NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE

The Court has directed the government to provide it Volume Two of Special Counsel Jack Smith’s Final Report “to facilitate the Court’s review of Defendants’ Joint Emergency Motion.” ECF No. 705. As the government has indicated, the Attorney General has decided that Volume Two will not be made available to the public while this criminal case remains pending because releasing its contents to the public would risk prejudice to the defendants. The only remaining issue before the Court is therefore whether making Volume Two available to the Chairmen and Ranking Members of the House and Senate Judiciary Committees for in camera inspection upon their request under the conditions identified by the government in its previous filings would risk prejudice to the defendants. A review of the contents of Volume Two is not necessary to make that determination.

As directed, see ECF No. 705, the government has provided to the Court for in camera review two hard copies of Volume Two: (1) an unredacted copy, stamped on the first page as “UNREDACTED”; and (2) a redacted copy representing what the Attorney General would make available to the Chairmen and Ranking Members of the House and Senate Judiciary Committees absent an order from the Court foreclosing those procedures. The redacted copy protects the secrecy of matters occurring before the grand jury, subject to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e), as well as information sealed by court order. Neither the redacted nor unredacted copies of Volume Two contain any classified information. The government is arranging for defense counsel to inspect unredacted and redacted copies of Volume Two, identical to those provided to the Court, before tomorrow's hearing.

Dated: January 16, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

BRIAN M. BOYNTON
Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General

MARKENZY LAPOINTE
United States Attorney
