- 18. At the time and location of Plaintiff's arrest Plaintiff asked Defendant NYPD DET. Hilt and NYPD DET. Satory about her aforementioned belongings, specifically her handbag and its contents, as described above, that was located in the basement of said location.
- 19. NYPD DET. Hilt and NYPD DET. Satory assured Plaintiff that Plaintiff's handbag and the contents therein would be taken into NYPD custody and properly vouchered in the 109 Pct.
- 20. Immediately after Plaintiff was placed under arrest Plaintiff's daughter Theionfi Vlahaki arrived on the scene.
- 21. Plaintiff's daughter asked individual Defendant NYPD DET. Hilt and NYPD DET. Satory what would happen to her mother's handbag that Plaintiff's daughter knows and saw her mother leave with her aforementioned hang bag in the morning prior to the arrest.
- 22. NYPD DET. Hilt and NYPD DET. SATORY assured Plaintiff's daughter that said bag and the aforementioned contents located in the basement in the aforementioned hand bag, would be retrieved by themselves and properly vouchered.

- 23. Wary of NYPD DET. Hilt and NYPD DET. Satory earnestness, Plaintiff's daughter, Theionfi Vlahaki, queried individual defendants NYPD DET. Hilt, NYPD DET. Satory and NYPD DET. Austin about the status and destiny of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's aforementioned handbag and the aforementioned contents. All three (3) of the aforementioned individual defendants assured Plaintiff's daughter that Plaintiff's handbag would be taken into NYPD custody and properly vouchered. When Plaintiff's daughter arrived at the 109th Pct. House shortly after her mother's arrest to inquire about her mother, and her mother's handbag and contents along with plaintiff's jewelry that was worn by her at time of arrest and plaintiff's cellular phone, Plaintiff's daughter was told by individual Defendant Desk Sargent that there was no such handbag in question and said handbag was not part of any vouchered property of Plaintiff.
- 24. Plaintiff's daughter questioned NYPD DET. Austin at New York Hospital Queens about her mother's bag and again she was assured that if the plaintiff's bag was in her possession that the plaintiff's bag is at the 109 Pct.
- 25. On information and belief Plaintiff's handbag and all aforementioned valuable contents were at best negligently handled and/or misappropriated by Defendants or at worst stolen by said individual Defendants.
- 26. At the 109 Pct. Plaintiff was ordered by individual police officer (who escorted plaintiff to the precinct ) to surrender the aforementioned jewelry she was wearing. Plaintiff refused to comply and requested that she surrender her jewelry directly to the Captain. This request was denied.
- 27. Plaintiff was ordered to surrender her jewelry to individual Defendant who was a red headed female police officer. This red headed female police officer was send by the sergeant on duty to have plaintiff surrender her jewelry. Plaintiff did comply by surrendering her jewelry to said individual Defendant. Individual Defendant placed said jewelry on a desk located immediately outside said holding cell, searched plaintiff and then placed Plaintiff in the holding cell.
- 28. Plaintiff was moved to another holding cell by a male police officer.
- 29. After approximately 4 hours during which time Plaintiff's jewelry was let unattended on the desk, Plaintiff was removed from the second cell by individual Police Administrator Farell and was taken for fingerprinting and mug shots. Said defendant then returned the plaintiff in to the holding cell.
- 30. At that time individual Defendant Police Administrator Farell looked at each of the Plaintiff's jewelry that was on the desk and filled out the voucher. Said Individual defendant placed plaintiff's jewelry in a plastic bag. Plaintiff asked to the said defendant to provide her with the voucher but said defendant said to plaintiff that she will give the voucher to plaintiff's daughter Theionfi Vlahaki who is waiting upstairs in the detective unit with the children. Plaintiff's daughter was never provided the voucher.

