Re: AstraZeneca AB, et al. v. Dexcel, Ltd. et al., C.A. No. 06-358 (SLR)

Dear Chief Judge Robinson:

We submit this letter to respond to some of the incorrect statements in Dexcel's May 1, 2007 letter to the Court.

Dexcel's suggestion that AstraZeneca withheld communications with the FDA and only recently produced them is not correct. See attached January 31, 2007 letter from Robert Koch to David Airan, including documents Bates Nos. POTC0003186-3284 and POTC0003340-3450. Dexcel had these documents three months ago, before the statement Dexcel refers to from the February discovery conference. If Dexcel's statement that it only recently discovered these documents is correct, that is Dexcel's own fault and not due to any delay in production by AstraZeneca.

Dexcel's assertion that AstraZeneca has asked aaiPharma to withhold production of information concerning research conducted before the relationship with AstraZeneca that may bear on its theory of prior invention under 35 U.S.C. §102(g) is similarly incorrect. AstraZeneca has not asked aaiPharma to withhold production of these or any related documents. The only documents AstraZeneca asked aaiPharma not to produce are those that have been submitted to the Court for in camera review. AstraZeneca does not know why aaiPharma has not yet produced the remaining documents.

Respectfully,

/s/ Jack B. Blumenfeld
