinds of biblical and founding fathers and, you know, patriots and you know from throughout history are going woah, woah,woah. when they can force you to take this elixir. Yeah, you got issues and that's that's my that's a, that's a hill to die on for me. And I'm just, I'm not going to associate with other people that, you know, that fake it, that say they're going to but not. It's too dangerous. You know when, when you do something, I don't even want to be part of it, I'm, I'm the lone-wolf. You can't infiltrate a militia of one, you know...

[REDACTED]: (Laughing) Right.

HOST: ...you know [REDACTED]'s gonna go hey, look at this story. I'm gonna go ah man, that's that's interesting, you know...when you did it, you know what I mean, I'm just...

EV: Right.

HOST: ...I, I'm not trusting of any any of these groups or organizations or a new party and they're not addressing the core problem. It's the election fraud. We don't have a say. I've been screaming this forever and gee, where and detailed it and where is it one of the worst in the nation, uh...Maricopa County. I'm so shocked.

EV: Yeah, [REDACTED]. There's one thing I would like to say okay...my, my gut feeling, and that's the one I'm gonna go with, is we're going to be told...the American people are going to be told today that we have uh liberty and justice for all or they're gonna be told fuck you...okay...and if, and if they're told fuck you, that's going to be the declaration of a guerrilla war.

HOST: You know that's what I, I, just, you, you always hear me say it and I just want them to say it. Say it! You know, they go, you're not going to win. I go, I don't care. I just want them to say it. You know, well I think they're prepared to say it and do it and they... [OV]

EV: Well, I don't know. I'm, I'm just praying to God that Trump has his head on fucking straight and he knows what he's doing. He's got the machinations behind him, he's got all the proof in the world and he's gonna bring the fucking hammer down.

HOST: I hope so. But I...I... [OV]

EV: You know, that's the only that's our only, only hope. That's it. If that doesn't happen, then shit is on.

HOST: I, I hope so that he actually does because I'm not, I, I, I'm, my biggest concern is everybody um depending on somebody else to fix it for em. You know let's get...

█: Well we're not gonna, we're not... [OV]

EV: Well that's fine...no that's fine █, because I am the motherfucker that's gonna fix it for them. If they tell me today it's broken...

HOST: Well I, I don't need Ed to fix it for me either...

HOST: ...but you fix it for, you know, go fix it for you.[OV] Well let, let █ speak.

EV: You know what I've been tellin' people? You know what I've been telling people, █?

HOST: What?

EV: I've been telling people this for years. I'm the guy that everybody said no, Ed, you can't shoot 'em yet, it's too soon. No, Ed, you can't shoot the bastard yet, it's too soon. Well I've been telling them about five six months ago...they quit telling me.

█: Yeah, I had one last thought and that is that this is, as we say, that, that moment of truth. Um, it may take a few days to, to, come to pass but I, I believe that the world has not significantly changed since the Romans and what I believe in that is that the people who controlled Rome controlled the Army, okay, they controlled the military. If you have the loyalty of the military, then the rest doesn't matter and we can make anything pretty and modern about it but that brutal truth is still the, the determining factor about who controls what. So, if he has the military behind him, Trump will win. If he does not, he won't.

HOST: Well what do you think?

█: I don't have enough inside information to know but um my inclination is that he probably does.

HOST: [OV] Well certainly you'd, you'd hope the troops...this is going to be...this is the, the, the beginning is nigh, alright, that's my, my point. The beginning is nigh. Alright, I gotta get my next hour man. Thanks for coming on guys. This was awesome. I really appreciate it and let me know what happens. We'll get you back on. █ will contact you, okay?

you were already behind that long line you could move freely but you couldn't drive in there and I had to drive around the circumference of that and I could see this million more or more people moving in the direction of the Capitol.

(Music starts playing)

█: Uh the thing is is that there was no getting in uh at that point maybe...

HOST: Okay [UI] [OV] music has started and I wanna not miss any of this so when we come back we'll start with after the speech then the movement of people because I saw this in Ukraine. This is what they did. Hey go over here and they all got shot, you know. [UI] and now we're involved in a war in Ukraine. And it was just it was organized, manipulated...we'll find out when we come back.

[RC]

HOST: And █ and Ed in Washington D.C...alright we're picking up right where we left off. The speech uh we had it. Uh we were doing the live show from the Arizona state Capitol yesterday and after we got done at uh 10:00 our time noon was when I guess he was speaking so as we're finish up the Trump report █ and I [UI] were just yackin' it and then ah Trump started the speech. So we went ahead and just streamed it and put it up and included it in the show. And uh it wasn't too long, you know. He went on about you know, 'Murica, you know freedom and stop the steel kind of thing and then he's done. And that was in front of the White House. So, when he was done with the speech, █ and Ed said okay, then something happened, you know, people started going they were directed uh Pied Pipered to something. So, █ go ahead tell me what happened.

█: So that's a pretty good Segway. So at the end of the speech people started moving and it was a calm uh motion and I anticipated or I interpreted it that they were basically leaving to go back to their hotels or go home or do whatever they were going to do the rest of the day. But then, the stream and the tenor of the stream of people changed and we weren't in that crowd. We were not in that stream. We were observing from the outside. And when the tenor changed uh the next thing we knew there were first of all dozens of uh police cars were racing toward the Capitol um crossing our path uh and we said wow something must be going on. And then, at that point, we had gotten reports that they had, the crowd, had taken the Capitol building...where there were not reports yet that anyone had gone inside but that they had surrounded the Capitol building...and um...

HOST: [OV] Were they already pre-staged there or did they have time to walk there?

█: I'm sorry...could you repeat that?

HOST: Were they already pre-staged there at the Capitol?

█: No they had to walk there. It took a good 20 minutes to get from the place where the people were listening to the speech to uh to the actual Capitol building and that's about how long it would take at reasonable pace to walk it, so uh...but but like I said the tenor of the crowd changed um and there was def- definitely more boisterous movement that we could only observed from afar because we were not allowed to go past the barriers of the spokes to the wheel of the center city at that point...the center of the Capitol itself um and then basically we were relegated to driving out of the city because the police and everyone were directing all that traffic out of the city and there was really know where to turn because they had blocked off all turns left or right and you basically had one path out of the city. At that point then we were watching all the reports... [OV]

EV: We saw police [UI] when we exited D.C., we saw the on ramp up above was blocked █: [OV] ...it was blocked nobody was...

EV: ...not allowing anyone into D.C....

█: ...nobody was...

EV: all the outlets were blocked off. Nobody was allowed to come in and and help with what was going on because it must have been declared... [UI] [OV]

HOST: Okay so all of the exits that go into the city were blocked and getting' out, get out.

█: Yeah and the thing is is that this happened really in short order . I do not think this could not have been planned. It pretty much I think those individuals who were blocking and driving the traffic where it needed to go were pre-placed.

EV: I disagree, I disagree personally. Okay. There were so many Antifas that were infiltrated into the people and into the crowd that I'll tell you what [REDACTED], remember in Animal House where the the the the parade is going on and the marching band is going and the the guy throws the baton in the air and [UI] runs out pushes him and grabs the baton and takes [UI] down the alley. That's exactly what happened here. They had so many Antifas in there that they were mixed in there and they were agitated, okay... the people took the Capitol, surrounded the Capitol building but weren't gonna go in, weren't going to do anything. [OV] They were just there to make sure that those inside knew they were surrounded by all these people that wanted them to do the right thing.

HOST: Okay. So yeah, you know, it doesn't it didn't seem, you know in uh character for Trump supporters that I've ever seen any kind of anything that they're like you know [OV] pushing up against shields and stuff.

EV: I'll send you the video of the the people surrounding the building. A young kid, right, with Trump stuff on and he's got something in his hand looked like a sack okay or you know a a a blackjack and he's beatin' on one of the windows and to and to try and break it but it just kinda kind of crackles because it won't break and the crowd jumps this guy and holds him to the ground and one guy says nobody's breaking anything here. Then they held him down and they stopped him from breaking in. Okay? That's what was going on upstairs. Downstairs on one of the lower windows there's a group of Antifa...we know they're Antifa, we can identify them as Antifa with Trump stuff on...they've got two by fours okay, breaking the window in. Now, day before yesterday when we got here, it was reports where they came up with stashes of two by fours and propane tanks just like the brick stashes from Thoros. Okay? So they had stuff prepositioned here. They knew they that that people were gon- [OV]

HOST: Yeah so this is you know alright...

EV: [UI] They hijacked it.

HOST: Okay let me let me let me ask [REDACTED] this. [REDACTED],

EV: [OV] Sure.

HOST: I, I, I wanna, I wanna get a impression from you. Was there Antifa staging? You know did it seem like there were, you know, little younger, you know, little uh you know darker kind of uh you know got the black pants on and the you know shirt [UI] camoufla- We're all wearing Trump flags now. That was one thing, Trump, they were kinda I I didn't see Trump flags on a a bunch of dreadlock uh you know didn't wash guys before. I mean, you know, it just seemed, seemed like um tea party and they all dressed as Indians you know what i mean [laughing] so...

█: Well we were um had treated to that uh the night before. We were at Freedom Plaza and there were groups of younger individuals coming through um and they would, they were wearing a mixture of what I would consider to be the kind of garb that you would see on an Antifa group combined with you know Trump gear and I I got the feeling that there was something amiss even the night before. So yes there are um there were those groups of individuals mixed in. We got reports that there were individuals bussed in the night before as well. And, if you look at the video, you can get a sense that these are not your standard uh I don't want to be insulting but, you know, middle aged individuals who are you know they generally vote Republican and they uh you know they they they take care of their grandkids you know...these were not [OV] rioters.

EV: The group that attacked the Black Lives Matter Plaza night before last were not white conservative [OV] old men. I'll tell you that.

█: They were not. You can't you just can't imagine the incongruity of those individuals being accused of even attempting to cross a police line to attack any group. It just that's just unconscionable. [OV] I can't even imagine it and I knew it the moment it was reported that was not, if you want to say us. It was not (music playing) uh a group of uh patriots or...

HOST: But it had the impact...

█: of Trump supporters.

HOST: ...it had the impact of stopping you know the the steel evidence of information getting in when everybody's paying attention. It had the impact of optics to the rest of the world of Trump people see there they're a bunch of militia gotta be disarmed. It it it had the impact (█: [inaudible]) of whatever they wanted [OV]

HOST: ...we'll get more detail when we come back in just a little bit.

HOST: Ed and [REDACTED]... Okay, you know there was uh people made it into the House Chambers and I remember watching it live and they're doing the presentation of evidence and all that which went out the window...that oh oh we're not doing that anymore that uh we kinda you know it...who does it serve? Well it definitely served [UI] what happens. So they make sure it happens. That's just how it works. So then they said alright everybody you know you know...This is not a drill! Missiles inbound! You know get...anyway, so they get into some basement uh panic room or something and then the people actually make it into the House Chamber. Well they're walking around sittin' smokin' other people's cigars whatever and then uh we find out that 3:45 this morning uh Biden's confirmed. You know Biden you know he he's presidente elect now. Now it's kind you know it's ah I mean get over it. Well they did that late at night then you're saying that National Guard or somebody went in and cleared him out so they can go in the chambers. So you're saying that the activists, you know, protesters, whatever, they were in the Congressional House uh on the floor Congress until then or not or what what? Who's going to tell me?

[REDACTED]: We don't know when they cleared them out. But they cleared them out before the Representatives uh all took their uh what do you wanna call it [UI] on their positions to do whatever deeds they were gonna do. And there were some speeches but essentially it was a roll call as to whether or not uh individuals were gonna rebuke the vote and they were going to support uh uh you know fraud and to re- to uh object to the electors. And there were a couple of speeches, which I barely could watch, they made me so sick, because there were people who were committed to doing that who then said, well I was going to do this but now...

EV: ...her name is Babbitt.

HOST: This is a but yeah how come? I thought she was only sixteen?

EV: Um [OV] somehow she was shot through a a a door by a window. I guess she looked in the window and was shot through it by one of whoever it was. We got pictures of who the [UI]...

HOST: Yeah that's what I saw. The door it was it had a glass door and he shot her through a glass door. That was just I that's some weird stuff I...what the heck that was about and um so the woman that was shot she was a a veteran.

EV: Yes.

HOST: Okay let me go ahead and you know [REDACTED]'s got it up here on the front page. (Reading from website) [UI] News confirms identity. A woman shot and killed inside U.S. Capitol." I don't know, when I saw her laying down she looked quite younger than this. Okay, um... (reading from website) The woman who was shot and killed inside U.S. Capitol during the protest was from the San Diego area. Uh... talked to her husband. The woman is Ashley Babbitt, a fourteen year veteran who served four tours with the U.S. Air Force and was high level security official throughout her time in the service. Her husband said she was a strong supporter of President Trump and was a great patriot to all that knew her. The Metropolitan Police Department says investigation of her death continues blah blah blah okay so um yeah so she's Trump person. She was there and military and [UI] whatever and boom. Got killed. This is um, you know, this is why I always take the advice of three weeks. You know you don't yeah you whatever happens right then you can get live footage of whatever you know that's one thing and then you know, hell that get's doctored too, but um it's three weeks later and we're looking at by the end of January we're all going to be going ahh...Now we know what a lot closer to what really happened and uh manipulation it had on the process and uh not getting... EV: I'm never done.

█: You know, we're sitting here in, you know our digs if you will, ruminating over the events and trying to calculate what next steps are.

EV: Yeah I'm waiting for orders from Stewart Rhodes.

HOST: Ha, yeah Ed tha- that's Ed. You know that's one thing... █, get Stewart Rhodes on. Yeah go ahead and call yeah we haven't talked to Stewart in a while. Alright well Oath Keepers, Stewart Rhodes, they they got a plan.

EV: [OV] I should set up a three way call right now and put him on.

HOST: Uh it's too late now but um we'll we'll we'll get him on. The um so go ahead and give me...what do you think is gonna happen now, █? You know, you're saying you're just uh starting to talk about, you know, what now? What's your what now?

█: Well uh you know here's the thing. We're here prepared in all aspects to support the Constitution and and honor our oaths that we took. I mean we're we wanna support the Constitution. The the issue here then is what mechanism do we have to do that. Are there more people coming? If they do, what's gonna happen? Is it's not really plausible to non-violently protest anymore because the entire area is closed off and cordoned and curfewed uh... So the question becomes when we realize that this wrong has been done uh, what are the next steps? I mean is this this the shot heard 'round the world moment? I don't know. I don't know. I don't have omnipotent, omniscient, excuse me, omniscient intel on what the situation is. We are here uh because we wanna know what develops. We're staying here to allow these things to develop so that we can you know judge our position relative to what uh political events occur...what, what happens. Um this relies on a lot of things. How angry are people? Did they successfully manage to get this done without any real reaction from the American public because a few guys here who want to maintain the Constitution aren't going to do anything. America has to get mad and if America doesn't get mad then we're utterly useless.

HOST: Hell I'm hoping for Arizona to get mad. I'm just like you know I Washington D- don't mean nothing to me. Horizon went from god two three dollars now it's like fifteen sixteen or something you know and I bought more at like four eight or whatever like that 'cause I knew why. 'Cause they were focusing on privacy, you know. This is what's going to be the future and it's gonna be cryptocurrencies that are private and they can't track it. It's pirate communication.

█: Hmm, well that's the interesting thing is that cryptocurrency is yes a um medium or a a unit of value. But it also is a means to communicate. Uh I mean ultimately it's all about transactions. I mean the underlying technologies, block chain, and the we've only begun to scratch the surface of what we can do with block chain. But, yes. # Open letter to President Trump: You must use Insurrection Act to “Stop the Steal” and defeat the coup

(Natural News) “The time is now near at hand which must probably determine whether Americans are to be freemen or slaves; whether they are to have any property they can call their own; whether their houses and farms are to be pillaged and destroyed, and themselves consigned to a state of wretchedness from which no human efforts will deliver them. The fate of unborn millions will now depend, under God, on the courage and conduct of this army. Our cruel and unrelenting enemy leaves us only the choice of brave resistance, or the most abject submission. We have, therefore, to resolve to conquer or die.” – General George Washington, Address to the Continental Army Before the Battle of Long Island, August 27, 1776

(Article by Stewart Rhodes republished from OathKeepers.org)

President Trump,

We now face a moment of peril as great, or greater, as what General Washington and his men faced in 1776. The very survival of our nation as a free Constitutional Republic hangs in the balance. We have but one last chance to save it. The fate of unborn millions will now depend on your conduct, the conduct of the current members of our armed forces, and the conduct of we the many millions of American veterans and patriots who are still loyal to our Constitution.

When you were sworn in, you took the following oath, as mandated by Article II of the Constitution:

“I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.”

14:46 ed

It's time to honor that oath by defending the Constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic. This is your moment of destiny. Will you take your place in history as the savior of our Republic, right up there with President Washington and Lincoln? Or will you fail to act, while you still can, and leave office on January 20, 2021, leaving We the People to fight a desperate revolution/civil war against an illegitimate usurper and his Chicom puppet regime?

Here are the facts:

We are already at war with communist China and its willing American agents, puppets, and co-conspirators who seek to overthrow our Constitution, as well as the international elites and other foreign enemies who have aided and abetted this war on our nation. They have infiltrated and taken over every branch of government at every level, state and federal. War isn't coming – war is already here.

Communist China could never defeat us in open battle, so instead, it infiltrated and subverted our institutions, bought and blackmailed American elites, and made allegiance with willing domestic enemies of our Constitution, to defeat us from the inside out, without having to fire a shot, by using what is commonly referred to as “Fourth Generation Warfare” doctrines and methods. This is war by other means, but it is war nonetheless.

Through well-orchestrated mass vote fraud, the Communist Chinese and their domestic enemy allies are about to install their illegitimate puppet, Joe Biden, and his equally illegitimate puppet running mate, Kamala Harris, into the White House, with their treasonous fingers on the nuclear launch codes.

You must act NOW as a wartime President, pursuant to your oath to defend the Constitution, which is very similar to the oath all of us veterans swore. We are already in a fight. It's better to wage it with you as Commander-in-Chief than to have you comply with a fraudulent election, leave office, and leave the White House in the hands of illegitimate usurpers and Chinese puppets. Please don't do it. Do NOT concede, and do NOT wait until January 20, 2021. Strike now.

If you fail to act while you are still in office, we the people will have to fight a bloody civil war and revolution against these two illegitimate Communist China puppets, and their illegitimate regime, with all of the powers of the deep state behind them, with nominal command of all the might of our armed forces

(though we fully expect many units or entire branches to refuse their orders and to fight against them) and with their foreign allies also joining in to assist in the suppression of American patriots.

Without clean elections, we no longer have a Republic, and you are charged by the Constitution with preserving a republican form of government wherein the people actually elect their own representatives in clean elections. Article IV, Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution clearly commands you in this states:

“The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion.”

“Shall” is command language. And that command applies to all three branches of the federal government, including the executive branch which you run. And that command applies directly to you. You are commanded by the Constitution to take whatever action you must to ensure that we have a Republican form of Government – and that means clean elections. In the current dire circumstances where complicit traitors have been put into place in every branch of government (legislative, executive, judicial) at every level (local, state, federal), through fraudulent elections over many years, it means YOU will have to fix it, with the full support of loyal military service members and millions of military and police veterans, as well as millions of patriotic average Americans who stand with you 100% in doing what must be done.

It won't be fixed by corrupted legislatures, Governors, or the courts. The recent refusal by all but two of the Supreme Court Justices (including all of your own Supreme Court picks) to hear the Texas election fraud case shows that the cancer of cowardice, compromised officials, and treason has spread even to the Supreme Court. The disclosures of the corruption and blackmailing of Hunter Biden and the corruption of Rep. Swalwell by a Communist Chinese Spy, as well as the blackmail ring run by Jeffery Epstein, are the tip of the iceberg in how the deep state and its Chicom allies have taken over our establishment elites.

That corrupted establishment won't fix it, but We the People shall, one way or another and we need you to lead us in this great battle to save our Republic.

Further, the US Constitution states in Article I, Section 8 that Congress has the power:

To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress insurrections and repel invasions

Congress long ago provided for just that by passing the Insurrection Act which delegates that decision and power to you, as President and Commander-in-Chief.

The Insurrection Act, 10 U.S. Code, Section 252- Use of militia and armed forces to enforce Federal authority, states:

Whenever the President considers that unlawful obstructions, combinations, or assemblages, or rebellion against the authority of the United States, make it impracticable to enforce the laws of the United States in any State by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, he may call into Federal service such of the militia of any State, and use such of the armed forces, as he considers necessary to enforce those laws or to suppress the rebellion.

Section 253 of the Insurrection Act then states:

The President, by using the militia or the armed forces, or both, or by any other means, shall take such measures as he considers necessary to suppress, in a State, any insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combination, or conspiracy, if it—

(1)

so hinders the execution of the laws of that State, and of the United States within the State, that any part or class of its people is deprived of a right, privilege, immunity, or protection named in the Constitution and secured by law, and the constituted authorities of that State are unable, fail, or refuse to protect that right, privilege, or immunity, or to give that protection;

(2) opposes or obstructs the execution of the laws of the United States or impedes the course of justice under those laws.

In any situation covered by clause (1), the State shall be considered to have denied the equal protection of the laws secured by the Constitution.

Section 254 then states:

Whenever the President considers it necessary to use the militia or the armed forces under this chapter, he shall, by proclamation, immediately order the insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their abodes within a limited time.

Clearly an unlawful combination and conspiracy in multiple states (indeed, in every state) has acted to deprive the people of the fundamental right to vote for their representatives in a clean, fair election as is required in a free nation, striking at the very heart of what it means to have a republican form of government, and disenfranchising them. You, and you alone, are fully authorized by the Insurrection Act to determine that such a situation exists, and to use the U.S. military and the militia to rectify that situation. And the militia includes not only the National Guard units of each state, called into federal service, but also includes the body of the people, age 17-45, and especially us military veterans, who are by federal statute subject to call up for service as the militia until age 65, due to our prior training and experience.

As Article II declares, “The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of States, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into the actual Service of the Un You must call us up, and command us.”

We urge you to do the following simultaneously as both the chief law enforcement officer of the nation, and as the commander in Chief:

1. INVOKE THE INSURRECTION ACT: Issue a Presidential Proclamation, directly invoking the Insurrection Act, declaring an insurrection, rebellion, and coup to be in effect by domestic enemies of the U.S. Constitution and traitors who are in collusion with and/or acting as agents of a foreign enemy (specifically Communist China, but also other known or unknown foreign enemies) and to call up the militia (including the National Guard, us veterans, and patriotic Americans of military age) and US military to suppress the insurrection. That proclamation should declare that domestic traitors have conspired with a foreign enemy, specifically Communist China, and have been either bribed or blackmailed by that enemy, and together they have subverted our electoral system from top to bottom to rig elections at every level, and to steal elections with the intent of overthrowing our Constitution and our way of life.

A. Order the data seized: Pursuant to that proclamation, order SOCOM and other trusted military units, to seize all databases of the CIA, FBI, NSA, DNI, etc and the records held by all state electoral systems and administrators. And order them to take possession of and preserve all evidence of the insurrection/rebellion/coup wherever it is housed or held and to counter and suppress any attempt by the insurrectionists to prevent the seizing of the data.

B. Order a mass declassification of the dirty secrets: Order SOCOM Intelligence officers and other trusted and loyal patriot intelligence officers to carry out your orders to declassifying ALL the dirty secrets and evidence of crimes by all the corrupt and compromised elites (in both major parties) to expose them all, and especially to expose their treason and their willing service to communist china and other foreign powers, as spies, agents, and puppets. Of course, those loyal intelligence officers should not declassify and disclose data that could put at risk loyal American operatives and allies in foreign nations, who are on legitimate missions that are related to our legitimate national interests. Only disclose data on traitors and their treason.

C. Within all that data will be the evidence needed to expose the vote fraud and who is behind it, as well as expose all the corrupt judges, state Attorney Generals, governors, legislative leaders, election officials, etc.

D. Order a massive public “Wikileaks” style data-dump to put all the dirty secrets of the compromised elites on display to the American people. Those secrets are the very “swamp water” that the DC swamp creatures swim in. Those dirty secrets both control and shield them all. The doors open, and dump all the skeletons out of the closets and onto the streets for all the people to see, and for all the world to see.

E. Pardon and free Julian Assange and ask him to assist in this massive data-dump public disclosure. He is a hero who has dedicated his life to battling the deep state and deserve our thanks and a chance to serve not just America, but all humanity by assisting in this great cause.

F. Fire Barr and removed him from office immediately (UPDATE: Barr has resigned, but needs removed immediately. Don’t let him run the clock out even a day more). The replacement should not come from within the beltway.

You must appoint a REAL patriot Attorney General who will actually fight and actually clean house. Look outside the beltway for a real patriot. We will help you find one who will actually fight for the Republic. This is a populist movement, and the people are still being locked out, which is why you keep getting betrayed over and over. Appoint REAL patriots who are outsiders.

E. Appoint a special prosecutor and task force. The new Attorney General should appoint a special prosecutor with a full task force to investigate and indict all those involved in the vote fraud and to go after the Deep State from top to bottom, including within the DOJ, prosecuting all traitors in all branches, and all levels, to root out all who are actively committing treason, and who have been compromised, blackmailed, or bought out by Communist China and/or other foreign enemies.

