

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF TEACHERS, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

SCOTT BESSENT, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 8:25-cv-430-DLB

NOTICE OF FILING

As Defendants indicated in their opposition to Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary injunction, filed on March 13, 2025, it has come to OPM’s attention that additional employees who would likely be considered “DOGE affiliates,” as defined by the Court, see ECF No. 38 at 5 n.2—beyond those identified by anonymized monikers in the administrative record filed on March 7, 2025—were granted access to relevant OPM data systems. Of those additional employees, only three people (OPM Chief of Staff Amanda Scales, and two employees OPM identifies as OPM-7 and OPM-8) ever logged into any of these OPM systems. Defendants now supplement the administrative record with a revised version of the “Account Audit Creation” spreadsheet previously submitted as OPM-000076-88, additional system access and login information for all individuals that may be considered “DOGE-affiliates,” and additional materials regarding the access decisions. OPM also provides redacted employment documentation for the employees OPM identifies as OPM-7 and OPM-8. OPM’s supplement to its administrative record is attached as Exhibit A.

In addition, Defendants write to notify the Court of additional documents that the Department of the Treasury produced yesterday to the Court in Alliance for Retired Americans v. Bessent, No. 1:25-cv-00313-CKK (D.D.C.). Although Treasury maintains that the administrative record produced in this case on March 7, 2025 is complete, Treasury agreed in Alliance for Retired Americans to provide additional materials and a supplemental declaration in response to the plaintiffs' objections to Treasury's administrative record, in order to conserve the parties' resources and limit issues in dispute. Treasury also provided the court in that case with additional information regarding the Bureau of the Fiscal Service's forensic analysis of the activities of former Treasury employee Marko Elez. The materials Treasury filed yesterday in Alliance for Retired Americans are attached as Exhibit B.
