

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

KENNETH CHRISTIAN PAUL SCHULZ,
Defendant.

No. 1:23-cr-077-ABJ

FILED

JUN - 6 2023

Clerk, U.S. District and Bankruptcy Courts

STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Anthony Sargent, with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. The U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol.

2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was closed to members of the public.

3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the United States Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

5. At approximately 2:00 p.m., certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades, and officers of the U.S. Capitol Police, and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks by U.S. Capitol Police Officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the U.S. Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $1.4 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. the same day. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the U.S. Capitol, including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the U.S. Capitol without any security screening or weapons check, Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had left the U.S. Capitol, and the building had been confirmed secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 p.m. after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Kenneth Christian Paul Schulz's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

8. Prior to January 6, 2021, the defendant, Kenneth Christian Paul Schulz, lived in Dallas, Texas. Schulz travelled alone from Dallas to Washington, D.C., on or about January 4, 2021.

9. After attending a political rally at the Ellipse, Schulz joined the crowd of people marching toward the U.S. Capitol building. Upon his arrival on the Capitol grounds, Schulz saw people fighting with law enforcement officers who were trying to keep people away from the Capitol building.

10. Schulz climbed the Northwest Terrace stairs underneath scaffolding that had been erected for the Presidential Inauguration. Schulz then walked to the Senate Wing Doors where he saw others breaking glass windows and doors using a police riot shield, flagpoles, and other objects. Schulz posted a picture to Facebook of a door with a shattered glass pane with the caption, “TAKE THE CAPITOL.”

11. At approximately 2:13 p.m., roughly 34 seconds after the first person breached the Senate Wing Doors, Schulz entered the Capitol building. Schulz posted a picture to Facebook of an interior Capitol hallway with the caption “STORMING THE CAPITOL.” Schulz later told at least one person that he (Schulz) was the first person to storm the Capitol.

12. Schulz entered the Ohio Clock Corridor with a small group of people before being stopped by law enforcement. Schulz exited the Capitol through the Senate Carriage Door at approximately 2:19 p.m., roughly six minutes after he entered.

13. During a March 21, 2021, interview with the FBI, Schulz stated that he did not take any pictures while inside the Capitol or place any such photos on any of his social media accounts.

14. The defendant engaged in parading, demonstrating, or picketing in a Capitol Building, in violation of 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(G). Specifically, the defendant knew at the time he entered the U.S. Capitol Building that that he did not have permission to enter the building, and the defendant paraded, demonstrated, or picketed
