- On October 13, 2018, and October 14, 2018 (the day after and two days after he purchased the firearm), the defendant messaged his girlfriend about meeting a drug dealer and smoking crack. For example, on October 13, 2018, the defendant messaged her and stated, "... I'm now off MD Av behind blue rocks stadium waiting for a dealer named Mookie." The next day, the defendant messaged her and stated, "I was sleeping on a car smoking crack on 4th street and Rodney." ECF 68 at p. 8.

- On October 23, 2018 (the day his then-girlfriend discarded his firearm), the defendant messaged his girlfriend and asked, "Did you take that from me [girlfriend]?" Later that evening, after his interactions with law enforcement, he messaged her about the "[t]he fucking FBI" and asked her, "so what's my fault here [girlfriend] that you speak of. Owning a gun that's in a locked car hidden on another property? You say I invade your privacy. What more can I do than come back to you to try again. And you do this???? Who in their right mind would trust you would help me get sober." In response, the girlfriend stated "I'm sorry, I just want you safe. That was not safe. And it was open unlocked and windows down and the kids search your car. You have lost your mind hunter. I'm sorry I handled it poorly today but you are in huge denial about yourself and about that reality that I just want you safe. You run away like a child and blame me for your shit . . ." ECF 68 at p. 8.

Did you take that from me [REDACTED]? Are you insane. Tell me now. This is no game. And you're being totally irresponsible and unhinged.

I need you to stop doing everything you possibly can do to make a life here an unbearable proposition. People make mistakes out of love. People have things in the immediate past of a relationship that are inexplicable but harmless. But who do you know that has so many inexplicable acts that in their face are deceitful and hurtful. You have dozens and no attempt to even try to explain. And you have now for the last time begged me to come back only to humiliate me once again. The fucking FBI [REDACTED] It's hard to believe anyone is that stupid // so what's my fault here [REDACTED] that you speak of. Owning a gun that's in a locked car hidden on another property? You say I invade your privacy. What more can I do than come back to you to try again. And you do this???? Who in their right mind would trust you would help me get sober?

You have lost your mind hunter. I'm sorry I handled it poorly today but you are in huge denial about yourself and about that reality that I just want you safe. You run away like a child and blame me for your shit. It's to be expected that you go, you prove repeatedly that you can't stay and really do work on yourself. It's easier for you to avoid looking within and cowardly to constantly point the blame on me.

- After the firearm was taken from him and recovered by police, the defendant continued to send messages to various people about his use of drugs, including telling his girlfriend that he is an "addict" on November 8, 2018, and on November 21, 2018, telling Person 1, "... I'm a fucking better man than any man you know whether I'm smoking crack or not." He also continued to send messages about purchasing drugs. He sent a message to his girlfriend on November 29, 2018, stating, in relevant part, "I DONT BLAME MY ADDICTION ON YOU . . ." and another message to Person 2 on December 18, 2018, acknowledging that he is "an addict." On December 28, 2018, he messaged Person 2 stating, "I'll fuxking [sic] get sober when I want to get fucking sober." ECF 68 at p. 8-9.
