IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

J.G.G., et al.,

Plaintiffs–Petitioners,

v.

Case No: 1-25-00766

DONALD J. TRUMP, in his official capacity as President of the United States, et al., Defendants-Respondents.

EMERGENCY APPLICATION FOR A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Plaintiffs and the proposed class are imminent danger of being removed tonight or early tomorrow morning under the Alien Enemies Act—and this Court permanently losing jurisdiction.

Pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the All Writs Act, Plaintiffs-Petitioners and the proposed class hereby apply for a temporary restraining order against Defendants-Respondents ("Defendants"). Plaintiffs are civil immigration detainees who are at substantial risk of immediate, summary removal from the United States pursuant to use of the Alien Enemies Act, 50 U.S.C. § 21 et seq. against a non-state actor for the first time in the country's history.

As set forth in the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Defendants' invocation and application of the Alien Enemies Act patently violates the plain text of the statute and exceeds the limited authority granted to the Executive Branch by Congress. Defendants' invocation and application of the Alien Enemies Act also violates the Immigration and Nationality Act, statutes providing protection for people seeking humanitarian relief, and due process. In the absence of a temporary restraining order, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable injury, and the balance of hardships and the public interest favor relief. Critically, moreover, if Plaintiffs are removed to the custody of another country, this Court will lose jurisdiction.

In support of this Motion, Plaintiffs rely upon the accompanying memorandum in support of a Temporary Restraining Order, declarations, and motion and memorandum for class certification. A proposed order is attached for the Court's convenience. Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant this emergency application and issue a temporary restraining order tonight.
