Investigation of RIGGS

21. [REDACTED]

22. Through legal process, investigators discovered that RIGGS had five credit cards listed on his Equifax credit report. As of December 2022, all five credit cards were at or exceeding their credit limit with a total obligation of over $34,000 and a minimum monthly payment of $1,385. His debt obligations, excluding his mortgage, vehicle loans and educational loans, exceed $67,000.

24. Later that day, investigators received the results of a search and seizure warrant targeting SUBJECT FACEBOOK ACCOUNT, which was authorized earlier that day by the Honorable J. Mark Coulson, United States Magistrate for the District of Maryland. From that return, investigators discovered that SUBJECT FACEBOOK ACCOUNT was created on December 19, 2022 with the verified phone number [REDACTED] (SUBJECT TELEPHONE 2)<sup>3</sup>. According to the returned data from Facebook, the messages between SUBJECT FACEBOOK ACCOUNT and Drug Distributor 1 were consistent with the information investigators had already obtained.

26. Beginning on Friday, December 30, 2022, and ongoing through Friday, January 6, 2023, Drug Distributor 1 began communication with the person believed to be RIGGS [REDACTED] [REDACTED] using Facebook Messenger through the SUBJECT FACEBOOK ACCOUNT. [REDACTED], Drug Distributor 1 stated to RIGGS: “doubt u r being fed lies cause now I’m hear shit on my fucking phone and this shits bothering me. Who if feeding u these lies man. Drop the phone or call me. Shits old but I now want answer. I can’t get that kind of money but I want answers man. Give me something $$$.”

27. On Monday, January 2, 2023, RIGGS responded and began to negotiate a price with Drug Distributor 1 through Tuesday, January 3, 2023. The following is a portion of the conversation that occurred between RIGGS and Drug Distributor 1 from January 2-3, 2023:

<sup>3</sup> Through legal process, SUBJECT TELEPHONE 2 was found to be subscribed [REDACTED] beginning on December 19, 2022.

RIGGS: I can't answer without payment. Even a small payment I can get you your answers

Drug Distributor 1: I can get $1200

RIGGS: Can you do $2000?

Drug Distributor 1:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

but it ain't got nothing to do with me man I don't even got it like that I can try

Drug Distributor 1: I got $1500 and let u know where I put it.

[Tuesday, January 3, 2023]

RIGGS: Okay. Just put it in a grocery bag and drop it off at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] smithsburg. There's an old cabin there. Across from the cabin in a small foot bridge. Just set it in the woods by the foot bridge

RIGGS: I'll go ahead and give you the info. I trust you'll drop the money and won't screw me

RIGGS: I can't answer without payment. Even a small payment I can get you your answers

Drug Distributor 1: I've been waiting on this info you said you were going to send so I can drop this money off.

RIGGS: So the one who is putting this case on you drives [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

RIGGS: A good way to get him would be to sell him fake shit and later on ask him how it was

Later in the conversation:

RIGGS: If you make the 1500 drop then I'll just give ya the rest of the info and you can make the 300 drop RIGGS: Every buy he's done has been recorded. The audio conversations have been recorded. But he plans on testifying on ya...

28. As a part of a ruse, on or about January 3, 2022, at the direction of FBI investigators, the WRENS team received communication requesting that they provide scheduling information for a briefing. They were told, there was going to be a coordination meeting about investigation that was going to involve a wiretap beginning on or about February 1st. Specifically, the WRENS team, comprised of four troopers, including RIGGS, were told that the meeting would occur in February. RIGGS is the only member of the team who is not aware of the existence of the FBI investigation into the leak of information to Drug Distributor 1. The following is a portion of that conversation between RIGGS and Drug Distributor 1, which is a continuation of the ongoing conversation on January 3, 2022:

RIGGS: They're going up on a wire tap on your phone [REDACTED]. So everything will be monitored. Any call or text to another member will drag them into the Rico case....

RIGGS: So they'll be executing search warrants on your house, [REDACTED], and your dealers spots about a month or so after...

RIGGS: Just stop. That's the info for that price. It's up to you as to how you want to proceed and do what you gotta do. There's about tenfolds more info but that all requires more money. Each buy he does from you we put a tracker on his truck as well as follow him away from your place. Just fyi in case you try to tail him or something keep that in mind. But that's only for the buys. It's not all the time....

Investigators know this information provided by RIGGS [REDACTED] to be accurate about the federal investigation into the DTO. [REDACTED]

32. On the morning of Thursday, January 5, 2023, investigators placed $1,800 in US currency provided by the FBI behind the dumpsters in the rear of the Red Roof Inn. That area was then placed under constant surveillance. A review of data from a PEN register order targeting SUBJECT TELEPHONE 2 authorized the previous day began to show activity consistent with internet usage beginning at 7:22 AM, and again at 7:58 AM and 9:19 AM.

35. At approximately 10:49am, location data for SUBJECT TELEPHONE 2 showed that it was likely within .3685 miles, or less than 2,000 feet, of mile marker 27 on I-70. The Red Roof Inn used as the location for the money drop and MSP Barrack O<sup>4</sup> that RIGGS works out of are approximately 6 miles apart, and mile marker 27 on I-70 is the approximate halfway point between them along the most direct route. MSP official(s) informed investigators that RIGGS was on duty and working from Barrack O on the morning of Thursday, January 5, 2023.

36. At approximately 10:20 AM, after [REDACTED] left the vicinity of the Red Roof Inn, RIGGS messaged back: "Okay I'll get it sometime. What else do you need." Drug Distributor 1 responded, again at the direction of investigators: “run one of my dudes for a warrant” and RIGGS responded “Okay I can do that.”

37. On Friday, January 6, 2023, RIGGS responded and said, “[...] No warrants.” Drug Distributor 1 then provided another name for RIGGS to run for a warrant check and then asked RIGGS if he received the money, “I’m figuring u got that $$$$ ???” RIGGS confirmed that he did receive the money and stated, “Yeah got it. Okay.”

38. Based on the facts set forth in this affidavit, there is probable cause to believe that Justin RIGGS committed, is committing, and will continue committing the Use of Interstate Facilities, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1952(a)(3) and 1952(b)(1), and MD Code, Criminal Law, § 9-201, Using a Communication Facility to Commit a Drug Felony, specifically the aiding and abetting in the distribution of controlled dangerous substances, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 843(b) and 21 U.S.C. 841(a), and conspiracy to distribute controlled dangerous substances, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846, beginning in December 2022 through January 6, 2023.