F. Fire Wray and put a patriot in place as FBI Director to clean house in the FBI and to actually do their jobs.

2. Order the U.S. Military to go to Defcon 2, or even Defcon 1, to defend our nation from external threats while we suppress this internal insurrection. It is imperative that we maintain strict control of our nuclear arsenal in patriot hands and that our armed forces stand ready to repel foreign attack and interference while we handle this necessarily drastic domestic house cleaning.

3. Call the militia into federal service. Pursuant to your powers as Commander-in-Chief to call forth the militia, call up all National Guard units into federal service, and likewise call up all military veterans up to age 65 into federal service as the militia to assist in keeping the peace here at home. Also call up all able-bodied Americans between the ages of 17-45 who are still loyal to the Constitution to likewise report for duty, bearing their own arms. You have the power to command them and order them to report for duty at their nearest military base or National Guard armory in their state. All of the above, as the militia, can be used to keep the peace in our local and state communities, under your direct command, to suppress the expected riots, terrorism, and armed insurrection by the radical left in the United States (who have been armed and equipped for months now by our foreign and domestic enemies).

3. CONDUCT A CLEAN ELECTION/CLEAN UP OUR CORRUPTED AND COMPROMISE ELECTION SYSTEM.

We will post advise on this shortly. Stay tuned. It is both simple, and very complex, given the advanced cancer of corruption in our voting system.

CONCLUSION: WE ARE IN FOR A FIGHT, NO MATTER WHAT. LET'S GET IT DONE WITH YOU AS COMMANDER IN CHIEF >

There is no way out but through. And we will NOT submit to a Chicom puppet regime. You must stand tall and use your constitutional powers to fight this war against enemies foreign and domestic while you are still President and Commander-in-Chief. If you fail to do so, we the people will have to fight a bloody revolution/civil war to throw off an illegitimate deep state/Chinese puppet regime.

You must use both your authority to invoke the Insurrection Act and your absolute power to declassify any and all secrets.

Because of the machinations of the complicit mainstream media, most Americans are ignorant of just how corrupted and compromised the establishment has become. They have no idea how many political, legal, media, and business elites are now compromised puppets of Communist China with the aid of the deep state traitors within our own intelligence and federal law enforcement agencies. That is why you must use SOCOM and other loyal military units to do a mass data seizure, declassification, and mass data-dump to throw all the skeletons out into the streets, exposing all the dirty secrets that are used to control American elites, and show the American people all the evidence that will show them who is dirty, who is a traitor, and who is a criminal. This will destroy the credibility of the traitors and make it far easier to defeat them, with the people themselves being the judge, and with our military service-members also clearly seeing who has turned traitor and who must not be obeyed. It is critical. You must do both. Expose them all, and then bring them to justice.

Know this: millions of American military and law enforcement veterans, and many millions more loyal patriotic American gun owners stand ready to answer your call to arms, and to obey your orders to get this done.

Q. Okay. Do you know whether Mr. Vallejo brought any weapons?

A. They had firearms equipment bags. But I never saw their firearms.

Q. How many equipment bags did you see, if you remember?

A. Probably one each.

Q. Did Mr. Vallejo and [REDACTED] bring additional supplies?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. Can you describe that for us?

A. Mr. Vallejo took approximately 200 pounds of food

Q. Have you heard the word Quick Reaction Force or QRF?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. Are you familiar with what that generally refers to?

A. My son calls it idiot's LARPing.

Q. Okay.

A. So --

Q. Where did you learn the term?

A. I heard it that day. Yeah, I heard it that day. It was on television actually I believe. They were mentioning that a bunch of I guess Oath Keepers were scary or something. And then I asked Ed about it, and Ed said, oh, that's a Quick Reaction Force is something that somebody's -- a campsite near yada, yada, yada. It's like I had no idea what he was talking about. I don't think he did either.

1 Q. So you think this was -- when you say that day,
2 the 6th --

3 A. The 6th.

4 Q. -- of January? So you said you heard something on 5 TV about it and then you talked to Mr. Vallejo about --

6 A. Right.

7 Q. -- a Quick Reaction Force?

8 A. That would be in the evening I spoke to him
9 because he was gone early in the afternoon of the 6th.

10 Q. And let me just unpack that a little bit.
11 Mr. Vallejo was familiar with the term Quick Reaction Force?

12 A. He knew what that meant, yes.

13 Q. And he told you there was a Quick Reaction Force?

14 A. Well, he said that that concept or, I guess, a 15 Quick Reaction Force was something that was in an area away
16 from Washington.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. And that they were, I guess, I don't know, looking 19 to be a Quick Reaction Force. Whatever that is.

20 Q. Who was looking to be the Quick Reaction Force?

21 A. I guess the Oath Keeping people.

22 Q. Do you know from -- did Mr. Vallejo say whether 23 the Quick Reaction Force would have weapons to assist their 24 mission?

25 A. I would assume that they did as opposed to a Quick

1 Reaction Force that was going to give hugs.

2 Q. Okay. Did Mr. Vallejo say anything though about
3 whether the Quick Reaction Force would have weapons?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did Mr. Vallejo ever tell you that he thought he 6 was serving as a Quick Reaction Force?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did [REDACTED] ever say --

9 A. No.

10 Q. -- anything about that?

11 A. Neither one of them thought that.

MS. RAKOCZY: I think the question is, if
Mr. Vallejo or [REDACTED] came back to the room and said, I'm

WITNESS: No. No, no, no. No, they never, ever touched any of the firearms.

[REDACTED]	12/31/2020	5:31 AM	One thing mentioned last night was how things may play out in DC. There are a number of various discussions on social media about everything from the left to the right getting ready to start major issues. One thing I will caution everyone on is the use of PSYOPS from both sides, hoping to scare off either side. While the only social media I use is Parler, I have observed this when someone makes a grandiose statement about what their group/or someone else, is going to do. When you look at that person's profile, they just set up the account, there is nothing in the personal profile, etc! So take everything we hear with some extra caution and thought. We do know that CCP bots are active on social media and attempting to stir us issues, as is much of our own "media". If you have looked at the stopthesteal.us website there are a LOT of high profile state, national, elected officials and conservative media folks who will be speaking. While I would not rule out the mayor of DC doing... Read More
Ok Gator 1	12/31/2020	8:09 AM	Flynn detail on Tuesday Are we primary detail or back up? Trying to get some guys up early to assist
[REDACTED]	12/31/2020	9:25 AM	We will likely be assisting, most of these folks have a small detail in place, but need assistance moving through the crowd or ahead of vehicles. Personally I am not sure on who we will be assisting with, but told Flynn maybe one....but he is not on the speaker list that I can find. However that happened the last time also.

UserName	Date	Time	Content
[REDACTED]	12/31/2020	9:31 AM	Also realize that NOTHING is set with these folks. I was on the Flynn detail the last time and things changed on the fly ALL day!!! Many reasons, crowds, street closed, different venues, etc. So we could be assigned to one person and due to circumstances, that could change at any point! As all you military/LEO folks know, the best detailed plan survives only until the first contact! [emoji]
OK Gator 1	12/31/2020	9:56 AM	Data dump as started. Wikileaks just dumped all of their files online. Everything from Hillary Clintons emails, McCain's being guilty, Vegas shooting done by an FBI sniper, Steve Jobs HIV letter, PedoPodesta, Afghanistan, Syria, Iran, Bilderberg, CIA agents arrested for rap, WHO pandemic. Happy Digging! Hopefully I will also have some additional details by that time. Sorry about the mixup, but true to form from an old guy who will likely fall asleep before midnight!!!

[REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and I (and several other Oks) were all part of that. Like [REDACTED] said, very fluid and hectic. We also did a PSD for a couple other speakers/VIPs at the first DC event. This time around we have request for PSD for Ali Alexander (he's had death threats and is asking for a two-man dedicated OK PSD detail); from Bianca (Latinos for Trump) and Marsha (who have their own permitted event on the mall) and also from a patriot billionaire who is friends with Mrs. Blooinger (another speaker). We also have requests to provide security for the Jan 5 event by VA Women for Trump (Flynn scheduled to appear there) and on Jan 6 for Marsha and Bianca's event and to also help with Jericho March events. Much like last time - we will end up helping at all events. Some will have official paid security and we will be out in the crowd
Stewart Rhodes	12/31/2020	3:25 PM *It is not clear why this message appears to come out of time.	Bottom line, is those of you wanting to do PSD details will get plenty of opportunity. We may also end up assisting the PSD for Alex Jones again. Which was a great feather in our cap. We worked superbly will with both Alex Jones security team (who are awesome guys) and with Praetorian Guard (also awesome veterans - led by SF and SEAL veterans). They LOVE working with us because of our legit "quiet professional" demeanor and skillsets.

[REDACTED]	1/1/2021	1:33 PM	One item about being "paid" security is then running afould of their requirements for that and being certified to do so...just putting it out there for everyone. As always there are conflicting opinions and each can choose his own path. But with the DC administration, it is likely that they would use any excuse to get at us...while there is a 99% chance there would be no issue, if you would need to use a weapon or even display it....that's when the trouble would begin....

██████████	1/3/2021	6:19 AM	One thing with the radios for this event is the fact that unless we find out different from ██████████ about PSD details that maybe not known. The vast majority of the activities are going to be in a fairly open two block area around the Capital SCOTUS and Senate office buildings. Mostly line of sight, but may have some blind spots if they are marching around those buildings. Talking today with one of our folks who is a ham operator hopefully he can advise us if setting up a possible relay point, and where, so that if needed it could copy and relay those that can't catch the transmission. Going to take advice he can give us...but we hopefully with the terrain we are going to be on this time, it will not be an issue as long as we can have a clear channel.

[REDACTED]	1/3/2021	12:13 PM	At the last event I had one laminated map, and another folded, in a zip-lock sandwich bag. I ended up using the latter more, as it could easily go in my pocket. Another advantage was that it could be easily marked up as needed.

[REDACTED]	1/3/2021	12:36 PM	From an email I received from someone traveling up: "the March to Save America rally's main venue is on the 50-acre Ellipse just south of the White House. As we know, this merges into the Mall around the Washington Monument, and heads down to the Capitol, the scene of the "action." Getting "tickets" via the website for this event is, to me, a fool's errand. The fenced-area at the Ellipse will be totally full many hours before 11 AM. In fact, people will be camped out all night just to get in line to get into the Ellipse. All of these people, for all of these hours, will utterly overwhelm any sanitary plan. (And if the Metro is shut down and/or restricted, all bets are off for what will happen.) This Jan 6 event will be many times bigger than the Valdosta GA Trump rally that I attended, and that rally totally overwhelmed the portapotties, as in overflowing. This event will be orders of magnitude bigger, So I am not going to sign up for a nominal ticket that will give the bearer no act... Read More
[REDACTED]	1/3/2021	12:40 PM	This is where the President will speak from on Tuesday the 5th only as far as I see from the website...might have a few more speakers but most of those will be a Freedom Plaza or between the Capital/SCOTUS
[REDACTED]	1/3/2021	12:50 PM	Given the uncertainties around moving, maybe it would be preferable, if possible, to have teams stationed in specific areas, and minimize individuals' travel deep into crowded areas or from site to site. For those focused on protecting demonstrators, the primary threat to manage will presumably be along the out edges of the crowds anyway. So maybe having teams encircle the entire area at strategic points.

Women for America First, a conservative women's group which helped organize November's "Million MAGA March," requested a permit for a protest of about 5,000 in Freedom Plaza. A group called the Eighty Percent Coalition also requested a permit for 10,000 protestors in the same area. The group, whose name is a refernce to the approximately 80% of Trump voters who do not believe Biden won the election fairly, have titled their event the "Rally to Save America." Another smaller protest titled "The Silent Majority" is organized by the South Carolina conservative activist James Epley. It will lead several hundred protestors in a march from the National Mall to the Capitol. The United States Park Police confirmed that the per....Read More

[REDACTED]	1/4/2021	3:02 PM	So I would say we use and recommend Bridgefy as a backup option, under the assumption it is not very secure. It seems to be the most established player, and not sure there's anything else that works for IOS and Android. Certainly nothing else as developed and battle-tested from what I've read. that said, if it's not too much to ask, we could also have Android users on Briar, which is more secure.
[REDACTED]	1/4/2021	3:03 PM	Some sources indicate these Apps may work even when Jamming is taking place.
[REDACTED]	1/4/2021	3:07 PM	Are we able to recommend these apps to even organizers? Ideally they would post the recommendation on their even websites, for all rallygoers to download the Apps.
[REDACTED]	1/4/2021	3:12 PM	Ideally, organizers would recommend Signal as the default. And Zello, Briar or Bridgefy as an alternate when Signal is down.
[REDACTED]	1/4/2021	3:13 PM	I suppose jamming is possible, but, when I hear "be prepared to lose all comms" at a very large open public gathering, my first thought is that is a reference to cellular service - because it will be congested, overloaded, and therefore unreliable ... voice and data. SMS (text) might be little-affected. (SMS, not iMessage or anything else using internet data service.)

The man is named Jake Angeli, and he is an aspiring actor from Arizona, but he is perhaps best known as the "QAnon Shaman," one of the most prominent believers in the far-right extremist conspiracy theory QAnon, who regularly shows up at pro-Trump rallies in full-on regalia. QAnon is the belief that an anonymous figure with top security clearance is posting secrets about the government on the internet, including the idea that high-ranking Democrats are involved in a child sex trafficking ring and that Trump is lying in wait to arrest and execute them.

Stewart Rhodes	1/6/2021	7:41 PM	The founding generation Sons of Liberty stormed the mansion of the corrupt Royal Governor of Massachusetts, and trashed the place. They also jumped on board a ship carrying East India Tea, and dumped it in the harbor. We are actually in a far more deadly situation given the FACT that enemies foreign and domestic have subverted, infiltrated, and taken over near every single office and level of power in this nation. We hvae one FINAL chance to get Trump to do his job and his duty. Patriots entering their own Capitol to send a message to the traitors is NOTHING compared to what's coming if Trump doesn't take decisive action right now. It helped to send that message to HIM. He was the most important audience today. I hope he got the message.

MR. RHODES: -- get him to concede as probably there's chatter about him running in 2024. There's no such thing as another election in this country of any meaningful sense and term if you let this stand. So you cannot do that. The fraud was in person. The fraud was not just keeping poll watchers from being able to do their jobs, it was bringing in extra ballots by the suitcase-load, but it was also -- beyond that, that it's also flipping the numbers with the scorecard software. So they did it multiple ways, but they did it. Which, you know, 2016 would overwhelm their thoughts, and they tripped. They cheated enough this time, and they kept cheating. That's why they kept closing down the counting and then go find more votes. So they just kept on counting until, you know, supposedly they won. And don't be surprised if they don't try to take the Senate, too. I think that's their actual goal is to try to split the Senate and make it seem like that's somehow, you know, an indicator that Democrats screwed up. That's all Kabuki theatre, so they're going to steal it.

So the only way to really stop them is for Trump to, first of all, refuse to concede. The second thing he's got to do is he has got to use his authority as Commander in Chief to do two critical things. One is to declassify all of the dirty secrets and do a massive

1 data-belt. And to do that, it can't be the normal channels
2 with the CIA, FBI, et cetera. (Indiscernible). So what he
3 needs to do is have the military do is to seize those 4 (indiscernible), seize all those records, seize all the 5 databases, and turn them over to military intelligence. Let 6 them take care of the declassification with all of those 7 orders.

8 And, frankly, if I were him I would use my 9 Special Worker Assets. He should use his, you know,
10 U.S. Special Forces, Army Rangers, Navy Seals, you know, use
11 SOCUM, as backed up by his Marine Raiders and, you know,
12 whatever else he's got, 82nd Airborne. Just go and seize 13 all of those buildings to get that. And just do it, and 14 look what keeps falling in afterwards. Because all he's got 15 to do is go and declassify the first record of some 16 pedophile who's in the Congress and then another one and put 17 the videos online and let the people watch them. Just like 18 (indiscernible). Put it all online, everyone will see it.
19 You can't stop that. And then, once that happens, once he 20 discloses the first handful of pedophiles who are in office, 21 then the avalanche can keep on coming, and the people will 22 turn against the deep state. The mask will come off, the 23 curtain will be pulled back, and we'll see the little man
24 behind it; the little demon behind it. So that's what he 25 needs to do. He has to. That's his only actual chance of

1 ever defeating the deep state. (Indiscernible) he needs to 2 do that now.

3 And then he also, at the same time, should invoke
4 the Insurrection Act. He doesn't need to build the -- I was 5 talking to Keller about this -- you know, he doesn't need to 6 build some kind of complicated case about election fraud,
7 and collusion, and reek out a conspiracy to justify bringing
8 the Insurrection Act. He now has the facts --

9 (Static interruption.)

10 MR. RHODES: You guys, mute your phone, if you're 11 not talking. You've got a lot of feedback on there.

12 So those are the two things he has to do. That's 13 why we got to focus like a laser on this, okay.
14 Declassification of (indiscernible) and invoking the 15 Insurrection Act, the present Insurrection. And he's never 16 going to get the media typically. He's never going to get 17 the politicians in D.C. to agree to those. He's never going 18 to get the judges to agree with this, he just has to do it.
19 But once he does it, once the avalanche comes down,
20 especially all of the crooked judges -- that's my number two 21 thing -- couple of crooked politicians and a couple of 22 corrupt, sold-out pedophile judges who are out there. But 23 the judges -- in other words, you de-fang your opponents.
24 You take away the authority, the perceived authority of the 25 courts, to stop you. You take away the perceived authority

1 of Congress, so (indiscernible). And then you go after the
2 deep state itself, which is the CIA, the NSA, and the people
3 behind them; George Soros, all the other signifiers that 4 are behind the scenes pulling the strings. Whenever he 5 decides to do that, that's what he needs to do. Those are 6 the two things.

7 In order to get him to do that is that he needs to 8 know that people are behind him. That he will not be 9 deserted, and he has to have positive pressure, so we've got 10 to be in D.C. You have to be willing to go to D.C. and 11 street the anti-thought. If you're going to -- get the 12 street value. So here they're going to try to attack
13 people. Don't be afraid, you know. Go there in large 14 numbers. That's why we need to be there. Those who are 15 able-bodied and able to handle themselves, they should be 16 the ones that are on the frontlines.

17 I just talked to (indiscernible), Jr. You know, 18 Major Doug and I went up there with some other veterans to 19 do a recon, and we talked to little old ladies that plan to 20 protest in Washington, D.C., so none of you have any excuse
21 of going. Going as an attendee, if you don't feel like 22 you're in a good fighting shape, go right ahead and come as 23 an attendee and lend your voice and lend your bodies, and 24 we'll protect you. And those of us who are more strong and 25 more fit, then it's our responsibility to be a shield.

1 We've got to go. We've got to be there, okay. And when
2 they defaced the World War II Memorial earlier this summer,
3 I called for a call to action for defending, I got crickets.
4 Because no one wanted to go into D.C. Because like after 5 you're done there -- you know, I can't go around it -- you
6 need to go in there and just be ready to fight. And if the 7 fight comes, let the fight come. Let Antifa go -- if they 8 go "kinetic" on us, then we'll go "kinetic" back on them.
9 I'm willing to sacrifice myself for that. Let the fight
10 start there, okay. That would give President Trump what he 11 needs rapidly. If things go "kinetic", good. If they blow 12 bombs up and shoot us, great. Because that brings the 13 President his reason and rationale for dropping the 14 Insurrection Act. I don't think it will, so you understand 15 that. That's plan A because we will be in D.C. I'll be in 16 there. You've got -- what's his name (indiscernible) Owen
17 Sawyer, who's (indiscernible) is coming, which I think is 18 great.

19 So I see some text chatter that, hey, you know,
20 that our country's lost or who's going to have the Republic
21 of Texas resurrect. I want to remind you that there were 22 men that died at the Alamo who were from New York, who were 23 from New England. Okay? They traveled across the country,
24 across their country to a foreign country at the time,
25 because fellow Americans were fighting this battle. Do not

1 give up on the country. You can't hide in (indiscernible)
2 in Texas because you'll be surrounded. You think Congress
3 would let the free Texas survive? It's not happening. So
4 don't give up the ground. Don't give up the entire rest of 5 the continent to the commies, regardless of what you have of 6 free Texas. You've got to fight for the whole country now.
7 You know, the Chinese are implanting their puppet in the 8 White House. You'd better fight now. But they're landing
9 on California soil right now, and you just sit in Texas and 10 wait until it got to Texas or would you Texans ride straight
11 through to California? I think you know the answer to that.
12 So you can't hide.

13 And put aside any talk about moving to some other
14 country, either. I heard that kind of chatter, too. You
15 are Oath-Keepers. You've got a responsibility and duty.
16 Know you're (indiscernible). You swore that oath. You
17 don't get to back out of it and run to freaking Belize or 18 Costa Rica or anyplace else. You've got to fight. So we 19 have a chance to get President Trump to fight as 20 Commander in Chief. If you're going to have a fight, guys, 21 you want to start now while he's still Commander in Chief.
22 You do not want to waste this opportunity and let him feel
23 like he has no support when he goes to play and he starts
24 listening to the snakes that are in his ear right now,
25 encouraging him to quit, like Kushner. You've got to go

1     there and you've got to make sure that he knows that you are
2     willing to die to fight for this country.

3             And on your way to D.C., you all need to go to 4     Arlington. Go look at those crosses. Okay? And think
5     about what those men would tell you if they could speak.
6     What would they say to you right now? You know, a lot of 7     them were like 16, 17, 18 years of age, you know. A lot of 8     them lied about their age just to go fight. And they were 9     willing to give up their entire life. Most of us are in our 10    50s or 60s or older. You've lived a good life. You've 11    lived way past the age of these young men died. And if you
12    don't stand up now, everything they fought for and died for 13    will be fought for nothing. You can't do that. So you've 14    got to bolster yourself and you've got to turn around and 15    bolster President Trump. He has got to be reminded of what 16    he promised, that he can drain the swamp. You've got to be 17    showing him the way. Show the way. The good news is Don,
18    Jr. just tweeted yesterday, right Kelly -- just yesterday
19    that Trump should declassify everything. What did he say?

20            KELLY MEGGS: Declassify now.

21            STEWART RHODES: Declassify now. Declassify
22    everything. Declassify everything now.

23            KELLY MEGGS: Yeah, yeah.

24            STEWART RHODES: So it's starting. The message is 25    getting to him. We just have to keep on pounding that drop,

1 but the best way to do that is to be assembled at the
2 White House; as many Americans as possible, and us
3 Oath Keepers. We have the responsibility to protect the 4 people who are going down there.

5 So our mission's going to be to go into D.C., but 6 I do want some Oath Keepers to stay on the outside and to 7 stay fully armed and prepared to go in armed if they have 8 to. So if the shit kicks off, you rock and roll. Okay?
9 So -- or if they -- originally, we were thinking that they
10 were going to lay seize to the White House. And that's 11 still a possibility. There's still a possibility of a 12 Benghazi style assault on the White House.

13 So our posture is going to be that we are posted
14 outside of D.C. Obviously, D.C. has crappy gun laws. So
15 our posture's going to be that we're posted outside of D.C.
16 awaiting the President's orders. We're not going to 17 (indiscernible) legit. We're hoping he will give us the 18 orders. We want a clear direction and the call of best of 19 the militia. All these veterans until age 65 are subject,
20 under statute, to being called up by the President as a
21 militia. So he can do that. And if he does that, then D.C.
22 gun laws won't matter. They're trumped by his invocation of 23 the Insurrection Act and calling you up.

24 So those of you who feel capable, if you just want
25 to go as an attendee along with the little old ladies that

1 will be going down there, then just go as an attendee, but
2 if you feel physically capable and you are fit to go, ready
3 to go and stand on the front line (indiscernible), then I
4 want you to commit to that. We're going to form chains that 5 will be doing that inside D.C. But we also want to have 6 some of our best men bolstered up outside.

7 We'll have to make a determination about who goes
8 where and who's going to be on the outside and who's going 9 to be on the inside. So we're going to have a QR rep. But 10 that QR rep will be awaiting the President's orders. That's 11 an official position. And the reason why we have to do it 12 that way is because that is your legal coverage. Because 13 otherwise this kind of goes back to what Mike was saying
14 about guys being hot on the forms. I get it. We're all
15 pissed off. But we're in an era now where everything you
16 say is being monitored -- by now this phone call's being 17 recorded by the NSA and FBI and CIA, I'm sure. And 18 everything you say, can and will be used against you. So 19 you guys need to have discipline. Don't make it easy for 20 them to pop you with a conspiracy charge and do to you what 21 they did to those guys from Michigan because they got them
22 under the collar, probably after a few beers, and got them
23 talking smack.

24 So be disciplined, but let's make no illusion
25 about what's going on in this country. We're very much in

1 exactly the same spot that the founding fathers were in like
2 March 1775. Now -- and Patrick Henry was right. Nothing
3 left but to fight. And that's true for us, too. We're not
4 getting out of this without a fight. There's going to be a
5 fight, but let's just do it smart and let's do it while 6 President Trump is still Commander in Chief and let's try to 7 get him to do his duty and step up and do it.

