Subject: RE: US v. Rebecca Lavrenz Trial (DDC 23-cr-66)

Good afternoon,

The redacted 302 is what will be uploaded in the next round of global discovery and is all that we plan to produce at this time. I am not aware of any audio of the interview and have no reason to believe any exists.

On a different topic, during the pretrial conference the Court asked that the defense provide the government with a better sense of which witnesses the defense actually intends to call during trial. To comply with the Court's request, please provide us with an updated witness list that names the witnesses who are reasonably likely to testify, and a brief summary of their anticipated testimony, which was required under the Court's pretrial order. As you are aware, the government raised concerns about possible conflicts, and the requested information will assist in preventing unnecessary delays or motions practice.

Sincerely,
Terence

Terence A. Parker
Trial Attorney (Detailee)
U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia
