Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to comply production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or the demanding party to contest the claim.

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or if the party in who behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

EXHIBIT A

DOCUMENTS REQUESTED

1. All documents relating to any communications between you and TV Guide regarding the subpoena attached as Exhibit A.

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this subpoena only, the following terms shall have the meaning set forth below:

1. "Charter" means Charter Communications, Inc. and its current and former officers, directors, employees, counsel, agents, consultants, representatives, and any other persons acting on behalf of any of the foregoing, and includes its affiliates, parents, divisions, subsidiaries, joint ventures, licensees, franchisees, assigns, predecessors and successors in interest, and any other legal entities, whether foreign or domestic, that own or control, or are owned or controlled by it, and all predecessors and successors in interest to such entities.

2. "You" or "your" means Charter, as previously defined.

3. "Person" or "persons" means any natural person, individual, firm, association, corporation, partnership, foundation, proprietorship, joint venture, organization, or entity, including all governmental entities, agencies, officers, and departments.

4. "TV Guide" refers to TV Guide Online, LLC and TV Guide Online, Inc. themselves, and their current and former officers, directors, employees, counsel, agents, consultants, representatives, and any other persons acting on behalf of any of the foregoing, and includes TV Guide Online, LLC's and TV Guide Online, Inc.'s affiliates, parents, divisions, subsidiaries, joint ventures, licensees, franchisees, assigns, predecessors and successors in interest, and any other legal entities, whether foreign or domestic, that own or control, or are owned or controlled by, TV Guide Online, LLC and TV Guide Online, Inc., and all predecessors and successors in interest to such entities, and specifically includes Gemstar-TV Guide International, Inc., Gemstar International Group Limited, Gemstar Development Corporation, Index Systems Inc., TV Guide, Inc., United Video Properties, Inc., United Video Satellite Group, Inc., and Prevue Interactive, Inc.

5. "Document" means all material and things defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 that are or have been at any time under your possession, custody or control, referring, relating, or pertaining in any way to the subject matter to which the requests for production refer and includes, without limitation, originals, all file copies, all other non-identical copies, no matter how prepared, and all drafts prepared in connection with such documents, whether used or not, in any form, including documents stored electronically, any kind of written, typewritten, printed, graphic, or recorded material whatsoever, including, but without limitation, notes, memoranda, correspondence, letters, reports, studies, e-mail, telegrams, publications, contracts, manuals, business plans, proposals, licenses, charts, drawings, designs, data sheets, laboratory notebooks, diaries, logs, journals, specifications, brochures, product or service descriptions, advertisements, promotional materials, periodicals, prior art, schematics, blueprints, recordings, summaries, pamphlets, books, prospectuses, interoffice and intra-office communications, offers, notations of any sort of conversations, working papers, applications, permits, surveys, indices, telephone calls, meeting minutes, film, video tape, audio recordings, tapes, databases, electronic files, software, source code, transcriptions of recordings, computer data, computer tapes, diskettes, or other magnetic media, bank checks, vouchers, charge slips, invoices, expense account reports, hotel charges, receipts, freight bills, maps, agreements, corporate resolutions, minutes, books, binders, accounts, photographs, and business records. The term "thing" includes, without limitation, models, molds, prototypes, software disks, hard disks, floppy disks, CD ROMs, back-up tapes or disks, electronic database files, electronic files, and samples of any device, apparatus, or program.

6. The terms "relating to" and "regarding" mean in whole or in any part alluding to, responding to, concerning, connected with, involving, commenting on, in respect of, about, associated with, discussing, evidencing, showing, describing, reflecting, analyzing, summarizing, memorializing, consisting of, constituting, identifying, stating, tending to support, tending to discredit, referring to, or in any way touching upon.

7. "Communication" means any transmission, exchange, or transfer of information by any means, including, but not limited to, letters, numbers, images, symbols, data, photographs and sound.

8. "And" and "or" shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively and each shall include the other whenever such construction will serve to bring within the scope of these requests for production any information that would otherwise not be brought within their scope.

9. "Including" means including but not limited to.

10. "Any" or "each" should be understood to include and encompass "all."

11. The singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and the gender neutral and vice versa.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The requests herein shall be deemed to include any and all documents within your possession, custody, or control, including without limitation documents located in the files of any and all of your past and present directors, officers, agents, representatives, employees, attorneys, and accountants.

2. Documents should be produced for inspection as they are kept in the ordinary course of business, or organized and labeled to correspond to the categories in the requests. Documents from any single file should be produced in the same order as they were found in such file. If copies of documents are produced in lieu of the originals, such copies should be legible and bound or stapled in the same manner as the original. Each request for production seeks production of each document in its entirety, including all attachments or other matters attached thereto.

3. If you withhold production of any documents or things, or refuse to answer, on grounds of privilege, please timely provide a privilege log stating, for each document or thing withheld: (i) the number of pages, if applicable; (ii) the author and all recipients and the capacity in which they were acting at the material times (including by way of example, all recipients listed in the "To:" as well as the "CC:" and "BCC:" fields of an e-mail or memorandum); (iii) the date of creation and/or distribution; (iv) a description of the contents; and (v) the basis for withholding production, including any applicable privileges. If the claim of privilege applies only to a portion of a document, produce all portions of the document to which the claim does not apply.

EXHIBIT A

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this subpoena only, the following terms shall have the meaning set forth below:

1. "Company" refers to Charter Communications, Inc. and its current and former officers, directors, employees, counsel, agents, consultants, representatives, and any other persons acting on behalf of any of the foregoing, and includes its affiliates, parents, divisions, subsidiaries, joint ventures, licensees, franchisees, assigns, predecessors and successors in interest, and any other legal entities, whether foreign or domestic, that own or control, or are owned or controlled by it, and all predecessors and successors in interest to such entities.

2. "You" or "your" means Company, as previously defined.

3. "Person" or "persons" means any natural person, individual, firm, association, corporation, partnership, foundation, proprietorship, joint venture, organization, or entity, including all governmental entities, agencies, officers, and departments.

4. "TV Guide" refers to TV Guide Online, LLC and TV Guide Online, Inc. themselves, and their current and former officers, directors, employees, counsel, agents, consultants, representatives, and any other persons acting on behalf of any of the foregoing, and includes TV Guide Online, LLC's and TV Guide Online, Inc.'s affiliates, parents, divisions, subsidiaries, joint ventures, licensees, franchisees, assigns, predecessors and successors in interest, and any other legal entities, whether foreign or domestic, that own or control, or are owned or controlled by, TV Guide Online, LLC and TV Guide Online, Inc., and all predecessors and successors in interest to such entities, and specifically includes Gemstar-TV Guide International, Inc., Gemstar International Group Limited, Gemstar Development Corporation, Index Systems Inc., TV Guide, Inc., United Video Properties, Inc., United Video Satellite Group, Inc., and Prevue Interactive, Inc.

5. For purposes of these requests, "IPG product" means an interactive program guide, interactive electronic program guide, interactive viewing guide, or interactive electronic viewing guide product or service and any release, version, component, part or function thereof, including but not limited to associated features and functions.

6. For purposes of theses requests, "IPG technology" means any and all intellectual property used or that could be used in the design, development, production, or provision of IPG products or services, including without limitation technology that is the subject matter of any patent or patent application. Requests that refer to the "licensing of IPG technology" seek documents relating to the licensing of IPG-related patents or unpatented technology, and licenses to products that imply a license to IPG-related patents or unpatented technology.

7. "Document" means all material and things defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 that are or have been at any time under your possession, custody or control, referring, relating, or pertaining in any way to the subject matter to which the requests for production refer and includes, without limitation, originals, all file copies, all other non-identical copies, no matter how prepared, and all drafts prepared in connection with such documents, whether used or not, in any form, including documents stored electronically, any kind of written, typewritten, printed, graphic, or recorded material whatsoever, including, but without limitation, notes, memoranda, correspondence, letters, reports, studies, e-mail, telegrams, publications, contracts, manuals, business plans, proposals, licenses, charts, drawings, designs, data sheets, laboratory notebooks, diaries, logs, journals, specifications, brochures, product or service descriptions, advertisements, promotional materials, periodicals, prior art, schematics, blueprints, recordings, summaries, pamphlets, books, prospectuses, interoffice and intra-office communications, offers, notations of any sort of conversations, working papers, applications, permits, surveys, indices, telephone calls, meeting minutes, film, video tape, audio recordings, tapes, databases, electronic files, software, source code, transcriptions of recordings, computer data, computer tapes, diskettes, or other magnetic media, bank checks, vouchers, charge slips, invoices, expense account reports, hotel charges, receipts, freight bills, maps, agreements, corporate resolutions, minutes, books, binders, accounts, photographs, and business records. The term "thing" includes, without limitation, models, molds, prototypes, software disks, hard disks, floppy disks, CD ROMs, back-up tapes or disks, electronic database files, electronic files, and samples of any device, apparatus, or program.

8. The terms "relating to" and "regarding" mean in whole or in any part alluding to, responding to, concerning, connected with, involving, commenting on, in respect of, about, associated with, discussing, evidencing, showing, describing, reflecting, analyzing, summarizing, memorializing, consisting of, constituting, identifying, stating, tending to support, tending to discredit, referring to, or in any way touching upon.

9. "Communication" means any transmission, exchange, or transfer of information by any means, including, but not limited to, letters, numbers, images, symbols, data, photographs and sound.

10. "And" and "or" shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively and each shall include the other whenever such construction will serve to bring within the scope of these requests for production any information that would otherwise not be brought within their scope.

11. "Including" means including but not limited to.

12. "Any" or "each" should be understood to include and encompass "all."

13. The singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and the gender neutral and vice versa.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The requests herein shall be deemed to include any and all documents within your possession, custody, or control, including without limitation documents located in the files of any and all of your past and present directors, officers, agents, representatives, employees, attorneys, and accountants.

2. Documents should be produced for inspection as they are kept in the ordinary course of business, or organized and labeled to correspond to the categories in the requests. Documents from any single file should be produced in the same order as they were found in such file. If copies of documents are produced in lieu of the originals, such copies should be legible and bound or stapled in the same manner as the original. Each request for production seeks production of each document in its entirety, including all attachments or other matters attached thereto.

3. If you withhold production of any documents or things, or refuse to answer, on grounds of privilege, please timely provide a privilege log stating, for each document or thing withheld: (i) the number of pages, if applicable; (ii) the author and all recipients and the capacity in which they were acting at the material times (including by way of example, all recipients listed in the "To:" as well as the "CC:" and "BCC:" fields of an e-mail or memorandum); (iii) the date of creation and/or distribution; (iv) a description of the contents; and (v) the basis for withholding production, including any applicable privileges. If the claim of privilege applies only to a portion of a document, produce all portions of the document to which the claim does not apply.

DOCUMENTS REQUESTED

1. All transcripts of all deposition testimony given by any of your directors, officers, agents, representatives, or employees and exhibits identified therein from the following proceedings: (1) In the Matter of Certain Set-Top Boxes and Components Thereof, ITC Investigation No. 337-TA-454, and/or (2) In re Gemstar Development Corporation Patent Litigation, MDL-1274-WBH (N.D.
