COMPLAINT

- Sexual Harassment
- Constructive Discharge

(42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et. seq.)

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

25 NATURE OF THE ACTION

26 This is an action brought by Plaintiff United States Equal Employment 27 Opportunity Commission (“EEOC” or the “Commission”) under Title VII of the 28

1 Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (hereinafter “Title VII”), and Title I of the 2 Civil Rights Act of 1991 to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of 3 sex and to provide appropriate relief to the charging party, herein identified as 4 “Charging Party,” and a class of aggrieved individuals (the “Claimants”). The 5 Commission alleges that AMTCR, Inc., AMTCR Nevada, Inc., and AMTCR
6 California, LLC, collectively dba McDonald’s (collectively “Defendants”) 7 engaged in a pattern of tolerating and allowing Charging Party and class of 8 aggrieved individuals, both male and female, to be subjected to severe or 9 pervasive sexual harassment and/or hostile work environment on the basis of sex 10 in violation of Section 703 (a) of Title VII. The Commission further alleges that 11 due to the ongoing sexually hostile and abusive working conditions and 12 Defendants’ failure to remedy the harassment, Charging Party was subjected to 13 constructive discharge in violation of Section 703 (a) of Title VII.

14 As alleged with greater particularity below, the Commission alleges that 15 Defendants subjected the Charging Party and a class of aggrieved individuals to 16 sexual harassment supervisors, managers, and co-workers at Defendants’ 17 stores/restaurants in Nevada, Arizona, and California. The sexual harassment 18 included, but was not limited to, constant groping, grabbing, and rubbing of the 19 arms, shoulders, thighs, and buttocks; offensive comments and gestures regarding 20 male genitalia; sexual advances; and sexual ridicule, intimidation, and insults. Due 21 to Defendants’ failure to remedy the ongoing sexual harassment, the Charging 22 Party and many other adversely affected employees could no longer tolerate the 23 hostile and abusive work environment and were subjected to constructive 24 discharge.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10 ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

11 17. More than thirty (30) days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, 12 Charging Party filed a charge of discrimination with the Commission alleging 13 violations of Title VII by Defendant AMTCR, Nevada, Inc.

14 18. Defendants participated in the Commission's investigation, including 15 by communicating with Commission enforcement staff and responding to requests 16 from the Commission for a position statement, information, and documents.

17 19. Prior to filing suit, the Commission issued Defendants Letters of 18 Determination on Charging Party's charge of discrimination, finding reasonable 19 cause to believe that Title VII was violated and inviting Defendants to join with the 20 Commission in informal methods of conciliation to endeavor to eliminate the 21 discriminatory practices and provide appropriate relief.

22 20. The Commission engaged in communications with Defendants and 23 provided Defendants the opportunity to remedy the discriminatory practices as 24 described in the Letter of Determination.

25 21. The Commission was unable to secure from Defendants a conciliation 26 agreement acceptable to the Commission.

27 22. On August 25, 2021, the Commission issued to Defendants a Notice

1 was unable to secure from them a conciliation agreement acceptable to the 2 Commission.

3 23. All conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been 4 fulfilled.

5 STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

6 24. Since at least 2017, Defendants have engaged in unlawful 7 employment practices in violation of § 703(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-8 2(a)(1) by subjecting the Charging Party to sexual harassment and constructive 9 discharge, and by subjecting a class of similarly aggrieved individuals to sexual 10 harassment, some of which culminated in tangible employment actions. The 11 unlawful employment practices include but are not limited to those practices 12 identified herein.

13 Charging Party was Subjected to Sexual Harassment and 14 Constructive Discharge

15 25. Charging Party, a seventeen-year-old male, was employed as a Crew 16 Member at Defendants' McDonald's store in Boulder City, Nevada from January 17 2017 to May 2017.

18 26. During the course of his employment, Charging Party was subjected 19 to a sexually hostile work environment on almost a daily basis by fifty-four year-20 old Cook and Crew Trainer, which included: a) unwanted patting, caressing, and 21 rubbing of Charging Party's back, shoulders, thighs, and buttocks, b) sexual 22 advances, c) sexually suggestive lewd facial expressions; and d) and sexually 23 offensive comments such as you don't know what you like until you try it.