8 Now there's some legal stuff going on. There's an 9 active team working on building the case for the election
10 fraud. I think that's worth doing. All of these things
11 matter. But in the end, I don't trust lawyers or judges,
12 and I don't think that's going to do it entirely on its own.
13 It's going to take a combined effort. And the most 14 important (indiscernible). So all that's good, you need to 15 have -- the people need to be rich on the band in 16 Washington, D.C., making it clear that they are not going to 17 take it. We're not going to stand for it. And when we say 18 it's unacceptable, we have to mean that. We're not going to 19 accept it. That Biden will -- you know, if he manages to 20 crawl into the White House, he'll be a puppet. But our 21 message will be, we're not going to let that happen, and we 22 have to propel Trump to do what he can.

23 But, hey, Kelly's here, and I wanted to have her
24 say a couple of things about what she can talk about as far
25 as the legal fight. So Kelly, if you don't mind, tell them

1     what you can tell them.

2                   MS. MEGGS: I don't have video, but -- okay, so
3     guess what I kind of go into on being that there's 4     multiple -- okay. So here's what I have learned about
5     our -- we have multiple pods working the project. So
6     there's like the INC (ph.) pod, a little pod where they're 7     doing their own project to try to solve the mystery of the 8     ballots. Then we have the Back-Channel Pod, is what I'm 9     going to call them. That would be like the Q crowd, and 10    they have their pod where they are trying to solve the 11    mystery of the ballots. And then you have the Giuliani
12    Pals, I guess, Previewing the Campaign Pod that's trying to 13    solve the mystery of the ballots. So I've been in 14    communication. I obviously work the RNC version of it, and 15    then I'm in -- I like the Q crowd, they're kind of fun, and 16    then I've been meeting with the Campaign crowd. I will say
17    that we have, over the last few days, have transitioned in 18    conversation from suit filings -- which there will be suit
19    filings, so don't think there's not going be that -- but 20    also talk of things like insurrection and rebellion is 21    probably more the terminology and collusion and RICO
22    violations and things like that. So it's been pretty 23    interesting. I think they're trying really hard to tie the 24    media and the establishment into this whole rebellion to -- 25    saying, I think that's the case -- they're saying not

1 necessarily assuming that it's every going to go legal, as 2 much as just for the people to understand what's actually
3 happening. And so I think there's a strong chance that we
4 may actually see some declassification and things like that.

5 MR. RHODES: So she's got messages on to them that 6 the President should do a data dump, and just a few hours
7 later --

8 MS. MEGGS: Yeah.

9 MR. RHODES: -- that's when Don, Jr., said that on 10 Twitter. It's a pretty good chance that that's something 11 that --

12 MS. MEGGS: It's on the table.

13 MR. RHODES: -- it's on the table, right. And so 14 to push that, that's why we need to, you know -- signs in 15 D.C. should be, "Do the Data Dump," or you know,
16 "Declassify," "Declassify Now, Declassify Everything." Just 17 quote Don, Jr. Just make sure that the President knows that 18 that's exactly what we want him to do, and that we'll 19 support him every step of the way.

20 And then we need to turn to the military and let 21 them know this is what has to happen. And when it happens,
22 we need to support him every step of the way. We do not do
23 stand-downs. What we're concerned about are Benghazi style
24 stand-downs. You've got traitors inside the Pentagon, just 25 like you've got traitors inside every branch. You've got

1     traitors inside of Trump's own inner circle. So that's the
2     problem. So you can't take it for granted. Do not take it
3     for granted that everybody that's around him is giving him
4     good advice or is onboard with this. That's why you've got 5     to presume the opposite. You've got to presume that the 6     ones in his ear are telling him that he can't do these 7     things including some of his own lawyers. You've got to 8     count on that. You've got to count of some of his military
9     advisors and national security advisors also in his ear
10    telling him he can't do this. So the people need to 11    (indiscernible). The more -- the higher your level of rank
12    and your credibility in the community, the higher your 13    responsibility to be public.

14                 It's been frustrating for us, Kelly and I. I can 15    tell you, and we're talking to retired Special Forces' guys,
16    you know, senior officers, and men who that are plugged
17    within the community, and they give him the same word back.
18    It's like we're the ones used to being in the shadows, and 19    we just want to stay in the shadows. That's not cutting it.
20    These Special Workers need to step up now and stall this.
21    They need to step up now. The Special Forces' Association, 22    it's the Seals Association, all these communities need to 23    step up and say that we call on the President to do X, Y,
24    and Z, and we will support him. Because if they do that,
25    all of the old gray beards, the retired respected guys in

1 those communities, will stand up and say it. Then the ones
2 in the current squads will listen to that. And then they've
3 got to go (indiscernible) directly, too. And so, I urge 4 you. I challenge you. Go and rattle the cages of your 5 brothers. Go talk to all of the guys that you served with 6 and all of the guys in your communities, whether you're --
7 no matter what your specialty is -- go talk to your people.
8 But you have to see your respected men, your enlisted men
9 and officers, to go -- you know, the NCOs and the 10 commissioned officers -- to go and make public statements.
11 Even if you're in D.C., frankly, I want to see the more
12 respected leaders -- military leaders that you can get in 13 D.C. standing up because of that and calling out -- calling
14 what it is. Calling a spade, a spade, you know, and making 15 it really clear. Kind of the reverse of what you saw with 16 people protesting the war and throwing their medals at the 17 White House. You could stand there saying, we're going to 18 defend the President, the duly-elected President, and we 19 call on him to do what needs to be done to save our country.
20 And if you don't, guys, you're going to be in a bloody,
21 bloody civil war, and a bloody -- you can call it an 22 insurrection or you can call it a guerilla fight.

23 Just the other day we were in Virginia and met
24 some awesome people. Ranger veterans, Special Forces
25 veterans, you know, (indiscernible) awesome people. Marine

1 Corps Raiders and Recon guys. All were there at that rally
2 we went to in Virginia, and they were hopping mad. We 3 talked to a bunch of them. When I was talking to one of 4 them, he said that -- he was like, well, you know, this
5 could turn into a guerilla -- he's thinking the classic
6 Robin Sage kind of guerilla scenario. We could try to do a
7 guerilla insurgency on our side fighting against a corrupt
8 regime.

9 Basically, my message to him was wait a minute,
10 man. In the end, what's the whole point of the guerilla
11 movement? If you want to go to bat, let Biden take over and 12 he holds the hands of power. Now you're fighting some 13 desperate guerilla warfare movement. Where's the ultimate 14 goal? The goal is to get to the point where you can 15 eventually fight in the open, right, conventional warfare to 16 defeat the regime. That's how it goes. Those are the 17 steps. Who all would be there? We have at least half of 18 the military on our side, if not more. And if the President
19 does a data dump, exposes all the pedophiles and all the 20 bought and paid for Chinese bribe-taking traitors -- exposes
21 all of them, all the scum across the street -- then you'll 22 have a vast majority of your fighters in the military. Only 23 the fully corrupt ones will be on their side; the ones who 24 have everything to lose. They'll be swamp (indiscernible).
25 So there's nothing to lose by doing the data dump now and

1 take the military in hand now and get it done. Do it now.
2 Don't wait. Don't think that you're going to be able to
3 hide in the shadows and someday be the underground guerilla
4 leader. That's retarded, okay. You already have the 5 military right now. It's time to step up and do it now, all
6 right. So that's all I have to say about that.

7 So we did a leaders' recon. We went into D.C.
8 Then we figured out where we wanted to stage on the outside.
9 We got some preliminary routes figured out. We'll be doing
10 more this week when we go back. But this is the big 11 (indiscernible). So I feel one day is at -- it's going to 12 be just like in Serbia. Go watch the videos how they did it
13 there. You've got to build it up. Basically, it's our own 14 version of the (indiscernible) volition. You've got to 15 build it up, build it up, and keep pressure. The thing is,
16 we're not bothered by building (indiscernible) but we do
17 have something they don't have is every one of us understand
18 that there is something beyond us. We're here for a 19 purpose. You're here. You were born here at this time.
20 You're still kicking. Whatever you've gone through in your 21 life, you're still here because you're here for a reason.
22 And it's not to hide in the closet, and it's not to hide and 23 save yourself for some future supposed, you know, secret
24 guerilla operation. Get out there now and go in the streets
25 of D.C. and make sure this president knows that you've got

1 his back and urge him and push him to stand up and take his
2 place in history, okay? It's what you've got to do guys.
3 All right. Any questions?

4 MR. LARRY: Hi, I'm Larry from North Carolina. I
5 just want to make sure that if we do go in, even if we're 6 concealed carry permit holders, we cannot take our gun in 7 D.C., is that what I'm hearing?

8 MR. RHODES: No, D.C. doesn't respect anybody's
9 property. They don't respect LEOSA. Even a police officer
10 that Congress passed a law to let you carry a gun
11 nationwide, it doesn't respect that. D.C. is -- this is a
12 deep state central, so you've got to make your own choice
13 about that. I mean, I'm going to go unarmed only because I
14 know that they're going to be looking to try to pop me for a 15 felony, so I'll go and I'm -- I've been there before. We've 16 done D.C. before. This is not our first rodeo. We've got 17 (indiscernible). So I'm -- let's get ready to scrap, man.
18 You know, wear yourself some -- gloves, wear a cup, wear a 19 helmet. Get ready to fight. If you've got stab-proof body 20 armor, wear that, you know. So be ready to scrap if you're 21 going to go into D.C.

22 Now in the past, -- I'll say this. If you're a
23 cop, especially, you've got more gray area with other cops.
24 That's just a reality. I've seen the D.C. Police give a 25 courtesy pass to their brother officer who is armed in D.C.

1 I have seen that with my own eyes. So I'm not going to
2 micro-manage what you guys do and don't do, but the official
3 position is, if we're going to go in complying, you know,
4 complying with D.C. bullshit gun laws, so that we are not
5 (indiscernible) being charged with felonies. Their law
6 enforcement, they will prosecute you if they can. But, like
7 I said, if you're a law enforcement officer, in particular,
8 you probably have a lot more leeway than anybody else would.

9 So I'll tell you, we've done this in the past.
10 For example, in Berkeley, California, Bill Chaucer (ph.)
11 went in there. The cops were armed because the cops in 12 Berkeley wouldn't tell the other cop he couldn't be armed in 13 the park. All of us military veterans were unharmed. We 14 were just there to fight, you know, helmets on, body armor.
15 We were just holding ourselves up as much as possible, of 16 course we had flashlights then. Some guys had walking 17 sticks too. You use what you got in your hand, when the 18 time comes. But whether or not you're going to carry if 19 you're a cop, that's up to you. Technically, D.C. doesn't 20 respect even LEOSA. I think that's obviously illegal
21 because it's federal law. You know, Congress passed LEOSA
22 for a reason, so cops could be on hand and stop terrorism.
23 So, frankly, if I were a cop, I'd carry (indiscernible).
24 I'd be willing to take that fight. Fight that fight.
25 That's up to you. Okay?

1           But our official position will be that we will go
2   in unarmed, and then we'll have our armed group on the
3   outside in case things go completely to shit, all right. I
4   know it's messy. I know it's not perfect. I understand
5   that some of you guys are like, you know what, it's 6   unconstitutional. Like here is my carry permit. I'm going 7   to go armed. You know, screw all of that crap. But the 8   problem is, is if you do that, you leave yourself open to a 9   felony. You aren't going to do anybody any good rotting in 10  jail. So my advice to you is if you will not go into D.C.
11  unarmed, then be part of the QR on the outside. Some of 12  them are key fighters. Some of those guys are not afraid to 13  fight. Okay? Let's go to D.C. together. I'll be right
14  there with you. I want my bikers. I want my fucking street 15  fighters. I want my brawlers, okay. You ready to go into 16  D.C. and brawl.

17           MR. LARRY: Thanks, Stewart. Listen I just want
18  to say one more thing. I appreciate what you're doing, and 19  I'm honored to (indiscernible).

20           MR. RHODES: Thank you, brother. Anyway, I know
21  it's messy, but we have done this before. We've gone to 22  D.C. several times. (Indiscernible) -- BLK, so I'll leave
23  that for the officers to figure out. All right. Any other
24  questions?

25           UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I have a question about

1 less lethal.

2 MR. RHODES: You had a questions about less
3 lethal? Go ahead.

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER 1: Yes, we were wondering if
5 less lethal would include maybe Mace or pepper balls, things
6 of that nature.

7 MR. RHODES: Pepper spray is legal. Tasers are 8 legal, and stun guns are legal. And it doesn't hurt to have 9 a lead pipe with a flag on it. For example, when I was 10 walking through the streets of Portland, I was quote/unquote
11 unarmed, but I had my helmet in my hand. Guess what that 12 was for? That was to whack someone right across the face if 13 they're going to come at me. So, there are ways around -- 14 there's ways of dealing with things that improvise as tools,
15 okay.

16 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And so, actually lethal, it
17 just depends on your state.

18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER 2: So, it did feel like you 19 said, (indiscernible). Pepper spray is legal, stun gun, and 20 what is the other one?

21 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER 2: Taser.

22 MR. RHODES: Right.

23 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER 2: And even though they are 24 lawful, we just have to use them appropriately and that's 25 hitting objects around the people, not the people directly.

1 MR. RHODES: The only way I know --
2 (indiscernible). He had pepper balls in it, in his 3 paintball gun. Are you -- do you know for sure for the 4 balls as being not legal in D.C.?

5 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER 2: It depends on the state.

6 MR. KELLY: In D.C. it is not allowed, sir. I
7 looked it all up the other day when I sent it to you. This 8 is Kelly in Martino Cala (ph.).

9 MR. RHODES: Okay, man. Just do me a favor and 10 repost that in the chats. I haven't read that yet.

11 MR. A.S.: Sir, this is -- we've got A.S. from 12 Dayton County, North Carolina. What about knives?

13 MR. RHODES: I believe three inches is the max you
14 can have in D.C. You can't have anything over -- I think.
15 If someone else is looking that up that for accuracy.

16 MR. A.S.: That was posted on our chat that there
17 was not limit on blades. Knives are legal and knives are 18 allowed to be secreted. That was posted in the North
19 Carolina's Members' Chat.

20 MR. RHODES: Well, I read it as you can possess
21 any knife you want, but when it comes to what you carry on 22 your body, you can't carry anything longer than three 23 inches. That's what we were told last time we were in D.C.
24 for an event. Let's have someone check on that, okay,
25 instead of all of us trying circus out on this phone call.

1 Let's just go ahead and have some people -- who would like
2 to volunteer to be on a group to research that?

3 MR. A.S.: I'm posting that now, sir.

4 MR. RHODES: Is that Kelly?

9 He's one of our leads. He's been one of leads for -- I'll

Well guys I'm sure a million questions, but let's keep them here. Im getting hunders of DMs etc. I don't mind if it's an off the chat type of thing. They mentioned US on the call with congressmen and the wanted to say thank you all for providing and protecting us. Wednesday we will be working with or more likely around Secret Service not with!! Let's look like we know what we are doing. Primarily scanning the crowd. Wednesday we will be at RP at 6 am so don't plan on being out playing hero on Tuesday and be late for detail Wednesday.

Guns, Bad Attitudes, & Cheap Whiskey: Inside the Oath Keepers Armed 'Quick Reaction Force' on January 6

At least 28 Oath keepers brought weapons to January 6, but new evidence suggests prosecutors have manufactured a false narrative of heavily armed commandos poised to assault the Capitol

April 11, 2022

Prosecutors central narrative of a heavily armed Oath keepers commando force on stand by to assault the Capitol January 6 is buckling as new evidence emerges, government court documents, interviews with multiple Oath keepers, and other documents suggest.

New revelations in the sprawling government conspiracy cases against the Oath keepers suggest prosecutors may be presenting a false narrative in court filings that a 'Quick Reaction Force' (QRF) stockpiled 'an arsenal of heavy weapons' amassed by key Oath keepers poised to attack the Capitol.

Until now, disabled Marine veteran Paul Stamey has been a mysterious figure identified only as un-indicted co-conspirator 'Person Three' in dozens of government court documents central in the conspiracy cases.

Federal prosecutors allege Stamey commanded an armed QRF ready to attack the Capitol, conspired to transport an "arsenal of heavy weapons" from multiple states to the outskirts of D.C., stashed them at the Oath keepers QRF headquartered in his Comfort Inn hotel room in Arlington, Virginia, and plotted to organize weapons-filled boats to cross the Potomac River to deploy "at a moments notice" to the Capitol riots.

In his first public comments, the 66-year old semi-retired landscaper from Cabarrus County, North Carolina denied the accusations. “I did none of that,” he said. “I love my country. I would never attack my government. It tears me up when I hear that. It just isn’t true.”

New evidence, including Stamey’s Comfort Inn time-stamped guest registration and credit card records, show Stamey was not at the Comfort Inn when prosecutors contend weapons were delivered to him there on January 5 or retrieved from him at the hotel on January 7.

During an eleven month investigation into the Oath keepers Quick Reaction Force, Stamey, and more than 40 other Oath keepers interviewed, provided a detailed behind the scenes reconstruction of the chaos that descended into an orgy of violence on January 6, leaving the largest militia group in the country reduced to poster boys for the new face of American domestic terrorism and scrambling to distance themselves from the harsh glare of legal and public scrutiny.

Multiple Oath keepers, and others, interviewed say government prosecutors have distorted the role QRF's played during the January 6 insurrection.

“While certain Oath Keepers members and affiliates breached the Capitol grounds and building, others remained stationed just outside of the city in quick reaction force (QRF) teams,” reads a January 2022 indictment of 11 Oath keepers for ‘seditious conspiracy.’ “The QRF teams were prepared to rapidly transport firearms and other weapons into Washington, D.C., in support of operations aimed at using force to stop the lawful transfer of presidential power.”

Oath keepers contend the QRF's were organized as a contingency plan to protect them from what they expected would be violent confrontations with anti-Trump counter-demonstrators January 6—who they loosely defined as Antifa—not to storm the Capitol, or part of any effort to prevent the ratification of the peaceful transfer of power from the defeated president Trump to the victor, Joseph Biden.

“I thought there might be a slaughter,” said the leader of the North Carolina Oath keepers chapter, retired career U.S. Army Special Forces veteran George Douglas Smith. “That there would be a fight with Antifa or BLM. Our QRF was to protect our civilians on our bus—to extract them if they got in trouble. Our QRF had nothing to do with the government or the Capitol building. It was to get our civilians out of D.C. into Virginia if violence broke out. There were no plans to bring guns or our QRF into D.C. No, Sir.”

All Oath keepers interviewed insist they had no prior knowledge of any pre-planned assault on the capitol, or that any Oath keepers would assault law enforcement, breach police lines, and enter the Capitol building.

Stamey confirmed he was in charge of the Oath keepers North Carolina chapter armed security detail on January 6, but said “Our QRF was just to provide security for our folks from North Carolina who came up on a charter bus to hear President Trump speak. We had nothing to do with what those idiots did at the Capitol.”

“Those idiots who attacked police officers, punched them, sprayed them with bear spray, and went inside the Capitol—if I knew any of that was going to happen, I would have called the FBI myself,” said Stamey. “They should go to jail.”

“And when I saw it on live TV from my hotel room, we ordered our guys from North Carolina to turn around, walk back to the charter bus, and go back to North Carolina.”

“And that is exactly what we did,” said Stamey. “We had nothing to do with those dumb asses.”

Stamey denounced Oath keepers national leader Stewart Rhodes for sanctioning the assault on the Capitol and law enforcement defenders.

“I don’t know whether Rhodes ordered that attack, but I damn sure know he could have stopped it,” said Stamey.

Some Oath keepers, nearly all of whom were ardent Trump supporters, are now contemptuous of the former President who they say orchestrated and incited the January 6 events, and then abandoned them.

“As for that guy Trump—he incited that crowd that day. He is the reason for this whole mess,” said Stamey. “We went to Washington because our president asked us. That guy lied to us, used us, and then threw us under the bus. If it wasn’t for him, none of this would have happened.”

“To be honest with you, at first I didn’t know what was true. Trump kept saying he had evidence the election was stolen,” said Stamey. “He said he would reveal evidence on January 6. I watched his speech live on TV in my hotel room that day and he didn’t give a single bit of evidence,” recalled Stamey. “I remember turning to my boys and saying ‘WTF?! That guy has no evidence the election was stolen!’”

“I’m a Marine. When Biden was declared the winner, he became my commander-in-chief. I didn’t vote for him, but he won, so that was that,” Stamey said. “That is the American way.”

Oath keepers and the QRF

Since January 6, federal prosecutors have increasingly focused on what they allege was a large cache of weapons secreted at the Arlington, Virginia Comfort Inn to be used by an armed ‘Quick Reaction Force’ of commandos headed by Mr. Stamey.

In court filings, prosecutors cite intercepted encrypted chat group conversation, court approved warrants that obtained cell phone location information and messages, and hotel surveillance video that prosecutors contend show multiple Oath keepers arriving at the Comfort Inn and dropping off weapons with Mr. Stamey, who they allege commanded the Oath keepers armed QRF.

“Some number of individuals (were) on standby, armed with ‘heavy weapons,’ and prepared to quickly get them to the team operating within the District on January 6 if they were needed,” court filings referencing Stamey read, concluding “the evidence has only strengthened.”

Oath keepers interviewed said every state chapter had their own QRF responsible for and answerable to their own state contingents. “I answered to our commander (North Carolina Oath keeper state chapter head) George Smith and nobody else,” he said. “There was no ‘arsenal of weapons,’ at least that I knew of. And no one dropped any weapons off with me. That I know for damn sure. And so does the FBI, because it just isn’t true.”

Oath keepers and others say there were numerous armed groups waiting on the outskirts of D.C. January 6, including multiple QRF’s from Oath keepers state chapters and other militia groups.

“It was normal to have what we called QRF’s. We had them at every event we were at before January 6, including in D.C. in November and Louisville before that,” said Stamey. “If the gun laws prohibited them in some cities, we had them set up nearby where it was legal. We always researched and followed the laws.”

Other Oath keepers from multiple states who were in D.C. January 6, corroborated Stamey’s account of the role of the QRF’s and that of his North Carolina state contingent.

Oath keepers January 6 ‘operational ground commander’ Mike ‘Whip’ Simmons—identified in federal court documents only as ‘Person Ten’—would have been in charge of any QRF’s.

Iraqi combat veteran, Triple Canopy' private security contractor, and former Indianapolis Airport Authority police officer Michael 'Whip' Simmons, seen with Roger Stone at the 'Stop the Steal' events January 5th and 6th 2021. Simmons, who is not an Oath keepers member, was hired and paid by Stewart Rhodes to be the 'ground commander' in Washington January 6 and several previous Oath keepers events. He is identified only as 'Person Ten' in court documents in the 'conspiracy' cases against the militia group.

In a series of interviews in February and March 2022, Simmons said: "I didn't know of any Oath keepers having a QRF January 6 and I had no communication or interaction with the North Carolina Oath keepers January 6. On the Oath keepers national level, we decided on January 5th against having any QRF because we didn't have the manpower to keep people waiting outside the Capitol. No one contacted me."

"A QRF is meant to extract people if they get in trouble. There was no way in Hell any vehicle could get anywhere near the Capitol that day. The roads were all shut down. So what then would be the purpose of having any QRF?" added Simmons. "It makes no sense. There were no QRF's I knew about."

Further, Simmons said "Everybody knew North Carolina had broken from Oath keepers in November and had nothing to do with national Oath keepers on January 6."

In two May, 2021 interviews with the FBI, Simmons told the FBI a similar account. "In November, Rhodes tried to get people to go back into D.C. and confront Antifa," Simmons said. "(North Carolina chapter head) George Smith objected and they got in an argument and that is when North Carolina split from the national organization."

On 05/25/2021, SA [REDACTED] FBI Agents and SA [REDACTED] FBI Agents interviewed [REDACTED] Person 10 [REDACTED] temporary address [REDACTED] phone number [REDACTED]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview Person 10 advised of the following:

Person 10 did not initially recall the 11/9/2020 GoToMeeting Conference Call with [REDACTED] and the Oath Keepers. SA FBI Agents played some audio from the call for Person 10. While listening to the audio, Person 10 advised that some of those on the call believed that Trump was going to call the militias in for assistance. Person 10 also recalled that PERSON ONE discussed fighting Antifa in the streets if need be, whether or not to be armed, a QRF, and a revolution. [REDACTED] also said some stuff about how the fight was in our states and was talking about supporting what [REDACTED] said, which she probably got from QAnon. PERSON ONE also discussed mass non-compliance but Person 10 did not recall that PERSON ONE advocated for violence on the call. Person 10 advised the armed QRF on the outside referred to the rally in DC in November. When PERSON ONE stated he wanted his street fighters ready to brawl, he was saying this in reference to Antifa.

Person 10 was present for the November 2020 Million MAGA March in DC. Person 10 noted this was the event where everybody stayed at the farm outside of DC in Virginia. PERSON ONE wanted to set up security assistance for people as they left events and went to their cars, as the day before the march, Trump supporters were being attacked by Antifa. There was a Quick Reaction Force set up for the day of the event, and PERSON ONE placed [REDACTED] in charge of the security. However, [REDACTED] was scared and did not want to go hands-on with Antifa without weapons, therefore [REDACTED] did not assist with the security at that event. This angered PERSON ONE and caused a falling out between [REDACTED] and PERSON ONE. [REDACTED] stated that he would start his own group, an idea [REDACTED]

May 2021 FBI interview with Oath keepers January 6 ‘ground commander’ in charge of security details Michael ‘Whip’ Simmons in which Simmons mentions the split between Oath keepers head Stewart Rhodes and North Carolina chapter head George ‘Doug’ Smith. Smith’s name is redacted in the FBI report. “That was George Smith,” Simmons said in an interview.

In a March 14 2021 interview with right wing conspiracy theorist, Alex Jones, Oath keepers head Stewart Rhodes also said that the North Carolina chapter had broken from his national leadership prior to January 6.

“We have one rogue chapter from North Carolina that made it clear to their members that they were not going to do anything with national, that they were doing their own thing,” Rhodes said. “There was some chatter among other people, like Thomas Caldwell who is not an Oath keeper, about having a QRF outside of D.C. It turns out to be one old veteran who could even hardly walk,” Rhodes said referring to Paul Stamey.

North Carolina state chapter head George Douglas Smith had harsh words for Rhodes in an April 2022 interview.

“In November, Rhodes wanted us to go into D.C. and attack Antifa. We decided then it was time to separate from national,” Smith said. “And that is exactly what we did.”

“I had no intent to let my boys get involved in street fighting in D.C.,” Smith said. “It was time we split into individual states.”

In fact, North Carolina and other Oath keepers recall the deep rifts festering between North Carolina and other chapters and the national leadership well before November. In a letter dated July 2020 from chapter head George Smith to retired Special Forces Colonel Jack Tobin, head of the private Special Forces Association, Smith wrote “A few of us are in the process of taking North Carolina Oath Keepers to our next phase of building a Citizen militia capable of supporting law enforcement in all 100 North Carolina counties. Our first order of business is to separate from the national organization with our command and control solely in the hands of North Carolina citizens.”

Hello Colonel, SSG George Smith here. Jack, a few of us are in the process of taking North Carolina Oath keepers to our next phase of building a Citizen militia capable of supporting law enforcement in all one hundred counties in NC. Our first order of business is to separate from the national organization with our command and control solely in the hands of North Carolina citizens.

In the last two weeks we have vetted over six hundred new applicants bringing our membership to just over two thousand with more applying everyday.

Colonel, what is desperately needed we feel is first, a field grade officer [Ret] who has the experience and ability to command a Brigade plus sized element. in addition that will help bring some legitimacy to the organization.

Jack, we all know time is of the essence,, I have heard in the past that we have retired Special Forces Troops that live in every county in the state. If we could convince the retired SF brothers to join the Oath keepers then our training would not only be expedient but the quality of the organization would far exceed most militia units.

Jack I would love to speak to you concerning this matter, your council would be a great help, My ph# is 910-XXX-XXXX. Thank you Sir you take care!!

On Mon, Jul 6, 2020 at 6:13 AM, John Tobin wrote:

George, there is a major problem. I am still carrying Security Clearances, very high ones, because I am still working, not getting paid, but still working. "A few of us are in the process of taking North Carolina Oath Keepers to our next phase of building a Citizen militia capable of supporting law enforcement in all 100 North Carolina counties. Our first order of business is to separate from the national organization"

In November, Rhodes rhetoric sharply escalated, warning of “a bloody civil war” unless the election results were reversed.

“He ruined the Patriot Movement. He was all about publicity to get donations for his pocket money,” Smith added.

Texas attorney [REDACTED], a close confidant of Stewart Rhodes and former general council for the Oath keepers, was with Rhodes all day January 6

[REDACTED], a Texas attorney and close confidant of Stewart Rhodes, who served as the Oath keepers general council and accompanied Rhodes to the Capitol January 6, said the national organization had no contact with the North Carolina chapter January 6 and no knowledge of any QRF’s during the insurrection.

“We didn’t find out about any QRF’s until we read about them in the criminal indictments after January 6,” SoRelle said in March 2022 interviews.

Interviewed by the FBI in August 2021, SoRelle said “it was clear by their line of questioning the FBI was trying to tie together their conspiracy case by linking Stewart (Rhodes) and the Florida and North Carolina chapters with QRF’s at the Capitol January 6, but I told the FBI ‘you are going to have a hard time reconciling tying Stewart Rhodes to North Carolina.’ I explained there was a breakup in November and factional breakdowns between some state chapters. Rhodes and national had no contact with North Carolina January 6.”

SoRelle said factional infighting among Oath keepers prior to January 6 meant there were several channels of communication between Oath keepers state chapters, the national organization under Stewart Rhodes, and individual Oath keepers organizing independently for January 6, resulting in effectively no formal chain of command.

Another Oath keeper from Florida who was at the Capitol January 6, and dropped of his weapons at the Comfort Inn, also confirmed these accounts.

“Doug Smith told me himself before January 6 that they were not taking part in any of the national Oath keepers activities and made it clear that North Carolina had broken with National and Stewart Rhodes back in November over Stewart’s more confrontational rhetoric,” said retired career U.S. Army Special Forces officer Jeremy Brown, a Florida Oath keeper who was in Washington January 6 and interviewed multiple times before he was arrested in October 2021.

Interviews with Brown and other Oath keepers who prosecutors allege left their guns with Stamey, acknowledge they dropped off and retrieved their weapons from the Comfort Inn—but not with Mr. Stamey, but rather with a Florida Oath keeper who headed that state chapter's QRF they knew only as 'Kane.'

They say they didn't know or meet Mr. Stamey.

"I have never heard of Paul Stamey. Our weapons were not left with anyone from North Carolina," said Brown, "Florida Oath keepers had our own QRF at the Comfort Inn. I left my weapons with an older gentleman from Florida who sat in the hotel and doesn't move easily who was in charge of our state chapter QRF. I only knew him by 'Kane.' He was our QRF guy at the Comfort Inn."

“I had my guns in that hotel room. I was on their video camera picking up my guns the next day,” Brown said. “All the footage that has been released from that hotel room? They have that same footage of me, including video of me picking up my guns,” said Brown. “How come they haven’t released that? Because they know it will show their story is full of s—t.”

As for the QRF, Brown, who did tours in Afghanistan and Iraq, insisted “There was no plan to deploy those guns to D.C. They were our personal weapons. I remember asking ‘What is the signal to activate the QRF?’ They had no signal. There were no vehicles, no point of contact, no rendezvous location, no plan. We just knew we couldn’t bring our firearms into D.C. because of D.C. gun laws so we left them in Virginia, where it is perfectly legal.”

“The QRF drama is fantasy. People were playing by the rules--the legal rules. How do you have an offensive QRF poised to deploy without any plan to activate--no ingress team, no vehicles, nothing,” he said. “That hotel was a storage unit.”

“Keep in mind, the Oath keepers and these militia groups have a lot of military guys that didn't do ‘cool’ things in the military and use these groups as kinda LARPing events,” said Brown.

“Even worse are the guys that NEVER served. They watch videos of guys like me and play dress-up. I'm not trying to sound cocky, but they wear a bunch of ‘cool guy shit’ and usually have no idea why,” Brown argued, pointing to his own Florida Oath keepers state chapter leader. “Kelly Meggs is a perfect example.”

Jeremy Brown is no moderate. In a series of interviews in the fall of 2021 before he himself was arrested, he outlined his belief that “the Republic has already fallen” and that President Biden and a swath of the ‘Deep State’ were agents of the Chinese Communist Party.

The government “play on American’s ignorance. ‘Well, they had their guns stored in a hotel.’ Well, that’s not illegal. Americans are allowed to possess guns, they are allowed to store guns,” said Brown. “They are allowed to shoot guns. They are allowed to shoot guns at people who are trying to harm them.”

Jeremy Brown in a post January 6 podcast holding up a “Pocket Guide to Unconventional Warfare.” Brown served 17 years in the U.S. Army Special Forces trained in unconventional warfare (Still grab photo image from online podcast)

“If they arrest me and indict me, guess what? I get to get on the stand and testify as a 20-year expert in insurgency and, as they like to refer to it, insurrection,” Brown said shortly before he was arrested October 2. “And I will testify as not only an expert witness but an eyewitness to the activities not only on January 6 but those that took place before and after.”

Oath keepers and guns at the Comfort Inn: The Evidence

“It is reasonable to believe that Harrelson was dropping off his weapons with ‘Person Number Three’ and the ‘QRF’”

In April 2021, prosecutors began releasing time-stamped frame grabs from Comfort Inn hotel surveillance video they allege depict multiple Oath Keepers ferrying weapons on January 5 to Mr. Stamey and his Oath keepers QRF, or retrieving them from him on January 7.

The day before the Capitol insurrection, at 8:02 on the morning of January 5, while driving north on interstate 95 with Oath keeper Jason Dolan in his rental vehicle towards Washington, Florida Oath keeper Kenneth Harrelson used his call sign ‘Gator 6’ to message his state chapter leader Kelly Meggs on their encrypted, invitation only Signal chat site: “We get that QRF hotel address yet?”

Using the call sign ‘Gator 1’, Meggs responded “DM”—asking Harrelson to send him a direct message.

134	GATOR 6	1/5/2021	8:02:00 AM	We get that QRF hotel address yet?
135	OK Gator 1	1/5/2021	8:07:00 AM	Dm

“About three hours after sending the above message, Defendant Harrelson arrived in the area of the Comfort Inn Ballston, where he remained for about an hour before driving into Washington, D.C.,” prosecutors wrote, placing Harrelson as having arrived at the Comfort Inn at 11:00 am, dropping off his guns, and departing at noon. “It is reasonable to believe that during this hour, Defendant Harrelson was dropping off his weapons with ‘Person Number Three’ and the ‘QRF,’” referring to Mr. Stamey.

It is known that arriving at the Comfort Inn with Florida Oath keepers Kenneth Harrelson and Jason Dolan, was a convoy of cars which included Florida state chapter leader Kelly Meggs and his wife Connie Meggs, as well as Florida Oath keepers Caleb Berry, Thomas Burgess, Joseph Hatchett, David Moerschel, and the head of the Florida state chapter QRF known as 'Kane', among others.

65. On January 5, 2021, as MEGGS and co-conspirators were unloading their weapons, he messaged RHODES, "Yes we are just outside of town unloading at QRF on our way in. Left [the North Carolina Oath Keepers leader's] place at 4:30am[.]"

Florida state chapter head Kelly Meggs responding to a message from national leader Stewart Rhodes saying the Florida contingent were dropping off their weapons at the Comfort Inn 'QRF on our way in' to Washington, D.C.

"Harrelson was both aware of the presence of an armed Quick Reaction Force and likely contributed weapons to it. This evidence is drawn primarily from the communications in the Florida Signal Chat, Defendant Harrelson's cell site location information (CSLI), hotel surveillance video, and information about Person Three," reads another government court filing.

Cell site location information (CSLI) and global positioning system (GPS) data triangulate cell phone data with cell phone towers data and GPS satellite data to determine the location and time of a phone when it 'pings' off nearby towers. It is accurate to the exact time and within three meters of a user's location, according to the Electronic Freedom Foundation.

to drive to the Washington, D.C., area. About three hours after sending the above message, Defendant Harrelson arrived in the area of the Comfort Inn Ballston, where he remained for about an hour before driving into Washington, D.C. It is reasonable to believe that during this hour, Defendant Harrelson was dropping off his weapons with Person Three and the QRF.

"It is reasonable to believe that during this hour, Defendant Harrelson was dropping off his weapons with Person Three and the QRF," prosecutors wrote. But documents show Person Three—North Carolina Oath keeper Paul Stamey—was not at the Comfort Inn during this time. (Photo image U.S. DoJ)

“It is reasonable to believe that during this hour, Defendant Harrelson was dropping off his weapons with ‘Person Number Three’ and the ‘QRF,’” wrote prosecutors, referring to Mr. Stamey.

“As far as I remember, I’ve never met the man,” Stamey said, referring to Harrelson. “But I damn sure know he didn’t drop any guns off with me.”

Stamey’s Comfort Inn hotel registration records and credit card statements appear to corroborate his claim.

New documents obtained in this investigation, when compared to Harrelson’s CSLI data and hotel surveillance video cited by prosecutors, show Stamey and his North Carolina state chapter 4-man QRF had not checked into the Comfort Inn when the government claims Harrelson and other Florida Oath keepers arrived, dropped their weapons off, and departed.

“Harrelson’s CSLI (Cell Signal Location Information) shows he left the area of the Comfort Inn Ballston at around 12:30 p.m.,” prosecutors wrote.

According to Stamey’s hotel registration records, Mr. Stamey checked into his Comfort Inn room at 12:59 pm January 5—two hours after the Florida Oath Keepers contingent, including Kenneth Harrelson and Jason Dolan, arrived at the hotel, went to a 2cd floor room, dropped off their weapons, and departed.

Documents provided by prosecutors in court documents show Harrelson departed the Comfort Inn without their weapons between one hour and 30 minutes before Stamey checked in, hotel surveillance video, Harrelson’s CSLI (Cell Signal Location Information) obtained by government warrant, Stamey’s hotel registration records, and other court filings by prosecutors show.

Arlington, Virginia Comfort Inn hotel registration records showing North Carolina Oath keepers 'QRF' head, Paul Stamey, checking in at 12:59 pm on the afternoon of January 5. All the government evidence made public to date, where prosecutors allege Oath keepers dropped off or retrieved weapons from Stamey, show Oath keepers arrived at the Comfort Inn and left the hotel prior to Stamey checking in, and retrieved their guns after he had checked out. (Photo image courtesy of Paul Stamey)

The government has also released snippets from time-stamped hotel video frame grabs they allege is evidence of multiple Oath keepers retrieving weapons from Stamey on the morning of January 7.

But when these time-stamped images and other court filings are compared to Stamey's time-stamped hotel registration and credit card records, they also show that all of the Oath keepers who are alleged to have retrieved weapons from Stamey at the Comfort Inn on the morning of January 7 did so after Stamey had checked out.

The government has submitted no photographic or other evidence that Stamey and the Florida Oath keepers met with each other in Washington on January 6, despite it being known the government has the raw unedited hotel surveillance video which shows what rooms Oath keepers entered or departed with their weapons, as well as video of the hotel hallways, elevators, front lobby, parking lot, and outside entrance.

First, we have added surveillance video to the USAfx folder labeled "Highly Sensitive Discovery Materials - U.S. v. Caldwell, et al." This surveillance video includes additional, time-stamped video from inside and outside the Capitol from January 6, 2021. We also created a second folder called "Highly Sensitive Discovery Materials 2 - U.S. v. Caldwell, et al.," to which we uploaded video from the Comfort Inn Ballston from January 5-7, 2021, as documented in the attached "Highly Sensitive Discovery 4-23-21" log.

Hotel registration records show that Stamey and his North Carolina QRF team checked out of the Comfort Inn room number 255 at 6:27 a.m. on the morning of January 7—prior to any of the other Oath keepers arriving at the hotel to retrieve their weapons that day.

STAMEY, PAUL

But Stamey insists he and his QRF team actually checked out of the Comfort Inn the day before—and his credit card records corroborate his claim.

Stamey said he dropped off his room keys at the front desk “around 5:30” on the afternoon of January 6, as the North Carolina QRF team attempted to catch up with the charter bus that had already departed “around 4:00 pm” from D.C. with all the North Carolina Oath keepers contingent on board and accounted for.

“I dropped my keys off at the front desk around 5:30 pm January 6. My boys were waiting for me outside in front of the lobby,” Stamey recalled. “The feds have video of that, too. How come they haven’t released that? That shows I wasn’t even there when they claim people picked up guns they say were in my hotel room.”

When contacted, Arlington, Virginia Comfort Inn staff said the hotel often record check out time hours after a guest has dropped off keys, since the room is already paid for through the following morning. When housekeeping confirms a room is vacated, the hotel front desk then record that as the departure time.

Stamey’s credit card records support his claim he checked out on the afternoon of January 6—the day before prosecutors allege multiple Oath keepers retrieved their weapons from Stamey’s hotel room prosecutors say was the headquarters of the Oath keepers QRF.

The same credit card Stamey used to check into the Arlington, Virginia hotel on January 5th was used to purchase a Taco Bell ‘combo plate’ for $7.03 in Kenly, North Carolina between 9:00 pm and 10:00 pm January 6, 246 miles and 4 and 1/2 hours away from the Arlington, Virginia Comfort Inn hotel.

"Saved by a taco," Stamey quipped. "The government knows no one retrieved any guns left with me. Hell, they know I wasn't even there."

In either case, hotel and credit card records have Stamey documented as having arrived at the Comfort Inn on January 5th after any weapons were dropped off and left the Comfort Inn before any Oath keepers arrived on the morning of January 7 with no luggage and departed with what appear to be long-gun cases.

The question remains who the Florida Oath keepers deposited their weapons with on the days before and after January 6.

Florida Oath keepers, Guns, & their QRF: who is 'Kane'?

"The evidence is that at least some members of the QRF were staged at the Comfort Inn Ballston hotel in Arlington, Virginia," reads a July 1 FBI charging document against Florida Oath keeper David Moerschel. "Surveillance video shows known members and affiliates of the Oath Keepers transporting what appear to be rifle cases into the hotel on January 5, 2021, and out of the hotel on January 7, 2021."

At 6:35 am on January 7, Florida Oath keeper David Moerschel, using the alias 'Hatsy', responded to a message from another unidentified Florida Oath keeper in their encrypted communication Signal group chat.

“We have your bag. We will leave it with Kane at the QRF. We are en route there now,” Moerschel messaged. “Anyone else leave anything in the white van? We can leave it for you at QRF.”

29. Pursuant to legal process, the government obtained Signal encrypted message content for a group “OK FL DC OP Jan 6.” This Signal group message appears to have been used by members of the Oath Keepers – including defendants Kelly Meggs, Harrelson, and Watkins – to coordinate in advance of and on January 6, 2021. User “Hatsy” posted in the group on January 5, 2021, among other things, “@ GATOR 6, @ OK Gator 1 when do you want to stop for gas?”

and “@OK Gator 1 or anyone else who knows: what time are you leaving your hotel (the garden inn on 1st) to walk to ellipse? Kraut and I will meet you.” Then, on January 7, 2021 at 6:35 a.m., in response to another user, “Hatsy” wrote: “We have your bag, We will leave it with Kane at the QRF. We are en route there now.” “Hatsy” also wrote: “Anyone else leave anything in the white van? We can leave it for you at QRF.”

Florida Oath keeper David Moerschel: “We have your bag. We will leave it with Kane at the QRF. We are en route there now.”

Moerschel’s message suggests he was bringing additional weapons or military gear from elsewhere on the morning of January 7 “in a white van” to leave at the Comfort Inn “with Kane at the QRF” for other members of his state chapter to retrieve.

At approximately the same time, Florida Oath keeper Jeremy Brown rose before dawn at the Maryland Cherry Hill RV camp site where he had parked his 38-foot RV and eight passenger van when he arrived there early in the morning of January 5th.

Both vehicles had been loaded with guns and military kit when they departed Florida on January 4th on their way to D.C., according to prosecutors and other Oath keepers.

“He was taking the van to give to (Florida Oath keeper) Tom (Burgess) to drive back to Florida,” said Brown’s girlfriend, Tylene Aldridge, who is not an Oath keepers member, but travelled with Brown from Florida to D.C. “It was still dark out. I was still asleep when he left and still asleep when he got back.”

Thomas Burgess, a 61-year old Tampa, Florida businessman, and arrested Florida Oath keeper 19-year old Caleb Berry drove Brown’s 8-passenger seat van which convoyed with Brown’s 38-foot recreational vehicle, both laden with weapons, from Florida on the 4th of January and arrived after dark at the property of North Carolina chapter head, George Smith.

“We made a pitstop in North Carolina where I transferred my guns and kit from the RV and van to other Florida Oath keepers who ferried them up to the Virginia hotel,” recalled Brown. “We didn’t spend the night and continued up to our RV park in Maryland, me driving the RV and my girlfriend driving the van. We dropped off Tom and Berry in North Carolina.”

Florida Oath keeper Thomas Burgess, left, on personal security detail for VIP's on January 5th in Washington. The man on the right remains unidentified

Burgess, who was at the Comfort Inn on January 5th when the Florida Oath keepers dropped their guns off, and was prominent as working security details for VIP's on January 5th and 6th in D.C., has never been mentioned or identified in any court filings in the Oath keepers conspiracy cases.

When contacted by a reporter by telephone, he abruptly hung up after being asked about his role as an Oath keeper January 6.

It is not confirmed that Brown's van—which is silver colored— is the same “white van” referred to by David Moerschel heading towards the Comfort Inn early the morning of January 7.

But it is known Brown drove his van to give to Burgess and picked up his weapons on the early morning of January 7 at the Comfort Inn from a Florida Oath keeper he identified as ‘Kane’, the head of the state chapter’s QRF, according to Brown himself.

“I picked up my guns on the morning of January 7 at the Comfort Inn. We left them with an elderly man who had difficulty walking I knew only as ‘Kane.’ He was the head of our QRF,” recalled Brown.

“When the government releases the full Comfort Inn video, you will see that only a few Oath keepers dropped weapons off on the 5th, but a whole lot more picked them up on the morning of the 7th,” Brown said in an interview before he was himself arrested. “That is because we consolidated our guns in a couple vehicles to drop them off on the 5th but we had to each pick them up ourselves on the 7th.”

By all accounts, North Carolinian Paul Stamey had already checked out of the hotel.

24 minutes after Moerschel said he was “enroute” to the “QRF” at the Comfort Inn in a “white van” with “bags” to drop off “with Kane at the QRF,” Moerschel is seen on hotel surveillance video entering the Comfort Inn, exiting an elevator on the 2cd floor pushing a hotel luggage cart with what appears to be a gun case, and rolling it down a hallway towards a room.

“Surveillance video from the Comfort Inn Ballston on January 7, 2021” show “three individuals wheeling a concierge cart with at least one long gun case onto an elevator,” prosecutors said in August. “An individual that appears to be Moerschel can be seen wearing a long black jacket.”

Next to Moerschel is an unidentified elderly man in a blue jacket, his face censored by prosecutors, who the government does not identify.

The man shown center in a blue jacket is identified by 3 other Oath keepers who were in D.C. January 6 as ‘Kane’—the head of the ‘QRF’ for the Florida state Oath keepers chapter. ‘Kane’ is shown in multiple frame grab photos submitted to the court as evidence, always with his identity redacted. ‘Kane’ has never been mentioned or identified by prosecutors, although it is known prosecutors identified him early in the investigation. The foot of the third man and also unidentified can be seen at extreme center left in the photo (Photo image U.S. DoJ)

During this investigation, ‘Kane’ has been identified as 79-year old Kenneth Bittner, an Oath keepers member and firearms instructor from Cape Coral, Florida.

When contacted, Mr. Bittner declined to comment. “Don’t know what you are talking about,” he said in a text message. “Do not attempt to contact me again.”

In follow up message, Bittner said “I would like to remind you that I am a private citizen, not a public persona. I already see inaccuracies in some of your allegations regarding me. If you choose to name me in your article, I suggest you have verifiable evidence supporting your allegations, not innuendo or hearsay.”

In interviews, three Florida Oath keepers identified the man shown in Comfort Inn screen grabs of hotel surveillance video by his Signal chat group user name, ‘Kane,’ but they didn’t know his real name. They said he was in charge of the Florida state chapter’s QRF and occupied a Comfort Inn room where they dropped off and retrieved their personal weapons.

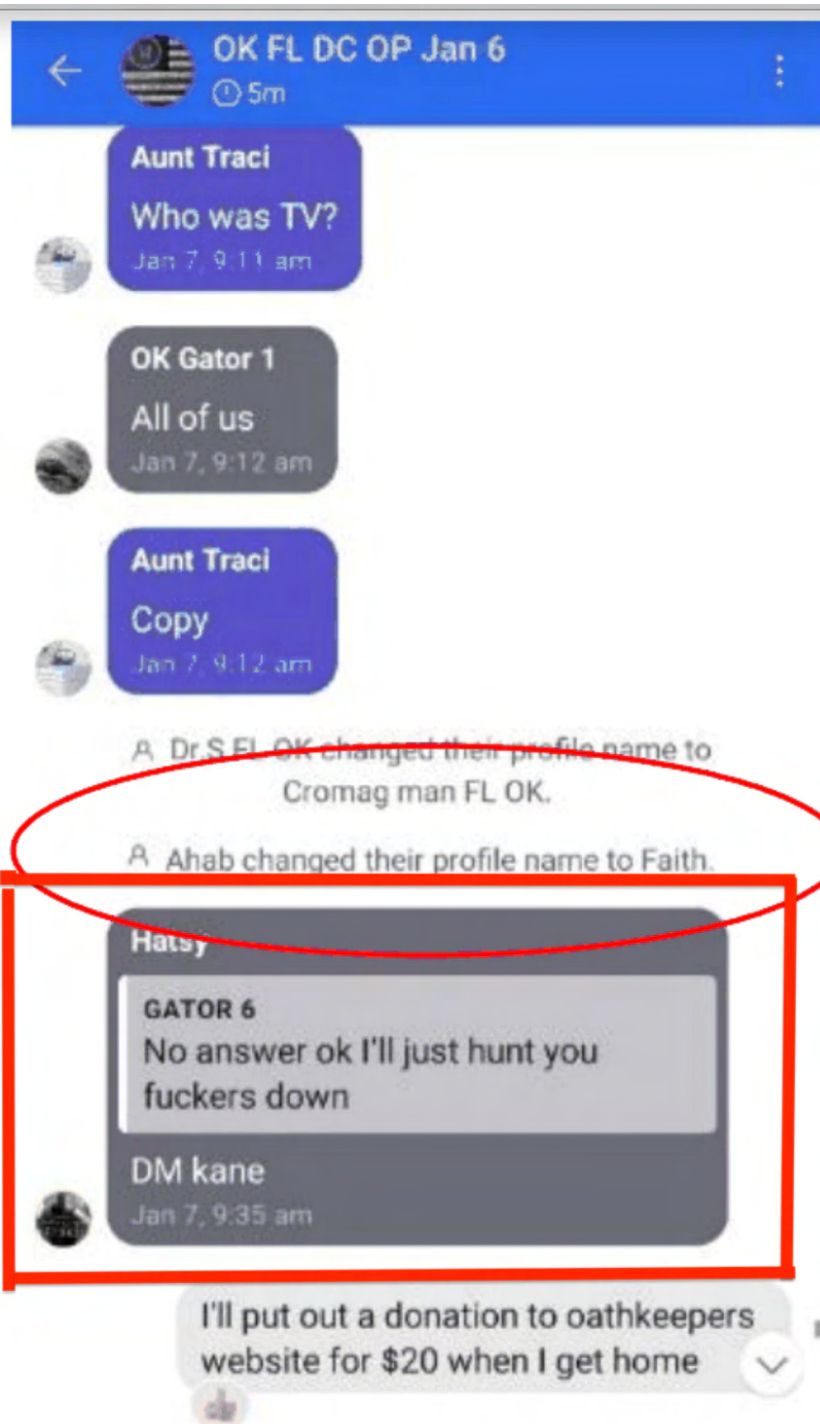

‘Kane’ is shown in multiple other hotel surveillance video frame grab images overseeing Florida Oath keepers Kelly Meggs, Caleb Berry, Joseph Hackett, Jeff Morelock, David Moerschel, Kenneth Harrelson, James Dolan, and others retrieving weapons on the morning of January 7th, his face always censored by prosecutors.

