DISTRIBUTORSHIP AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is entered into as of April 15, 2005, between NOBLE FIBER TECHNOLOGIES, LLC, a Pennsylvania limited liability company (the "Company") and DERMA SCIENCES, INC., a Pennsylvania corporation ("Distributor").

BACKGROUND

The Company is the distributor of certain medical products more particularly described on Exhibit "A" hereto (together with any additional products which may from time to time be added to such schedule by agreement of the parties hereto, the "Noble Medical Products"). The Noble Medical Products are manufactured by or for the Company using silver coated fibers, fabrics and foams, that are proprietary in nature to the Company or to the manufacturer of the Noble Medical Products (collectively, the "Fiber Products"). The Noble Medical Products will be marketed under the certain trademarks (collectively, the "Noble trademarks") owned by Noble, including, without limitation: (a) SilverSeal®, (b) X-Static®, (c) The Silver Fiber®, (d) X-Shirt™, (e) Faster Better Smarter Silver™, and (f) Noble Biomaterials™.

The Company and the Distributor wish to enter into this Agreement pursuant to which the Distributor shall market and sell the Noble Medical Products in the United States and Canada (the "Territory") on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements herein contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Designation, Rights and Obligations of Distributor.

(a) The Company hereby grants to the Distributor, subject to the Distributor's performance of each of the Distributor's obligations under this Agreement: (i) subject to the limitations set forth herein, a limited, exclusive right (the "Exclusive Right") to market and sell the Noble Medical Products to the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia ("DSCP"); and (ii) a limited non-exclusive right to market and sell the Noble Medical Products throughout the Territory. The rights granted under this Agreement are personal to the Distributor and are not assignable without the Company's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld by the Company for any reason.

(b) The Distributor hereby acknowledges and agrees that, except with respect to the Exclusive Right, this Agreement will not affect or limit, in any way, the Company's right to: (i) enter into additional distribution agreements with one or more other distributors for sale of the Noble Medical Products within or outside of the Territory; (ii) sell the Noble Medical Products directly to persons or entities in within or outside of the Territory; or (iii) to restrict, discontinue or otherwise limit the manufacture, sale or other distribution of the Noble Medical Products in the Company's sole and exclusive discretion.

(c) The Distributor agrees that it will use its best efforts to aggressively market the Noble Medical Products in order to ensure the highest volume of sales of the Noble Medical Products in the Territory. The Distributor shall take such actions as are reasonable necessary to perform its duties and obligations hereunder.

(d) Distributor hereby acknowledges and agrees that it will not advertise the Noble Medical Products, the Fiber Products or the Trademarks, or otherwise attempt to sell or otherwise distribute the Noble Medical Products outside of the Territory without the prior written consent of the Company, which consent may be withheld by the Company for any reason, in the Company's sole discretion.

(e) During the term of this Agreement, the Distributor will not directly or indirectly be involved or interested in buying, selling, distributing or otherwise dealing in medical products containing silver coated fibers, fabrics or yarns within the Territory which are similar to, or would compete directly with, the Noble Medical Products. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Distributor shall be entitled to sell any existing inventories of competing products hereunder the longer of (i) sixty (60) days; or (ii) until the applicable Noble Medical Product is commercially available to the Distributor. If the Distributor identifies any medical product containing silver coated fibers, fabrics, yarns or foams, and the Company is not then manufacturing a similar product, the Distributor shall, prior to entering into any relationship for the sale or distribution of such products: (i) notify the Company of the Distributor's interest in selling or distributing such product, and (ii) provide the Company with the first opportunity to provide such product to the Distributor for sale or distribution by the Distributor.

(f) The Distributor will keep Company fully informed of any changes in local or general market or regulatory conditions of which the Distributor becomes aware which may affect Company's interests or the marketing or sales of the Noble Medical Products within the Territory.

(g) The Distributor shall immediately notify the Company, in writing, upon receipt of any complaints by any purchasers of the Noble Medical Products, detailing the name and contact information of such customer, the nature of the complaint, and any other information relating to such complaint as would be reasonably necessary in order for the Company to understand such complaint and to correct any potential problems relating to the Noble Medical Products.

(h) Distributor will keep accurate records of all contacts made with any person within DSCP or otherwise related to the selling of the Noble Medical Products to DSCP and to Noble Identified Customers (as defined herein). Distributor will furnish to the Company, within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter, an updated report setting forth: (i) the total sales of Noble Medical Products to DSCP and to Noble Identified Customers by the Distributor during such calendar quarter; (ii) the price for which the Noble Medial Products were sold to DSCP and such Noble Identified Customers, and (iii) the status of any negotiations with any Noble Identified Customers. For the purposes hereof, a "Noble Identified Customer" shall be a customer or potential customer for the Noble Medical Products, first identified by the Company and referred to the Distributor for the purchase of Noble Medical Products.