24 27. Charging Party found this conduct unwelcome. He repeatedly asked 25 the Cook and Crew Trainer to stop touching him on multiple occasions. However, 26 the unwanted touching and sexual harassment continued.

27 28. Charging Party opposed the sexual harassment by the Cook and Crew 28

1 Trainer by complaining to his supervisors in February 2017 and March 2017.
2 Charging Party's mother also visited the McDonald's store sometime in March 3 2017 to complain on behalf of her son. Charging Party's mother told a manager
4 that the Cook and Crew Trainer "needs to stop putting his hands on my child." 5 However, Defendants never responded to any of these multiple complaints, and the 6 sexual harassment by the Cook and Crew Trainer continued.

7 29. During early April 2017, the sexual harassment escalated. In addition 8 to rubbing and caressing Charging Party's shoulder, back, and buttocks, the Cook 9 and Crew Trainer began to run his hands up and down Charging Party's thighs 10 towards his crotch area, but short of touching his genitalia. The Cook and Crew 11 Trainer would also make sexually suggestive and lewd facial expressions while 12 staring at Charging Party's crotch area.

13 30. Sometime during mid-April 2017, Charging Party again complained 14 to management about being sexually harassed by the Cook and Crew Trainer, but 15 the manager told Charging Party that she did not believe his allegations.
16 Defendants took no action in response to this complaint.

17 31. Sometime during late April 2017, the Cook and Crew Trainer cupped
18 his hand over his own genitalia in Charging Party's presence and motioned 19 Charging Party to walk towards him. Charging Party was highly offended and 20 immediately walked away. After Charging Party complained to another manager 21 about the Cook and Crew Trainer cupping his genitalia, the manager simply told 22 Charging Party to take the Cook and Crew Trainer's conduct as a "compliment" 23 that someone of the same sex found him attractive. The manager took no remedial 24 action in response to Charging Party's complaint.

25 32. The last incident occurred on or about May 10, 2017. As Charging 26 Party was bending down to pick something up from the floor, the Cook and Crew 27 Trainer suddenly moved in front of him and placed his crotch right in front of 28 Charging Party's face. Charging Party was furious and felt publicly humiliated

1 because other co-workers saw the incident.

2 33. Charging Party immediately complained to the manager but was again 3 told to “take it as a compliment that a person of the same sex is attracted to you.”
4 The manager did not believe Charging Party’s allegation that the Cook and Crew 5 Trainer had put his crotch in front of Charging Party’s face and took no action with 6 Charging Party’s complaint. The manager’s belittling comments about being 7 sexually harassed by the Cook and Crew Trainer and apathy compounded 8 Charging Party’s emotional distress, mental suffering, and humiliation.

9 34. Later that evening on May 10, 2017, Charging Party and his mother 10 drove back to the McDonald’s store to complain about the sexually harassment 11 incident that occurred earlier that day. When they arrived, Charging Party stayed in 12 the car because he was distraught, angry, and highly emotional.

13 35. After Charging Party’s mother entered the store, she complained to a 14 manager that her son had been sexually harassed again that day. At first the 15 manager seemed surprised that Charging Party had been sexually harassed and 16 responded with something to the effect “oh, he told you about that?” The manager 17 told Charging Party’s mother that she and the other managers have never received 18 sexual harassment training and did not know how to respond to such complaints.

19 36. Charging Party’s mother informed the manager that Charging Party 20 would not be returning to work at McDonald’s because of the ongoing sexual 21 harassment and Defendant’s continuing failure to stop the harassment.

22 37. Shortly thereafter, Charging Party filed a complaint against the Cook 23 and Crew Trainer with the Las Vegas Police Department for engaging in physical 24 and verbal sexually harassing conduct.

25 38. The harassment Charging Party was subjected to was unwelcome and 26 made her uncomfortable.

27 39. The harassment Charging Party was subjected to was severe and/or 28 pervasive.

1 40. Due to the ongoing sexually abusive work environment and 2 intolerable working conditions, Charging Party was forced to quit and 3 constructively discharged in violation of Section 703(a)(1) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C.
4 § 2000e-2(a)(1).

5 Other Aggrieved Individuals

6 Claimant 1

7 41. Claimant 1, an eighteen-year old male Crew Member, was employed 8 at Defendants' McDonald's store in Boulder City, Nevada, from July 2016 to 9 December 2017.

