FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

ASTRAZENECA AB, AKTIEBOLAGET HÄSSLE, KBI-E INC., KBI INC., and ASTRAZENECA LP, Plaintiffs, v. DEXCEL, LTD., DEXXON, LTD., DEXCEL PHARMA TECHNOLOGIES, LTD., and DEXCEL PHARMA TECHNOLOGIES Defendants.	Civil Action No. 06-358

DECLARATION OF NASEEMA SHAFI IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO TRANSFER OR DISMISS

I, Naseema Shafi, declare as follows:

1. I am a legal assistant for Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP who represent plaintiffs AstraZeneca AB, Aktiebolaget Hässle, KBI-E Inc., KBI Inc., AstraZeneca LP (collectively, "AstraZeneca"). I am competent to testify to the matters set forth herein, which are based on my personal knowledge. I submit this Declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Transfer or Dismiss.

2. Early in October 2006 I was tasked with conducting factual research in order to determine the number of licensed dentists in the United States and in Delaware specifically. I performed this research by calling each state's Board of Dental Health and asking how many active dental licensees there were for the state. When the contact person told me that I could verify the information by checking the Boards' websites, I did. The following paragraphs outline the details of each state's inquiry process.

3. On October 20, 2006, I called the Delaware State Board of Dental Examiners and left a voicemail message for Ms. Jennifer Myer. She returned my call on October 23, 2006 leaving me a voicemail message that requested I return her call. When I spoke with her on October 23, 2006 she told me that there are 420 active dental licensees for Delaware and that no information is available on its website.

4. On October 19, 2006, I called the Alabama Board of Dental Examiners, and received no answer. On October 20, 2006, I called the Board of Dental Examiners again and was transferred to the Department of Labor and Market Information. Mr. Jim Henry told me that he needed to call me back after he located the information I needed. On October 20, 2006, Mr. Henry informed me that there are 2,355 active dental licensees for Alabama.

5. On October 19, 2006, I called the Alaska Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Brenda Donahue told me that the number on its website was accurate. I encountered problems with the website on October 19, 2006. On November 1, 2006, I checked its website again at http://www.commerce.state.ak.us/occ/search3.htm and was able to conduct a search for dental licensees. See Exh. 1. There are 676 active dental licensees for Alaska.

6. On October 19, 2006, I called the Arizona State Board of Dental Examiners and spoke with Nancy, who would not give me her last name. She told me that we could order a full roster for a fee, but that the information was not on its website. Nancy told me that there are 4,111 active dental licensees for Arizona.

7. On October 20, 2006, I called the Arkansas State Board of Dental Examiners twice, the first time getting no answer and the second time speaking with Ms. Donna Cobb. Ms. Cobb told me that the number was on its website and that there are 1,317 active dental licensees for Arkansas. See Exh. 2.

8. On October 19, 2006, I called the Dental Board of California and was directed to call Public Information. The person with whom I spoke at Public Information would not give me his/her name, but told me that there are 33,218 active dental licensees for California.

9. On October 19, 2006, I called the Colorado Board of Dental Examiners. The person who answered the phone, who would not give me her name, walked me through the process of obtaining a text file from its website at https://www.doradls.state.co.us/lic_database_req.php. See Exh. 3. After creating a spreadsheet from that list, I was able to determine that there are 4,361 active dental licensees for Colorado.

10. On October 19, 2006, I called the Connecticut Department of Public Health, Dental Licensure and was transferred to the voicemail of Ms. Lynn Carbano, whose voicemail message stated that she was on vacation until October 24, 2006. On October 24, 2006, I called again and left a voicemail message. On October 26, 2006, I called again and received no answer and therefore e-mailed the general inquiry address at oplc.dph@po.state.ct.us requesting the number of active Connecticut Dental licensees. On October 26, 2006, Mr. Stephen Carragher e-mailed me back that there are 3,138 active dental licensees for Connecticut. See Exh. 4.

11. On October 19, 2006, I called the Florida Board of Dentistry and was directed to its website. From its main page at http://www.doh.state.fl.us/mqa/dentistry/dn_maintain.html I was told to select "MQA Online Services" from the left hand menu, then to select "Licensee Lookup", then within the "Profession" selection, to select "Show Currently Licensed Providers" and view by "Dental". Finally, on https://ww2.doh.state.fl.us/IRM00PRAES/PRASLIST.ASP the total number of records indicated that there are 11,283 active dental licensees for Florida. See Exh. 5.

