NEW YORK CITY, AS A MUNICIPALITY, DETECTIVE

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

JOSEPH JORDAN, P.O. JOHN VIRGIL GREEN,

CV 15

1946

ROSLYN N. STEVENS,

Defendants.

Plaintiff, Mark F. Coleman, acting pro-se, sets forth as his Complaint, as follows:

I. Parties:

- A. Plaintiff, Mark F. Coleman was and still is a resident of the county of Queens, City and State of New York. Plaintiff has an address of 115-45 173rd Street, Jamaica, NY 11434, where he gets mail.
- B. Defendant, Roslyn N. Stevens, was and still is a resident of the County of Queens, City and State of New York. Defendant Stevens has an address of 168-12 119th Avenue, Jamaica, NY 11434.
- C. Defendant, Detective Joseph Jordan is an employee of the City of New York, and a resident of the State of New York. Defendant Jordan has an address of New York City Law Department, Office of Corporation Counsel, 100 Church Street, New York, NY 10007.
- D. Defendant, Police Officer John Virgil Green is an employee of the City of New York, and a resident of the State of New York. Defendant Green has an address of New York City Law Department, Office of Corporation Counsel, 100 Church Street, New York, NY 10007.

- E. Defendant, New York City is an municipality duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Defendant New York City has an address of New York City Law Department, Office of Corporation Counsel, 100 Church Street, New York, NY 10007.

II. Jurisdiction:

The Jurisdiction of the Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331 and 42 U.S.C. 1983.

Defendant, New York City is also sued pursuant to Monell v. Dept of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 701 (1978).

III. Statement of Claim:

There are two (2) separate claims that are being brought in this one document. Both claims involve the actions of the same defendants, New York City (NYPD) and Roslyn Stevens, on different occasions. Therefore each claim will be addressed and listed in order of occurrence.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

CLAIM I.

On January 13, 2013, defendant Joseph Jordan, arrested plaintiff, Mark F. Coleman without probable cause, and acting under color of state law [in violation of 42 USC 1983], based on his claim of being informed by defendant Roslyn N. Stevens, that: ["Mark F. Coleman"]....defendant then punched holes in the walls of her apartment, threw paint in the apartment..."

Joseph Jordan claimed he was informed by defendant Stevens, that:" [Mark F. Coleman] "....did not have permission or A uthority to Damage, Break, or Otherwise Alter the Walls of Her Apartment or Furniture...."

See Exhibit "A," Criminal Court Complaint 2013QN003262.

Defendant Roslyn N. Stevens, gave false information in reporting the events stated above, in that Stevens knew she was not the owner of the property. Defendant Jordan and the Queens County District Attorney was negligent in failing to investigate the truth of the statements given by Stevens. Yet, at some point early in January 2013, the district attorney's office realized there was no probable cause for the arrest, still prosecuted plaintiff knowing nothing supported such prosecution. The evidence of the lack of probable cause having become known is proved by the fact, the district attorney never filed a statement of readiness with the court, thus, the subsequent dismissal of the charges.

Defendant New York City by the Office of the Queens County District Attorney, prosecuted plaintiff Mark F. Coleman for exactly one (1) year and one (1) day, and lacking probable cause or evidence to support the alleged charges, the Court dismissed and sealed all charges on January 14, 2014.

See Exhibit "B," Certificate of Disposition-Number 250730.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

CLAIM II.

On or about February 2013, defendant John Virgilgreen, arrested plaintiff, Mark F. Coleman without probable cause, and acting under color of state law [in violation of 42 USC 1983], based on his claim: "...HE IS INFORMED BY THE COMPLAINANT, ROSALINE STEVENS THAT AT APPROXIMATELY 2000 HOURS ON FEBRUARY 2, 2013 AT THE ABOVE MENTIONED PLACE OF OCCURRENCE, THE DEFENDANT MARK COLEMAN BANGED ON THE COMPLAINANTS FRONT DOOR STATING TO THE COMPLAINANT IN SUM AND SUBSTANCE, LET ME IN."