10 42. During his employment, Claimant 1 was subjected to sexual 11 harassment and unwanted touching on practically a daily basis by the same Cook 12 and Crew Trainer who was sexually harassing Charging Party. The Cook and Crew 13 Trainer would a) grab or rub Claimant 1's rear end, chest, and crotch area, b) touch 14 Claimant 1's biceps while calling him "strong man," c) get really close to Claimant 15 1's body, and d) make embarrassing comments about Claimant 1's weight and 16 muscles.

17 43. Claimant 1 complained to his managers on at least four to five 18 different occasions about the Cook and Crew Trainer's sexually harassing 19 behavior. However, Defendants did nothing and failed to stop the harassment.

20 44. The harassment Claimant 1 was subjected to was unwelcome and 21 made her uncomfortable.

22 45. The harassment Claimant 1 was subjected to was severe and/or 23 pervasive.

24 46. Due to the ongoing sexually abusive hostile work environment and 25 intolerable working conditions, Claimant 1 was forced to quit and constructively 26 discharged.

27 Claimant 2

28 47. Claimant 2, a sixteen-year old male Crew Member, was employed at

1 Defendants' McDonald's store in Boulder City, Nevada, from April 2017 to May 2 2018.

3 48. During his employment, Claimant 2 was subjected to physical and 4 verbal sexual harassment on practically a daily basis by the same Cook and Crew 5 Trainer who was sexually harassing Charging Party and Claimant 1. The Cook and 6 Crew Trainer would a) subject Claimant 2 to sexual advances, b) rub and touch 7 Claimant 2's shoulders, arms, and rear end, and c) refer to Claimant 2 as "baby" or 8 some other nicknames of a sexual nature.

9 49. Sometime in March 2018 as Claimant 2 was undressing and putting 10 on his McDonald's uniform at his parked car before starting his shift. As Claimant 11 2 was behind his car door undressing, the Cook and Crew Trainer approached him 12 after he had taken out some trash. When the Cook and Crew Trainer was 13 approximately ten feet away, he asked Claimant 2 in a sexually suggestive manner 14 to "close the door" and take his clothes off for him. the Cook and Crew Trainer 15 asked Claimant 2 a second time to take his clothes off and called him "baby." 16 Claimant 2 was horrified and said "no." the Cook and Crew Trainer was also 17 leering at Claimant 2's bare legs under the car door.

18 50. Immediately after this incident, Claimant 2 complained to two 19 managers about the Cook and Crew Trainer's sexual harassment. However, 20 Defendants did nothing and the sexual harassment continued.

21 51. The harassment Claimant 2 was subjected to was unwelcome and 22 made her uncomfortable.

23 52. The harassment Claimant 2 was subjected to was severe and/or 24 pervasive.

25 53. Claimant 2 was forced to quit in May 2018 because he could no 26 longer tolerate the ongoing sexually abusive hostile work environment and the toxic 27 work environment and grueling work hours were affecting the quality of his 28 schoolwork.

1 Claimant 3

2 54. Claimant 3, a nineteen-year old male Crew Member, was employed at 3 Defendant's McDonald's store in Boulder City, Nevada from early 2016 to late 4 2018.

5 55. During his employment, Claimant 3 was subjected to physical sexual 6 harassment on practically a daily basis by the same Cook and Crew Trainer who 7 was sexually harassing Charging Party, Claimant 1 and Claimant 2. The Cook and 8 Crew Trainer would a) firmly grab and grope Claimant 3's rear end, hips, and 9 thighs, and b) rub or caress Claimant 3's shoulders. Claimant 3 found this conduct 10 unwelcome.

11 56. Claimant 3 complained to two managers after a particular incident in 12 which the Cook and Crew Trainer startled him after he suddenly and forcefully 13 grabbed Claimant 3's hips. However, Defendants did nothing and the physical 14 harassment continued.

15 57. The harassment Claimant 3 was subjected to was unwelcome and 16 made her uncomfortable.

17 58. The harassment Claimant 3 was subjected to was severe and/or 18 pervasive.

19 59. Claimant 3 was forced to quit in late 2018 because he could no longer 20 tolerate the ongoing sexually abusive hostile work environment.

21 Claimant 4

22 60. Claimant 4, a twenty-one-year-old male Cook, was employed at 23 Defendants' McDonald's store in Blythe, California, from January 2016 to early 24 January 2021.

