

Instructions for Jury Questionnaire

You have been selected for consideration to serve as a potential juror for a trial that is scheduled to begin on May 20, 2024. You are here today for only one purpose: to fill out a juror questionnaire. Once you have completed the questionnaire, you are finished for the day. You will receive additional instructions before you leave the courtroom about when to return for jury service in this case.

This questionnaire is designed to determine whether potential jurors can decide this case fairly, based solely on the evidence presented at trial and the instructions on the law given by the judge. The information that you provide in response to these questions will be given to the Court and the parties. When you return for continued jury selection on May 20, you likely will be asked follow-up questions about your responses. Filling out the questionnaire now will speed up the process when you return for in-person jury selection.

It is important that you understand that the Court is sensitive to your privacy. The information contained in your answers will be used only by the Court and the parties to select a fair and impartial jury. The parties are under Court order to maintain the confidentiality of any information they learn from reviewing answers to this questionnaire.

Your answers to the questionnaire are under penalty of perjury, so you must answer them truthfully. Please follow the instructions below when answering:

- Answer each question carefully, truthfully, and completely. Your responses should reflect your own personal knowledge, beliefs, or opinions. Please keep in mind that there are no right or wrong answers. Every person has beliefs and opinions concerning many things. You should answer honestly with your true feelings, whatever they may be. Do not assume that any of your answers will qualify or disqualify you from serving on the jury.
- Do not consult, confer, or talk with any other person in completing this questionnaire. Your answers must be your own, and you may not ask for help in answering the questions.
- Please use blue or black ink. Do not use a pencil.
- Please write your assigned juror number at the top of each page. We ask this so that if a page becomes detached from your questionnaire, we are able to match it to the other pages.
- Please answer every question. Do not leave any questions blank. If a question does not apply to you in any way, write "N/A." If you cannot answer a question because you do not understand it, write, "Do not understand." If you do not know the answer to a question, write "Do not know."
- If your answers or explanations to any question will not fit completely in the space provided, please complete your answer on the pages provided at the end of the questionnaire. Be sure to include the question number that corresponds to your answer on the explanation sheets.

JUROR NUMBER: _____

- Do not write on the back of any page.

After you have completed the questionnaire, please certify the accuracy of your answers by writing your juror number (and not your name) on the final page, and return it to a member of the court staff.

In addition, now that you may be called to serve as a juror in this case, you must follow the instructions listed below. That means you must follow these instructions between now and when you appear for in-person jury selection in this case. The failure to follow these instructions could jeopardize the jury selection process and the fairness of the trial.

- Do not read, watch, or listen to anything related to this case, including but not limited to books, magazines, newspapers, the internet, television, radio, podcasts, or social media.
- Do not conduct any research about the case.
- Do not discuss or publicly post anything about this case.
- Do not discuss your possible service as a juror in this case with anyone, including your family members, friends, or employer, except as necessary to explain your absence from work or home.

Thank you for your cooperation with these instructions and for your careful and honest responses to the questionnaire. Your forthright and full cooperation is of vital importance to the administration of justice in this case.

PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY - PLEASE USE ONLY BLACK OR BLUE INK

Knowledge of Trial Participants and the Case

This questionnaire is for jury service in the trial of United States vs. Donald J. Trump, et al. The defendants in the trial are former President Donald J. Trump, Mr. Waltine Nauta, and Mr. Carlos De Oliveira, all of whom are presumed innocent. The trial will concern the alleged unauthorized possession by former President Trump of national defense information at the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, Florida; and alleged obstruction by all three defendants of the government’s investigation of the same. There has been media coverage of this case, and there is nothing wrong with having heard or read something about the defendants or the case. Final Questions

87. An indictment is not evidence. It is a document that sets forth the charges made against a defendant; it is an accusation. It may not be considered as any evidence whatsoever of a defendant's guilt. Can you think of any reason that would interfere with your ability to follow and apply this principle of law?

Yes _____ No _____

88. A defendant is presumed innocent and cannot be found guilty unless the jury, unanimously and based solely on the evidence in this case, finds that the government has proven his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The burden of proving guilt rests entirely with the government. The defendant is not required to prove his innocence. Can you think of any reason that would interfere with your ability to follow and apply these principles of law?

Yes _____ No _____

89. The United States has the burden of proving its case beyond a reasonable doubt as to each defendant and each individual count on the indictment separately.

a. If the United States proves a defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the defendant must be found guilty. Can you think of any reason that would interfere with your ability to follow and apply this principle of law?

Yes _____ No _____

JUROR NUMBER: _____

b. If the United States fails to prove a defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the defendant must be found not guilty. Can you think of any reason that would interfere with your ability to follow and apply this principle of law?

Yes _____ No _____

90. If selected as a juror in this case, you must consider the case of each defendant separately and individually. If you find any defendant guilty of one crime, that must not affect your verdict for any other crime, or any other defendant. Are you willing and able to follow this instruction?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____

91. Similarly, if selected as a juror in this case, you must consider the case of each defendant in this case based solely on the evidence presented to you and the instructions on the law that the Court gives you. You may not decide the case of these defendants based on whether other individuals have or have not been charged, or on opinions you may have about whether other individuals should or should not be charged with similar crimes. Are you willing and able to follow this instruction? / Would you be able to assess the evidence as against each defendant separately and potentially render a verdict against one defendant but not others?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____

JUROR NUMBER: _____

92. Jurors are the sole judges of the facts. However, the jury must follow the principles of law as instructed by the judge, including the Court's instructions on reasonable doubt and the presumption of innocence. The jury may not follow some rules of law and ignore others. Even if jurors disagree with or dislike the rules of law or do not understand the reasons for some of the rules, it is their duty to follow them. Are you willing and able to follow the law as the Court instructs you in this case?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____

93. One instruction the Court will give you is that the defendants in this case have the absolute right not to testify. However, one or more defendants may nevertheless elect to testify. If one or more defendant testifies but others do not, would you have an opinion about the guilt of a defendant who does not testify?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

94. Could you impartially consider the evidence of this case irrespective of a defendant's motive?

Yes _____ No _____

If no, please explain: _____
