BARBARA ANDERSEN’S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SUPPLEMENT

Barbara Andersen¹ respectfully moves for leave to supplement her motion to intervene and to offer in camera testimony as to the correct solve of the Forrest Fenn puzzle as follows:

1. As Andersen has advised this Court, Sandau’s claim relative to the above is fallacious. The conclusion of the “Chase” has yet to come. The conclusion of the “Chase” has nothing to do with the above plaintiffs.

2. In addition to the matters referenced in her motion to intervene, this Court can clearly hear directly from Forrest Fenn that (a) the solve to his puzzle is more than 8.25 miles north of Santa Fe (not south like San Lazaro) and (b) that the treasure solve location was not at San Lazaro. See:

¹ Since Andersen’s last filing, Andersen had to activate her Illinois license to complete a post-trial brief there. Andersen is not licensed before this Court or with New Mexico state bar. She represents herself “pro se” as it relates to this proceeding.

B. <https://www.dailymotion.com/video/x6nxill> |

3. As Andersen advised this Court, Andersen also filed pleadings in the New Mexico probate matter to (a) offer to withdraw her claim without prejudice and (b) offer in camera testimony in that Court so as to rid herself and the Estate of fallacious claimants like Sandau, etc. Andersen has since withdrawn her claim against the Estate with prejudice given that the Estate through their attorney advised Andersen that the Estate does not hold title to the chest that is the subject of the “Chase”. A copy of the agreed order and the Declaration by Zoe Fenn Old to the probate court is attached herein as Exhibit A and is incorporated herein by reference. This Declaration clearly shows that the plaintiffs herein have no claim against the Estate of Forrest Fenn. (Andersen believes that the chest is held by an S corporation awaiting the real, fun end to the conclusion of the “Chase”...which again has nothing to do with plaintiffs herein.)

4. Because of the above representation of the personal representative of the Estate, Andersen’s offer to provide in camera testimony became moot. She withdrew that offer to that Court as part of her converting her motion to withdraw her claim against the Estate from without prejudice to with prejudice.

5. Andersen has no idea why the plaintiffs herein would be bothering the balance of the defendants herein. As noted in her motion to intervene, most people (including Andersen) accept Jack Stuef as an actor as part of the prank end to the Chase. Andersen believes that the prank ending to the conclusion of the “Chase” will be unraveled soon and, in that process, it will be clearly shown that the claims of the plaintiffs herein were and are in bad faith. (Andersen is hoping that this will occur prior to the Labor Day weekend.)

6. Andersen also notes to this Court that when Andersen sent her file-stamped motion to intervene to plaintiffs herein: A. Andersen was mocked/threatened by Kyle Sandau and B. advised that he communications would be blocked. As such, Andersen will mail this pleading to plaintiffs. Andersen again asks this Court to admonish plaintiffs herein for unprofessional conduct against Andersen and relative to these proceedings.²

Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, Andersen requests that this Court consider this pleading in supplement to her pending motion to intervene and to offer in camera testimony to this Court relative to the correct solve of the Fenn puzzle.

Respectfully submitted:
