Counsel for Defendants

EXHIBIT 1

To: Entities subject to Executive Order 14246

From: Attorney General Pamela Bondi and Director of the Office of Management and Budget
Russel Vought

Date: June 6, 2025

Subject: Permanent Injunction entered against Executive Order 14246, "Addressing Risks from Jenner and Block, LLP."

On March 25, 2025, President Donald J. Trump signed Executive Order 14246, "Addressing Risks from Jenner and Block," 90 Fed. Reg. 13997 (Mar. 25, 2025). On May 23, 2025, U.S. District Court Judge John D. Bates permanently enjoined the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government from implementing Executive Order 14246 and ordered the Attorney General and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget to provide you with a copy of the court's order (attached hereto).

The position of the Executive Branch is that issuance of Executive Order 14246 was lawful and implementing its directives permissible, and the United States Department of Justice is reviewing all potential avenues of appeal of the Court's order. Until such time as the court's erroneous order is overturned, it is important that all government agencies comply with the terms of the court's order as any failure to do so may result in penalty of contempt.

Specifically, the Court has ordered us to direct you to:

- a. rescind any implementation or enforcement of Executive Order 14246, including any use, consideration, or reliance on the statements in Section 1 of Executive Order 14246;
- b. rescind all formal or informal guidance or other direction provided to officers, staff, employees, or contractors to communicate, effectuate, implement, or enforce Executive Order 14246 in whole or in part;
- c. disregard Executive Order 14246 in its entirety in their dealings with Jenner & Block LLP, Jenner & Block LLP personnel, and clients known or believed by them to be associated with Jenner & Block LLP, and carry on with their ordinary course of business as if Executive Order 14246 had not issued;
- d. immediately communicate to every recipient of a formal or informal request for disclosure of any relationship with Jenner & Block LLP or any person associated with the firm made pursuant to Executive Order 14246 that such request is permanently rescinded, and cease making such requests for disclosure pursuant to Executive Order 14246;

- e. cease any security clearance review made or initiated pursuant to Sections 1 or 2(a) of Executive Order 14246 and reverse any suspension or revocation of any active security clearances made pursuant to Sections 1 or 2(a) of Executive Order 14246;
- f. act in good faith to take such other steps as are necessary to prevent the implementation or enforcement of Executive Order 14246 and to reverse any implementation or enforcement of Executive Order 14246 that has occurred or is occurring;
- g. comply with all forms of relief in this Order; and
- h. be advised that all defendants and all departments, agencies, and other entities subject to Executive Order 14246, including their respective officers, staff, employees and contractors, are bound by the Court's Order, under penalty of contempt.

Please note that while subsection (a) above compels the rescission of any “use, consideration, or reliance on the statements in Section 1 of Executive Order 14246” the court has clarified that this provision is retroactive only. Specifically, Section (1) of the court's order states that only Sections 2-5 of the Executive Order have been enjoined. The court has explained that subsection (a) only “requires the rescission of past uses of Section 1.” Order on Motion to Clarify, Jenner and Block, LLP v. U.S. Department of Justice, et al., No. 25-cv-916 (D.D.C.), Dkt. No. 143, p. 2 (emphasis in original). The court has clarified that it has refrained “from enjoining future ‘consider[ation]’ of the statements in Section 1 ‘for any purpose.’” Id. (emphasis in original). In other words, in a free country, if an agency believes Section 1 to be correct, it can say so.