(i) Both parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the entering into this Agreement does not make the Distributor the agent, legal representative, or partner of Company for any purpose whatsoever, and Distributor acknowledges and agrees that the Distributor shall not have any right to bind the Company to any contract or agreement, whether or not related to the Noble Medical Products.

(j) The Distributor shall not alter any original packages or repackage any Noble Medical Products in any way prior to resale of the Noble Medical Products hereunder.

(k) Subject to the provisions hereof, the Distributor shall have the right to identify and select its own customers for the Noble Medical Products within the Territory, and to establish its own pricing for sale to customers. Title for the Noble Medical Products shall pass to Distributor upon payment in full of the purchase price thereof to the Company, and risk of loss for such Noble Medical Products shall pass to Distributor upon delivery of such Noble Medical Products to the Distributor.

(l) The Distributor shall at all times perform its obligations hereunder in accordance with all applicable local, state and federal laws, will qualify to do business in each state in which the nature of its obligations hereunder require it to so qualify, and will remain in good standing in each such state during the term of this Agreement.

(m) The Distributor shall set up and implement control procedures with respect to the Noble Medical Products in accordance with all applicable rules, laws and regulations.

(n) In addition to the foregoing, the Distributor understands and agrees that:

(i) the Distributor is acting as an independent contractor under this Agreement, and will be solely responsible for the payment of all taxes, employment-related claims and all other claims in connection with its business, including its performance under this Agreement,

(ii) the Distributor shall have no right or authority to assume or to create any obligation or responsibility, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of the Company or any of its affiliates, or to bind Company or any of its affiliates in any manner whatsoever;

(iii) the Distributor shall restrict its representations with respect to its association with the Company to the responsibilities described in the Agreement.

(iv) the Distributor shall not use the name of the Company or any affiliate of the Company on its letterhead or in any other manner not previously approved in writing by the Company.

(v) the Distributor shall not make any representations, warranties, or statements concerning the present or future business, operations, or products of Company or the Noble Medical Products, or utilize any sales literature not previously approved by the Company describing the Noble Medical Products or their use or application, without the prior written consent of the Company, which consent may be withheld by the Company, in its sole and absolute discretion.

(vi) The Distributor shall not, at any time or for any reason, take any legal action on behalf of the Company or its affiliates, or hold itself out as an official representative of the Company in connection with any legal action brought by or against the Company or its affiliates. If the Distributor violates any provisions of this section, the Distributor shall be solely responsible for all costs incurred by the Distributor or the Company (including its affiliates) resulting from the Distributor's actions. In addition, upon any violation of this provision by the Distributor, the Company shall have the right, in its discretion, to terminate this Agreement, effective immediately upon notice to the Distributor.

2. Sales through DSCP

(a) The Distributor shall be the exclusive distributor of the Noble Medical Products through the DSCP for so long as the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) The Distributor shall have a current, valid Distribution and Pricing Agreement (the "DAPA Agreement") with the DSCP, setting out the DSCP's then current pricing for the Noble Medical Products.

(ii) The Distributor shall meet the Minimum DSCP Sales Amount (as defined herein) of Noble Medical Products through DSCP during each twelve month period, commencing with the twelve month period beginning October 1, 2005. The obligations of the Distributor hereunder will be measured quarterly, on a rolling four quarter basis, beginning with the calendar quarter ending December 31, 2005. If, after any two consecutive calendar quarters, the Company reasonably determines that the Distributor will not be able to meet the Minimum DSCP Sales Amount for the applicable twelve month period, the Company may, in its discretion, terminate the exclusive nature of the Exclusive Right. Upon any such termination of the Exclusive Right, the Distributor shall maintain the right to sell Noble Medical Products through DSCP, on a non-exclusive basis, for the remainder of the term of this Agreement. For the purposes hereof, the Minimum DSCP Sales Amount shall be the minimum aggregate amount of Noble Medial Products required to be sold by the Distributor in any twelve month period hereunder in order to retain the Exclusive Right. The parties shall use good faith efforts to agree upon the Minimum DSCP Sales Amount. If the parties hereto cannot agree upon the Minimum DSCP Sales Amount within 120 days from the date of this Agreement, the Company shall have the right, in its discretion, to terminate the exclusive nature of the Exclusive Right. Upon any such termination of the Exclusive Right, the Distributor shall have the right to sell the Noble Medical Products to DSCP, on a non-exclusive basis, for the remainder of the term of this Agreement.

(iii) The Distributor shall not be in violation of any provisions of its DAPA Agreement, and its sales to DSCP under such DAPA Agreement shall comply with all applicable rules, laws and regulations relating to the same.