'Kane' is also mentioned as responsible for Florida's state chapter QRF in the encrypted Signal Florida chat group used by Florida Oath keepers to communicate with each other, including between Moerschel and Kenneth Harrelson.

In this Signal message in a Florida Oath keepers encrypted chat room on the morning of January 7, David Moerschel aka 'Hatsy' sends a message to Kenneth Harrelson aka 'Gator 6' who was seeking to retrieve his weapons he left at the Comfort Inn January 5. Also on the chat group conversation are Florida state chapter head Kelly Meggs aka 'Gator 1' and Florida Oath keeper Joseph Hatchett who changed his online user name from 'Ahab' to 'Faith' immediately after retrieving his own weapons from the Virginia hotel (Photo image U.S. DoJ)

While it is understood prosecutors have known the real identity of 'Kane' since early 2021, and he has been interviewed by the FBI, he is never mentioned or identified in any court filings.

A list of Oath keepers user names obtained during this investigation show a Florida Oath keeper with the handle “@ [REDACTED]” on the by-invitation-only Florida Oath keepers encrypted Signal organizing “FL OK’ and “Ok FL DC OP Jan 6” planning chat groups.

Prosecutors say those Signal chat groups were “used by members of the Oath Keepers—including defendants Kelly Meggs, Harrelson, and Watkins—to coordinate in advance of and on January 6, 2021.”

Attached to the user name “@ [REDACTED]” on the Signal chat groups is a contact phone number. That telephone number is registered to Mr. Bittner under his name at the home Bittner owns at his Florida address.

Further, email addresses registered to Mr. Bittner include other derivations of the name “Kane,” including the contact email used on an internal Oath keepers membership list showing Mr. Bittner has been an Oath keepers member since at least May 2018. That email address, “kaptkane@xxxx.com”, is also registered to Bittner at the same Florida address.

There is no evidence Mr. Bittner left his Virginia hotel room and entered Washington, D.C., or was involved in any illegal activity January 6.

Some Oath keepers, and others involved in their legal cases, believe that government prosecutors may be intentionally conflating the North Carolina Oath keepers QRF head Paul Stamey with the Florida Oath keepers 'QRF' head, Bittner aka 'Kane', to remain consistent with the government's original narrative that Stamey was in charge of a unified Oath keepers QRF.

Another still photo shows Florida Oath Keepers arriving at the hotel in the early morning of January 7 shortly after Moerschel, exiting the 2cd floor elevator without weapons, and headed towards a room at the Comfort Inn (below).

The group of other Florida Oath keepers includes Sarasota, Florida chiropractor Joseph Hackett, two Oath keepers with their identities obscured by prosecutors, and Tampa, Florida Oath keeper Caleb Berry.

At 7:32 a.m., the same group of Oath keepers above are shown with others (pictured below) in hotel surveillance video pushing a luggage cart carrying what appears to be gun cases down the same 2cd floor hallway towards the same elevator and exiting the hotel.

Although several of the group have been arrested and charged for entering the Capitol on January 6, there is no allegation, criminal charges, or evidence submitted by prosecutors in court filings that any of these Florida Oath keepers broke any state or federal weapons laws.

Virginia and Florida, like many states, have ‘reciprocal gun rights’ laws that allow legal gun owners to transport and store weapons between the states.

In the above photograph is Florida Oath keeper, Jeffrey Morelock, who has never been charged or mentioned in prosecutors court filings, despite being shown ferrying weapons from the Comfort Inn on January 7.

Florida Oath keeper Jeffrey Morelock in a Linked In profile.

Morelock is a former Florida police detective who resigned admist a scandal of filing false police reports against a young black man for felony charges who he never interviewed, despite his police criminal complaints to the contrary. Morelock also served in U.N. peacekeeping forces in the former Yugoslavia, is a licensed Florida private investigator and gun dealer, and trained in ‘executive protection’—or as a VIP bodyguard.

Morelock did security VIP protection at numerous Oath keepers events in the months prior to January 6, including at pro-Trump demonstrations in Washington and Georgia in November and December 2020. In addition, Morelock worked as a paid Oath keeper bodyguard at events contesting the electoral results in Michigan.

And, in December 2020, he worked security with other Oath keepers in Florida for Roger Stone.

Later that January 7 morning at 8:55 am, one and one-half hours after the other Florida Oath keepers arrived and departed with their weapons, Kenneth Harrelson, using the call sign ‘Gator 6’, messaged Florida Oath keepers: “So we’re just leaving DC and I would like to know where my shits (sic) at since it seems everyone’s gone already.”

Harrelson is alleged by prosecutors to have dropped at least three long gun cases at the Comfort Inn on the morning of January 5th with Mr. Stamey.

“We are headed out now,” responded one Florida Oath keeper.

Another person replied, “Did u leave it at Comfort Inn in that room?”

An irritated Harrelson wrote “No answer ok I’ll just hunt you fuckers down.”

At 9:35 am, Moerschel responded to Harrelson’s message looking for his guns: “DM (direct message) Kane.”

According to prosecutors, Harrelson was at the Comfort Inn “from 9:08 am through 9:48 am, before starting his drive southward.”

David Moerschel aka 'Hatsy' messaging Florida Oath keepers 'Gator 6' AKA Kenneth Harrelson who was seeking information on who had his weapons on the morning of January 7. Harrelson and Florida Oath keeper Jason Dolan, accompanied by one other Oath keeper whose identity is redacted by prosecutors, arrived at the hotel at 9:00 AM, and exited the 2cd floor elevator without any luggage, according to time-stamped hotel surveillance video.

Florida Oath keepers Kenneth Harrelson and Jason Dolan, along with a third man whose identity the government has redacted, shown arriving at the Comfort Inn at 9:00.14 on the morning of the January 7 with no luggage..In the below two photos, time stamped surveillance photos show the two men departing the 2cd floor of the hotel 15 minutes later ferrying what appears to be gun cases. Stamey had checked out at least 2 1/2 hours earlier. (Photo image U.S. DoJ)

Prosecutors show video minutes later Harrelson and Dolan retrieving three rifle cases they allege in other court documents he deposited with Mr. Stamey on January 5th.

The video shows Harrelson, Dolan, and another unidentified Oath keeper with his face redacted, ferrying a luggage cart with what appear to be at least three long gun cases walking down a 2cd floor hallway away from a 2cd floor room towards the elevator at 9:15:35 and entering the elevator at 9:15:57 a.m. and exiting the hotel.

Harrelson and Jason Dolan “retrieved those weapons on the morning of January 7 and then departed the Washington, D.C., area for (their) return trip to Florida,” according to April federal court documents.

Then prosecutors attempt again to connect Harrelson and his guns to Mr. Stamey.

“Additional surveillance video from the Comfort Inn shows not just Mr. Harrelson but other individuals who were affiliated with the Oath Keepers, including Person Three and others, carrying up and down from the lobby and back multiple different items that look similar to this large carrying cases that appear to be consistent with rifle cases,” Assistant U.S. Attorney Jeffrey Nestler told the court on April 12, 2021.

All together, 8 members of the Florida Oath keepers are shown in surveillance video to have dropped off or retrieved weapons at the Comfort Inn, prosecutors allege, from the QRF commanded by Stamey.

In every instance of evidence that prosecutors have submitted to the court, hotel registration records show that Stamey and his 3-man team from North Carolina had either not checked into the Comfort Inn on January 5 until after prosecutors say the Florida Oath keepers had deposited their weapons and departed, and retrieved guns on the morning of January 7 after Stamey is known to have checked out.

This suggests the FBI has known those weapons were not left with Mr. Stamey, but rather likely with Mr. Bittner.

North Carolina Oath keepers at January 6

Mostly from three rural, largely agricultural counties in the far southeastern corner of the state bordering South Carolina, 26 members of the North Carolina Oath keepers chapter and other Trump supporters not members of the Oath keepers, paid “between 60 and 70 dollars for round trip tickets” on a commercial charter bus that departed Columbus County, North Carolina “at about 0100-0130 hours” in the early morning of January 6 for the 5 1/2 hour drive to Washington to hear then President Trump and other speakers at the ‘Save America’ rally.

On the early afternoon of January 5, the day before the violence at the Capitol, Stamey and three other North Carolina Oath keepers —two men in their 60's, one in his 50's, and one in his 40's, all armed with their personal weapons who comprised their QRF—drove together ahead of the charter bus in a white 2017 Ford Expedition to Arlington, Virginia. They checked into the Comfort Inn at 12:59 pm on the afternoon of January 5, just across the Potomac River from the nation's capitol, according to newly obtained hotel registration records.

The mission of the North Carolina Oath keepers QRF was to arrive in D.C. ahead of the charter bus to ensure the North Carolina contingent would not encounter any antagonistic opposition, say Oath keepers.

"I drove up the day before in a truck to see where the bus could park, to make sure it was safe. Mainly, we were worried about Antifa because many people said they would be there to start trouble with the Trump supporters, like they did in December and November when there were also big Trump rallies in Washington. People got stabbed, there were fights," Paul Stamey said.

Two previous post-election rallies in Washington, on November 14 and December 12, resulted in violence between pro-Trump and anti-Trump demonstrators.

"Our job was to make sure if violence broke out between Trump supporters and Antifa or BLM or whoever they were, we could get our people safely out."

"Sometime around 3:30 on the afternoon of the 5th, after we checked into the Comfort Inn, (retired Navy Lt Commander and Oath keeper affiliate Thomas) Caldwell, his wife Susan, one of my boys, and me, took Caldwell's truck and we did a recon around downtown D.C. where the Trump speeches were going to be to see if there were any Antifa or BLM to make sure the charter bus route and parking location were secure," he said.

"We saw nothing—no one except for Trump supporters. There wasn't a single Antifa or BLM anywhere. I never got out of the car and we were back at the hotel in less than an hour—before 5:00. I never left the hotel after that and never set foot in D.C. again."

"We knew exactly what the D.C. gun laws were—that's why we booked a hotel in Virginia," said Stamey. "We even researched what the knife laws are. No pocket knives with blades more than three inches. We instructed our people to be sure not to carry anything against the law."

Stamey and others say the North Carolina QRF never left the Virginia Comfort Inn after that.

"There was never any plan for our QRF to go into D.C.—it was a contingency plan to get our people out if things went south," he said.

“I went downstairs to smoke cigarettes outside the lobby a few times, but that was it. We ordered Italian food from a restaurant near the hotel and it was so good that was the only place we got food from.”

When violence broke out on January 6, instead of participating in the insurrection and violence at the Capitol building, Stamey called at least six leaders of the North Carolina Oath keepers contingent who were walking “about 600 yards away” from the Capitol, and ordered them to gather those who came up on the charter bus, turn around, return to the bus, and immediately leave Washington D.C., according to multiple Oath keepers interviewed who were present.

Their charter bus abruptly left Washington earlier than scheduled, at “around 4:00 p.m.”, before the violence had been quelled, to return to North Carolina, according to multiple North Carolina Oath keepers interviewed.

“It was sometime between 2:15 and 2:30,” Stamey recalled. “I was watching it live in my hotel room when I saw all Hell breaking loose and people attack law enforcement. I called my commander, (North Carolina state chapter head) George Smith, who was on the ground with our people, but the phone lines were all clogged up. I called another guy and said ‘Where the Hell is George?’ He said ‘He is about 100 feet behind me.’ I said ‘you take a God damn rope and you swing it around his ass and don’t let go until I talk to him.’ I got a hold of George and said ‘George, where are you? You need to gather up all the boys and get back to the bus—now! There are people at the Capitol who seem to have lost their minds.’”

When “Those idiots attacked the Capitol, we turned around and went back to North Carolina,” Stamey said.

North Carolina Oath keepers affiliates in Washington January 6, 2021. The group travelled by charter bus from Columbia County, NC early on the morning of January 6 to attend the Trump organized 'Save America' rally and returned that afternoon (Photo: Facebook)

Around noon on January 6, national Oath keeper head Stewart Rhodes positioned himself immediately outside the Capitol building and remained there when violence peaked that afternoon.

At 11:57 a.m., with "God Bless America" playing in the background, Trump began imploring the crowd to march to the Capitol building saying "you'll never take back our country with weakness."

Trump said he had told Vice President Pence to block the counting of electoral college votes and ratification of the winner, president-elect Joseph Biden, but Pence announced at 1:00 p.m. he would not support Trump's baseless claims of voter fraud.

Trump said he would "never concede."

Trump finished his speech at 1:11 p.m. with “We fight like hell, and if you don't fight like hell, you're not going to have a country anymore. So we are going to walk down Pennsylvania Avenue – I love Pennsylvania Avenue – and we are going to the Capitol.”

“We’re going to try and give them [Congress] the kind of pride and boldness that they need to take back our country” concluding with “We will not let them silence your voices.”

Thousands of Trump supporters began walking the 1.5 miles from the Ellipse down Pennsylvania ave. towards the Capitol building, chanting “USA! USA!”.

At 2:11 p.m., a mob chased police up the steps, breached the final barricade near the Senate chamber and, two minutes later, entered the Capitol through broken windows.

Vice President Pence was ushered by his secret service security detail from the Senate chamber into an office separated only by a door from the insurrectionists, and by 2:14, now inside the Capitol building, chased Capitol Police officer Eugene Goodman up stairs near the Senate chamber as police locked the doors as they roamed the halls of Congress chanting ‘Hang Mike Pence!’ who was soon spirited by Secret Service agents to more secure tunnels underneath the Capitol.

For the first time in U.S. history, a losing president, Trump, had obstructed and stopped the Constitutional process of a peaceful transition of presidential power from a defeated incumbent to the duly elected next president of the United States.

It was the worst breach of the Capitol building since the War of 1812 when British invaders ransacked Congress and burned down the White House.

Then President Donald Trump speaking at the ‘Stop the Steal’ to thousands of his supporters January 6 instructing them to ‘march to the Capitol.’

At the same time, both President Trump and Paul Stamey were watching the events unfold on live TV—Stamey from his room at the Comfort Inn and Trump back at the White House in his private dining room.

Trump tweeted an opposite message to his supporters than Stamey did to his North Carolina Oath keepers contingent who were then approaching the Capitol building.

“I must have called Smith and several others from our group 6 or 7 times to make sure our people were back on the bus, safe and accounted for, and on the road back to North Carolina,” said Stamey. “And that is exactly what we did. We didn’t want nothing to do with what was going on at the Capitol.”

Smith, and 5 other North Carolina Oath keepers who rode up on the charter bus and were “near 3rd street about 600 yards from the Capitol building” when insurrectionists first assaulted cops and breached barricades, confirmed Stamey called them personally and instructed them to return to the charter bus, they said in interviews.

North Carolina Oath Keepers state chapter head retired career U.S. Army Ranger veteran George Douglas Smith at the pro-Trump 'Stop the Steal' rally in Washington January 6

“We were horrified,” said Smith. “We went to Washington to support President Trump. When we saw what was going on, we left.”

Stamey’s first call was to North Carolina Oath keeper, John Roeper, a retired 27-year career FBI agent, who was in charge of security for the 26 members on the ground who rode up on the charter bus to Washington January 6.

As a former law enforcement officer, Roeper was exempt from Washington’s strict gun laws and one of the very few private citizens legally carrying a concealed handgun in Washington the day of the insurrection.

“Around 2:15-2:30, we saw people break into and go inside the Capitol,” Stamey recalled. “I called Roeper first. I told him to gather our people and head back to the charter bus because demonstrators were attacking cops at the Capitol.”

Roeper was tasked with staying with the charter bus the whole day to ensure that the only transport available to the North Carolinians to make a quick exit was protected from attack by what many Oath keepers believed might be violent mobs of political opponents, who they mainly defined as Antifa or Black Lives Matter activists.

But Oath keepers say they saw no Antifa or BLM that day, and none have been identified as present January 6. They say the violence they witnessed came only from pro-Trump supporters.

Even Oath keepers national head Stewart Rhodes acknowledged as much in the hours after the riot was quelled.

“Look, I WAS THERE. I WAS RIGHT OUSIDE (sic),” Rhodes messaged other Oath keepers on the late afternoon of January 6 in the immediate wake of the violence at the Capitol. “Patriots stormed in. Not Antifa. And I don’t blame them. They were justifiably pissed off.”

“Ok who gives a damn who went in there. If it’s Obama himself it doesn’t matter,” responded Florida Oath keepers state chapter head Kelly Meggs. “What matters is where we are now and decisions that have to be mad (sic). We are now the enemy of the state.”

“As I figured,” chimed in Florida Oath keeper Graydon Young, using the user name ‘GenXPatriot’. “This organization is a huge fuckin joke. You, Stewart, are the dumb ass I heard you were. Good luck getting rich off those dumbass PSD donations you fuck stick.”

PSD is an acronym for Personal Security Detail. While most Oath keepers in Washington January 6 were assigned to protect VIP speakers, such as Roger Stone and Ali Alexander at the Trump rally January 5 and that day, but none of the North Carolina contingent were because they arrived in D.C. independently and were not coordinating with Rhodes and his national organization.

Roeper, who declined to be interviewed for this story, is known to have been interviewed by his former FBI colleagues and to have told them no members of the North Carolina Oath keepers contingent participated in the attack on the Capitol building.

During his interview, the FBI asked him “Why the Hell would you be part of an organization like this?”

According to North Carolina chapter head Doug Smith, Roeper responded “Well, why wouldn’t you?”

In his interviews with the FBI, Roeper corroborated that he, Stamey, and the North Carolina ‘QRF’ were tasked, if violence broke out, with executing an exit plan to evacuate the chapter members who travelled on the charter bus, not to enter Washington D.C. in support of insurrectionists.

"That is the “Truth - I was one of the people who Paul called,” said Larry Bass, another North Carolina Oath keeper who travelled on the charter bus and was on the ground outside the Capitol January 6. “We didn't truly recognize the (severity) of the situation until we got calls from Paul telling us that he was watching the events unfold LIVE on TV, and that we should board the bus and head back for NC.”

North Carolina Oath keepers Larry Bass in his Linked In profile

“Most of our group remained 2-3 blocks away from the Capitol grounds,” he said in an interview. “My buddy and I got closer to the Capitol grounds than the majority of our group, but a wading pool separated us from the grounds. We could see the protesters climbing the steps and the walls of the building, and the clouds of gas that surrounded them. It was surreal. We headed back to join the main group just before Paul called again to alert us of the mayhem going on at the parts of the building that we could not see.”

“As our group of NCOK’s was preparing to head back to our bus, the mayor of DC sent out an alert to everyone's cell phone advising of a curfew that would go into place that evening. We headed for the bus and departed DC around 1600 (4-PM-ish).”

Washington mayor Muriel Bowser issued the curfew at 2:31 p.m. over Twitter—minutes before other Oath keepers are known to have breached police line and entered the Capitol at 2:40 p.m. The timing of her order appears to corroborate Bass’s and Stamey’s recollection of the time frame.

Unlike most North Carolina Oath keepers who requested anonymity when contacted by this reporter, Bass agreed to speak on the record, but he remained wedded to widely debunked conspiracy theories that January 6 was a 'false flag' instigated by anti-Trump elements in cahoots with members of the 'Deep State'.

"For all I know, you work for the domestic enemy," he said in an email response to a reporter's first request for an interview. "I personally believe that nefarious provocateurs (possibly Antifa, BLM, &/or federal agents/informants) instigated the riot."

Bass, who also has been interviewed by FBI investigators, and corroborated Stamey's account to them, is a retired 23-year veteran of the United States Air Force who has worked as an EMS helicopter pilot, and currently is an Aviation Safety Inspector at the Federal Aviation Administration.

In a February 9, 2021 interview with the Columbus County, North Carolina News Reporter, state chapter head George Smith said “We listened to Trump’s speech and went to the bus and our people got on the bus and we were going to go to the Capitol to hear more speeches. We were coming up the (national) mall and coming up Third Avenue...and I heard the first explosion at that time, like a flashbang or something.”

Smith said at first, he thought it was Antifa or other anti-Trump demonstrators clashing with the pro-Trump supporters. “It became pretty obvious even at that distance that this was something else. We stood and watched...and I said, ‘This is it, we ain’t going no further,’ and we stood there probably 45 minutes and we turned around and got on the bus.”

“Never in my wildest dreams did I think people would get up there fighting with Capitol police and entering the Capitol,” Smith said.

“I can promise you that no North Carolina Oath Keepers were involved with what happened at the Capitol building that day,” said Smith in an earlier January 22, 2021 interview with the Columbus County News, <https://columbuscountynews.com/2021/01/state-organization-breaks-ties-with-oath-keepers/> an independent local North Carolina media outlet.

“The actions of a few others has shamed each man from our state, and they fear their reputations as law-abiding citizens has been sullied in our law enforcement brethren’s eyes.”

In the days after the January 6 riot, the North Carolina Oath keepers state chapter announced it was formally severing ties with the national organization run by Stewart Rhodes.

Sheriff Mahoney:

Sir, my name is Doug Smith from Columbus County NC, we spoke earlier this year when I stopped by your office and I told you about Oath keepers organizing in NC.

With the events at the Capital on January 6th I feel compelled to reach out to you and express our outrage at the events that transpired that day. In fact all North Carolina Oath keepers are beyond furious when we saw evidence that Oath keepers from other states are shown in our Capital. Sir, I can promise you that no North Carolina Oath keepers were involved with what happened at the Capital building that day.

North Carolina Oath keepers were in Washington to hear President Trump after he put out the invitation to his supporters. We left the President's speech and headed to the Capitol to listen to what we thought was going to be more speeches from members of congress.

When North Carolina Oath keepers got to 3rd street or avenue which is at least 5 to 600 yards from the Capital, I was there and we could see the mayhem and wanted no part of it. We watched for about an hour from that position before returning to our bus around 4:00 pm and returned to North Carolina in disbelief.

The men of North Carolina are law abiding and for the most part good Christian men. The men of North Carolina believe that the National leadership could have stopped this and did nothing. The men and myself included can no longer be affiliated with Oath keepers after this sad event in our nations history.

The number one reason our men train is to support law enforcement in North Carolina, the actions of others has shamed each man from our state and they fear their reputations as law abiding citizens has been sullied in our law enforcement brethren eyes.

Sheriff Mahoney we will be rebranding ourselves but our mission is and will remain the same. We hope that the Sheriffs from all one hundred counties feel as if they could call on their citizens if ever needed. Sheriff take good care of yourself and God Bless you and your department.

January 17, 2021 email from North Carolina chapter head George Smith to the head of the North Carolina Sheriff's Association. "The men of North Carolina believe that the National leadership could have stopped this and did nothing."

Smith is named as unindicted co-conspirator “Person Number Five” in the government conspiracy court filings, and has been interviewed multiple times by FBI agents as a target of prosecutors.

Another North Carolina Oath keeper, Navy veteran Bill Abshire, who also travelled up to D.C. on the charter bus, confirmed Stamey’s account of events January 6.

“We listened to Trump’s speech and then headed towards the Capitol and saw people standing on the scaffolding. We said ‘What the Hell is going on here?’ Paul was watching it on TV and called us to tell our folks to return to the bus,” Abshire recalled in a telephone interview.

“Honestly, after Trump’s speech, we were mostly hanging around a taco food truck,” Abshire said. “A couple of our guys had gone shopping and we had to find them so everyone could get back to the bus. We left D.C. around 4:00 and went back to North Carolina.”