25 61. During his employment, Claimant 4 was subjected to unwanted 26 physical and verbal sexual harassment by his supervisors on practically a daily 27 basis.

28

1 62. For example, Claimant 4's General Manager would send Claimant 4 2 sexually inappropriate text messages.

3 63. Claimant 4 was also dating the General Manager's sister during a 4 four-month period while he was employed at this McDonald's. During this time
5 period, the General Manager subjected Claimant 4 to sexually offensive comments 6 regarding Claimant 4's penis in front of co-workers. For example, the General 7 Manager would openly comment about Claimant 4's penis size for everyone at the 8 store to hear. The General Manager openly told co-workers that his sister had told 9 him that Claimant 4 had a big penis, and that his sister should share Claimant 4's 10 penis with him. Claimant 4 found this conduct unwelcome.

11 64. On another occasion, another manager smacked Claimant 4's crotch 12 area. Claimant 4 immediately complained

13 65. The General Manager was also the hiring manager at this McDonald's 14 store. According to Claimant 4, the General Manager would message young male 15 applicants on Facebook with sexually inappropriate comments and conditioned 16 them being hired at McDonald's on whether they acquiesced to his sexual demands.

17 66. The harassment Claimant 4 was subjected to was unwelcome and 18 made her uncomfortable.

19 67. The harassment Claimant 4 was subjected to was severe and/or 20 pervasive.

21 68. The sexual harassment culminated in a tangible employment action
22 when Claimant 4 was forced to quit and constructively discharged in early 2021 23 because he could no longer tolerate the ongoing sexually abusive hostile work 24 environment.

25 Claimant 5

26 69. Claimant 5, a twenty-six-year-old female Shift Manager at 27 Defendants' McDonald's store in Blythe, California, was employed from May 2017 28 to mid-December 2020.

1 70. Claimant 5 was supervised by the same General Manager that was 2 sexually harassing Claimant 4.

3 71. During the course of her employment, Claimant 5 worked closely 4 with the General Manager and was forced to endure constant sexual harassment by 5 the General Manager.

6 72. The General Manager engaged in a hiring practice through 2020 that 7 Claimant 5 found sexually hostile and offensive. The General Manager was in 8 charge of receiving and reviewing job applications, interviewing applicants, and 9 making hiring decisions. The General Manager was particularly fond of the young 10 male applicants. After conducting interviews, The General Manager would message 11 young male applicants via Facebook and send them sexually inappropriate 12 messages and requests for dates. The General Manager admitted to Claimant 5 that 13 he informed these male applicants via Facebook that if they refused to sexually 14 engage with him and/or date him, he would not hire them.

15 73. In Claimant 5's presence, the General Manager would constantly 16 make sexually offensive comments about co-workers' body parts and physical 17 appearance.

18 74. During 2017 to mid-2019, many employees complained to Claimant 5 19 about the General Manager's sexual comments and conduct. Claimant 5 would 20 relay these employee complaints to upper management, but Defendants did nothing 21 to stop the harassment.

22 75. In July 2019, Claimant 5 felt compelled to compile a list of all the 23 sexual harassment complaints that she had received. Claimant 5 submitted the list of 24 complaints to upper management with a request for an investigation and remedial 25 action. Later in July 2019, an employee meeting was held at the store where 26 Defendants required employees were required to sign an agreement regarding 27 sexual harassment. However, no other remedial action was taken.

28 76. After the July 2019 employee meeting, Claimant 5 continued to 1 receive complaints from employees about being subjected to sexually offensive 2 comments by male managers and co-workers. These comments often related to co-3 workers' body parts such as breast size.

4 77. Sometime during early December 2020, Claimant 5 saw the General
5 Manager subject an eighteen-year-old female crew member to sexually offensive 6 physical conduct. More specifically, as this female crew member was working the 7 drive-thru, the General Manager walked up to her and flipped her breasts like a 8 pancake with white order dividers (long white sticks), and then giggled in 9 amusement. The female crew member yelled at the General Manager to stop and 10 was deeply offended.

11 78. By mid-December 2020, Defendants acknowledged that they had a 12 "sexual harassment problem" at this store. However, management at the store never 13 received support or guidance from the corporate/main office in Kingman, Arizona 14 to remedy and stop the harassment.

