II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, you may sue state or local officials for the “deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws].” Under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), you may sue federal officials for the violation of certain constitutional rights.

A. Are you bringing suit against (check all that apply):

- State or local officials (a § 1983 claim)
- Federal officials (a Bivens claim)

B. Section 1983 allows claims alleging the “deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws].” 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, what federal constitutional or statutory right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by state or local officials?

(1) Fourth Amendment, "unreasonable search/seizure clause"
(2) Fourth Amendment, "Due Process Clause" (3) Fourteenth Amendment, "Equal Protection Clause" (4) Fifth Amendment, "self incrimination clause"
(see attachment)

C. Plaintiffs suing under Bivens may only recover for the violation of certain constitutional rights. If you are suing under Bivens, what constitutional right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by federal officials?

D. Section 1983 allows defendants to be found liable only when they have acted “under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia.” 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, explain how each defendant acted under color of state or local law. If you are suing under Bivens, explain how each defendant acted under color of federal law. Attach additional pages if needed.

Defendant, an NYPD police officer stopped, searched, questioned, and detained plaintiff because they had authority as an employee of the NYPD, he would not have done such if he were not a NYPD officer.

III. Statement of Claim

State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant was personally involved in the alleged wrongful action, along with the dates and locations of all relevant events. You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

A. Where did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

571 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11215

B. What date and approximate time did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?

December 15, 2015 at approximately 12:30 pm

C. What are the facts underlying your claim(s)? (For example: What happened to you? Who did what? Was anyone else involved? Who else saw what happened?)

Plaintiff lawfully walking with an acquaintance, neither engaged in illegal or suspicious or notable actions, with plaintiff carrying an item that was completely wrapped in a "black colored" plastic bag with the contents totally obscured from identification, with a straw protruding and him "sipping." Defendant officer stopped him and asked, "Is that a beer can in the bag," or words similar. Plaintiff said, exactly, "No disrespect officer but I do not want to engage with your questions and would like to continue to my destination?" Defendant officer would not allow plaintiff to continue walking and said he would be arrested if he tried to walk on. Plaintiff then asserted to the officer that he was being profiled and the only reason he was stopped was because he was a Black male. Defendant officer asked, "What does race have to do with this." Plaintiff responded and continues to assert that the defendant NYPD officer had never detained a white male or female under similar circumstances. Defendant officer coerced plaintiff to open the black bag despite plaintiff's objections that the stop and detention had no legal basis. After opening the bag for the officer plaintiff believed the matter had ended and told the officer that he was tired of being stopped by NYPD and was going to sue. The officer who was questioning plaintiff by himself called his partner that was standing twenty feet away to come over. He was told to watch him as he went to the car and returned with a ticket although the can was non-alcohol beer and not subject to New York City prohibition against public consumption of alcohol.

Molina, Badge # 953123

IV. Injuries

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe your injuries and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and did or did not receive.

Plaintiff suffered emotional distress, embarrassment, anxiety, humiliation, shame, elevated blood pressure, anguish, anger, depression as a result of defendant's unlawful detention

V. Relief

State briefly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If requesting money damages, include the amounts of any actual damages and/or punitive damages claimed for the acts alleged. Explain the basis for these claims.

Plaintiff seeks permanent injunction prohibiting NYPD from stopping, questioning, detaining persons of color while walking in public, drinking, from something obscured from identification if there are no obvious indications of intoxication. Plaintiff seeks $5000 actual damages and $300,000.00 (three hundred thousand dollars) punitive damages because NYPD is already under injunction to refrain from this behavior and is failing to comply.

VI. Certification and Closing