“I don’t know who those dumb ass’s who went into the building were. We didn’t have anything to do with them,” Abshire continued. “I was in the Navy. You don’t go into a government building without credentials. Those Capitol Police could have just mowed them all down and it would have been legal.”

Abshire, like many of the North Carolina Oath keepers, has also been visited by the FBI who questioned him about the state chapter QRF. Abshire said he confirmed to the FBI in detail Stamey’s account of their QRF.

“They wanted to know about the QRF,” he said. “I told them Paul and our guys were just doing security, watching for Antifa or whoever those guys were who were in D.C. in November. I told the FBI, there were no guns that I saw or knew about.”

“I didn’t see a single one of them Antifa that day,” said Abshire.

“People did stupid stuff. We didn’t. We left,” he concluded.

In interviews, all members of the North Carolina Oath keepers contingent denied they participated in any illegal actions and insist the government has no evidence otherwise.

“The FBI seems to have all the recordings of everything else, so they got to have those, too,” said Stamey. “It wasn’t like the government makes it out to be,” Stamey said.

No members of the North Carolina chapter of the Oath keepers have been accused or charged with breaking any laws on January 6, but three are listed as unnamed co-conspirators in the federal indictments.

More than two dozen members of the North Carolina state chapter have been visited by the FBI, according to Oath keepers interviewed.

One said that his FBI interviewer said 80 more people in that state were still scheduled to be interviewed regarding the January 6 insurrection.

Numerous other North Carolina and other Oath keepers have been subpoenaed to testify in front of federal grand juries or the Congressional January 6 Committee.

It was not able to be independently confirmed whether other members of the North Carolina Oath keepers were present in prohibited restricted areas around the Capitol, participated in violence, or other illegal activity, but no members of the state chapter are publicly alleged to have or been charged with violating any laws on January 6.

At the end of July, Stamey, through his attorney, contacted the FBI and Department of Justice prosecutors and requested a meeting. On September 9, seven members of the prosecution team, including FBI investigators and chief prosecutor Assistant U.S. Attorney Kathryn Rakoczy, met with Stamey in person and via video conference, according to sources directly involved. The five-hour meeting ended when prosecutors declined to provide any new evidence against Stamey or name what charges he faced.

“Is that all you got?” Stamey’s attorney asked.

“We don’t have to provide you with any evidence,” prosecutors responded.

“You know if you had more, you would show it,” responded Stamey’s attorney, before the meeting ended amicably but without resolution.

But Paul Stamey does have a Thomas Caldwell problem.

65-year old retired U.S. Navy Lt. Commander Thomas Caldwell of the rural Shenandoah Valley town of Berryville, Virginia, was arrested in the first group of Oath keepers charged in January 2021 and a defendant with eleven others charged with 'Seditious Conspiracy' in January 2022.

Prosecutors allege Caldwell was a central figure in the Oath keepers ‘seditious conspiracy’ case, and is key to the government narrative linking Stamey and other Oath keepers to each other, particularly to connect the dots between Oath keepers and the armed Quick Reaction Force they assert was poised to deploy arms and commandos to support the insurrectionists at the Capitol.

At first glance, Caldwell's intercepted online chatter and rhetoric in the days before and after January 6—if not his actions—was certainly incendiary and among the most damning evidence bolstering the prosecution's conspiracy case.

On the night of January 6, Caldwell bragged of his exploits that day: "It was instinct to snatch up my American flag and race for capitol steps while the patriot stereotypes were blasting the song 'we're not gonna take it anymore' and we were screaming along as one," he wrote. "So I grabbed up my American flag and said 'let's take the damn capitol' so people started surging forward and climbing the scaffolding outside so I said 'let's storm the place and hang the traitors.' Everybody thought that was a good idea so we did."

"If we'd had guns I guarantee we would have killed 100 politicians," Caldwell added. "They ran off and were spirited away through their underground tunnels like the rats they were."

"The people in front of me broke through the doors and started duking it out with the pigs who broke and ran. Then we started stealing the cops riot shields and throwing fire extinguishers through windows."

"It was a great time," he concluded.

In fact, Caldwell did none of those things.

But, despite stark evidence Caldwell was a blowhard who made inflammatory claims of his heroics on social media, there is little evidence that Caldwell did anything illegal beyond trespassing on Capitol grounds.

He never "storm(ed) the place", prosecutors now agree, and video and other evidence shows, despite his post-insurrection braggadocio claiming he did.

Thomas Caldwell and his wife, Susan—who is named ‘Person Two in court documents—seen on the Capitol steps on January 6. (Photo image U.S. DoJ)

On the morning of January 6, Caldwell travelled on a subway train from the Arlington, Virginia Comfort Inn to Washington to hear Trump speak and then marched with the crowd to the restricted grounds outside the Capitol, where, alone with his wife, Susan, stopped and witnessed the violence, but never attempted to enter the Capitol building. He was not with any other Oath keepers.

In fact, Caldwell was not a member of the Oath keepers, not on any of the militia group’s invitation-only encrypted chat groups organizing for January 6, and had no contact with Stewart Rhodes or other leaders of the militia group on January 6, prosecutors, his legal team, and other evidence shows.

Caldwell might be best described as a ‘groupie’ of the far-right militia movement, an eager supporter who wanted to be a member of the boys club, but was rejected.

“Caldwell wanted to be an Oath keeper, but he was living a damn fantasy in his head with his big commando bullshit,” said North Carolina Oath keeper leader George Smith. “He was talking like he was some sort of private army.”

Caldwell’s Walter Mitty-esq antics and language, have come back to haunt him—and Paul Stamey.

Court papers say Caldwell organized hotel accommodations for armed insurrectionists, brought weapons to January 6, attempted to secure boats to ferry guns across the Potomac River to assist insurrectionists attacking the Capitol, and provided other logistical support—all allegations used to show Stamey and others collaborated with Caldwell to help coordinate the conspiracy to violently attack the Capitol.

“A major part of his role in the conspiracy was organizing individuals who were on standby with guns in a hotel across the river,” wrote Assistant US Attorney Kathryn Rakoczy in a March 2021 court filing, adding Caldwell’s role January 6 was “among the most concerning aspects of the conspiracy and for which the evidence has only strengthened.”

“Caldwell, that dumb ass, if it wasn’t for the bullshit he said on those chat sites which the feds got a hold of, I wouldn’t have the problems I do now,” said Stamey. “I really should hate the guy, but I can’t bring myself to. He was a nice guy. I liked him. But I will guarantee you this—Caldwell was no threat to nobody.”

“He wasn’t even a member of the Oath keepers. He didn’t have authority to do anything. He wasn’t in any of the Oath keeper commo groups,” said Stamey. “He was living like he was in a Hollywood movie.”

Sources close to Caldwell say he had been heavily medicated “on prescription opiates” in the weeks prior to and on January 6, as a result of several spinal surgeries, which affected his state of mind.

Oath keepers who knew Caldwell say, in the weeks prior to January 6, he had ramped up his vision to a realm of fantasy, with patriots descending on D.C. with tomahawks to save the republic from what Caldwell believed was a Chinese Communist Party controlled Democratic Party—which included the president-elect of the United States.

They say Caldwell indulged in fantastical rhetorical dramatics of personal derring-do they dismissed as the over-exuberance of a harmless but likable man.

“What the Government misunderstands is that Caldwell’s language and personality center around his military career and his addiction to Hollywood,” writes his attorney, David Fischer.

Caldwell’s IRS tax records show he claimed he worked writing Hollywood screen plays that are “dusty and were written with a typewriter.” according to Fischer, who says he has copies.

One depicts a “dog fight” between rival aircraft, with one pilot radioing out “Buzzard One, this is Slingshot, I got two bogies on my six; say again, two bogies on my six; May-day, May-day.”

Some of Caldwell’s social media comments cited by the Government are quotes from Hollywood movies. “The best example is ‘storming the castle’ and ‘I’m such an instigator.’ These are classic lines from the 1980s classic movie The Princess Bride,” wrote Fischer.

One of Caldwell’s email accounts is "the_spy54@****.com", the “54” being a reference to the year of his birth.

He signed his message communications “CAG” and “Spy.”

In a March appeal for his release from pre-trial detention, a supporter offered a less gentle assessment of Caldwell: “His speech is sharp but his blades are dull.”

Stamey recalls Caldwell’s action movie prose in email exchanges in the run-up to January 6.

“In December, Caldwell sent me 4 or 5 paragraphs about planning for D.C. that read exactly like a movie script,” said Stamey. “He was writing about bringing Tomahawks to D.C. I said ‘Tomahawks?!? WTF? Tomahawks?!? Really? I called George Smith up and said ‘George, take a look at this.’”

“If he was a member of the Oath keepers, we would have kicked him out then. He was just blowing smoke,” said Stamey. “It was like he was in his own world, living a movie script he was writing in his own head.”

The Tomahawks Caldwell ordered were called ‘Zombie Killers’ and were cited in federal court documents.

Around this same time, Caldwell also sent messages suggesting that he was researching weapons. On December 1, for example, Caldwell sent website links advertising the sale of weapons on the bidding-site Ebay.com. He added, “Above are 2 links to weapons I have found and am mentioning on the T O & E of the draft Oorder.” One of the referenced weapons was a “Surgical Steel Tomahawk Axe,” and is depicted below as advertised in Caldwell’s link<sup>3</sup>:

In addition, in November 2020 Caldwell ordered a .380 caliber handgun disguised as a cell phone. In December he messaged the gun dealer saying he was eager to receive the device: “I am eager to receive this weapon.” After January 6, when the cell phone gun had still not arrived, Caldwell cancelled the order and asked for his money back.

Order Confirmation

Hello Thomas Caldwell,

"Caldwell said some very stupid stuff, but honestly, no one took him seriously. I didn't take him seriously," added Stamey.

But the government certainly does.

Caldwell's phone messaging with Stamey are among the most incriminating evidence tying Stamey to the conspiracy.

"Caldwell conspired with Person Three, who, in Defendant Caldwell's words, was 'committed to being the quick reaction force and bringing the tools if something goes to hell. That way the boys don't have to try to schlep weps on the bus,'" prosecutors wrote in early 2021 court filings.

In April, prosecutors released surveillance video from the Comfort Inn they said shows Oath Keepers "carrying up and down, from the lobby and back...including Person Three...multiple items" that look like long guns.

Among them were two frame grabs of Thomas Caldwell's gun from Comfort Inn surveillance video prosecutors say is evidence of the hotel being the headquarters of the 'QRF' Caldwell helped organize headed by Paul Stamey.

One photograph shows Caldwell walking out of an elevator into a hotel 2nd floor hallway carrying what appears to be a rifle loosely wrapped in a blanket toward his room when he checked into the hotel on January 5th—time stamped "1/5/2021 02:34:19 PM"

A 2cd photograph time-stamped 5:11 pm, January 6 “after Caldwell and Person Two (his wife, Susan) returned to the Comfort Inn from the Capitol” depicts “Person Three visit(ing) Defendant Caldwell carrying a large and long object wrapped under a bed sheet” walking down a Comfort Inn 2cd floor hallway from Stamey’s room towards Caldwell’s room.

North Carolina Oath keeper and head of the state chapter 'Quick Reaction Force' Paul Stamey shown in Arlington, Virginia Comfort Inn hotel surveillance video at 5:11 p.m. on January 6 carrying a gun owned by Thomas Caldwell of Virginia. "Yeah, that's me," said Stamey. "I was returning that dumb ass Caldwell's .22 after he left it in my room when we got drunk the night before."...(Photo image U.S. DoJ)

Prosecutors allege that the image of Caldwell bringing a gun into the hotel January 5, the day before the insurrection, and the image of Stamey returning that same gun in the late afternoon of January 6 is proof that Stamey stored Caldwell's weapon in his room as part of a much larger multi-state Oath keepers conspiracy to stockpile "an arsenal of heavy weapons" at the Comfort Inn.

It is the only photographic evidence released to date by prosecutors connecting Stamey to any weapons he is alleged to have "stockpiled" as commanding the Oath keepers QRF.

“There is evidence to suggest that Defendant Caldwell may have contributed a weapon or other equipment to the QRF’s cache,” prosecutor wrote. “On January 5, 2021, Defendant Caldwell visited Person Three’s room at the Comfort Inn carrying a large and long object wrapped under a bed sheet.”

Stamey has a more innocuous explanation.

“Yeah, that’s me,” Stamey said of the hotel surveillance image. “I was returning Caldwell .22 rifle peashooter he brought to my room the night before. We got drunk and the dumb ass forgot it in my room.”

According to Stamey’s account, Caldwell brought his newly acquired 22. caliber rifle, kitted out to resemble an AR style war weapon, to Stamey’s room the previous night to show it off and the two finished off a half-filled bottle of Jim Beam whiskey.

“In November, I brought a bottle of Jim Beam and left the still half filled bottle at Caldwell’s farm as a gift,” said Stamey. “That dumb ass Caldwell brought the same bottle—still half-filled—to D.C. and we drank it. He brought his 22 caliber rifle to my room to show it off to me,” continued Stamey.

“I’m a Marine. The first thing I did was pull out the magazine and checked the chamber and cleared it. There was no ammunition. I don’t even know if he brought any ammo with him.”

“We finished off the whiskey and when he left—and I’ll be honest with you, we were both drunk—Caldwell forgot his gun, because when I woke up in the morning, it was leaning against the wall in my room. That picture was me returning the weapon after I waited for him and his wife to get back from the Capitol that afternoon to return his bird gun he forgot in my room the night before,” Stamey recalled.

“He was all red faced. I handed him that rifle. I asked Caldwell, ‘Tom, you didn’t go into that Capitol building, did you?’ He said he did. I didn’t say anything. I just looked at him, turned around, and walked away,” Stamey said. “Later I asked him again, ‘Tom did you go inside the Capitol?’ He admitted he didn’t.”

“I checked out within, like, fifteen minutes of going to his room and dropping off his gun.”

“All of my team were already waiting for me downstairs outside the hotel lobby,” said Stamey. “The feds have video of that, too. How come they haven’t released that video?”

“Honestly, I was a pissed off at him because I was suppose to have convoyed with the North Carolina charter bus which had already left D.C. because of what those idiots had just done at the Capitol,” said Stamey.

“The government has video of that, too, but that wouldn’t fit their story,” Stamey said. “They have all the hotel videos that show me checking out around 5:30 p.m. on the 6th. Damn, they have all the videos that show all those boys they say left weapons with me went to someone else’s room. I know they damn sure didn’t drop any guns off with me.”

“Apparently, the only ‘shots’ taken by Person Three on January 6th were from glasses,” quipped Caldwell’s attorney, David Fischer, in a March 2021 court filing. “Person Three—the Quick Reaction Force—is in his late 60s, obese, has cardio-pulmonary issues, a bad back, a bum knee, and in need of a hip replacement.”

“That sounds about right—except for the hip replacement. I don’t know where they got that. My hip might be the only part of me doing just fine at the moment,” quipped Stamey, who requires a cane to walk.

“Caldwell portrays himself like actor Mel Gibson in the movie ‘The Patriot’, picking up an American flag and leading the charge,” said Fischer. “Unlike Mel Gibson, however, Caldwell has undergone multiple spinal fusions, is permanently disabled, and requires the occasional use of a cane to ambulate.”

“That is what the government says was the Quick Reaction Force—a couple of old cripples with bird guns,” Stamey said. “At least those were the only guns I saw.”

The Aftermath

In the immediate wake of the insurrection on the late afternoon of January 6, Stewart Rhodes received a call from the 1st Praetorian Guards, known as 1AP, a militia group closely associated with former Trump National Security Advisor Gen. Michael Flynn, Roger Stone, and January 6 organizer Ali Alexander. It was a dinner invitation to a Virginia Olive Garden to gather and assess the events that day.

The small group of very worried protagonists of the Capitol insurrection included two members of 1AP; the girlfriend of one of the 1AP members; Rhodes; his confidante and Texas attorney [REDACTED]; the January 6 ‘operational lead’ and ‘ground commander’ for the Oath keepers, Michael ‘Whip’ Simmons; two Kentucky Oath keepers; the head of the Southeast region Oath keepers, Alabaman Joshua James; and Arizona Oath keeper affiliate Edward Vallejo.

During dinner, SoRelle received a phone call from republican activist Marsha Strickler. Strickler told her that “cops were kicking down hotel room doors and arresting people and they were looking for Stewart,” recalled SoRelle. “Marsha Strickler scared the shit out of me.”

Michael ‘Whip’ Simmons remembers SoRelle receiving the phone call. “At dinner, Kellye got a phone call saying cops were arresting people and looking for Stewart. Everyone left the Olive Garden, went back to their hotels, packed our stuff and we met up at a gas station nearby.”

The Oath keepers leaders in four vehicles rendezvoused at a nearby Virginia gas station after dark.

“Remember, we had no idea what was going on. There was no plan for what ended up happening January 6 that we knew about and all of a sudden Stewart and Oath keepers had their photos on every news outlet in the country accused of trying to violently overthrow the government and people were telling us they were hunting us down,” recalled SoRelle. ‘His phone was ringing off the hook from Oath keepers, the media, other groups.’

At the gas station, the alarmed group discussed the ramifications of January 6 and, according to prosecutors, Rhodes “divided up various firearms and other gear among James and others.”

Rhodes purchased more than $40,000 in guns and military equipment in the days immediately January 6, prosecutors say.

- “On December 30, 2020, RHODES purchased two night-vision devices and one weapon sight for approximately $7,000.”
- “On January 1 and 2, 2021, RHODES spent approximately $5,000 on firearms and related equipment, including a shotgun, scope, magazines, sights, optics, a bipod, a mount, a case of ammunition, and gun-cleaning supplies.”
- “On January 3, 2021, RHODES departed Granbury, Texas, and began traveling to the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. While traveling, RHODES spent approximately $6,000 in Texas on an AR-platform rifle and firearms equipment, including sights, mounts, triggers, slings, and additional firearms attachments.”
- “On January 4, 2021, while still traveling toward the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, RHODES spent approximately $4,500 in Mississippi on firearms equipment, including sights, mounts, an optic plate, a magazine, and various firearms parts.”

“James saw what he estimated to be thousands of dollars worth of firearms, ammunition, and related equipment in Rhode’s vehicle,” prosecutors wrote in court filings.

44. While at the restaurant, Rhodes and James came to believe that law enforcement was searching for Rhodes and others after their attack on the Capitol. The group immediately returned to their hotel, collected their belongings, and met at a nearby gas station. There, James saw what he estimated to be thousands of dollars’ worth of firearms, ammunition, and related equipment in Rhodes’s vehicle. Rhodes divvied up various firearms and other gear among James and others who occupied a total of three cars. Rhodes left his mobile phone with one person and departed with another person in that person’s car so that law enforcement could not locate and arrest him. The three cars departed in separate directions.

45. James returned to Alabama with some of Rhodes’s gear, including firearms and other tactical equipment.

“I only remember one gun Stewart gave Joshua James,” recalled Simmons. “And he gave his cell phone to someone else. It wasn’t like a cache. Stewart was always giving away stuff after an event.”

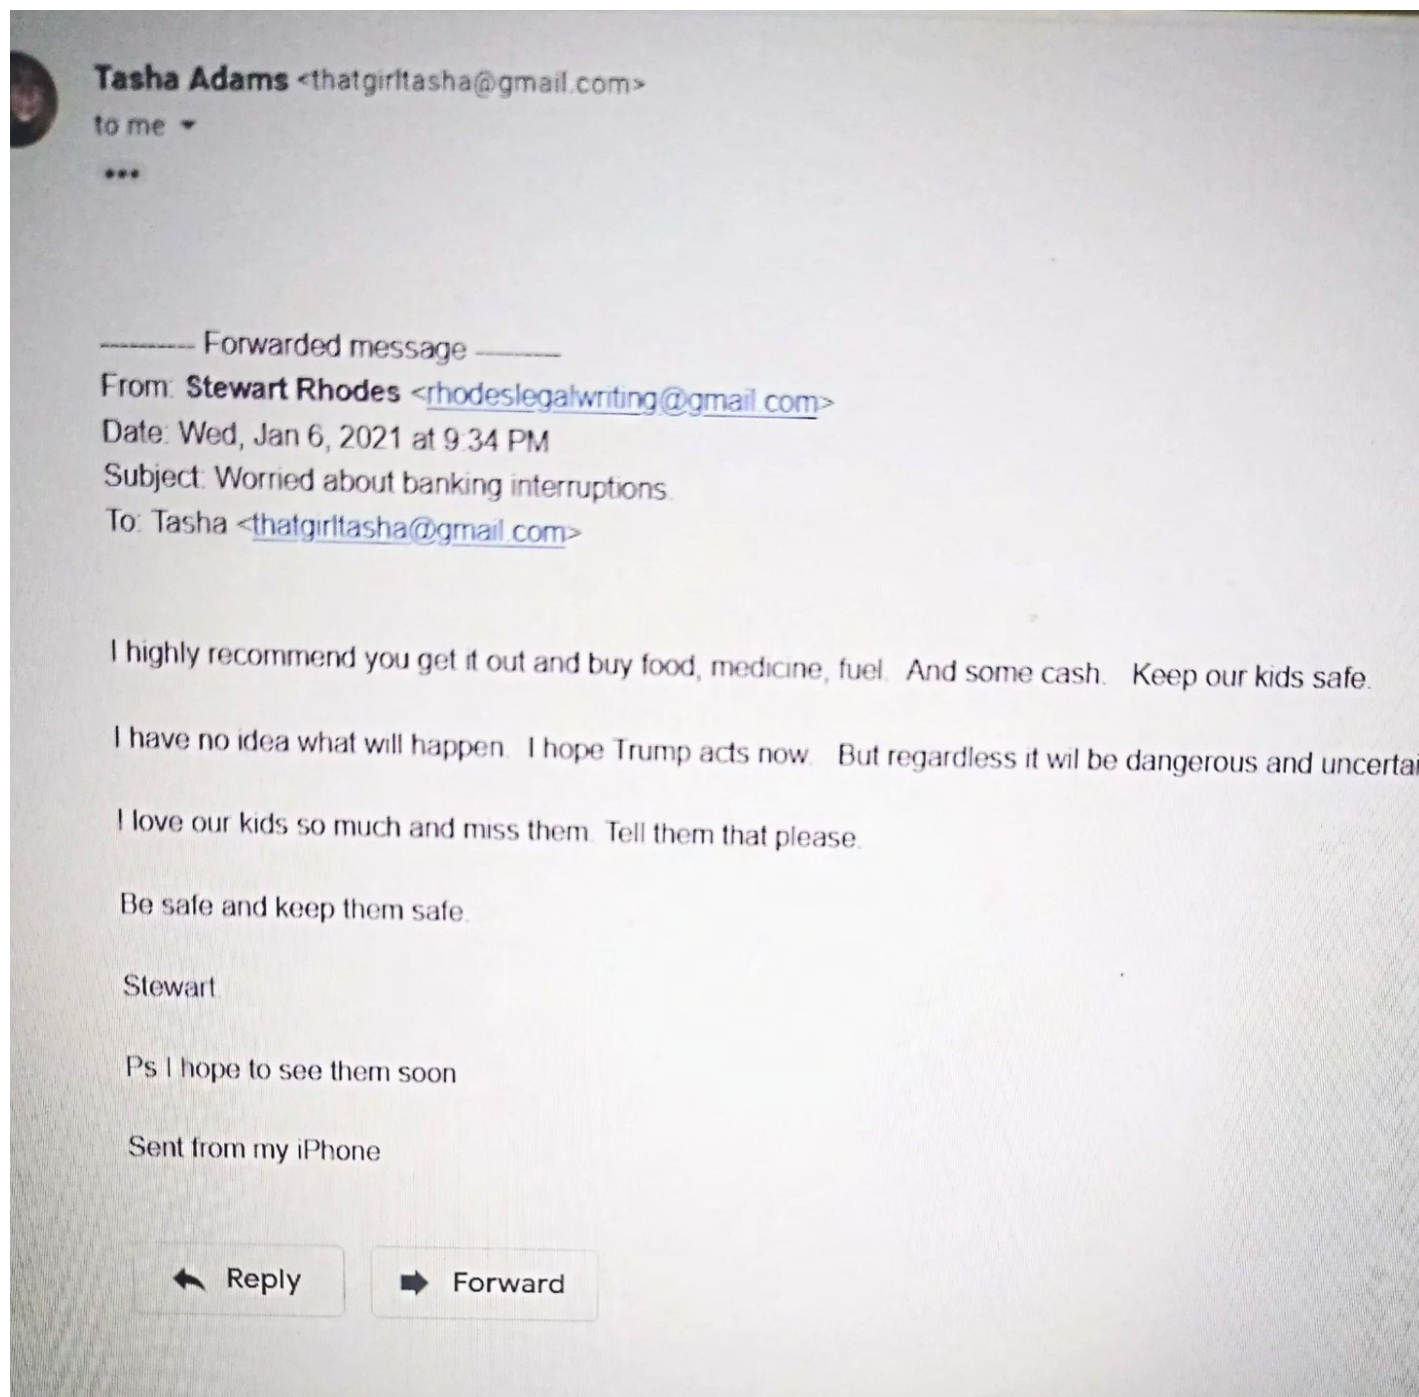

Rhodes insisted on not departing in the same car he arrived from in Washington with SoRelle. He gave her his cell phone in attempt to disrupt government efforts to track his location.

