

MANDATORY NOTICE OF CLAIMANT RIGHT TO COURT WITHOUT "FEES"

Without waiving rights to special appearance and in Propria persona sui juris

As found in New York ex rel. Bank of Commerce v. Commissioner of Taxes for City and County of New York, 2 Black 620 (1863)

Please take mandatory notice (Federal Rules of Evidence 201 (d)) that Plaintiff/Petitioner has a lawful right to proceed without cost based upon the following law:

The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that a natural individual entitled to relief is entitled to free access to its judicial tribunals and public offices in every State in the Union - Cardell v. Nevada, 6 Wall 35).

And as stated by the United States Department of the Treasury 1789, the presenter may not be charged fees, or cost for the lawful and constitutionally secured right to petition for redress in matters in which he is entitled to relief, as it appears that the filing fee rule was originally implemented for fictions of subjects of the State and cannot be applied to the presenter as he is not a collective entity, that he is sentient self-aware, competent, responsible, adult who is a natural living man/woman entitled to relief. (Hale v. Henkel) (201 U.S. 43), and under international laws as well as laws of humanity.

Any coupons presented by the presenter is backed by the full faith and credit of the United States of America, is a legal tender for all obligations associated with this matter.

Declaration of "valuables"

It is determined that replacements, in accordance with the procedures established under section 3 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act (50 Stat. 479, as amended;

5 U.S.C 13b), of the articles or things or representatives of value enumerated and referred to in this section would be in the public interest; accordingly, they are hereby declared to be "valuables" within the meaning of the act.

"An instrument is deemed in law filed at the time it is delivered to the clerk, regardless of whether the instrument is filemarked."

The minute all documents are received, it is recorded. Refusal to record documents once deposited to the county recorder is considered criminal subject to Title 18 USC § 2071 and it is punishable by fines and imprisonment without regard to third party intervention and where consent to third party intervention is refused by the party recording the document.

Title 18 USC - Crimes and Criminal Procedure

Part 1 - Crimes

Chapter 101 - Records and Reports

Section 2071 - Concealment, removal, or mutilation generally

(a) Whoever willfully and unlawfully conceals, removes, mutilates, obliterates, or destroys, or attempts to do so, or, with intent to do so takes and carries away any record, proceeding, map, book, paper, document, or other thing, filed or deposited with any clerk or officer of any court of the United States, or in any public office, or with any judicial or public officer of the United States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than three years, or both.

(b) Whoever, having the custody of any such record, proceeding, map, book, document, paper, or other thing, willfully and unlawfully conceals, removes, mutilates, obliterates, falsifies, or destroys the same, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than three years, or both; and shall forfeit his office and be disqualified from holding any office under the United States, as used in this subsection, the term "office" does not include the office held by any person as a retired officer of the Armed Forces of the United States.

Revised Statutes of The United States, 1st session, 43 Congress 1873-1874.

Title 18X.---CRIMES.--- CH. 1 CRIMES AGAINST JUSTICE

SEC. 5401. (Destroying, etc., public records.)
Every person who willfully conceals or attempts to destroy, or, with intent to steal or destroy, takes and carries away any record, paper, or proceeding of a court of justice, filed or deposited in any public office, or with any judicial or public officer, shall, without reference to the value of the record, paper, document, or proceeding so taken, pay a fine of not more than two thousand dollars, or suffer imprisonment at hard labor, not more than three years, or both: (See § 5 5408, 5411, 5412.)

SEC. 5407. (Conspiracy to defeat enforcement of the laws.)
If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire for the purpose of impeding, hindering, obstructing, or defeating, in any manner, the due course of justice in any State or Territory, with intent to deny to any citizen the equal protection of the laws, or to injure him or his property for lawfully enforcing, or attempting to enforce, the right of any person, or class of persons, to the equal protection of the laws, each of such persons shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, not less than six months nor more than six years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. See § 5 1977-1981.

SEC. 5408. (Destroying record by officer in charge.)
Every officer, having the custody of any record, document, paper, or proceeding specified in section 5401, shall, if he fraudulently takes away, or withdraws, or destroys any such record, document, paper, or proceeding filed in his office or deposited with him or in his custody, shall pay a fine of not more than two thousand dollars, or suffer imprisonment at hard labor not more than three years, or both; and shall, moreover, forfeit his office and be forever afterward disqualified from holding any office under the Government of the United States.

The oath of office is a quid pro quo contract (U.S. Const. Art. 3, Clauses 1 and 3, Davis vs. Lawyers Surety Corporation, 459 S.W. 2d 551, 557, Tex. Civ. App.) in which clerks, officials, or officers of the Government pledge to perform (support and uphold the United States and State Constitutions) in return for substance (wages, perks, benefits). Perpetrators are subjected to the penalties and remedies for breach of contract, conspiracy under Title 18 U.S.C., Sections 241, 242, treason under the Constitution at Article 3, Section 1, and intrinsic fraud as per Auerbach vs. Samuels, 10 Utah 2d 152, 349 P. 2d 1112, 1114, Allegheny Soap vs. Kirby, 9 C.M.V. 218 S. Supp. 141, 183, and Keaton Backing Co. vs. State, 459 S.W. 2d 28.