15 79. The harassment Claimant 5 was subjected to was unwelcome and 16 made her uncomfortable.

17 80. The harassment Claimant 5 was subjected to was severe and/or 18 pervasive.

19 81. The sexual harassment culminated in a tangible employment action
20 when Claimant 5 was forced to quit and constructively discharged in mid-December 21 2020 because she could no longer tolerate the ongoing sexually abusive hostile 22 work environment.

23 Claimant 6

24 82. Claimant 6, a nineteen-year-old female Crew Member, was employed 25 at Defendants' McDonald's store in Kingman, Arizona from June 2016 to January 26 2020.

27 83. During her employment, Claimant 6 was subjected to unwanted 28 physical and verbal sexual harassment by her supervisors.

1 84. Sometime in July 2017, a manager told Claimant 6 that she “needed to 2 wear lacy bras from Victoria Secrets because she didn’t want to step on [Claimant 3 6’s] boobs when she woke up.” Claimant 6 was deeply offended and immediately 4 complained to the general manager that day. The general manager denied that the 5 incident ever happened and did not believe Claimant 6’s allegations.

6 85. Claimant 6 also placed a call to the corporate/main office to complain 7 about the July 2017 incident and was told the incident would be handled. However, 8 Claimant 6 never heard back from Defendants or anyone from management 9 regarding her complaint.

10 86. Sometime in February 2019, Claimant 6 was subjected to sexually 11 lewd conduct by a male general manager. As Claimant 6 was bending down to pick 12 up trays from the floor, the manager suddenly walked in front of her and placed his 13 crotch area a few inches from Claimant 6’s face and told her to “get me drunk 14 first.” Claimant 6 believed that the manager was asking her to simulate performing 15 oral sex on him. Claimant 6 was visibly shaken and cried after the incident.

16 87. Claimant 6 immediately called the corporate/main office to complain 17 about the crotch incident with the manager but was again told by the person who 18 answered the call that “we will handle it.” However, Claimant 6 never received a 19 response to her complaint from Defendants.

20 88. The harassment Claimant 6 was subjected to was unwelcome and 21 made her uncomfortable.

22 89. The harassment Claimant 6 was subjected to was severe and/or 23 pervasive.

24 90. The sexual harassment culminated in a tangible employment action
25 when Claimant 6 was forced to quit and constructively discharged in January 2020 26 because she could no longer tolerate the ongoing sexually abusive hostile work 27 environment.

28

1 Claimant 7

2 91. Claimant 7, a twenty-five-year-old female Crew Member, was 3 employed at Defendants' McDonald's store in Kingman, Arizona from May 2020 4 to August 2020.

5 92. During her employment, Claimant 7 was subjected to unwanted 6 physical and verbal sexual harassment by her supervisor.

7 93. Sometime during late June 2020, a male shift manager started 8 caressing/rubbing Claimant 7's back and bra in a sexual nature. After Claimant 7 9 told the manager to stop, he asked her, "why, don't you like it?" The manager then 10 chuckled and continued rubbing her back and bra area.

11 94. Claimant 7 immediately complained to another general manager about 12 being sexually harassed and was told that she, the general manager, would handle 13 the issue. However, the general manager did nothing to address Claimant 7's 14 complaint. Claimant 7 was upset and confronted the general manager about not 15 responding to her complaint. Claimant 7 told the general manager in the presence 16 of other co-workers that she planned to quit and complain to someone who actually 17 cares about "underage" girls being sexually harassed at McDonald's.

18 95. Later that day, the male shift manager again grabbed Claimant 7's 19 shoulders and tried to grab her hips. After she told the male manager to stop, he 20 accused a fellow crew member of wanting to have sex with Claimant 7 and 21 commented that Claimant 7 had a "good set of tushies." After Claimant 7 22 complained about this incident, she was reassigned to cashier duties to be away 23 from the male manager.

24 96. Sometime during the summer of 2020, another fellow male crew 25 member began walking behind Claimant 7 and made humping motions toward her 26 rear end. The male crew member also made these humping motions to another six-27 teen year old female crew member which caused other employees to laugh.

28 97. During the summer of 2020, Claimant 7 ran into three (3) separate 1 instances where employees were half-naked and “making out with each other” in 2 the McDonald’s store. One of the female crew members who was engaged in a 3 “make out session” with a male swing/shift manager was approximately fifteen 4 years old. Claimant 7 later complained to the general manager about having to 5 endure employees engaging in “make out sessions” in the store, but nothing was 6 done.