“To be fair, Stewart didn’t want to drag me or others into it if the feds arrested him,” said SoRelle.

The group abruptly left Washington in different directions. SoRelle headed toward Texas, Joshua James towards Alabama, Simmons home to Indiana, and Rhodes rode with two Kentucky Oath keepers to their home state, where he rendezvoused with Sorelle and they continued to Alabama where they met James for lunch the following day.

On his car ride out of Washington the night of January 6, Rhodes emailed his wife, Tasha Adams, in Montana.

“I highly recommend you get it out and buy food, medicine, fuel. And some cash. Keep our kids safe. I have no idea what will happen. I hope Trump acts now. But regardless it will be dangerous and uncertain. I love our kids so much and miss them. Tell them that please. Be safe and keep safe” (Photo image courtesy of Tasha Adams)

“I highly recommend you get it out and buy food, medicine, fuel. And some cash,” Rhodes messaged at 9:34 pm on the night of January 6 as he was fleeing from perceived federal authorities from D.C. “Keep our kids safe. I have no idea what will happen. I hope Trump acts now. But regardless it will be dangerous and uncertain. I love our kids so much and miss them. Tell them that please. Be safe and keep safe”

Adams shares six children with Rhodes and separated from him in 2018. She is in the midst of an acrimonious divorce with the Oath keepers leader.

“So having spent decades reading tiny little clues and changes in Stewart's mood as a form of self defense, this email made me nervous,” recalled Adams. “Of course talking about food and medicine was weird but not unlike him. What struck me as nervous breakdown mode was that he used the ‘please’, and...also he said ‘our’ kids, something he would do if he was feeling desperate as a way of trying to show that we have a connection. I think most people would think I was crazy pointing out something so small but as a person who studies human weirdness maybe you kind of know what I mean here.”

In Alabama, Rhodes urged James to change his physical identity, purchase untraceable ‘burner’ phones, and gather up all his weapons and any others he could muster, including those from other southeast state members under his charge, and bring them to Texas.

Rhodes warned that a ‘civil war’ had begun, and wanted to gather his troops and muster as many weapons in Texas.

Alabama Oath keeper Mark Grods declined, as did Florida Oath keepers chapter head Kelly Meggs.

- Kelly Meggs: Insurrection act appears to be signed and we shall se what tomorrow brings.
- James: Yes..
- Kelly Meggs: Stay safe
- James: You too! Are you coming to TX?
- Kelly Meggs: Nope Fl stays home until shots fired !

Conversation between Alabama Oath keepers leader Joshua James and Florida chapter leader Kelly Meggs immediately after January 6 referring to a call by national Oath keepers leader Stewart Rhodes to bring weapons to Texas to prepare for ‘civil war.’ (Photo image U.S. DoJ).

But Joshua James headed to the suburbs of Dallas where Rhodes had couch surfed with several Oath keepers and affiliates before and after January 6.

In the 10 days after January 6, Rhodes bought $20,000 worth of more guns and military kit and summoned other Oath keepers to Texas, convinced that a civil war had begun, the federal government were going to swoop in and arrest him, and insisted that he would not be taken alive.

In Texas, while acting as Rhodes lieutenant and bodyguard, James accompanied Rhodes on a gun buying spree. On January 10 he spent, “$6,000 on sights, bipods, a scope, mounts, backpacks, a gun grip, a magazine pouch, and other related items,” according to prosecutors. The next day he spent $1,500 “on scopes, magazines, and other items” and the following day, January 12, paid for “$7,000 on hundreds of rounds of ammunition, duffel bags, magazines, rifle scopes, a scope mount, a gun light, and other items.” In the following two days, Rhodes bought an additional $3,000 of “firearms parts, mounts, magazines, a scope leveler, targets, ammunition, a gun case, holsters, and gun-maintenance equipment, among other items.”

- b. James accompanied Rhodes on multiple trips where Rhodes purchased thousands of dollars’ worth of firearms and tactical equipment, including scopes, ammunition, magazines, bipods, duffel bags, holsters, and firearm-maintenance equipment.
- c. While in a vehicle together, Rhodes gave James an AR-platform firearm and explained that Rhodes would not be taken by law enforcement without a fight. James understood Rhodes to be ordering him to help defend Rhodes against law enforcement with force in the event of an arrest.

“Rhodes gave James an AR-platform firearm and explained that Rhodes would not be taken by law enforcement without a fight.”

51. James departed Texas in February 2021. At Rhodes’s instruction, James took with him multiple firearms, thousands of rounds of ammunition, multiple burner phones, scopes, magazines, night-vision equipment, and other tactical gear. Rhodes told James to be prepared to transport and distribute the equipment to others upon Rhodes’s instruction and to be prepared for violence in the event of a civil war. James stored this equipment in a storage shed in Alabama and awaited Rhodes’s instructions.

“When we got back to Texas, Stewart became very paranoid. That is when he started talking all this ‘civil war’ stuff and he wouldn’t be captured alive” recalled Kellye Sorelle who was with Rhodes and other Oath keepers in the suburbs of Dallas during that time.

“Stewart was living out of the trunk his car. He was having PTSD. So was Joshua James for that matter,” she said.

In Texas, Rhodes insisted that all cell phones be turned off and removed from the room before discussing events related to January 6.

Stewart Rhodes was having a mental health breakdown.

“That is not an exaggeration,” said SoRelle. “He was scared.”

Rhodes vowed he wouldn’t be taken alive.

Joshua James approached SoRelle and said “I am really worried about Stewart. He is losing it, talking about how this is all about to go full blown World War Three.”

According to another Oath keepers leader who was on the ground in D.C., Rhodes called him in the days after January 6 to warn him that the federal government was about to launch a surface to air missile targeting his home located in a major metropolitan American city.

“Yeah, that was very weird. Really. WTF?” said the Oath keeper, who requested anonymity, in an interview.

"He lived in fear of 'the feds' coming for him," said his wife, Tasha Adams, in a 2022 interview, referring to secret tunnels he built on their Montana property. "He had long tunnels in the ground at one point. He would never drive anywhere without an AK on his lap. He was paranoid of everything. Not just law enforcement. He was fearful of weather, break-ins, animals."

"It might sound crazy, but he did stuff like this fairly regularly," Adams recalled. "Digging tunnels, switching cars, ditching phones, only having meeting in the woods under trees so satellites couldn't read their lips."

Rhodes built escape tunnels on his Montana property in the event of a government raid to arrest him, according to Adams.

"He rented a backhoe, enlisted a rotating cast of what the kids called yard people (random oath keepers who stayed for a while) and dug from the house to the cover of trees. The plan was to have them go out to a creek to shake scent and then an escape car would be on a forest service road pointed to Idaho."

"He blew through people fast fast enough that they thought they were seeing a sudden breakdown," she said in an April interview. "I just saw a 'here he goes again' moment."

“Stewart owns nothing,” Adams said. “No house. No car. No assets—except his gun collection,” said Adams.

The tens of thousands of dollars in donations to the Oath keepers, all controlled by Rhodes, were mostly spent on weapons, according to Adams.

On January 8, Rhodes, through Sorelle, instructed Oath keepers who were in D.C. January 6 to delete all their encrypted messages.

47. On January 8, 2021, James received a Signal message, in a group chat that included Rhodes, from an individual he understood to be an attorney for the Oath Keepers that stated, "STEWART: YOU ALL NEED TO DELETE ANY OF YOUR COMMENTS REGARDING WHO DID WHAT. You are under zero obligation to leave them up. You/we have not yet gotten a preservation order instructing us to retain those chat comments. So DELETE THEM. I can't delete them because this is a legacy Signal chat that doesn't let me delete comments. Only the comment author can delete a comment. So GET BUSY. DELETE your self-incriminating comments or those that can incriminate others. Start now ..."

48. Thereafter, on January 8, 2021, James forwarded to Grods the message from the attorney and instructed him to "make sure that all signal comms about the op has been deleted and burned." James also messaged Ulrich on Signal and instructed him to delete messages with photographs that included their faces.

"STEWART: YOU ALL NEED TO DELETE ANY OF YOUR COMMENTS REGARDING WHO DID WHAT," wrote Oath keepers legal advisor Kellye Sorelle on January 8. "So GET BUSY. DELETE your self-incriminating comments or this that can incriminate others. Start now..." (Photo image U.S. DoJ court filing)

SoRelle contends the message has been taken out of context by prosecutors. "It wasn't go delete their stuff or destroy your phones," she said. "It was 'quit talking to each other, stop creating witnesses, stop confessing stuff. Preserve your rights,'" she said. 'Call me and I will explain your rights.'"

But it was too late. Rhodes was arrested in January 2022 and charged with 'Seditious Conspiracy.'

The Far Right Turns on its Own

In late June, far-right wing Trump loyalists in Congress and their partisan media echoed new republican party talking points attempting to divert attention from those responsible for the January 6 insurrection.

They began eating their own.

Having abandoned the initial false narrative the violence was organized by Antifa, it was now 'undercover FBI operatives' working for 'the Deep State' that were the dark hand behind the January 6 insurrection, blaming the violence on covert FBI agent provocateurs.

In a twisted irony, they identified the “undercover FBI” culprits behind the violence as the same Oath keepers targeted by the FBI and the Department of Justice.

They accused Paul Stamey of being an “undercover operative” for the FBI.

”Person Two and Person Three were organizers of the riot. The government knows who they are, but the government has not charged them,” Fox News personality Tucker Carlson said in early July. “Why is that? You know why. They were almost certainly working for the FBI.”

“Look at the documents, the government calls those people ‘un-indicted co-conspirators,’” Carlson said. “What does that mean? Well, it means that in potentially every single case they were FBI operatives.”

Far right defenders of the insurrection in Congress, including Matt Gaetz and Marjorie Taylor Greene, formally called for an investigation into whether the FBI was secretly behind the January 6 violence.

“Wow! I really don’t know what to say,” Stamey responded when sent the Fox News clip of Carlson’s accusation. “I’m being accused by the FBI of trying to violently overthrow my government and now accused of secretly working undercover for the FBI trying to overthrow the government. Wow! WTF? I wasn’t either of those things.”

When Stamey voluntarily met with prosecutors and the FBI on September 9, one FBI agent turned to him and asked in a friendly tone “So, what do you think about Tucker?”

“Not much. Pretty much what I think about you guys,” said Stamey.

“Honestly, I was a big supporter of Trump. I still think he did some good things. But he can go to Hell. He just used us,” said Stamey. “I have always been all about supporting law enforcement, but now I don’t trust the FBI at all. I liked Tucker, too. Now I don’t believe anything until I see it with my own eyes.”

When Stamey, who is diabetic, left the Comfort Inn on the late afternoon of January 6 for the drive back to North Carolina with the other three members of his QRF, he “pulled out my backpack to get my insulin. One of my boys had attached a sticker to the outside that said ‘I’m too sober for this shit,’” Stamey recalled. “Looking back on it, I was too sober for anything that happened that day.”

Mr. Stamey expects to be arrested at any time.

"I told the FBI and the prosecutors when we met—I remember actually standing up to tell them—"I take great exception to the fact you would insinuate I wanted to commit treason against our country."

"I'd be lying if I said this whole thing hasn't taken a toll on me," Stamey said. "I'm 66. My health isn't good. I'm going through my third divorce. I've spent thousands of dollars on lawyers. It might not be a lot for some people, but it was all I got. If they arrest me, I very well might die in jail."

"But I will say this," Stamey continued. "I will never take a damn plea deal because I didn't do anything wrong."

"It is times like this in life when you learn who your true friends are," said Stamey. "I've put my affairs in order. I don't mostly sleep at home these days afraid the FBI will come with a swat team and armored personnel carriers in the middle of the night and I don't want them to hurt my dogs or drag my wife into this."

In Florida, Oath keeper Jeremy Brown's girlfriend is overwhelmed, too, since her 27-year career Army Special Forces partner was arrested October 2cd.

Jailed Florida Oath keeper and U.S. Army Special Forces Master Sergeant

“January 6 was our first trip out of state in our RV. I was excited to travel. I’d never been to Washington and wanted to see the sights,” she recalled. “We were ready to retire and travel. It was beautiful-our first RV park. I love it and now it’s just sitting (:.”

“I just saw him on video visit. It’s been 130 days. Unbelievable,” Aldridge said in February. “He misses his dogs and they miss him. I can’t wait to videotape their reunion.”

Florida Oath keeper Jeremy Brown in his 38-foot recreational vehicle with his two dogs, 'Liberty' and 'Ranger'. Prosecutors say Brown stored weapons, ammunition, grenades, and other military kit in the RV he brought to January 6. (Photo courtesy of Jeremy Brown)

In jail house calls since Brown was arrested “He told me if I miss him when I am in bed alone at night to act as if he's deployed,” Aldridge said. “That makes things easier. He said he's on a very special mission and important things will come of this horrible situation.”

“Can you imagine if, instead of punching cops and attacking the Capitol, Oath keepers had stood shoulder to shoulder protecting the cops?” retired career U.S. Army Special Forces veteran and North Carolina Oath Keepers state chapter leader George Douglas Smith said. “Where would Stewart Rhodes or the Oath keepers be today? He would be a national hero. Now all our names are sullied.”

vs.

Edwards Vallejo,

Defendant.

No. 2:22-mj-05032-DMF

Government's Memorandum in Support of Motion for Detention

Edward Vallejo is charged by indictment with seditious conspiracy and related offenses for participating in a plot to oppose by force the execution of the laws governing the transfer of presidential power following the 2020 United States Presidential Election, including an attack on the United States Capitol on January 6, 2021. He should be detained pending trial.

Vallejo played a central role in the planned use of force in this plot, agreeing and preparing to usher firearms and other related equipment into Washington, D.C., to his co-

1 conspirators. After January 6, Vallejo continued to look for ways to support the co-
2 conspirators' mission. He also acknowledged commands by the leader of the conspiracy
3 to watch out for "turn-coat snitches" amongst the co-conspirators' ranks. Based on the 4 compelling evidence of Vallejo's role in the charged offenses, there are no conditions of 5 release that can reasonably assure the safety of the community or the defendant's
6 appearance in court. Vallejo also poses a risk obstruction of justice should he be released.
7 Pretrial detention is warranted and necessary.

8 I. Procedural Background

9 Vallejo is charged with seditious conspiracy, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2384;
10 conspiracy to obstruct Congress, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1512(k); obstruction of an 11 official proceeding, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1512(c)(2); and conspiracy to prevent an 12 officer from discharging any duties, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 372. Upon return of the 13 indictment, a United States Magistrate Judge for the District of Columbia issued a warrant 14 for Vallejo's arrest. Vallejo was arrested on January 13, 2022, and he had his initial 15 appearance before this Court on Friday, January 14. The United States has moved for 16 Vallejo's pretrial detention pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3142(f)(1)(E) (case that involves a 17 felony "that involves the possession or use of a firearm, destructive device ... or any other
18 dangerous weapon"), 3142(f)(2)(A) (case that involves "a serious risk that [the defendant]
19 will flee"), and 3142(f)(2)(B) (case that involves "a serious risk that [the defendant] will 20 obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, or intimidate, or attempt to 21 threaten, injure, or intimidate, a prospective witness or juror"). The detention hearing is 22 scheduled for January 20.

23 II. Factual Background

24 Vallejo participated in a plot to oppose by force the execution of the laws governing 25 the transfer of presidential power in the United States. In November 2020, days after the 26 Presidential Election, co-defendant Elmer Stewart Rhodes III, the leader of the conspiracy, 27 began recruiting co-conspirators to join him in traveling to Washington, D.C., for 28 operations aimed at stopping the transfer of power with the support of an armed "quick

1 reaction force,” or “QRF,” stationed just across the river in Arlington, Virginia. Vallejo
2 and others joined and implemented this plan by, among other means, using social media
3 and encrypted messaging to communicate; amassing weaponry and tactical gear;
4 organizing into regional teams to transport these items to the D.C. area; and staging Vallejo
5 nearby to be prepared to assist his co-conspirators at his commander’s orders.

6 In December 2020, after the Electoral College cast ballots confirming Joseph Biden
7 as the President-Elect, the defendants’ criminal plan focused on delaying or stopping
8 Congress’s Certification of the Electoral College vote (“Certification proceeding”). This 9 plan materialized on January 6, 2021, the day of the Certification proceeding, when two 10 military-style stacks of co-conspirators, along with other rioters, forcibly breached the 11 Capitol with Vallejo and others staged as armed QRF teams across the Potomac River,
12 awaiting deployment—a deployment which proved unnecessary, because the co-
13 conspirators were able to breach the Capitol with the forces they had on the Capitol
14 grounds. The breach succeeded in delaying the Certification proceeding for several hours, 15 and the proceeding ultimately concluded in the early morning hours of January 7. That 16 same morning, Vallejo performed “Recon” in the area near the Capitol to see if he and his 17 co-conspirators’ could “probe their defense line.” In the days that followed, Vallejo’s team
18 reached out to Rhodes for next steps while his co-conspirators continued to make plans to 19 stop the presidential power transfer, amass additional weaponry and tactical gear, and 20 prepare themselves to deploy their arms, if necessary, to stop the inauguration of a new 21 president.

22 Vallejo played a central role in the plot to oppose by force American laws governing
23 the transfer of presidential power. He volunteered to travel across the country to support
24 this plot; stationed himself in a hotel full of firearms, ammunition, and equipment; affirmed
25 his commitment to the mission during the Capitol attack; and expressed support for the plot
26 in the immediate aftermath of the attack. Vallejo, in his own words and actions, was 27 prepared to use force against the government of the United States of America and there is 28 nothing to suggest that he has changed his views.

A. Co-Conspirators Plan to Forcibly Oppose the Lawful Transfer of Presidential Power

In November 2020, days after the election, Rhodes, the leader of the Oath Keepers, began disseminating messages to other Oath Keepers members and affiliates delegitimizing the results of the election and encouraging them to forcibly oppose the lawful transfer of presidential power. See Indictment at ¶ 18(a) (telling those on the “Leadership intel sharing secured” chat (hereafter “Leadership Intel Chat”), on November 5, that they “MUST refuse to accept Biden as a legitimate winner” and warning, “We aren’t getting through this without a civil war. Too late for that. Prepare your mind, body, spirit.”). Rhodes circulated and highlighted an eight-step plan, allegedly from a Serbian contact to overthrow the government, which included: (i) peaceful protest, (ii) complete civil disobedience, (iii) connecting with the police and organizing neighborhoods, (iv) swarming the streets and confronting opponents, (v) gathering in the capitol and discarding barricades, (vi) police joining with the protestors after initial violence, (vii) storming parliament, and (viii) destroying the state media. Id.

Rhodes followed this plan in the months after the presidential election. At his direction, certain members of his organization began preparing for operations inside of Washington, D.C. Indictment at ¶ 21. He further organized deadly weapons to aid in the conspiracy. Heavily armed QRF teams would be minutes away, just outside the Capitol, ready to support those on the ground. Id. at ¶¶ 42-45. All contingency plans were considered. The conspirators even sought to ferry lethal weapons from Virginia by boat into the Capitol, if the bridges were closed. Id. at ¶ 52

In December 2020, Rhodes focused his co-conspirators on the Certification proceeding of January 6, 2021. During a December 22 interview with a regional Oath Keepers leader, Rhodes described January 6 as “a hard constitutional deadline” for stopping the transfer of presidential power and warned that if President-Elect Biden were to assume the presidency, “We will have to do a bloody, massively bloody revolution against them.” Indictment at ¶ 30. On December 23, Rhodes published an open letter on

1 the Oath Keepers website in which he noted that, on January 6, “tens of thousands of patriot
 2 Americans, both veterans and non-veterans, will already be in Washington D.C., and many
 3 of us will have our mission-critical gear stowed nearby just outside D.C.” Id. at ¶ 31.
 4 Rhodes warned in the open letter that he and others may have to “take to arms in defense
 5 of our God given liberty.” Id.

6 Rhodes and his co-conspirators created and administered Signal chats with titles
 7 like “DC OP: Jan 6 21” and “OKFL Hangout” for coordinating their plans for January 6.
 8 Indictment at ¶¶ 38-40. They utilized encrypted messaging applications for these planning
 9 chats and stressed the need for operational security. See, e.g., id. at ¶ 27. The co-10 conspirators discussed being prepared to use violence to stop the “usurpers” from taking 11 control and what weapons they would bring and plans for the QRF. Id. at ¶ 41-56, 58-60.
 12 On December 25, Rhodes wrote to the OKFL Hangout Chat, “I think Congress will screw
 13 him [President Trump] over. The only chance we/he has is if we scare the shit out of them
 14 and convince them it will be torches and pitchforks time is they don’t do the right thing.
 15 But I don’t think they will listen.” Id. at ¶ 34. Rhodes went on to say, “And he [President
 16 Trump] needs to know that if he fails to act, then we will. He needs to understand that we 17 will have no choice.” On December 31, one week before the Capitol attack, Rhodes wrote
 18 to the Leadership Intel Chat, “There is no standard political or legal way out of this.”

19 B. Vallejo and His Co-Conspirators Prepared an Armed QRF To Support the 20 Plot to Stop the Transfer of Power

21 Vallejo and his co-conspirators coordinated at least three regional QRF teams
 22 stationed at a Comfort Inn in Arlington, Virginia, to support the co-conspirators’ plot and 23 the January 6 Capitol attack. Indictment at ¶¶ 45-49. The QRF teams guarded an arsenal
 24 of firearms and related equipment and were prepared to speed those weapons into the hands
 25 of co-conspirators on the ground in Washington, D.C., when directed by Rhodes or other 26 conspiracy leaders. Id. Vallejo served on one of those QRF teams.

27 On December 31, 2020, Vallejo’s Arizona QRF team member messaged Rhodes on 28 Signal that Vallejo and others were coming to Washington, D.C., and that “everyone has

1 their own technical equipment and knows how to use it,” adding a “winky face” emoji.
 2 Indictment at ¶ 44. Rhodes responded, “awesome!” Id. The Arizona QRF team member 3 also said that Vallejo and the group would have “rifles” and “man power.” Id.

4 On January 3, 2021, Rhodes informed a co-conspirator on Signal, “We WILL have 5 a QRF. this situation calls for it.” Indictment at ¶ 50. In the following days, co-
 6 conspirators communicated and implemented plans to bring weapons to the Comfort Inn.
 7 Id. at ¶¶ 58-59, 63-65, 68-69. Vallejo messaged co-conspirator and Florida team lead Kelly
 8 Meggs, “Sir, Ed Vallejo of Arizona in Tenn. With cadre requesting coordinates to Allied 9 encampment outside DC boundaries to rendezvous. Please respond ASAP. For the 10 Republic.” On January 5, Vallejo messaged Meggs again, “Please text location so we will 11 know where to begin in the morning.” Meggs responded with the address of the Comfort 12 Inn Ballston, where the co-conspirators staged their multiple QRF teams.

13 The day before the attack on the Capitol, on January 5, Meggs and his Florida team
 14 dropped off at least three luggage carts’ worth of gun boxes, rifle cases, and suitcases filled
 15 with ammunition with their QRF team. A second QRF team from North Carolina consisted 16 of four men who kept their rifles ready to go in a vehicle parked in the hotel lot. Later, 17 Vallejo and other members of the Arizona QRF team wheeled in bags and large bins of 18 weapons, ammunition, and essential supplies to last 30 days—as seen in the QRF hotel
 20 on the right:

1 Throughout, Vallejo and other QRF team leaders updated Rhodes on the extent of their
2 weapons stock and apprised him of their readiness to support the operation on January 6.

3 C. Co-Conspirators Attack the Capitol with Vallejo and Others Staged Nearby
4 with Firearms as Part of their Plot to Stop the Lawful Transfer of Power

5 At around 6:30 a.m., on January 6, the day of the attack, Rhodes messaged his co-
6 conspirators before departing from his hotel for Washington, “We will have several well
7 equipped QRFs outside DC. And there are many, many others, from other groups, who 8 will be watching and waiting on the outside in case of worst case scenarios.” Indictment
9 at ¶ 70.

10 Around that same time, Vallejo and another member of his Arizona QRF team spoke 11 on a podcast about their intentions that day. Vallejo’s Arizona QRF team member stated 12 that he and Vallejo arrived in Washington around noon the prior day, “hooked up with the 13 Oath Keepers and we’ve bivouacked with them in Arlington.” When asked why they were 14 there, Vallejo’s Arizona QRF team member explained that he and Vallejo “have a little bit 15 of inside information with the powers that would oppose the powers that be.” He 16 continued, “The idea is we’re here. We are applying as much pressure as we can. The 17 only and obvious next step is to go into armed conflict but hoping very much that that 18 doesn’t happen.” When the host asked if that was a credible threat, Vallejo’s Arizona QRF
19 team member explained, “Anything is on the table ... the fact is there are people who are 20 prepared, have the will, have the facilities to do more than taunt. The question is: Is there 21 a shot heard round the world moment? The possibility definitely exists.”

