This is false. But I would not expect more from someone who represents these ANTI-SEMITIC defendants and who is likely Jewish himself.

Mr. Peer:

I had a fully booked day today, and then had to attend to some family matters at home. I am just now reviewing your email and subsequent improper filing by Mr Klayman regarding a meet and confer. I am shocked that there is a degree of reasonableness in expecting a response to your meet and confer request with a 2.5 hour window of time. Your email was sent at 12:30 and had deadline of 3:00. I do not know of a single court that would find this to be appropriate. It certainly does not comply with Local Rule 7.1. Mr. Klayman's certification in the filed Motion for Extension of Time (ECF 73) is plainly wrong. There was no such conferral with CAIR Florida, Inc., despite the sworn signature affixed thereto. I have sent an email to my client requesting their position on your motion, so I do not have a response at this time.

Counsel:

I am emailing from the office of Larry Klayman, counsel for Plaintiffs in the above referenced case. Please advise by 3pm EST today whether you will consent to Plaintiffs' Motion for Extension of Time Nunc Pro Tunc to File Objections, which was filed yesterday. This motion is being attached below for your convenience. Thank you very much.