7 98. Sometime during August 2020, Claimant 7 complained to the general 8 manager that another male shift/swing manager was spreading rumors at the store 9 regarding her sex life. One day after her complaint, Claimant 7 was fired.

10 99. The harassment Claimant 7 was subjected to was unwelcome and 11 made her uncomfortable.

12 100. The harassment Claimant 7 was subjected to was severe and/or 13 pervasive.

14 101. The sexual harassment culminated in a tangible employment action
15 when Claimant 7 was discharged in August 2020.

16 Claimant 8

17 102. Claimant 8, a twenty-seven-year-old female Crew Member, was 18 employed at Defendants’ McDonald’s store in Bullhead City, Arizona from 19 September 2018 to November 2018. The sexual harassment included but was not 20 limited to the following.

21 103. During her employment, Claimant 8 was subjected to unwanted
22 physical and verbal sexual harassment by her supervisors.

23 104. As soon as Claimant 8 began her employment, a male manager began 24 making sexually inappropriate comments on a daily basis, like telling her that she 25 was “hot.” Sometime during employment, the male manager asked Claimant 8 out 26 for a date, but she declined.

27 105. Immediately thereafter, the male manager cut Claimant 8’s weekly 28 work hours from forty (40) to just five (5). Claimant 8 did not complain because 1 she was a single mother and did not want to lose her job.

2 106. The harassment Claimant 8 was subjected to was unwelcome and
3 made her uncomfortable.

4 107. The harassment Claimant 8 was subjected to was severe and/or 5 pervasive.

6 108. The sexual harassment culminated in a tangible employment 7 action when Claimant 8 was subjected to a substantial reduction in work hours and 8 constructively discharged in November 2018.

9 Claimant 9

10 109. Claimant 9, a nineteen-year-old female crew member, was employed 11 at Defendants' McDonald's store in Laughlin, Nevada from April 2020 to early 12 2021.

13 110. During her employment, Claimant 9 was subjected to unwanted 14 physical and verbal sexual harassment.

15 111. On at least six different occasions, a male co-worker would walk 16 behind Claimant 9 as she was clocking into work and grab and/or grope her waist 17 and "private parts."

18 112. Claimant 9 complained to management on at least three different 19 occasions, but nothing was done to stop the harassment.

20 113. The harassment Claimant 9 was subjected to was unwelcome and 21 made her uncomfortable.

22 114. The harassment Claimant 9 was subjected to was severe and/or 23 pervasive.

24 115. Claimant 9 was forced to quit in January 2021 because she could no 25 longer tolerate the ongoing sexually abusive hostile work environment and was 26 afraid the harassment would escalate into something really bad if she continued 27 working at McDonald's.

28

1 Claimant 10

2 116. Claimant 10, a nineteen-year-old female crew member and shift
3 manager, was employed at Defendants' McDonald's store in Kingman, Arizona 4 from August 2017 to late March 2020.

5 117. During her employment, Claimant 9 was subjected to unwanted
6 physical and verbal sexual harassment.

7 118. On the evening of March 11, 2020, Claimant 10 and two male co-8 workers were cleaning the store in preparation for a "cleanliness" inspection by 9 upper management. Claimant 10 and a male crew member walked to the storage 10 room together to grab some items. When they were alone in the storage room, the 11 male crew member suddenly reached out and groped Claimant 10's genital area.
12 The male crew member stopped when Claimant 10 yelled at him to stop

13 119. Later that night, the same male crew member shoved Claimant 10 14 against the counter and groped her again. Claimant 10 again yelled at him to stop

15 120. On the next day, another female crew member reported the sexual 16 harassment incident because Claimant 10 was too distraught. Two days later, 17 management held an employee meeting to announce to everyone that the security 18 cameras did not tape the incident. Defendants did not engage in any remedial 19 action. As a result, Claimant 10 felt despondent.

20 121. A few days later, Defendants denied Claimant B's request for leave to 21 take care of an ill friend.

22 122. Shortly thereafter and without any prior warning, Defendants 23 suspended Claimant 10 for a week starting March 25, 2020.

24 123. The harassment Claimant 10 was subjected to was unwelcome and 25 made her uncomfortable.