12. On October 19, 2006, I called the Georgia Board of Dentistry, whereupon I was told the total number of active dental licensees and directed to its website at http://www.sos.state.ga.us/plb/dentistry/, where the number was listed. There are 5,171 active dental licensees for Georgia. See Exh. 6.

13. On October 19, 2006, I called the Hawaii State Board of Dental Examiners. Terry, who would not give me her last name, told me to check its website and directed me through the process. On http://www.hawaii.gov/dcca/areas/pvl/ there was a yellow shaded region where I was directed to select "Geographical Report". I was told to go to page 7 of the report, within Table 3, where I would find the number next to the abbreviation "DT". There are 1,424 active dental licensees for Hawaii. See Exh. 7.

14. On October 19, 2006, I called the Idaho State Board of Dentistry. Susan Miller gave me an approximate number and mentioned that she could not respond to my request at that time and that the information was not available on its website. In response to her request for a written inquiry, I sent her an e-mail on October 23, 2006. Her response to me on October 23, 2006 indicated that there are 1,065 active dental licensees for Idaho. See Exh. 8.

15. On October 20, 2006 I called the Illinois Department of Professional Regulation. Mr. Les Code told me that the information was available on its website and walked me through the process for finding the number. At http://www.idfpr.com/DPR/consumer.asp, he instructed me to the right of the screen to select "Number of Active Licenses", which provides a table organized by month and profession. There are 9,301 active dental licensees for Illinois. See Exh. 9.

16. On October 20, 2006, I called the Indiana State Board of Dentistry. Ms. Janet Cassidy mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 3,522 active dental licensees for Indiana.

17. On October 19, 2006, I called the Iowa Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Angie Davidson mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 1,518 active dental licensees for Iowa.

18. On October 19, 2006, I called the Kansas Dental Board. Ms. Rebecca Gonzalez mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 1,303 active dental licensees for Kansas.

19. On October 20, 2006, I called the Kentucky Board of Dentistry. Mr. Sylvester Gurnell mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 3,023 active dental licensees for Kentucky.

20. On October 19, 2006, I called the Louisiana State Board of Dentistry. Ms. Caroline Perez mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 2,640 active dental licensees for Louisiana.

21. On October 19, 2006, I called the State of Maine Board of Dental Examiners. The woman who answered told me that she needed to return my call at a later time. On October 20, 2006 Ms. Teneale Johnson returned my call, mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 821 active dental licensees for Maine.

22. On October 20, 2006, I called the Maryland State Board of Dental Examiners and was connected to a person who was out of the office until October 30, 2006. On October 23, 2006, I called the Board again and was transferred to the voicemail of Ms. Alexis McCaney. On October 26, 2006 I left Ms. McCaney another voicemail message. On October 27, 2006 Ms. McCaney called me back, mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 4,868 active dental licensees for Maryland.

23. On October 20, 2006, I called the Board of Registration in Dentistry for the State of Massachusetts. Ms. Marsha Miller mentioned that the information was not available on its website. She told me that there are 6,861 current active licensees, 36 "non-disciplinarians" and 49 "on probation", but that all were considered to be "active" licensees. Therefore, there are 6,946 active dental licensees for Massachusetts.

24. On October 20, 2006, I called the Michigan Board of Dentistry. Ms. Debbie Lintemuth mentioned that the information on its website had not been updated, and that there are 7,795 active dental licensees for Michigan.

25. On October 20, 2006, I called the Minnesota Board of Dentistry. Ms. Amy Johnson mentioned that the information was not on its website and told me that there are 3,894 active dental licensees in Minnesota.

26. On October 19, 2006, I called the Mississippi State Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Vera Halloway mentioned that its website was being updated and gave me two numbers with active and inactive status and some who work for the military. On October 23, 2006, I called the Board again for clarification and was told that there are 1,233 active dental licensees, some of whom also work for the military, for Mississippi.

27. On October 19, 2006, I called the Missouri State Dental Board. Kathy, who would not give me her last name, mentioned that there was no information available on its website and told me that there are 3,240 "general" dental licensees for Missouri.

28. On October 20, 2006, I called the Montana Board of Dentistry. Ms. Sharon McCullough mentioned that there was no information on its website and that there are about 610 active dental licensees for Montana.

29. On October 20, 2006, I called the Nebraska Board of Dentistry. Ms. Joyce Novak mentioned that while the information was not available on its website, I could purchase a full list. She also told me that there are 1,490 active dental licensees for Nebraska.

