Re: TV Guide Online, Inc., et al. v. Tribune Media Services, Inc., C.A. No. 05-725-

Dear Richard:

As you know, this case was filed on October 12, 2005. As you also are aware, we are coming up on almost one year since Judge Jordan was elevated to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. In addition, I am sure you are aware that the parties had discussions about stipulating to Magistrate Judge Thynge handling this case for all purposes including trial. It is my understanding that your client rejected this suggestion.

Of course, from our discussions and what we know about the judicial vacancy, while a name may be forthcoming from the White House in the next few weeks, there is no certainty as to when that person may receive a Senate hearing and a confirmation vote. Accordingly, in order to expedite this case to a conclusion, we renew our request that your client stipulate to the assignment of Magistrate Judge Thynge for all purposes including a trial and, thereafter, to agree to a prompt Rule 16 scheduling conference with the Magistrate so that a final schedule may be entered including a firm trial date. In the absence of such an agreement and in order to bring this case to a conclusion, my client has asked me to file a motion with the Chief Judge for appointment of one of the Article III judges to handle this case. In the motion, we will inform Chief Judge Sleet that my client had proposed the appointment of the Magistrate Judge for all purposes. Please let me know by August 21, 2007 whether your client will agree to the appointment of the Magistrate Judge.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

Very truly yours,

Frederick L. Cottrell, III

D. Del., Civil Action No.: 05-725 ***

Fred:

Thank you for your letter dated August 16, 2007. We too are mindful of the need to move this case to final resolution. However, as we indicated in the past, since the Magistrate Judge has participated in mediation, we do not believe it is appropriate for her to be the finder of fact or law in this case. Therefore, we cannot agree to have the Magistrate Judge resolve case dispositive motions or preside at trial.

Yours,

Richard K. Herrmann