26 124. The harassment Claimant 10 was subjected to was severe and/or 27 pervasive.

28

1 125. Claimant 10 was forced to quit and constructively discharged in late 2 March 2020 because she could no longer tolerate the ongoing sexually abusive 3 hostile work environment and was afraid the harassment would escalate into being 4 raped if she continued working at McDonald's.

5 126. Since at least 2017 through the present, other adversely affected 6 aggrieved individuals were subjected to a sexually hostile work environment and 7 quid pro quo sexual harassment by managers and co-workers at Defendants' 8 McDonald's stores within the tri-state region. The sexual harassment included but 9 was not limited to a) unwanted touching, groping, and grabbing of hips, neck, 10 shoulders, and rear end, b) sexual advances; c) leering, and d) sexually offensive 11 comments about body parts.

12 127. The sexual harassment was sufficiently severe or pervasive to as alter 13 the Charging Party's and the Claimants' working conditions and created sexually a 14 hostile work environment.

15 128. The Charging Party and the Claimants reasonably perceived their 16 work environment to be sexually abusive or hostile work environment, to the extent 17 Charging Party and many of the Claimants were forced to quit.

18 129. The Charging Party and the Claimants did not welcome the sexual 19 harassment by the managers, supervisors, and co-workers. They opposed and 20 rejected the sexually harassing conduct and sexual advances.

21 130. Defendants knew or should have known of the sexual harassment 22 experienced by the Charging Party and the Claimants because the sexual 23 harassment was constant, conspicuous, and perpetrated by managers, supervisors, 24 and co-workers.

25 131. Defendants failed to take prompt and effective remedial action 26 reasonably calculated to end the harassment, including but not limited to failing to 27 a) either investigate or conduct an adequate investigation, b) discipline the alleged 28 harasser(s), c) provide anti-sexual harassment training to managers, supervisors,

1 and co-workers, and d) provide written EEO policies and procedures in both 2 English and Spanish.

3 132. Defendants failed to end the harassment after the Charging Party 4 complained in 2017.

5 133. Defendants never disciplined any other alleged harasser(s) for 6 engaging in sexual harassment.

7 134. The effect of the practices complained of above, has been to deprive 8 Charging Party and the Claimants of equal employment opportunities and otherwise 9 adversely affect their status as an employee, because of sex.

10 135. The unlawful employment practices complained of above were 11 intentional and caused the Charging Party and the Claimants to suffer emotional 12 distress.

13 136. The unlawful employment practices complained of above, were done 14 with malice or with reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of 15 Charging Party and the Claimants.

16 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

17 Wherefore, the Commission respectfully requests that this Court:

18 A. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants, their officers, 19 successors, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, assigns, and all persons in 20 active concert or participation with each of them, from engaging in sexual 21 harassment and any other employment practices which discriminate based on sex.

22 B. Order Defendants to institute and carry out policies, practices, and 23 programs to ensure equal employment opportunities, and which eradicate the 24 effects of past and present unlawful employment practices.

25 C. Order Defendants to make whole Charging Party and other adversely 26 affected individuals by providing appropriate back pay with prejudgment interest, 27 in amounts to be determined at trial, and other affirmative relief necessary to 28

1 eradicate the effects of their unlawful employment practices, including but not 2 limited to back pay.

3 D. Order Defendants to make Charging Party, and other adversely 4 affected individuals whole by providing compensation for past and future 5 pecuniary losses, including but not limited to out-of-pocket expenses suffered by 6 Charging Party and other adversely affected individuals which resulted from the 7 unlawful employment practices described above in the amounts to be determined 8 at trial.

9 E. Order Defendants to make Charging Party, and other adversely 10 affected individuals whole by providing compensation for non-pecuniary losses 11 resulting from the unlawful employment practices described above in amounts to 12 be determined at trial. The non-pecuniary losses include emotional pain, suffering, 13 inconvenience, mental anguish, humiliation and loss of enjoyment of life, in 14 amounts to be determined at trial.

15 F. Order Defendants to pay Charging Party, and other adversely 16 affected individuals punitive damages for malicious and/or reckless conduct in an 17 amount to be determined at trial.

18 G. Award the Commission its costs of this action.

19 H. Grant such further relief as the Court deems necessary and proper in 20 the public interest.