30. On October 20, 2006, I called the Nevada State Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Heather Thiriot mentioned that the information was not available on its website and gave me an approximate number. She told me that she could not give me a more definitive number, but that there are about 1,700 active dental licensees for Nevada.

31. On October 20, 2006, I called the New Hampshire Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Arlene Bolduck mentioned that the information was not available its website and told me that there are 980 active dental licensees for New Hampshire.

32. On October 20, 2006, I called the New Jersey Board of Dentistry, but received no answer. On October 23, 2006, I called again and Ms. Greene, who would not give me her first name, mentioned that she was not sure what information was on its website, but that there are 7,604 active dental licensees for New Jersey.

33. On October 20, 2006, I called the Board of Dental Health Care for the State of New Mexico. Ms. Cindy Salazar mentioned that the information was not on its website and told me that there are 1,122 active dental licensees for New Mexico.

34. On October 20, 2006, I called the Office of the Professions for the State of New York. Kristy, who would not give me her last name, transferred me to Public Information. The Public Information agent, who would not give me her name, told me that she thought the information was on its website and that there are 18,031 active dental licensees for New York.

35. On October 20, 2006, I called the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Mary McCollough mentioned that the information was not on its website and that there are 4,759 active dental licensees for North Carolina.

36. On October 20, 2006, I called the North Dakota State Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Jacinda Simmons mentioned that the information was not on its website and that there are 352 active dental licensees for North Dakota.

37. On October 20, 2006, I called the Ohio State Dental Board. Janice answered the phone and told me that I needed to speak with Jayne who was out of the office until October 23, 2006. On October 23, 2006 and October 24, 2006, I called and was told that Jayne was still out of the office. On October 26, 2006, I was transferred to the voicemail of Ms. Jayne Smith, however her inbox was full. I called again later that day and spoke with her. Ms. Smith mentioned that the information was not available on its website and that there are 6,880 active dental licensees for Ohio.

38. On October 20, 2006, I called the Oklahoma Board of Dentistry. Ms. Linda Campbell mentioned that the number posted on its website was effective as of April 2006. On November 21, 2006 I visited http://www.dentist.state.ok.us/statistics.htm and found that there are 2,064 active dental licensees for Oklahoma. See Exh. 10

39. On October 20, 2006, I called the Oregon Board of Dentistry. Ms. Lisa Warwick mentioned that the information was not available on its website and that there are 3,590 active dental licensees. In addition, she told me that there are nine dental licensees who are faculty and only practice for the purposes of teaching and eight who can only practice as volunteers, but that they are all considered to have active dental licensees. Therefore, there are 3,607 active dental licensees for Oregon.

40. On October 20, 2006, I called the State Board of Dentistry for the State of Pennsylvania, but received a busy signal. On October 23, 2006, Ms. Jane Forbes mentioned that the information was not available on its website and that there are 9,917 active dental licensees for Pennsylvania.

41. On October 20, 2006, I called the Rhode Island Board of Examiners in Dentistry. Ms. Emily Castillo mentioned that she thought there was a listing on its website and that there are 639 active dental licensees for Rhode Island.

42. On October 20, 2006, I called the South Carolina Board of Dentistry. Ms. Christina Backman mentioned that the information was not available on its website and that there are 2,385 active dental licensees for South Carolina.

43. On October 20, 2006, I called the South Dakota State Board of Dentistry and left a voicemail message in its generic inbox. On October 23, 2006, I called back twice, the second time reaching Ms. Pat Sterns, who mentioned that the information was not available on its website and that there are 475 active dental licensees for South Dakota.

44. On October 20, 2006, I called the Tennessee Board of Dentistry and was transferred to the Consumer Right to Know, where I left a voicemail message in its generic inbox. On October 23, 2006, I called the Board again and received no answer. On October 23, 2006, Ms. Suma Lee Canady returned my call. She told me that I could perform a search on its website at http://www2.state.tn.us/health/licensure/index.htm, selecting "TN" for state and "Dentist" for profession. She also gave me the total number. There are 3,954 active dental licensees for Tennessee. See Exh. 11.

45. On October 20, 2006, I called the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners. The automated system left me without a choice for leaving a voicemail message in a generic inbox. On October 23, 2006, I called the Board again and received no live answer again.