31. At the time of Plaintiff's arrest Plaintiff was at said location accompanied by Plaintiff's sons Dimitrios Vlahakis age 23 and Alexander Vartholomeou age 8, and Plaintiff's two grandchildren Katherine Vlahaki age 3, and Maria Vlahaki age 2 who were .At the time of plaintiff's arrest their were two (2) dogs present at the time in the back yard.
32. Plaintiff was at said location at the behest of individual Defendant NYPD DET. HILT that earlier that day called Plaintiff on her cell phone and ordered her to go to said location so that he may talk to her about an on-going investigation of her son Angelos Vlahakis in effect to lure her to the said location ( in which plaintiff was not living their. The home 14709 41 st ave is burned) in order to entrap her concerning said investigation.
33. At the time of Plaintiff's arrest, Plaintiff's son Dimitrios Vlahakis was also arrested. Plaintiff was handcuffed at the front door when NYPD DET. Hilt entered plaintiffs property and went straight down to the basement where he removed the plaintiffs electronics, plaintiffs jewelry and plaintiffs wallet from her bag. NYPD DET. Hilt then passed by in front of the plaintiff with all of her personal belongings in his hands that were in her bag and walked out the front door where all the other officers were present and he stated " we got it". Plaintiff then asked NYPD DET. Hilt " what is it you have? Where are you going with my things from my bag? Where is my bag? ". NYPD DET. Hilt told the plaintiff that her bag and all of her personal belongings will be going with her to the precinct to be " properly vouched". Plaintiff reached out to NYPD DET. Hilt and to the 109 Precinct in regards to her bag and personal property. Plaintiff got no response from NYPD DET. Hilt or the 109 Pct about her bag or personal belongings. Plaintiff filed papers in the District Attorneys office in regards to her personal property that was removed from her home and the property from her bag. The district Attorney office told plaintiff that they refuse to provide her with a voucher and to return her property to her.
34. At the time of Plaintiff's arrest Plaintiff's daughter Theionfi Vlahaki arrived on the scene as she was already en-route to the said location unaware of any Police action but to merely pick -up Plaintiff's son Alexander and Plaintiff's two grandchildren to baby sit them.
35. Plaintiff's aforementioned minor son Alexander and her two grandchildren were taken to New York Hospital of Queens for medical evaluations where they were all given clean bills of health and released back to the temporary custody of Plaintiff's daughter Theionfi Vlahaki.
36. At that time Plaintiff's daughter was instructed by Defendants to return to 109 Pct. for further questioning.
37. Subsequently, Defendants unlawfully held Plaintiff's aforementioned children, and toddler grandchildren for twelve (12) hours without food or water.

38. Approximately ten (10) days after Plaintiff's daughter Theionfi Vlahaki returned to the 109 Pct. to retrieve Plaintiff's jewelry and further inquire about Plaintiff's aforementioned hand bag and all its contents.
39. Plaintiff's daughter received Plaintiff's jewelry with the exception of Plaintiff's One (1) diamond encrusted platinum wedding band valued at $13,000.00 and one (1) diamond encrusted gold ring band valued at $3,500.00
The aforementioned handbag , aforementioned contents and voucher(s) were never returned to Plaintiff's daughter nor Plaintiff. When plaintiff was released from Rikers Island she went to the 109 Pct to look for her property with her younger daughter . The plaintiff tried to make a police report on he personal belongings and her hand bag. The plaintiff asked the desk sergeant about her aforementioned hand bag and belongings and they refused to make a police report. Plaintiff asked to speak to NYPD DT.Hilt and he refused to speak to the plaintiff. The plaintiff was told by desk officer who was pregnant at the time told the plaintiff they only vouchered two (2) packs of cigarettes.

As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff Katherine Vartholomeou is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual Defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorney's fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Deliberate Indifference/Cruel and Unusual Punishment)

50. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 49 as if each paragraph is repeated verbatim herein.
51. Defendants acting under color of law and with reckless intent and deliberate indifference did deprive Plaintiff of her Constitutional Rights and directly caused significant emotional and psychological pain and suffering by unlawfully depriving her of her property and unlawfully detaining her daughter and two grandchildren thus violating Plaintiff's rights under the Eighth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution to not be subjected to cruel and unusual punishment.
52. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff Katherine Vartholomeou is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual Defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorney's fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Equal Protection Clause)

- 53. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 52 as if each paragraph is repeated verbatim herein.
- 54. Defendants unlawfully deprived Plaintiff of her rights to be free from illegal searches and seizures and subjected her to cruel and unusual punishment because of Plaintiff's National Origin, and/or race, or otherwise failed to intervene to prevent such treatment committed in their presence by other NYCD Officers.
- 55. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff Katherine Vartholomeou was deprived of her rights under the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution.
- 56. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff Katherine Vartholomeou is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual Defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorney's fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Intervene)

- 57. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 56 as if each paragraph is repeated verbatim herein.
- 58. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose Constitutional Rights were being violated in the presence of other Police Officers
- 59. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
- 60.
