TELEPHONIC STATUS CONFERENCE

Telephonic status conference held pursuant to request from counsel for the responding party, Mr. Perkins.

Court reviews current motion and response deadline (11/2/2023).

Court hears from parties.

The dispute concerns information on responding party's desktop computer, currently in possession of the GBI; information stored on a silver laptop, possibly owned by the former Coffee County Election Supervisor, Misty Hampton; other items Plaintiffs subpoenaed from responding party; and a privilege log from responding party.

Responding party has served a subpoena on the GBI for information on desktop computer. Responding party has no concerns about issuing a subpoena to Misty Hampton for any documents owned by the Board of Elections.

Plaintiffs are willing to make a list of other subpoena items they are concerned about.

Court lays out conferral step process on the discovery issue topics and orders parties to file a joint status report on the disputes with the Court by 11/8/2023.

Court stays the response deadline on Motion to Compel at this time to allow additional conferral.