22 Vallejo elaborated: “The situation we’ve got here is ... it’s a do or die situation.
23 Because if we walk away from this, and we don’t have any effectual change as a result,
24 then we might as well just give up. We’re done. We’re done. If we don’t do something
25 now, we’re done. Because we’ll basically have illustrated that we’ll do nothing in a tinder
26 box situation, and that’s it.” Vallejo added, “The American people are going to be told 27 today that we have liberty and justice for all, or they’re going to be told, ‘Fuck you.’ Okay?
28 And if they’re told, ‘Fuck you,’ that’s going to be the declaration of a guerilla war.” Vallejo

1 continued, “I’m just praying to God that Trump has his head on fucking straight, he has 2 got the machinations behind him, he’s got all the proof in the world, and he’s going to bring
3 the fucking hammer down! That’s the only hope, the only chance. If that doesn’t happen,
4 then this shit is on.”

5 When the interviewer commented on what he perceived as a broken election system,
6 Vallejo announced his intention to use violence to fix it:

7 No that’s fine ... Because I’m the motherfucker that’s gonna fix it for them
8 if they tell me today it’s broken ... You know what I’ve been telling people?
9 I’ve been telling people for years I’m the guy that everybody said, ‘no Ed,
10 you can’t shoot them yet, it’s too soon. No Ed, you can’t shoot the bastards
11 yet, it’s too soon.’ Well I’ve been telling them for about five, six months
12 ago. They quit telling me.”

13 Later, Vallejo received word from Rhodes that the Electoral College Certification
14 was going to proceed as required by law, which, in Vallejo’s previous own words, was a 15 declaration of “guerilla war.” As a large crowd gathered on the Capitol grounds and 16 converged on the building, Rhodes messaged Vallejo and others on the “DC OP: Jan 6 21”
17 Signal chat: “Pence is doing nothing. As I predicted ... All I see Trump doing is 18 complaining. I see no intent by him to do anything. So the patriots are taking it into their 19 own hands. They’ve had enough.” Indictment at ¶ 77. Around 2:30 p.m., Rhodes
20 explicitly directed his co-conspirators to go to the Capitol. Id. at ¶¶ 88-89. Moments later,
21 Stack One marched up the east steps of the Capitol, joined the mob that was trying to force
22 the doors open, and breached the building. Id. at ¶¶ 93-95, 97-99. At that moment, Vallejo
23 stood ready to arm his co-conspirators. At 2:24 p.m., Vallejo messaged the “DC OP: Jan
24 6 21” Signal chat, “Vallejo back at hotel and outfitted. Have 2 trucks available. Let me
25 know how I can assist.” Id. at ¶¶ 86. Eager to bring weapons into Washington, D.C., 26 Vallejo messaged again at 2:38 p.m., “QRF standing by at hotel. Just say the word...” Id.
27 at ¶ 96.

1           Inside the Capitol, half of Stack One tried to force past riot police to the Senate
2   Chamber, but were rebuffed, and the other half went in search of Speaker of the House
3   ██████ Pelosi, but did not find her. Indictment at ¶¶ 100-106. Meanwhile, Stack Two,
4   arrived at the Capitol grounds shortly after 2:30 p.m. Id. at ¶ 111. Stack Two then
5   penetrated the Capitol grounds, marched to the east side doors through which Stack One
6   had entered, and breached the Capitol at approximately 3:15 p.m. Id. at ¶¶ 113-118.
7   Members of Stack Two tried to force their way into the Rotunda but were expelled by law
8   enforcement officers who had begun clearing the building. Id. at ¶¶ 119-121. By 3:57
9   p.m., Vallejo declared “We are at WAR.” He then attempted, but failed, to launch what he 10   had earlier described in the “DC OP: Jan 6 21” Signal chat as a “drone with a 720p cam 11   for recon use.” After they exited the Capitol, members of both Stack One and Stack Two 12   met up with Rhodes and other Oath Keepers members and affiliates just outside the Capitol.
13   Id. at ¶ 124.

14           Because of the breach of the Capitol, members of the House and Senate were 15   evacuated from their respective chambers at approximately 2:20 p.m. The Joint Session
16   and the entire official proceeding of the Congress was halted while Capitol Police and other 17   law-enforcement officers worked to restore order and clear the Capitol of the unlawful 18   occupants—including Vallejo’s co-conspirators. The Joint Session was not able to 19   reconvene until approximately 8:00 p.m. In the course of the attack, over 100 members of 20   law enforcement were assaulted, and one Capitol Police officer died shortly after being 21   hospitalized in connection with injuries sustained in the attack. Additionally, four citizens
22   died; many media members were assaulted and had cameras and other news-gathering
23   equipment destroyed; and the Capitol suffered millions of dollars in damage—including 24   broken windows and doors, graffiti, and residue of various pepper sprays, tear gas, and fire
25   extinguishers deployed both by crowd members who stormed the Capitol and by law
26   enforcement officers trying to restore order.

D. After January 6, Vallejo and his Co-Conspirators Continued Efforts to Forcibly Oppose the Lawful Transfer of Presidential Power

While law enforcement was still securing the perimeter of the Capitol grounds and building, Vallejo and his co-conspirators plotted next steps to ensure they stopped the transfer of presidential power. At around 4:45 p.m., another individual messaged the “DC OP: Jan 6 21” Signal chat, “so why are we leaving??? It does NO good to go show up and say your there to defend and then just leave.” Vallejo responded, “Leaving?!? I ain’t goin nowhere ... My statement was to assure you Arizona won’t let anyone walk.” Displaying a disregard for legal orders, Vallejo added, “we will monitor all night and transport anyone that meets us on the perimeter curfew be damned.”

Later that evening, at around 7:30 p.m., Rhodes messaged the “DC OP: Jan 6 21” Signal chat, “Thousands of ticked off patriots spontaneously marched on the Capitol ... You ain’t seen nothing yet,” and, “Patriots entering their own Capitol to send a message to the traitors is NOTHING compared to what’s coming.” Indictment at ¶ 126(a). Vallejo pledged, “We’ll be back to 6am to do it again. We got food for 30 days.” Id. at ¶ 126(b) (emphasis added). He added, “We have only [begun] to fight! ... ‘After Action Reports’ will be dated 1/21/21,” referring to the day after the Inauguration—identified in the 20th Amendment to the Constitution as the day the President’s term ends. Id. Although law enforcement at the Capitol had successfully repelled the efforts of the conspiracy to take the Capitol on January 6, Vallejo’s words make clear that the conspiracy would continue up and through the Presidential Inauguration. Undeterred by the unprecedented violence at the Capitol, Vallejo planned for next steps.

On January 7, at 5:46 a.m.—mere hours after Congress completed the Electoral College Certification vote and the Capitol had been attacked—Vallejo messaged the “DC OP: Jan 6 21” Signal chat, “We are going to probe their defense line right now 6 am they should let us in. We’ll see.” Indictment at ¶ 127. At 5:54 a.m., he stated, “Departing for Recon now. Stewart [Rhodes] call me when you’re up.” Id. About ten minutes later, Vallejo continued, “I’ll depart when cleared by my Commander Sir.” Id. Vallejo then

2 day[.] Standing by awaiting orders, Sir.”

3 Later that morning, Vallejo and his Arizona QRF team member reappeared on the 4 same podcast they spoke on the previous day. Vallejo explained that he and others “got up
5 before dawn, and we went to the Capitol ... we did what we needed to do, did our check
6 in, and then we got back here to take care of business.” Vallejo’s Arizona QRF team
7 member added, “We are here, prepared in all aspects, to support the Constitution and honor
8 our Oaths that we took ... It’s not really plausible to non-violently protest anymore,
9 because the entire area is closed, and cordoned, and curfewed. So the question becomes,
10 when we realize that this wrong has been done, what are the next steps? I mean is this the 11 shot heard ‘round the world moment?” When asked on the podcast if he was returning to 12 Arizona, Vallejo remained ready to act explaining, “I don’t know. We’ve got to figure out 13 what happens on the 20th.” Ultimately, Vallejo noted, “I’m never done ... I’m waiting for 14 orders from Stewart Rhodes.”

15 Rhodes and the other co-conspirators were not done either. Rhodes purchased 16 thousands of dollars’ worth of firearms, ammunition, and equipment and summoned co-
17 conspirators like Joshua James to his side in Texas. Indictment at ¶¶ 129-130. James 18 collected what he referred to as “all available firearms,” and traveled to Texas where he 19 stayed with Rhodes and others. Id. On January 10, James sent Meggs a message asking if 20 Meggs and other Florida Oath Keepers were coming to Texas to join him and Rhodes, and 21 Meggs responded, “Fl stays home until shots fired !” Id. at ¶ 131.

22 Vallejo, however, did try to join Rhodes in Texas. On January 11, Rhodes messaged
23 Vallejo on Signal, “Ed, what’s your 20? You in TX?” Vallejo responded that he had been 24 delayed, and Rhodes noted that he was “up in Ft Worth area.” Vallejo replied, “C U there[.]
25 Godspeed Sir.” On January 12, Vallejo messaged Rhodes, “We have arrived at the 26 Courthouse.” Vallejo’s Arizona QRF team member messaged Rhodes, “Hi Stewart. I’m 27 sure you’re busy[] but wanted to let you know that [Vallejo] and I are here ... We are 28 excited to learn next steps and would like to know what we should be doing right now.”

1 Id. at ¶ 132. On January 20, Inauguration Day, James messaged another individual, “After
2 this...if nothing happens...its war...Civil War 2.0.” Id. at ¶ 133. Around this time, Rhodes
3 messaged others to organize local militias to prepare to forcibly oppose the new 4 administration. Id. at ¶ 134.

5 E. Co-Conspirators Conceal Evidence of the Conspiracy

6 Many of Vallejo’s co-conspirators also took steps to destroy evidence of their 7 involvement in this conspiracy and discussed securing their communications. In the weeks
8 after January 6, an associate of Rhodes’s encouraged various co-conspirators to delete
9 incriminating messages from their phones. The investigation has revealed that numerous 10 co-conspirators deleted evidence from their phones in the weeks after January 6. Rhodes—
11 Vallejo’s perceived commander, from whom he took orders throughout the conspiracy—
12 also messaged with Vallejo about securing his communications from the government. On 13 January 24, less than a week after the first co-conspirators were arrested, Rhodes messaged
14 Vallejo on Signal, “Ed, keep in mind that is NOT a secure chat. Contains at least one turn-15 coat snitch. Keep that in mind. Please confirm you got this.” Vallejo responded that he 16 had received Rhodes’s message, expressed that he was innocent, and reminded Rhodes,
17 “[i]f you ever need me for ANYTHING I am on call and am at your service, Sir!”

18 F. Vallejo’s Continued Threat

19 One year later, Vallejo continues to believe his and others’ actions at the Capitol on 20 January 6 were not unlawful or dangerous. On December 30, 2021, Vallejo retweeted a
21 message stating in part, “There was NO INSURRECTION on J6 just a peaceful protest.”<sup>1</sup>
22 And, as recently as January 8, 2022, Vallejo continued to sanitize the Capitol attack and 23 specifically focus on the 2020 Presidential Election, retweeting, “The real insurrection
24 happened in the wee hours of Nov. 4, 2020.”<sup>2</sup> Further, Vallejo continues to endorse 25 violence against authorities when he disagrees with actions those authorities take. In

1 December 2021, commenting on vaccine efforts related to the ongoing pandemic, Vallejo
2 threatened: “I HAVE NEWS FOR YOU ... you will NEVER achieve ‘vaccine equality’
3 as long as I, and others like me, are alive! ... I will DIE first, and that’s only when I run
4 out of AMMUNITION!”<sup>3</sup>

5 III. Argument

6 Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(a), when a defendant is arrested, the Court, in relevant 7 part, “shall issue an order that, pending trial, the person be (1) released on personal 8 recognizance . . .; (2) released on a condition or a combination of conditions . . .; or 9 (4) detained under subsection (e).” Detaining a defendant under Section 3142(e) requires
10 a hearing “pursuant to the provisions of subsection (f).” Id. at § 3142(e). The evidence
11 outlined above makes plain that Vallejo should be detained pending trial.

12 A. Bases for Detention Request

13 According to Section 3142(f), there are limited circumstances in which the Court
14 “shall hold a hearing to determine whether any condition or combination of conditions . . .
15 will reasonably assure the appearance of such person as required and the safety of any other
16 person and the community.” 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f); see also United States v. Twine, 344
17 F.3d 987, 987 (9th Cir. 2003). Here, three of those circumstances apply: Subsections
18 (f)(1)(E) (case that involves a felony “that involves the possession or use of a firearm, 19 destructive device ... or any other dangerous weapon”), 3142(f)(2)(A) (case that involves 20 “a serious risk that [the defendant] will flee”), and 3142(f)(2)(B) (case that involves “a 21 serious risk that [the defendant] will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or threaten,
22 injure, or intimidate, or attempt to threaten, injure, or intimidate, a prospective witness or 23 juror”). All three bases for a detention hearing are supported by the evidence outlined 24 above.

25 First, this case involves the possession and use of firearms. Section 3142(f)(1)(E)
26 mandates a detention hearing in connection with “any felony” if the Government proves

28 <sup>3</sup> See <https://twitter.com/Psychictaxi/status/1476565450150449153>.

1 by a preponderance of the evidence that the charged felony “involves the possession or use
2 of a firearm or destructive device[.]” In determining whether the charged felony “involves 3 the possession or use of a firearm,” the Court “may consider the actual conduct at issue in 4 the specific case,” and not just whether the elements of the charged offenses required the
5 possession or use of a firearm. United States v. Watkins, 940 F.3d 152, 166 (2d Cir. 2019).<sup>4</sup>
6 Here, the conspiracy involved the planning and coordination of QRF teams armed with an
7 arsenal of firearms that Vallejo and others would bring to co-conspirators on the ground at 8 the direction of Rhodes or other leaders of the conspiracy. Accordingly, this case involves 9 the possession and use of firearms, and Section 3142(f)(1)(E) is an appropriate basis for a 10 detention hearing.

11 Second, this case also involves a serious risk of flight as defined in 18 U.S.C.
12 § 3142(f)(2)(A). Vallejo is facing potential conviction on numerous felony offenses that 13 each carry statutory maximum penalties of up to twenty years of incarceration. He is 14 alleged to have participated in a conspiracy to oppose the lawful transfer of presidential 15 power by force, making it inherently unlikely that he will be willing to comply with 16 conditions of release set by this government. Additionally, Vallejo resides in a compound-
17 like structure surrounded by barbed-wire fences and demonstrated in January 2021 that he
18 is willing and capable of preparing and storing months’ worth of food at a time. If Vallejo
19 repudiates the Court’s authority and his conditions of release the way he forcibly repudiated
20 the laws of the United States, he has the means and capability of bunkering down and 21 refusing to appear for court-ordered hearings. These factors all combine to give Vallejo
22 the incentive and means to flee and attempt to evade prosecution.

24
25 <sup>4</sup> In an analogous context interpreting Section 3142(f)(1)(A), the Fifth Circuit held that “it is not
26 necessary that the charged offense be a crime of violence; only that the case involve a crime of 27 violence or any one or more of the § 3142(f) factors.” United States v. Byrd, 969 F.2d 106, 110
28 (5th Cir. 1992) (emphasis in original). In Byrd, the court held that the government could have met its burden (but did not) under Section 3142(f) by showing that the nonviolent charged offense—receiving a videotape depicting minors engaged in sexually explicit activity—was accompanied by actual violent criminal activity such as child molestation.

1 Finally, this case also involves a risk of tampering with witnesses and evidence and 2 obstructing justice. As described above, Vallejo’s co-conspirators went to great efforts to 3 delete key communications regarding this conspiracy and to convince others to do the 4 same—to include Rhodes, for whom Vallejo would do “ANYTHING.” Further, Vallejo
5 is alleged to have participated in arguably the most consequential obstruction effort in the 6 history of the United States. He is charged in part with plotting to oppose the government’s
7 laws by force and with obstructing, influencing, or impeding the congressional proceedings
8 to certify the 2020 United States Presidential Election. A defendant willing to take these 9 extraordinary steps to obstruct the certification of a presidential election surely poses a 10 serious risk of obstructing justice or intimidating witnesses involved in his own criminal 11 case.

12 Under any of those three bases—firearms, flight, and obstruction—a detention
13 hearing is warranted. And together, those three features illustrate the need to detain Vallejo 14 pending trial to protect the community, ensure his return to court, and safeguard the 15 integrity of evidence and the proceedings in this case.

16 B. Analysis

17 The Court must consider four factors to determine whether pretrial detention is 18 warranted and necessary: (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, 19 including whether, for example, the offense is a crime of violence; (2) the weight of the 20 evidence against the defendant; (3) the history and characteristics of the defendant; and 21 (4) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be
22 posed by the defendant’s release. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g). The burden of persuasion rests
23 with the government. United States v. Stone, 608 F.3d 939, 945 (6th Cir. 2010). A judicial 24 officer’s finding of dangerousness must be supported by clear and convincing evidence.
25 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f); Stone, 608 F.3d at 945. When “risk of flight” is the basis for detention, 26 however, the government must only satisfy a preponderance of the evidence standard.
27 United States v. Xulam, 84 F.3d 441, 442 (D.C. Cir. 1996); United States v. Chimurenga, 28 760 F.2d 400, 405-06 (2d Cir. 1985); United States v. Fortna, 769 F.2d 243, 250 (5th Cir.

1 1985); United States v. Orta, 760 F.2d 887, 891 (8th Cir. 1985); United States v. Motamedi,
2 767 F.2d 1403, 1406 (9th Cir. 1985). An analysis of these four factors weighs heavily in
3 favor of Vallejo’s detention given the clear and convincing evidence that he presents a 4 particular danger to the community as well as the preponderance of evidence that he poses
5 a serious risk of flight and of obstructing justice.

6 1. Vallejo’s Criminal Activity was Extreme and Serious

7 A grand jury has found probable cause to charge Vallejo with participating in a
8 conspiracy to forcibly oppose the lawful transfer of presidential power in the United States.
9 It is difficult to imagine conduct that poses a graver risk to our society than one targeted at 10 undermining the laws and procedures at the heart of our democratic process—and doing
11 so with force. See United States v. Munchel, 991 F.3d 1273, 1283 (D.C. Cir. 2021) (“[T]o
12 order a defendant preventatively detained, a court must identify an articulable threat posed
13 by the defendant to an individual or the community. The threat need not be of physical 14 violence, and may extend to ‘non-physical harms such as corrupting a union.’”) (quoting 15 United States v. King, 849 F.2d 485, 487 n.2 (11th Cir. 1988)). As described in greater 16 detail above and in the indictment, Vallejo volunteered to participate; he drove thousands 17 of miles across the country with firearms, ammunition, and equipment; he participated in 18 planning meetings and chats on encrypted messaging applications; he made clear on the 19 morning of January 6 that he was willing and prepared to do more than “taunt” and engage 20 in a “guerilla war”; he prepared to quickly transport firearms and gear to co-conspirators
21 on the ground who were, at that time, attacking the Capitol; and he continued the mission
22 before the dust had even settled by “probing” the Capitol and conducting “Recon” on 23 January 7. This factor weighs in favor of detention.

2. The Weight of the Evidence Against Vallejo is Strong<sup>5</sup>

Vallejo's dangerousness is chronicled in his written and recorded communications; corroborated by his conduct before, during, and after January 6; buttressed by his obstruction efforts; and reinforced by the indisputable success of his and his co-conspirators' plot where, most alarmingly, dozens of Oath Keepers gathered in the Washington area on January 6 to participate in an attack on the Capitol featuring two military-style stacks and an armed QRF that he participated in, which forced the Certification of a presidential election to be delayed.

Vallejo's actions and words speak for themselves. His electronic and recorded communications show he was an active participant in the seditious conspiracy, willing and able to penetrate Washington, D.C., with an arsenal of firepower and equipment to arm his fellow co-conspirators to stop the transfer of power. Casting the struggle for control of the White House in existential terms—repeatedly using terms like “WAR” and “guerilla war” to describe the path forward—Vallejo emphasized that he and his co-conspirators may have no choice but to take up arms to stop the next administration from taking power. Then he traveled across the country to the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, with firearms and ammunition and wheeled multiple large bins of equipment into the QRF hotel, ready to take matters into his own hands. And, on January 6, Vallejo actively sought to join his co-conspirators' attack on the Capitol and did in fact support it: when his co-conspirators breached the Capitol, pivotal moments in the January 6 attack, they did so knowing they had Vallejo and other QRF teams supporting them just across the river with an arsenal.

Vallejo did not stop there. On the night of the attack, Vallejo was not deterred by the law enforcement presence or violence that marred the day, but rather he told his co-conspirators he was ready “to do it again.” Shortly after the Congressional proceedings finally concluded in the early morning hours of January 7, Vallejo was already probing

1 defenses and conducting reconnaissance around the Capitol to report back to Rhodes and
2 his co-conspirators. Indeed, Vallejo was prepared for a prolonged attack with a months'
3 worth of food and was already targeting the next constitutional benchmark of January 20,
4 Inauguration Day: "We have only [begun] to fight! ... After Action Reports' will be dated 5 1/21/21." Vallejo was prepared to use force to stop this country's presidential transfer.
6 There is no reasonable basis to believe this defendant would abide by any conditions of 7 release.

8 Vallejo displayed a willingness to continue his criminal activity and loyalty to 9 Rhodes after January 6. Within a week of the attack, Vallejo was already trying to learn
10 next steps and to reconnect with Rhodes in Texas, where Rhodes had begun amassing other 11 co-conspirators and thousands of dollars of firearms and tactical equipment. Vallejo told 12 his commander and the leader of the co-conspirators' attack on the Capitol that he was on 13 call and at Rhodes's service if he needed "ANYTHING," displaying a continued
14 willingness to engage in dangerous, illegal behavior. Meanwhile, Rhodes continued to 15 encourage his followers to forcibly oppose the government—on January 28, for example,
16 Rhodes appeared on the "Infowars" program and told listeners they need to treat the Biden
17 Administration as an "occupying enemy force." Far from disavowing Rhodes or any 18 intentions to forcefully oppose the United States, Vallejo messaged Rhodes as late as 19 March 2021 agreeing to join a new Signal group chat and confirming to Rhodes that he 20 understood the importance of secure communications.

21 There is overwhelming evidence that Vallejo participated in a plot to oppose by 22 force the execution of the laws of the United States and that he possesses the willingness 23 and capacity to continue to engage in criminal conduct. Under these circumstances, only 24 pretrial detention can protect the community from the danger Vallejo poses.

25 3. History and Characteristics of Vallejo

26 Vallejo's history and characteristics animate the conclusions drawn from the facts
27 above. Vallejo, who previously served in the United States Army, used his military training
28 to participate in an attack on our core democratic traditions. Nothing in his post-January 6

1 statements or conduct suggest he would refrain from doing it again if he felt his vision of 2 what is necessary was threatened. In fact, he said so himself on the night of January 6, in 3 the hopes his co-conspirators would join him through the Inauguration. There is every 4 reason to credit Vallejo's own words and deeds and fear that he would plan additional 5 violence if not detained.

6 Vallejo's social media posts up to just this week only accentuate that concern. He 7 continues to threaten to use firearms against authority when he disagrees with that 8 authority, recently messaging that he would "DIE first" before accepting any vaccines
9 related to the ongoing pandemic and "only when I run out of AMMUNITION!" And, as 10 recently as this week, Vallejo continued to operate as if what he and his co-conspirators
11 did was not unlawful or dangerous, calling the Capitol attack a "peaceful protest" and 12 referring to the 2020 Presidential Election as the "real insurrection." Vallejo's ongoing 13 willingness and capacity to use firearms on authorities with which he disagrees establishes 14 that no release condition can ensure the safety of the community.

15 4. Vallejo's Danger to the Community and Risk of Flight and 16 Obstruction if Released

17 Finally, Vallejo is a danger to the community and presents a risk of flight and 18 obstruction of justice. He participated in a conspiracy to oppose by force the lawful transfer 19 of presidential power and an attack on the United States Capitol in furtherance of this plot.
20 Moreover, Vallejo supported his co-conspirators' attack on the Capitol by serving as an 21 armed QRF standing ready at a moment's notice to ferry an arsenal of firearms into their 22 hands. That Vallejo's co-conspirators did not activate him on January 6 does not mitigate 23 his dangerousness. Vallejo traveled across the country and staged himself near the 24 congressional proceedings ready to transport firearms and equipment into the nation's 25 capital. That is what makes him a danger. And there is no evidence that he has renounced
26 violence or that he no longer believes in the necessity of guerilla warfare after January 6
27 ("We'll be back to 6am to do it again," and retweeting this month, "The real Insurrection 28 happened in the wee hours of January 4, 2020"). That is what makes him a danger today.

1 Similarly, the evidence and seriousness of the charged offenses give Vallejo every 2 incentive to flee and avoid prosecution. And inherent in his alleged actions is his 3 willingness to obstruct formal proceedings that he opposes, including a presidential 4 election, so there is no reason to believe the defendant will treat his criminal case
5 differently. His words were deliberate, his deeds were calculated, and his intent was 6 criminal, dangerous, and obstructive.

7 IV. Conclusion

8 A grand jury has found probable cause to believe that Vallejo participated in a plot
9 to oppose by force the execution of the laws governing the transfer of presidential power—
10 including an attack on the Congress while it reviewed the election results. In so doing,
11 Vallejo showed a contempt for the laws and Constitution of this country that make it
12 impossible to trust that he would comply with any conditions fashioned by this Court for 13 his release. Vallejo must be detained pending trial to protect the safety of the community, 14 ensure his return to court, and safeguard the integrity of the evidence and proceedings in 15 this case.