See Exhibit "C," Criminal Court Complaint 2013QN007378.

Here again, defendant Roslyn N. Stevens falsely reported a new incident to the police (113th precinct) and the District Attorney attempted to use this incident to rehabilitate its original case. Once again, knowing there was no probable cause to arrest or continue the prosecution, plaintiff was made to repeatedly appear in court (for one (1) year) only to subsequently have the charges dismissed. The prosecution in this second case also never filed a certificate of readiness with the court. Thus, the one year of prosecution of plaintiff was clearly malicious.

Thereafter on January 14, 2014, defendant City of New York by its Queens County District Attorney's Office moved to dismiss the criminal charges as to both of the above mentioned criminal complaints.

The record of January 14, 2007, shows:

THE COURT: October 1st, you stated not ready. You agreed to file a certificate of readiness. There is not one in the file that I can see since October 1st. People?

MR. FOGARTY: Judge, the people concede.

THE COURT: So that's 262 and 378 that they were consolidated together. It will be dismissed and sealed 30.30

See Exhibit "D," Transcript of January 14, 2014. pages 1- 4.

Plaintiff Mark F. Coleman, complains of the defendants together that they:
(1) Commenced a criminal proceeding against him, in which officer Jordan nor officer Virgilgreen submitted sworn complaints against plaintiff.

(2) The criminal proceedings terminated in favor of Mark F. Coleman, as proved by the transcript of January 14, 2014, (ref to Ex "D.").

(3) The criminal proceedings lacked probable cause. Defendant Stevens at the time of the criminal cases, was not the property owner as alleged in either criminal complaint. While plaintiff Mark F. Coleman, was the lawful owner of the property, by operation of NY State Law, listed in both criminal complaints. Thus, there was no probable cause for arrest, nor issuance of the order of protection in either case. The prosecution never filed a certificate of readiness as agreed with the court simply because they lacked probable cause for the arrest and prosecution of plaintiff.

(4) The criminal proceedings were brought out of actual malice. Plaintiff, Mark F. Coleman has a long history of arrest by the 113th precinct [the 911 tape reflects this malice] and defendant Stevens exhibited malice against plaintiff over ownership of property Stevens fraudulently obtained from her own family members and was exposed by plaintiff Mark F. Coleman. The Queens County DA's office was aware of the civil proceedings involving the property at issue but yet choose to pursue the criminal prosecution of Mark F. Coleman, purely out of actual malice. The Queens County DA's office prosecuted plaintiff out of pure malice, which is evident in the fact all charges were non-felony offense's and should have otherwise been dismissed after ninety one (91) days, yet in plaintiff's case, it took one (1) year, or four times the length of time had it been any other citizen of New York City. Finally, the DA's office knew plaintiff was in pain and suffering as the result of spinal damage from recent radiation treatment for cancer, yet dragged both cases out eight months pass the CPL 30.30 time knowing they would not go to trial on either one. These action can only be said to be malice with intention to harm and deprive in an illegal or immoral way.

The actions complained of herein were duly presented to defendant City of New York in the provided "Personal Injury Claim Form," date stamped 2014 APR 11 PM 1:52. No action has been taken by defendant NYC.

See Exhibit "E," Personal Injury Claim Form. pages 1-5.

Thereafter the defendant City of New York Office of the Comptroller acknowledged receipt of plaintiff's claim and said claim was assigned Claim No. 2014PI011677. The claim form clearly states "any lawsuit against the City must be started within one year and ninety days from the date of occurrence."

See Exhibit "F," Acknowledgment of Claim, dated 04/15/2014.

The actions complained of herein are violations of plaintiffs 4th, 5th and 14th Constitutional rights to due process of law. These claims present questions of Federal law and violations of 42 USC 1983 against plaintiff. The actions of the defendant(s) caused plaintiff to spend at least three(3) days or seventy two (72) hours in the city jail "bullpens," and one (1) year of restricted movement of release on "ROR." In other words, plaintiff suffered post-arraignment restraint of his liberty and had to render himself at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the court. These restrictions implicated plaintiffs fourth amendment rights, as such they amount to seizures for fourth amendment purposes.

