Messages from Sage Humphries to the Buttons

+1 (562) [REDACTED]

To the loves of my life,
I'm finally in bed. I cleaned up all of everything and am ready for her to come in now.
I just want you both to know, that leaving this morning felt like torture.
I know with all of my heart where I'm supposed to be, and it's with you. I want to show you how dedicated I am, and I want to show you that I can be trusted. You have given me so much, and have selflessly poured your hearts into me. I am forever grateful for that love, for the time, and for your two amazing people. I am lucky, and I want you both to feel how much I value this relationship. I won't leave you, I won't compromise. I am yours.

For you two ***

Thank you for everything. Your patience, graciousness, and sacrifice is not unnoticed. I won't let you down anymore

I love you taylor, and I love you Dusty