On October 23, 2006, I emailed the Board at its generic inquiry address: information@tsbde.state.tx.us. On October 24, 2006, Ms. Dina Martinez e-mailed me back that there are 12,204 active dental licensees for Texas. See Exh. 12.

46. On October 20, 2006, I called the Utah Board of Dentists and Dental Hygienists. The woman who answered the phone, who would not give me her name, gave me an approximate number and told me that there were numbers on its website, but that the number included active and inactive licensees. On October 23, 2006, I called the Board and spoke with Judy, who would not give me her last name. She mentioned that information was on its website, under "Profession Statistics", at http://www.dopl.utah.gov/licensing/statistics/profession_statistics_template.html. She clarified for me that dentists with varying "Anesthesia Class" permits do not have overlapping licenses. Therefore, there are 2, 243 active dental licensees for Utah. See Exh. 13.

47. On October 20, 2006, I called the Vermont Board of Dentistry. The recording said that the contact person was out of the office until October 23, 2006. On October 23, 2006, I called the Board again and left a voicemail message in its generic inbox. On October 24, 2006, Ms. Diane LaFelle returned my call, mentioned that the information was not on its website and told me that there are 509 active dental licensees for Vermont.

48. On October 23, 2006, I called the Virginia Department of Health Professions. Ms. Sandy Reen told me that there was information on its website at http://www.dhp.state.va.us/dentistry/. See Exh. 14. There are 5,365 active dental licensees for Virginia.

49. On October 20, 2006, I called the Washington State Dental Health Board. Jamie transferred me to Ms. Kathleen Troxell, who mentioned that the information was not on its website and that there are 5,660 active dental licensees for Washington.

50. On October 20, 2006, I called the West Virginia Board of Dental Examiners. Ms. Susan Combs mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 1,219 active dental licensees for West Virginia.

51. On October 23, 2006, I called the Dentistry Examining Board for the State of Wisconsin, but received no answer. On October 24, 2006, I called the Board again and received no answer. On October 26, 2006, I called the Board again and was connected to the voicemail inbox of Karen and I left her a message. On November 1, 2006, I called the Board again and left a voicemail message in the generic inbox. On November 7, 2006, Cindy L, who would not give me her full last name, but told me that she was the receptionist, returned my call. She told me that the information was not available on the Board's website and that there are 3422 active dental licensees for Wisconsin.

52. On October 20, 2006, I called the Wyoming Board of Dental Examiners and left a voicemail message. On October 23, 2006, Ms. Brenda Cowley returned my call, mentioned that the information was not available on its website and told me that there are 458 active dental licensees for Wyoming.

53. On October 20, 2006, I called the District of Columbia Board of Dentistry. Sherry, who would not give me her last name, told me that there was a fee for the information, but that I should speak with Ms. Trina Jefcoat. Ms. Jefcoat told me that there are 1,325 active dental licensees for the District of Columbia.

54. In total there are 217,617 active dental licensees in the United States. Four hundred and twenty of these dentists are licensed in the State of Delaware.

55. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 21st day of November, 2006 at Washington, DC.

Required Display of License

Pursuant to Georgia law, OCGA §43-11-45.1 "Every person licensed under this article shall display such license in a conspicuous place in such person's principal place of business." Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action by the board.

The Georgia Board of Dentistry has eleven members who are appointed by the Governor, and is comprised of nine dentists, one dental hygienist, and one consumer member. The Board carries out its responsibility for protecting the public health in the practice of dentistry by regulating and enforcing the standards of practice.

Through the Dental Board's licensure process, the Board ensures that those applying for licensure in this state as a dentist or dental hygienist have acceptable education, training, and personal character to safely practice in Georgia. In carrying out its regulatory functions, the Board sets and defines standards to draw the line between safe and dangerous dental practices.

The Georgia Board of Dentistry fulfills its enforcement responsibilities by identifying and sanctioning those who practice below the accepted standards of the profession, or without the necessary qualifications. The Board generally meets once each month.

GEOGRAPHIC REPORT (CURRENT LICENSES) AS OF July 28, 2006

The Geographic Report shows the number of current licenses by license type, by island, and by type of entity. It is sorted first by board code, then alphabetically by license code. The totals for a board follow the breakdown of that board's license types.

As an example, the four license types that fall under the Board of Professional Engineers, Architects, Surveyors, and Landscape Architects (board code: 370) are listed in the table in this order: AR, LA, LS, PE, followed by Board 370 totals.

Table 1 lists the board codes, Table 2 the license codes, and Table 3 is the Geographic Report.