The plaintiff suffers from lower back and leg damage in the form of degenerative disc disease, pinched nerve, hypertrophy of facet joints which cause spinal stenosis. Plaintiff claims he suffered actual pain and physical harm, over the course of one (1) year of malicious prosecution and having been falsely arrested.

Plaintiff, further asserts he lost rental income from the lost usage of his property based on the baseless issued order of protection.

Therefore, plaintiff states claim I. is a claim of (a) malicious prosecution and (b) false arrest, and (C) seizure under the fourth amendment. Claim II. is a claim of (a) malicious prosecution and (b) false arrest, and (C) seizure under the fourth amendment. Defendant New York City is being sued because it failed to properly train and supervise its employee's, that is: the Queens County District Attorney's Office, Detective Joseph Jordan and Police Officer John Virgilgreen.

Thus, plaintiff seeks $ 1, 000,000 in damages, and all other relief the court deems just and proper.

3 MR. REIBSTEIN: For the defendant, Assigned
4 Counsel Plan by Zachary Reibstein.

5 THE COURT: So one of these dockets are
6 combined, 378 and 262.

7 MR. REIBSTEIN: Correct, Judge. Those are on
8 for trial. I believe the case is 30.30 today. They 9 have not be ready since October 1st. They have never
10 filed any sort of certificates of readiness. I
11 conferenced it with the People and I believe they said
12 that as long as the court file agrees with it, they will
13 be conceding. I checked the court file. I believe it
14 confirms.

15 THE COURT: October 1st, you stated not ready.
16 You agreed to file a certificate of readiness. There is 17 not one in the file that I can see since October 1st.
18 People?

19 MR. FOGARTY: Judge, the People concede.

20 THE COURT: ~~So~~ that's 262 and 378 that they
21 were consolidated together. It will be dismissed and 22 sealed 30.30.

23 MR. REIBSTEIN: Just for the record, just for 24 my understanding and so my client understands, those two 25 cases are dismissed and sealed and the order of

PROCEEDINGS

1 protection is vacated?

2 THE COURT: That's correct.

3 MR. REIBSTEIN: Just making sure.

4 THE COURT: I will put it on just in case they
5 weren't officially done in the computer.

6 MR. REIBSTEIN: I appreciate that.

7 THE COURT: So that leaves docket 715, which
8 looks like it was ten days of community service. He was 9 supposed to bring me proof today.

10 MR. REIBSTEIN: It was private, Your Honor.
11 He's being doing it at Big Sisters Organization on 12 Merrick Boulevard. He doesn't have that letter today.
13 He neglected to get that, unfortunately. We have
14 contact information if you want to do that.

15 THE COURT: No, I'm not contacting them. He 16 needs to get a letter. I don't have time to call the 17 community service. That was his responsibility. It's 18 not just to do community service; he needs to bring a
19 letter to show proof of it.

20 MR. REIBSTEIN: Can we have an adjournment for 21 him to do so?

22 THE COURT: Yes. When do you want to come back
23 to show proof, Mr. Reibstein?

24 MR. REIBSTEIN: A few weeks, Judge. It has to 25 be a Friday.

1 THE COURT: How's February 21? That is a
2 Friday.

3 MR. REIBSTEIN: All right. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: February 21st. I'm marking it
5 final. You need to finish all the of the ten days. You
6 were given an opportunity to do it privately, that
7 everybody doesn't get to do. But if you haven't done it
8 by February 21st, you could get 15 days in jail; do you
9 understand?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: It's not just doing it, you need to 12 bring proof because the Court needs proof. Otherwise,
13 it's as if you didn't do it.

14 MR. REIBSTEIN: My client will show he's met
15 all his responsibilities on February 21st.

16 THE COURT: Great. Good luck to you.

17 MR. REIBSTEIN: On the that case that's
18 dismissed today, I will ask that bail be exonerated.

19 THE COURT: I will exonerate on both. I don't
20 know which one had bail on it.
