UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Defendant.

SPECIAL MASTER ORDER
No. 22-81294-CIV-CANNON

----- x
RAYMOND J. DEARIE, Special Master

The Special Master is in receipt of the parties' joint Log of Disputes for Filter Materials ("Filter Log"), ECF 136-2, and accompanying Cover Letter, ECF 136-1, both filed under seal. In light of the information included in the Filter Log and the Cover Letter, the undersigned respectfully directs the parties as follows.

I. Filter A and C Materials

Plaintiff is not raising an assertion of attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine for the following Bates-numbered documents:

- FILTER-A-001 through A-005;
- A-017 through A-022;
- A-025-A-026;
- A-029-A-030;
- A-033;
- A-036 through A040;
- A-043 through A052;
- A-053 through A-055; and
- A-056-through A-058.

See Cover Letter at 3-4. The Special Master has reviewed the Filter Log and has confirmed that Plaintiff is not asserting attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine for the above-listed documents. Pursuant to the parties' agreement, the Privilege Review

Team is directed to furnish the above-listed documents to the Case Team on or before October 10, 2022. Following the Case Team's receipt of the above-listed documents, the Case Team and Plaintiff are to confer and attempt to resolve or narrow the disputes regarding claims of executive privilege and designations pursuant to the Presidential Records Act. On or before October 20, 2022,<sup>1</sup> the parties shall submit to the Special Master an updated log containing any remaining disputes regarding the above-listed documents.

As to the remaining Filter A and C Materials, the undersigned will endeavor to promptly issue a report making recommendations regarding Plaintiff's assertions of attorney-client privilege and/or attorney work product doctrine, which will be submitted to the Court for review in accordance with the Order Appointing Special Master, ECF 91.

II. Filter B Materials

The parties jointly recommend that the Special Master not resolve disputes concerning the Filter B Materials, with one exception discussed below. See Cover Letter at 2. The parties also agree that the original Filter B Materials should be returned to Plaintiff. Id. Accordingly, the Court directs the Privilege Review Team to release the original Filter B Materials to Plaintiff by October 10, 2022.

The parties disagree "whether the Special Master should make a privilege determination with respect to" the document bearing the Bates stamp B-076, a letter in the Privilege B Materials. Cover Letter at 2. Plaintiff has made no assertion of privilege as to B-076 and the parties agree that the document is not privileged. See Filter Log at 13. In the absence of any disagreement, there is no designation dispute for the undersigned to adjudicate. See Order

<sup>1</sup> See Order Accepting in Part and Rejecting in Part Amended Case Management Plan, ECF 125, at 4 (providing 10-day window for parties to meet and confer regarding disputed designations).

Appointing Special Master, ECF 91, ¶ 5.b.iv (ordering Special Master to issue a report and recommendation only as to those documents for which the parties disagree). The Privilege Review Team shall promptly return the original copy of document B-076 to Plaintiff along with the other Filter B Materials.

Finally, seeing no reason to insert the Special Master or the Court into the chain of custody, the Privilege Review Team is directed to maintain a control copy of the Filter B Materials, as it has throughout this litigation.
